FIRST MERCHANTS CORPORATION

COMMUNITY BANCSHARES, INC.

YOUR VOTE IS VERY IMPORTANT

PROSPECTUS OF FIRST MERCHANTS CORPORATION FOR UP TO 2,250,930 SHARES OF COMMON STOCK AND
PROXY STATEMENT OF COMMUNITY BANCSHARES, INC.

The Board of Directors of First Merchants Corporation (“First Merchants”) and the Board of Directors of Community Bancshares, Inc. (“Community Bancshares”) have approved an Agreement and Plan of Reorganization and Merger (the “Merger Agreement”), pursuant to which Community Bancshares will merge with and into First Merchants (the “Merger”). This proposed strategic business combination will expand the second largest bank holding company headquartered in the State of Indiana. Following the Merger, the combined company will have over 100 banking offices in 26 Indiana counties, as well as two counties in both Ohio and Illinois, and have assets of approximately $5.9 billion, $3.8 billion in loans, $4.6 billion in deposits, and total shareholders’ equity of $700 million.

If the Merger Agreement is approved by the shareholders of Community Bancshares and the Merger is subsequently completed, the shares of Community Bancshares common stock owned by each Community Bancshares shareholder will be converted, at the election of such shareholder but subject to certain agreed adjustment, allocation and proration procedures set forth in the Merger Agreement, into the right to receive either (i) 4.0926 shares of First Merchants common stock, or (ii) $85.94 in cash. When making an election, Community Bancshares shareholders may specify different elections (cash or stock) with respect to different shares of Community Bancshares common stock held by them. Community Bancshares shareholders will also receive cash in lieu of any fractional shares of First Merchants common stock. In the event that the total amount of cash elections, cash in lieu of fractional shares and other cash payments required in the Merger exceeds $15 million, the adjustment, election, allocation and proration procedures mentioned above provide that cash elections will be adjusted and allocation will occur between cash and stock elections on a pro rata basis based on the total number of shares of Community Bancshares common stock held by each shareholder making such cash elections in order to limit the cash portion of the total consideration paid to Community Bancshares shareholders to $15 million. There is no limit on the number of outstanding shares of Community Bancshares common stock that may be exchanged for shares of First Merchants common stock at the 4.0926 exchange ratio.

We cannot complete the Merger unless a majority of the issued and outstanding shares of common stock of Community Bancorp vote to approve the Merger Agreement. Community Bancshares will hold a special meeting of its shareholders to vote on this merger proposal. Your vote is very important. Whether or not you plan to attend the shareholder meeting, please take the time to vote by completing the enclosed proxy card and mailing it in the enclosed envelope. If you sign, date and mail your proxy card without indicating how you want to vote, your proxy will be counted as a vote in favor of the Merger Agreement. Not returning your card will have the same effect as a vote against the Merger Agreement.

The date, time and place of the meeting are as follows:

November 3, 2014, 7:00 p.m., local time
Hamilton County 4-H Fairgrounds
Exhibition Center Dining Room
2003 Pleasant Street

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT THE MERGER AND THE SHAREHOLDER MEETING

Q: What am I voting on?

A: You are being asked to vote to approve the Merger Agreement, pursuant to which Community Bancshares will merge with and into First Merchants. First Merchants would be the surviving entity in the Merger, and Community Bancshares would no longer be a separate company.

Q: Why are First Merchants and Community Bancshares proposing to merge?

A: We believe the Merger is in the best interests of both companies and our respective shareholders. Community Bancshares and First Merchants believe that the Merger will bring together two complementary institutions to create a strategically, operationally and financially strong company that is positioned for further growth. The Merger will give the combined company greater scale and geographic diversity, not only for serving existing customers more efficiently, but also for future expansion. The combination will expand the second largest bank holding company based in the State of Indiana. We believe the Merger will enhance our capabilities to provide banking and financial services to our customers and strengthen the competitive position of the combined organization.

You should review the background of and reasons for the Merger described in greater detail beginning on page 41.

Q: What will Community Bancshares shareholders receive in the Merger?

A: If the Merger Agreement is approved and the Merger is subsequently completed, each outstanding share of Community Bancshares common stock will be converted, at the election of the shareholder, into the right to receive either:

- 4.0926 shares of First Merchants common stock; or
- $85.94 in cash;

in each case, subject to adjustment, election, allocation and proration procedures set forth in the Merger Agreement. Each Community Bancshares shareholder that would otherwise be entitled to receive a fractional share of First Merchants common stock will receive cash in lieu of such fractional share.

When making an election, shareholders may specify different elections (cash or stock) with respect to different shares of Community Bancshares common stock held by them, subject to adjustment, election, allocation and proration procedures set forth in the Merger Agreement. In the event that the total amount of cash elections, cash in lieu of fractional shares and other cash payments required in the Merger exceeds $15,000,000, the Merger Agreement provides that cash elections will be adjusted and allocation will occur such that shares subject to cash elections (not including any shares subject to a proper exercise of dissenters' rights) will be converted into shares subject to a stock election on a pro rata basis based on the total number of shares of Community Bancshares common stock held by each shareholder making such cash elections in order to limit the cash portion of the total consideration paid to Community Bancshares shareholders to $15,000,000. This limitation on the total cash consideration to be paid in connection with the Merger is designed to permit First Merchants to maximize and maintain its capital structure. There is no limit on the number of outstanding shares of Community Bancshares common stock that may be exchanged for shares of First Merchants common stock at the 4.0926 exchange ratio.

The allocation of the mix of consideration payable to Community Bancshares shareholders in the Merger will not be known until the results of the cash/stock elections made by Community Bancshares shareholders are tallied by the election agent, which will not be completed until soon after the date of the special shareholders meeting. No guarantee can be made that Community Bancshares shareholders will receive the amount of cash they elected.

Because the 4.0926 exchange ratio is fixed (except for customary anti-dilution adjustments), if you receive First Merchants common stock as consideration for all or a portion of your shares of Community Bancshares common stock, the implied value of the stock consideration that you will receive will depend on the market price of First Merchants common stock when you receive your shares of First Merchants common stock. The value of the stock consideration per share of Community Bancshares common stock, based upon First Merchants' closing stock price on September 23, 2014, the most recent practicable trading day before this proxy statement and prospectus was finalized, was $83.45 per share. No assurance can be given that the current market price of First Merchants common stock will be equivalent to the market price of First Merchants common stock on the date that shares of First Merchants common stock are received by a Community Bancshares shareholder or at any other time. At the time of completion of the Merger, the market price of the stock consideration could be greater or less than the value of the cash consideration due to fluctuations in the market price of First Merchants common stock. You should obtain current market prices for shares of First Merchants common stock which is listed on The NASDAQ Global Select Market under the symbol "FRME."

