

First Merchants Corporation Completes Legal Closing of First Savings Financial Group Merger

February 2, 2026

MUNCIE, Ind., Feb. 02, 2026 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- First Merchants Corporation (NASDAQ: FRME) and First Savings Financial Group, Inc. (NASDAQ: FSFG) have finalized a merger of the two companies. Following regulatory approvals last month, the companies consummated their legal closing through a stock transaction effective February 1, 2026. As previously announced in late 2025, First Savings Bank will also merge with and into First Merchants Bank.

Headquartered in Jeffersonville, Indiana, directly across the Ohio River from Louisville, Kentucky, First Savings Bank operated several banking centers within southern Indiana. First Savings Bank also has two national lending programs, including a single-tenant net lease commercial real estate program and an SBA lending program, with offices located throughout the Midwest. Since its founding in 1937, First Savings Bank grew into one of the largest community banks in southern Indiana with total assets of $2.4 billion, total loans of $1.9 billion, and total deposits of $1.7 billion as of December 31, 2025.

"This merger strengthens our ability to serve Indiana communities with expanded capabilities and the same genuine, relationship-focused approach our customers expect," said Mark Hardwick, CEO of First Merchants Corporation. "First Savings Bank shares our commitment to community, culture, and long-term value, and together we are building a stronger, more diversified organization for the future."

"Our commitment to exceptional service, local decision-making and community engagement has always defined First Savings Bank" said Larry Myers, President and CEO of First Savings Bank. "First Merchants Bank is the ideal partner that shares these priorities and will help us build on that legacy while creating new opportunities for the customers we serve."

Following the merger, First Merchants Corporation will have assets of approximately $21.4 billion and will remain the second largest financial holding company headquartered in Indiana. The combined company, doing business as First Merchants Bank, will complete its integration during the second quarter of 2026.
