Loan Growth Annualized¹

	4Q22	2022 YTD
Commercial	10.6%2	8.8%2
Consumer	(3.1)%	9.8%
Mortgage	24.2%	59.8%
Total Loans – Adjusted	11.8%2	13.9% ²

- Strong Commercial growth for the quarter capped a strong full year growth across all the markets. C&I is the primary driver of the increase.
 The pipeline remains consistent to prior quarter-end levels.
- The Consumer decline in the quarter represents balance reductions within the Private Banking sector. The rise in loan interest rates shifted the priority of our PWA clients' approach towards loans and investments.
 For the full year, the Consumer portfolio experienced healthy growth.
- On balance sheet, prime Mortgages showed continued growth as adjustable-rate options are preferred to longer term, fixed rates. The pace of growth slowed from the 3rd quarter rate as did the pipeline.

Deposit Growth Annualized¹

	4Q22	2022 YTD
Commercial	(11.6)%	(8.5)%
Consumer	4.1%	(2.6)%
Total Deposits	(1.4)%	(2.2)%

- Commercial deposit declines are primarily within Public Fund accounts.
 We continue to balance margin expansion with funding needs.
- The Consumer segment quarterly growth comes from continued new account expansion and response to new CD and Money Market promotions.