Q: What risks should I consider before I vote on the Merger Proposal?

A: You should carefully review the section captioned "RISK FACTORS" beginning on page 26.

Q: Will First Merchants shareholders receive any shares or cash as a result of the Merger?

A: No. After the Merger, First Merchants shareholders will continue to own the same number of First Merchants shares they owned before the Merger.

Q: When is the Merger expected to be completed?

A: We are working to complete the Merger as quickly as possible. We must first obtain the necessary regulatory approvals and the approval of Community Bancshares shareholders at the special meeting. We currently expect to complete the Merger during the fourth quarter of 2014.

Q: What are the tax consequences of the Merger to me?

A: The Merger is intended to qualify as a "reorganization" within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Internal Revenue Code"). A U.S. Holder (as defined in the section captioned "MATERIAL U.S. FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES" beginning on page 70) who exchanges all of its shares of Community Bancshares common stock solely for shares of First Merchants common stock pursuant to the Merger will not recognize any gain or loss on the exchange for federal income tax purposes, except with respect to any cash received in lieu of a fractional share of First Merchants common stock. A U.S. Holder who exchanges all of its shares of Community Bancshares common stock solely for cash will recognize gain or loss measured by the difference between the amount of cash received and the adjusted tax basis of the Community Bancshares common shares exchanged. A U.S. Holder receiving First Merchants common stock for a portion of its Community Bancshares common stock and cash for the remaining portion of its Community Bancshares common stock in the Merger will generally recognize gain (but not loss) equal to the lesser of (i) the amount of cash received in the Merger or (ii) the excess, if any, of the amount of cash and the fair market value of First Merchants common stock received over the U.S. Holder's adjusted tax basis in its shares of Community Bancshares common stock. A U.S. Holder who receives cash in lieu of a fractional share of First Merchants common stock will be treated as having received such fractional share of First Merchants common stock pursuant to the Merger and then as having sold that fractional share of First Merchants common stock for cash. As a result, a U.S. Holder will generally recognize gain or loss equal to the difference between the amount of cash received and the U.S. Holder's basis in the fractional share of First Merchants common stock determined as described above. At the closing of the Merger, Community Bancshares and First Merchants will each receive an opinion from their tax advisors that the Merger effected pursuant to the Merger Agreement constitutes a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code, and Community Bancshares will also receive an opinion from its tax advisor that no gain or loss will be recognized by shareholders of Community Bancshares to the extent they receive shares of First Merchants common stock in the Merger in exchange for their shares of Community Bancshares common stock, except that gain or loss will be recognized with respect to any cash received in lieu of fractional share interest. See “MATERIAL U.S. FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES” beginning on page 70. Your individual tax consequences will depend on your personal situation. You should consult your tax advisor for a full understanding of the tax consequences of the Merger to you.

Q: Will I continue to receive tax distributions from Community Bancshares?

A: Prior to the effective date of the Merger, Community Bancshares shall, subject to applicable laws and regulatory requirements, limitations and approvals, declare and pay a cash dividend to its shareholders (the “Final Tax Dividend”) in connection with the filing of the final Form 1120S, U.S. Income Tax Return of Community Bancshares (the “Final Tax Return”). If the effective date of the Merger occurs later than December 31, 2014, Community Bancshares shall, subject to applicable laws and regulatory requirements, limitations and approvals, also declare and pay a cash dividend to its shareholders (the “2014 Tax Dividend”) in connection with the 2014 Form 1120S, U.S. Income Tax Return of Community Bancshares (the “2014 Tax Return”). See “MATERIAL U.S. FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES” beginning on page 70 for additional information about the Final Tax Dividend and the 2014 Tax Dividend, including how the Final Tax Dividend and the 2014 Tax Dividend will be calculated. The shareholders of Community Bancshares should consult with their own tax advisors about the tax consequences of the Final Tax Dividend and the 2014 Tax Dividend, if applicable, as related to them.

Q: Will I have dissenters’ rights?

A: The shareholders of Community Bancshares are entitled to dissenters’ rights in connection with the Merger under Chapter 44 of the Indiana Business Corporation Law, as amended (the “Indiana Business Corporation Law”), a copy of which is included as Annex B to this proxy statement and prospectus. If you wish to assert dissenters’ rights, you must deliver to Community Bancshares written notice of your intent to assert such rights before the vote is taken at the special meeting. In addition, you must not vote in favor of the Merger either in person or by proxy. The procedure for dissenting is explained more fully under “THE MERGER – Rights of Dissenting Shareholders” beginning on page 58 and in Annex B to this proxy statement and prospectus.

Q: What do I need to do now?

A: You should carefully read and consider the information contained in this document and any information incorporated herein by reference. Then, please submit your proxy by completing, signing, and dating the enclosed proxy card and returning it as soon as possible using the enclosed postage-prepaid envelope so that your shares can be voted at the special shareholder meeting. If a returned proxy card is signed but does not specify how you wish to vote your shares, your proxy will be voted “FOR” approval of the Merger Proposal.

Q: How do I elect the form of payment that I prefer?

A: An Election Form is enclosed with this proxy statement and prospectus. If you wish to make an election, you should complete this Election Form and mail it in the postage-prepaid envelope provided to the election agent, American Stock Transfer & Trust Company, LLC (“American Stock Transfer”). For you to make an effective election, your properly completed and executed Election Form must be received by American Stock Transfer before 5:00 p.m. (Eastern) on November 4, 2014, the election deadline. Please read the instructions on the Election Form for information on completing the form. If you do not return a properly completed and executed Election Form by the election deadline, then you will receive First Merchants common stock for all of your shares of Community Bancshares common stock.

Q: Which form of payment should I choose? Why?

A: The form of payment you should elect will generally depend upon your personal financial and tax circumstances. We urge you to consult your financial or tax advisor if you have any questions about the form of payment you should elect.

Q: If I am voting against the Merger Proposal, should I still make an election?

A: Yes. If the Merger Proposal is approved by Community Bancshares shareholders and the Merger becomes effective, you will receive merger consideration based on the Election Form you submit, subject to the adjustment, election, allocation and proration procedures set forth in the Merger Agreement and described herein. If you fail to submit an Election Form, your Community Bancshares shares will be treated as if you elected to receive First Merchants common stock for all such shares.

Q: Can I exercise my dissenters' rights if I have submitted an election form?

A: Yes. If you are a Community Bancshares shareholder and vote against the Merger Proposal, you may still exercise your dissenters' rights even though you have submitted an Election Form, although your right to do so depends on your strict compliance with the requirements of the Indiana Business Corporation Law. In the event you perfect your dissenters' rights, any Election Form previously submitted by you shall no longer be valid and such dissenters' rights shall apply in lieu thereof.

Q: Can I change my election?

A: Yes. You can change your election by delivering a new Election Form to American Stock Transfer prior to the election deadline. After the election deadline, no changes may be made.

Q: Am I guaranteed to receive the form of merger consideration – cash, common stock or a combination thereof – that I request on my Election Form?

A: No. There is a limit of $15,000,000 on the cash portion of the total consideration to be paid by First Merchants to Community Bancshares shareholders in connection with the Merger. This amount represents approximately 31.7% (or approximately 174,350 shares) of the total outstanding shares of Community Bancshares common stock receiving $85.94 in cash per share. If the total amount of cash elections, cash in lieu of fractional shares and other cash payments required in the Merger exceeds $15,000,000, the Merger Agreement provides that cash elections will be adjusted and allocation will occur such that shares subject to cash elections (not including any shares subject to a proper exercise of dissenters' rights) will be converted into shares subject to a stock election on a pro rata basis based on the total number of shares of Community Bancshares common stock held by each shareholder making such cash elections in order to limit the cash portion of the total consideration paid to Community Bancshares shareholders to $15,000,000. Accordingly, shareholders making a cash election for all or a portion of their shares of Community Bancshares common stock may receive a form or mix of consideration they did not elect if total cash payments to Community Bancshares shareholders would exceed $15,000,000. Conversely, there is no limit on the number of outstanding shares of Community Bancshares common stock that may be exchanged for shares of First Merchants common stock at the 4.0926 exchange ratio. The adjustment, election, allocation and proration procedures are described in greater detail in this document under "THE MERGER – Exchange of Community Bancshares Common Stock" beginning on page 37.

Q: What if I don't vote or I abstain from voting?

A: If you do not vote or you abstain from voting, your abstention will count as a vote "AGAINST" the Merger Proposal.

Q: May I change my vote after I have submitted my proxy?

A: Yes. You can change your vote at any time before your proxy is voted at the special meeting. You can do this in one of three ways. First, you can send a written notice stating that you revoke your proxy. Second, you can complete and submit a new proxy, dated at a date later than your most recent proxy. Please submit your notice of revocation and/or new proxy card to Community Bancshares, Inc., 830 Logan Street, Noblesville, Indiana 46060, Attention: William C. Delullo, Corporate Secretary. Third, you may attend the special meeting and vote in person. Simply attending the special meeting, however, will not revoke your proxy. You must request a ballot and vote the ballot at the meeting.

Q: What constitutes a quorum?

A: The presence, in person or by proxy, of shareholders holding at least a majority of the issued and outstanding shares of Community Bancshares entitled to vote as of September 29, 2014, the record date for the special meeting, will constitute a quorum for the special meeting. The Merger (page 37)

We have attached a copy of the Merger Agreement to this document as Annex A. Please read the Merger Agreement in its entirety. It is the legal document that governs the Merger.

The Merger Agreement provides that, if all of the conditions are satisfied or waived, Community Bancshares will be merged with and into First Merchants and, immediately thereafter, Community Bancshares will cease to exist. Immediately following the Merger, Community Bank will be merged with and into First Merchants Bank and Community Bank will cease to exist. We expect to complete the Merger during the fourth quarter of 2014.

Reasons for the Merger (pages 43 and 44)

First Merchants. First Merchants' Board of Directors considered a number of financial and nonfinancial factors in making its decision to merge with Community Bancshares, including its respect for the ability and integrity of the Community Bancshares Board of Directors, management and staff. The Board believes that expanding First Merchants' operations in the market areas where Community Bancshares operates offers financial and strategic benefits to First Merchants and Community Bancshares as a combined company.

Community Bancshares. In considering the Merger with First Merchants, Community Bancshares' Board of Directors collected and evaluated a variety of economic, financial and market information regarding First Merchants and its subsidiaries, their respective businesses and First Merchants' reputation and future prospects. In the opinion of Community Bancshares' Board of Directors, favorable factors included First Merchants' strong earnings and stock performance, its management, the compatibility of its markets to those of Community Bancshares, the likelihood of regulatory approvals of the Merger, and the attractiveness of First Merchants' offer from a financial perspective. In addition, the Board of Directors considered the fairness opinion of SunTrust Robinson Humphrey, Inc. ("STRH"), described below.

Opinion of SunTrust Robinson Humphrey, Inc. (page 46)

The Community Bancshares Board of Directors retained STRH to render a fairness opinion in connection with the proposed Merger. At the meeting of the Community Bancshares Board of Directors on July 21, 2014, STRH delivered to the Community Bancshares Board of Directors an oral opinion, which was confirmed by delivery of a written opinion, dated July 21, 2014, to the effect that, as of the date of the opinion and based upon and subject to the conditions, limitations, qualifications and assumptions set forth in the opinion, the Merger Consideration (as defined below in the section captioned Opinion of SunTrust Robinson Humphrey, Inc.) to be received in the Merger by the holders of Community Bancshares common stock was fair, from a financial point of view, to such holders of Community Bancshares common stock, other than any holders who properly perfect their right to dissent under applicable law (the "Excluded Holders").

The full text of the written opinion of STRH, which sets forth the assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and limitations on the review undertaken in connection with the opinion of STRH, is attached as Annex C to this proxy statement and prospectus and is incorporated herein by reference. Community Bancshares shareholders are urged to read STRH's written opinion carefully and in its entirety. STRH's opinion is limited solely to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the Merger Consideration to be received in the Merger by the holders of Community Bancshares common stock (other than any Excluded Holders) and does not address Community Bancshares' underlying business decision to effect the Merger or the relative merits of the Merger as compared to any alternative business strategies or transactions that might be available with respect to Community Bancshares. STRH's opinion does not constitute a recommendation to any shareholder of Community Bancshares as to how such shareholder should vote or act with respect to any matter relating to the Merger or otherwise, including whether a holder of Community Bancshares common stock should elect to receive the Cash Consideration or the Stock Consideration (each as defined below in the section captioned Opinion of SunTrust Robinson Humphrey, Inc.).

What Community Bancshares Shareholders Will Receive (page 37)

If the Merger Agreement is approved and the Merger is subsequently completed, each outstanding share of Community Bancshares common stock will be converted, at the election of the shareholder, into the right to receive either:

- 4.0926 shares of First Merchants common stock; or
- $85.94 in cash;

in each case, subject to adjustment, election, allocation and proration procedures set forth in the Merger Agreement. Each Community Bancshares shareholder that would otherwise be entitled to receive a fractional share of First Merchants common stock will receive cash in lieu of such fractional share.

When making an election, shareholders may specify different elections (cash or stock) with respect to different shares of Community Bancshares common stock held by them, subject to the adjustment, election, allocation and proration procedures set forth in the Merger Agreement. In the event that the total amount of cash elections, cash in lieu of fractional shares and other cash payments required in the Merger exceeds $15,000,000, the Merger Agreement provides that cash elections will be adjusted and allocation will occur such that shares subject to cash elections (not including any shares subject to a proper exercise of dissenters' rights) will be converted into shares subject to a stock election on a pro rata basis based on the total number of shares of Community Bancshares common stock held by each shareholder making such cash elections in order to limit the cash portion of the total consideration paid to Community Bancshares shareholders to $15,000,000. This limitation on the total cash consideration to be paid in connection with the Merger is designed to permit First Merchants to maximize and maintain its capital structure. There is no limit on the number of outstanding shares of Community Bancshares common stock that may be exchanged for shares of First Merchants common stock at the 4.0926 exchange ratio.

The allocation of the mix of consideration payable to Community Bancshares shareholders in the Merger will not be known until the results of the cash/stock elections made by Community Bancshares shareholders are tallied by American Stock Transfer, which will not be completed until soon after the date of the special shareholders meeting. No guarantee can be made that Community Bancshares shareholders will receive the amount of cash they elected.

Because the 4.0926 exchange ratio is fixed (except for customary anti-dilution adjustments), if you receive First Merchants common stock as consideration for all or a portion of your shares of Community Bancshares common stock, the implied value of the stock consideration that you will receive will depend on the market price of First Merchants common stock when you receive your shares of First Merchants common stock. The value of the stock consideration per share of Community Bancshares common stock, based upon First Merchants' closing stock price on September 23, 2014, the most recent practicable trading day before this proxy statement and prospectus was finalized, was $83.45 per share. No assurance can be given that the current market price of First Merchants common stock will be equivalent to the market price of First Merchants common stock on the date that shares of First Merchants common stock are received by a Community Bancshares shareholder or at any other time. At the time of completion of the Merger, the market price of the stock consideration could be greater or less than the value of the cash consideration due to fluctuations in the market price of First Merchants common stock.

An Election Form is enclosed with this proxy statement and prospectus. If you wish to make an election, you should complete this Election Form and mail it in the postage-prepaid envelope provided to American Stock Transfer. For you to make an effective election, your properly completed and executed Election Form must be received by American Stock Transfer before 5:00 p.m. (Eastern) on November 4, 2014, the election deadline. Please read the instructions on the Election Form for information on completing the form. If you do not return a properly completed and executed Election Form by the election deadline, then you will receive First Merchants common stock for all of your shares of Community Bancshares common stock.

Within three (3) business days following the effective date of the Merger, First Merchants will mail a letter of transmittal to each person who was, immediately prior to the effective time of the Merger, a holder of record of Community Bancshares common stock. The letter of transmittal will contain instructions for use in effecting the surrender of Community Bancshares stock certificates in exchange for the consideration to which such person may be entitled pursuant to the Merger Agreement.

What First Merchants Shareholders Will Receive (page 41)

First Merchants shareholders will not receive any consideration in the Merger. After the Merger, First Merchants shareholders will continue to own the same number of First Merchants shares owned before the Merger.

The Community Bancshares Special Shareholders Meeting (page 33)

The special meeting of Community Bancshares shareholders will be held on Monday, November 3, 2014, at 7:00 p.m. local time, at Hamilton County 4-H Fairgrounds Exhibition Center Dining Room, 2003 Pleasant Street, Noblesville, Indiana 46060.

At the special meeting, Community Bancshares shareholders will be asked:

1. Merger Proposal. To consider and vote upon a proposal to approve the Merger Agreement, pursuant to which Community Bancshares will merge with and into First Merchants and, immediately thereafter, Community Bank will merge with and into First Merchants Bank; and
2. Other Matters. To vote upon such other matters which may properly be presented at the special meeting or any adjournment or postponement of the special meeting. Community Bancshares' Board of Directors is not aware of any such other matters.

Community Bancshares Recommendation to Shareholders (page 34)

The Community Bancshares Board of Directors unanimously approved and adopted the Merger Agreement and approved and authorized the proposed Merger. The Community Bancshares Board of Directors concluded that entering into the Merger Agreement and completing the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement are in the best interest of Community Bancshares and the Community Bancshares shareholders. The Community Bancshares Board of Directors unanimously recommends that Community Bancshares shareholders vote "FOR" approval of the Merger Proposal. In reaching its determination, the Community Bancshares considered a number of factors, which are described in the section captioned "THE MERGER – Community Bancshares' Reasons for the Merger" beginning on page 44. Because of the wide variety of factors considered, the Community Bancshares Board of Directors did not believe it practicable, nor did it attempt, to quantify or otherwise assign relative weight to the specific factors it considered in reaching its decision.

Community Bancshares Special Meeting Record Date; Vote Required (page 33)

Only Community Bancshares shareholders of record as of the close of business on September 29, 2014, are entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the Community Bancshares special meeting and any adjournments or postponements of the special meeting. As of the record date, there were 550,000 shares of Community Bancshares common stock outstanding. Approval of the Merger Proposal requires the affirmative vote of holders of at least a majority of the outstanding shares of Community Bancshares common stock entitled to vote. You can vote your shares by attending the Community Bancshares special meeting and voting in person, or you can vote by proxy by marking the enclosed proxy card with your vote, signing it and mailing it in the enclosed return envelope. You can revoke your proxy at any time before the special meeting by sending a written notice of revocation, submitting a new proxy or by attending the special meeting and voting in person.

No approval by First Merchants shareholders is required.

Voting Agreement (page 69)

Each member of the Board of Directors of Community Bancshares and certain other significant shareholders as of July 21, 2014, the date the Merger Agreement was executed, entered into a voting agreement with First Merchants to cause all Community Bancshares common stock owned by each of them of record or beneficially on such date to be voted in favor of the Merger Proposal. See “THE MERGER AGREEMENT – Voting Agreement” on page 69. As of the record date, the members of the Community Bancshares Board of Directors and their affiliates together with the other persons executing the Voting Agreement had power to vote, or caused to be voted, an aggregate of 273,996 shares of Community Bancshares common stock outstanding, representing 49.82% of the outstanding shares on that date.

What We Need to Do to Complete the Merger (page 64)

Completion of the Merger depends on a number of conditions being met or waived. In addition to our compliance with the Merger Agreement, these conditions include among others:

- the approval of the Merger Agreement at the special meeting by a majority of the issued and outstanding shares of Community Bancshares common stock;
- the approval of the Merger and the Bank Merger by certain regulatory agencies and the expiration of any regulatory waiting periods;
- the representations and warranties made by the parties in the Merger Agreement must be true, accurate and correct in all material respects on and as of the effective date of the Merger, except that representations and warranties that are qualified by materiality or a Material Adverse Effect (as defined below in “THE MERGER AGREEMENT – Conditions to Completion of the Merger”) must be true and correct in all respects, and provided that for those representations and warranties which address matters only as of an earlier date, then they shall be tested as of such earlier date;
- the covenants made by the parties must have been complied with in all material respects from the date of the Merger Agreement through and as of the effective date of the Merger;
- Community Bancshares must have received an opinion of Krieg DeVault LLP that, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, the Merger will be treated as a “reorganization” within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code, and that no gain or loss will be recognized in the Merger by a U.S. Holder to the extent the U.S. Holder receives shares of First Merchants common stock in exchange for the U.S. Holder’s shares of Community Bancshares common stock, except that gain or loss will be recognized with respect to any cash received in lieu of fractional shares of First Merchants common stock;
- First Merchants must have received an opinion of Bingham Greenebaum Doll LLP that, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, the Merger will be treated as a “reorganization” within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code;
- the Registration Statement on Form S-4, of which this proxy statement and prospectus is a part, relating to the First Merchants shares to be issued pursuant to the Merger Agreement, must have become effective under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the “Securities Act”), and no stop order suspending the effectiveness of the Registration Statement shall have been issued or threatened by the SEC;

- the shares of First Merchants common stock to be issued in the Merger shall have been listed for trading on The NASDAQ Global Select Market (subject to official notice of issuance);
- there must be no order, decree or injunction of a court or agency of competent jurisdiction which enjoins or prohibits the consummation of the Merger or the Bank Merger;
- First Merchants must have entered into employment agreements with each of Larry W. Riggs, Russell W. Freed and Charles L. Crow in substantially the forms attached to the Merger Agreement; and
- other customary conditions and obligations of the parties set forth in the Merger Agreement.

Regulatory Approvals (page 60)

The Merger cannot be completed until First Merchants receives necessary regulatory approvals, which include the approval of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System (the “Federal Reserve Board”) as to the Merger and the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency (the “OCC”) as to the Bank Merger. First Merchants has filed an application with the OCC for approval of the Bank Merger and intends to request a waiver from filing an application with the Federal Reserve Board concerning the Merger in accordance with applicable Federal Reserve Board regulations. First Merchants cannot be certain when such approval or waiver will be obtained or if they will be obtained.

Conduct of Business Pending Merger (page 66)

Under the terms of the Merger Agreement, Community Bancshares and First Merchants must carry on their business in the ordinary course and, subject to certain limited exceptions, may not take certain extraordinary actions without first obtaining the other party’s consent.

We have agreed that Community Bancshares may declare and pay dividends to its shareholders prior to closing in an amount sufficient to pay federal, state and local income taxes on the income that passes through to the Community Bancshares shareholders by virtue of it being a Subchapter S corporation under the federal income code and tax regulations. After closing, there may be a final installment of dividends paid that were declared prior to closing to cover any income allocated based on the final tax return of Community Bancshares.

For a more detailed description of the dividends that Community Bancshares may declare and pay to its shareholders, see “MATERIAL U.S. FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES” on page 70.

Agreements of First Merchants (pages 62 and 68)

In the Merger Agreement, First Merchants has agreed, among other matters, to:

- Proceed and use its reasonable and diligent efforts to obtain any consents and approvals for the Merger. See “THE MERGER – Regulatory Approvals” on page 60.
- Take action as may be necessary to allow Community Bancshares and its subsidiaries’ employees, no later than the effective date of the Merger, to participate in benefit plans First Merchants maintains for its employees. See “THE MERGER AGREEMENT – Employee Benefit Plans” on page 69.
- Provide, or allow for, director and officer liability insurance and indemnification. See “THE MERGER AGREEMENT – Indemnification and Insurance of Community Bancshares Directors and Officers” on page 68.

Dissenters' Rights (page 58)

The shareholders of Community Bancshares are entitled to dissenters' rights in connection with the Merger under the Indiana Business Corporation Law. If you wish to assert dissenters' rights, you must deliver to Community Bancshares written notice of your intent to assert such rights before November 3, 2014, the date of the special meeting to consider the Merger Proposal. In addition, you must not vote in favor of the Merger Proposal either in person or by proxy. If the Merger Proposal is approved and the Merger is completed, and you have dissented and followed the required procedures, then you will not receive any shares of common stock of First Merchants. Instead, you will be entitled to receive the fair value of your Community Bancshares stock in cash as determined through the dissenters' rights procedures. The procedure for dissenting is explained more fully under "THE MERGER – Rights of Dissenting Shareholders" beginning on page 58 and in Annex B to this proxy statement and prospectus.

Management and Operations After the Merger (page 68)

Community Bancshares' corporate existence will cease after the Merger. Accordingly, except as otherwise described herein, directors and officers of Community Bancshares will not serve in such capacities after the effective date of the Merger. Upon completion of the Merger, the current officers and directors of First Merchants and First Merchants Bank will continue to serve in such capacities. However, First Merchants Bank will appoint Charles L. Crow, currently the Chairman and President of Community Bancshares, as its Noblesville Market Executive and member of its Central Region Board of Directors, Larry W. Riggs, currently the President of Community Bank, as its Noblesville Market President, and Russell W. Freed, currently Executive Vice President of Community Bank, as its Noblesville Market Finance and Operations Executive.

Interests of Directors and Officers in the Merger That Are Different From Your Interests (page 61)

You should be aware that some of directors and executive officers of Community Bancshares and Community Bank may have interests in the Merger that are different from, or in addition to, their interests as shareholders. Both Community Bancshares' Board of Directors and First Merchants' Board of Directors were aware of these interests and took them into consideration in approving the Merger Agreement and the Merger. These interests are as follows:

- The closing of the Merger is conditioned upon First Merchants Bank entering into employment agreements with three current officers of Community Bancshares and/or Community Bank (Messrs. Crow, Riggs and Freed), which agreements will become effective upon the effective time of the Merger. Under these employment agreements, Mr. Crow will be paid an annual salary of $144,000, Mr. Riggs will be paid an annual salary of $156,000 and Mr. Freed will be paid an annual salary of $110,500. Twelve (12) months following the effective time of the Merger, Mr. Crow will also receive $144,000, Mr. Riggs will receive $78,000, and Mr. Freed will receive $55,250 in retention payments.
- First Merchants has agreed that for a period of six (6) years after the effective time of the Merger, it will maintain directors' and officers' liability insurance in force covering directors and officers of Community Bancshares and Community Bank, subject to certain conditions set forth in the Merger Agreement.

Termination of the Merger (page 65)

Both First Merchants and Community Bancshares can mutually agree to terminate the Merger Agreement before we complete the Merger. In addition, either Community Bancshares or First Merchants acting alone can terminate the Merger Agreement under the circumstances described beginning on page 65.

Community Bancshares has agreed to pay First Merchants a termination fee of $1,500,000 if:

- Community Bancshares' Board of Directors terminates the Merger Agreement in the exercise of its fiduciary duties after receipt of an unsolicited acquisition proposal from a third party;
- First Merchants terminates the Merger Agreement because Community Bancshares' Board of Directors withdraws or modifies its recommendation to Community Bancshares' shareholders to vote for the Merger following receipt of a written proposal for an acquisition from a third party; or
- First Merchants terminates the Merger Agreement because Community Bancshares fails to give First Merchants written notice that it intends to furnish information to or enter into discussions or negotiations with a third party relating to a proposed acquisition of Community Bancshares, or if Community Bancshares, within 45 days after giving such notice, does not terminate such discussions or negotiations.

Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences (page 70)

It is a condition to the closing of the Merger that Krieg DeVault LLP and Bingham Greenebaum Doll LLP deliver opinions, effective as of the date of the Merger, to Community Bancshares and First Merchants, respectively, substantially to the effect that, for United States federal income tax purposes, the Merger will be treated as a "reorganization" within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code. These opinions will not, however, bind the Internal Revenue Service (the "IRS") which could take a different view.

Determining the actual tax consequences of the Merger to you can be complicated. We suggest you consult with your own tax advisors with respect to the tax consequences of the Merger to you.

For a more detailed description of the material federal income tax consequences of the Merger to First Merchants and Community Bancshares shareholders, see "MATERIAL U.S. FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES" on page 70.

Accounting Treatment (page 61)

The Merger will be accounted for as a purchase transaction for accounting and financial reporting purposes. As a result, Community Bancshares' assets, including identified intangible assets, and liabilities will be recorded by First Merchants on its books at their fair values and added to those of First Merchants. Any excess payment by First Merchants over the fair value of the net assets and identifiable intangibles of Community Bancshares will be recorded as goodwill on the financial statements of First Merchants. Conversely, any excess of the fair value of the net assets acquired over the payment made by First Merchants will be allocated as a reduction of all assets.

Comparative Rights of First Merchants and Community Bancshares Shareholders (page 77)

The rights of shareholders of First Merchants and Community Bancshares differ in some respects. The rights of holders of First Merchants common stock are governed by the laws of the State of Indiana, including the Indiana Business Corporation Law, and First Merchants' Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws. The rights of holders of Community Bancshares common stock are governed by the laws of the State of Indiana, including the Indiana Business Corporation Law, and Community Bancshares' Articles of Incorporation, Bylaws and the Shareholders Agreement between Community Bancshares and its shareholders (the "Shareholders Agreement"). Upon completion of the Merger, Community Bancshares shareholders who receive First Merchants common stock will take such stock subject to First Merchants Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws.

Authorized But Unissued Shares

First Merchants

First Merchants' Articles of Incorporation authorize the issuance of 50,000,000 shares of common stock, no par value, of which 36,052,209 shares were outstanding as of June 30, 2014. First Merchants' Board of Directors may authorize the issuance of additional shares of common stock up to the amounts authorized in First Merchants' Articles of Incorporation without shareholder approval, subject only to the restrictions of the Indiana Business Corporation Law and the Articles of Incorporation. First Merchants has 500,000 shares of preferred stock authorized. First Merchants has designated 116,000 of those preferred shares as Fixed Rate Cumulative Perpetual Preferred Stock, Series A, $1,000 per share liquidation amount, no shares of which are currently outstanding. First Merchants has designated 90,823.23 of the preferred shares as Senior Non-Cumulative Perpetual Preferred Stock, Series B, $1,000 per share liquidation amount, no shares of which are currently outstanding. The preferred shares are available to be issued, without prior shareholder approval, in classes with the rights, privileges and preferences determined for each class by the Board of Directors of First Merchants.

As of June 30, 2014, First Merchants had 374,355 shares of its common stock reserved and remaining available for issuance under its 2009 Long-term Equity Incentive Plan and 105,736 shares of its common stock reserved and remaining available for issuance under its Dividend Reinvestment and Stock Purchase Plan. In addition, as of June 30, 2014, First Merchants had no options granted but unexercised under its 1994 Stock Option Plan, 629,167 options granted but unexercised under its 1999 Long-term Equity Incentive Plan, and 222,262 options granted but unexercised under its 2009 Long-term Equity Incentive Plan, with shares reserved and remaining available equal to the outstanding options under each plan.

The issuance of additional shares of First Merchants common stock or the issuance of additional First Merchants preferred stock may adversely affect the interests of First Merchants shareholders by diluting their voting and ownership interests.

Community Bancshares

The Articles of Incorporation of Community Bancshares authorize the issuance of 2,000,000 shares of common stock, no par value. As of the date of this proxy statement and prospectus, there were 550,000 shares of common stock outstanding. The Community Bancshares Board of Directors may authorize the issuance of additional shares of common stock up to the amounts authorized in Community Bancshares' Articles of Incorporation, without shareholder approval, subject only to the restrictions of the Indiana Business Corporation Law, the Articles of Incorporation and the Shareholders Agreement. In order to maintain its status as a Subchapter S corporation, only individuals and certain qualified entities are permitted to hold shares of Community Bancshares common stock.

Restrictions on Transfer of Shares

First Merchants

The holders of First Merchants common stock are generally not restricted on sales of their shares. The shares are also registered under Section 12 of the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934 (the “Exchange Act”) and listed for exchange on The NASDAQ Global Select Market. As a result, a public market exists for the shares of common stock.

Community Bancshares

So long as Community Bancshares maintains its election to be taxed under the provisions of Subchapter S of the Internal Revenue Code, the Articles of Incorporation and the Shareholders Agreement contain restrictions prohibiting shareholders from transferring or offering to transfer any shares of Community Bancshares common stock that would in any manner cause the termination of Community Bancshares’ Subchapter S corporation status. Any transfer or other disposition of shares of Community Bancshares common stock must be made in accordance with the applicable provisions of the Articles of Incorporation and the Shareholders Agreement. Under the terms of the Shareholders Agreement, Community Bancshares has certain redemption rights in the event of an attempted transfer to a qualified third party or a change in the eligibility status or death of an existing shareholder.

Shares of Community Bancshares common stock are not registered under the Securities Act. Community Bancshares common stock is not listed on an exchange or quoted on any automated services, no established public trading market exists for Community Bancshares’ common stock and, to the knowledge of Community Bancshares, no brokerage or other firm makes a market in shares of Community Bancshares common stock.

Dividend Rights

First Merchants

The holders of First Merchants common stock are entitled to dividends and other distributions when, as and if declared by its Boards of Directors.

Generally, First Merchants may not pay a dividend if, after giving effect to the dividend:

- First Merchants would not be able to pay its debts as they become due in the usual course of business; or
- First Merchants' total assets would be less than the sum of its total liabilities plus the amount that would be needed to satisfy preferential rights of shareholders payable upon dissolution.

The amount of dividends, if any, that may be declared by First Merchants in the future will necessarily depend upon many factors, including, among other things, future earnings, capital requirements, business conditions and capital levels of subsidiaries (since First Merchants is primarily dependent upon dividends paid by its subsidiaries for revenues), the discretion of First Merchants' Board of Directors and other factors that may be appropriate in determining dividend policies.

First Merchants Bank may pay cash dividends to First Merchants on its common stock only out of adjusted retained net profits for the year in which the dividend is paid and the two preceding years.

First Merchants Bank will ordinarily be restricted to paying dividends in a lesser amount to First Merchants than is legally permissible because of the need for the banks to maintain adequate capital consistent with the capital adequacy guidelines promulgated by the banks' principal federal regulatory authorities. If a bank's capital levels are deemed inadequate by the regulatory authorities, payment of dividends to its parent holding company may be prohibited. First Merchants Bank is not currently subject to such a restriction.

Completion of the Merger (page 61)

The Merger will become effective when we file Articles of Merger with the Secretary of the State of Indiana, or at such later date and time as may be set forth in the Articles of Merger. We expect the Merger to become effective during the fourth quarter of 2014.

Community Bancshares

Community Bancshares has historically paid dividends to its shareholders in amounts sufficient to pay estimated federal, state and local income taxes on the income that passes through to the shareholder by virtue of Community Bancshares status as a Subchapter S corporation.

The holders of common stock of Community Bancshares shall be entitled to share ratably, according to the number of shares held by them, in such dividends or other distributions (other than purchases, redemptions, or other acquisitions of shares of Community Bancshares), if any, as are declared and paid from time to time on the shares at the discretion of the Community Bancshares Board of Directors.

Generally, Community Bancshares may not pay a dividend if, after giving effect to the dividend:

- Community Bancshares would not be able to pay its debts as they become due in the usual course of business; or
- Community Bancshares' total assets would be less than the sum of its total liabilities plus the amount that would be needed to satisfy any preferential rights of shareholders payable upon dissolution.

Both Community Bancshares and Community Bank must obtain the prior approval of applicable regulatory authorities in order to declare or pay dividends. See section captioned "THE MERGER—Background of the Merger."

Comparative Per Share Data

The following table shows historical information about our companies' earnings per share, dividends per share and book value per share, and similar information reflecting the Merger, which we refer to as "pro forma" information. In presenting the comparative pro forma information, we have assumed that the two companies had been combined throughout the periods shown in the table. The pro forma information reflects the "purchase" method of accounting. The information is presented under two separate assumptions relating to the level of Community Bancshares common shares which are exchanged for First Merchants common stock in the Merger. The financial information presented under "Alternative A" was compiled assuming 2,250,930 shares of First Merchants common shares are issued to Community Bancshares shareholders which equates to 100% of the Community Bancshares common shares electing stock. The financial information presented under "Alternative B" was compiled assuming 1,536,608 shares of First Merchants common shares are issued to Community Bancshares shareholders which equates to 31.7% of the Community Bancshares common shares electing cash. This is approximately the percentage required to reach the aggregate limitation of $15,000,000 of cash payments set forth in the Merger Agreement assuming no fractional share payments or dissenters.

We expect that we will incur reorganization and restructuring expenses as a result of combining our two companies. We also anticipate that the Merger will provide the combined company with financial benefits that include reduced operating expenses and the opportunity to earn more revenue. The pro forma information, while helpful in illustrating the financial characteristics of the combined company, does not take into account these expected expenses or these anticipated financial benefits, and does not attempt to predict or suggest future results. It also does not necessarily reflect what the historical results of the merged company would have been had our companies been merged during the periods presented.

Community Bancshares does not have a class of securities registered under Section 12 of the Exchange Act, is not subject to the reporting requirements of Section 13(a) or 15(d) of the Exchange Act, and accordingly does not file documents and reports with the SEC to be incorporated by reference.

The information in the following table is based on historical financial information of Community Bancshares and First Merchants. The information with respect to First Merchants is included in its annual and quarterly reports previously filed with the SEC. The historical financial information of First Merchants has been incorporated into this document by reference. See "WHERE YOU CAN FIND ADDITIONAL INFORMATION" on page 86 for a description of documents that we incorporate by reference into this document and how to obtain copies of them.

SELECTED CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL DATA

The following tables set forth certain summary historical consolidated financial data for each of our companies. First Merchants' and Community Bancshares' balance sheet and income statement data as of and for the five years in the period ended December 31, 2013 are taken from each of First Merchants' and Community Bancshares' respective audited consolidated financial statements. First Merchants' and Community Bancshares' balance sheet data and income statement data as of and for the six months ended June 30, 2014 and 2013 are taken from our respective unaudited consolidated financial statements. Results for the six months ended June 30, 2014 do not necessarily indicate results expected or anticipated for the entire year.

The following tables also set forth certain summary unaudited pro forma consolidated financial information for First Merchants and Community Bancshares reflecting the Merger. The income statement information presented gives effect to the Merger as if it occurred on the first day of each period presented. The balance sheet information presented gives effect to the Merger as if it occurred on June 30, 2014. The information is presented under two separate assumptions relating to the level of Community Bancshares common shares which are exchanged for First Merchants common stock in the Merger. The financial information presented under "Alternative A" was compiled assuming 2,250,930 shares of First Merchants common shares are issued to Community Bancshares shareholders which equates to 100% of the Community Bancshares common shares electing stock. The financial information presented under "Alternative B" was compiled assuming 1,536,608 shares of First Merchants common shares are issued to Community Bancshares shareholders which equates to 31.7% of the Community Bancshares common shares electing cash. This is approximately the percentage required to reach the aggregate limitation of $15,000,000 of cash payments set forth in the Merger Agreement assuming no fractional share payments or dissenters.

The pro forma information reflects the "purchase" method of accounting, with Community Bancshares' assets and liabilities recorded at their estimated fair values as of June 30, 2014. The actual fair value adjustments to the assets and the liabilities of Community Bancshares will be made on the basis of appraisals and evaluations that will be made as of the date the Merger is completed. Thus, the actual fair value adjustments may differ significantly from those reflected in these pro forma financial statements. In the opinion of First Merchants' management, the estimates used in the preparation of these pro forma financial statements are reasonable under the circumstances.

We expect that we will incur reorganization and restructuring expenses as a result of combining our companies. We also anticipate that the Merger will provide the combined company with financial benefits that include reduced operating expenses and the opportunity to earn more revenue. The pro forma information, while helpful in illustrating the financial characteristics of the combined company under two sets of assumptions, does not take into account these expected expenses or anticipated financial benefits, and does not attempt to predict or suggest future results.

This selected financial data is only a summary and you should read it in conjunction with First Merchants' consolidated financial statements and related notes incorporated into this document by reference. See "WHERE YOU CAN FIND ADDITIONAL INFORMATION" on page 86 for a description of documents that we incorporate by reference into this document and how to obtain copies of such documents.

RISK FACTORS

In addition to general investment risks and the other information contained in or incorporated by reference into this proxy statement and prospectus, including the matters addressed under the section “FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS,” you should carefully consider the following risk factors in deciding how to vote for the Merger Proposal presented in this proxy statement and prospectus. You should also consider the other information in this proxy statement and prospectus and the other documents incorporated by reference into this proxy statement and prospectus. See “WHERE YOU CAN FIND ADDITIONAL INFORMATION” on page 86.

Risk Factors Relating to the Merged Company and Its Industry

Combining the two companies may be more difficult, costly or time consuming than expected and the anticipated benefits and costs savings of the Merger may not be realized.

Even though First Merchants has acquired other financial services businesses in the past, the success of the Merger with Community Bancshares will depend on a number of factors, including, but not limited to, the merged company’s ability to:

- integrate Community Bancshares’ operations with the operations of First Merchants;
- maintain existing relationships with First Merchants’ depositors and Community Bancshares’ depositors to minimize withdrawals of deposits subsequent to the acquisition;
- maintain and enhance existing relationships with borrowers of First Merchants and Community Bancshares;
- achieve projected net income of First Merchants Bank and expected cost savings and revenue enhancements from the merged company;
- control the incremental non-interest expense to maintain overall operating efficiencies;
- retain and attract key and qualified management, lending and other banking personnel; and
- compete effectively in the communities served by First Merchants and Community Bancshares, and in nearby communities.

First Merchants’ failure to successfully integrate Community Bancshares into its business may adversely affect its financial condition and results of operations.

The First Merchants common stock and/or cash received by Community Bancshares shareholders may differ from their elections.

The Merger Agreement provides that Community Bancshares shareholders may elect to receive all First Merchants common stock for their shares, all cash for their shares or a combination of stock for a portion of their shares and cash for a portion of their shares. Although Community Bancshares shareholders will have the opportunity to elect the form of merger consideration they prefer to receive, the Merger Agreement provides that First Merchants is not required to pay more than $15,000,000 in cash to Community Bancshares shareholders in connection with the Merger. There is no such limitation on the number of outstanding shares of Community Bancshares common stock that may be exchanged for shares of First Merchants common stock at the 4.0926 exchange ratio. As a result of the limitation on the cash consideration to be paid to Community Bancshares shareholders, you may not receive all of the cash consideration you elect. This may result in adverse financial or tax consequences to you. You will not know the mix of consideration you will receive until after we complete the Merger.

If, pursuant to the terms of the Merger Agreement, it is necessary to reduce the amount of cash elections, the shares of Community Bancshares common stock subject to a cash election will be converted into shares subject to a stock election on a pro rata basis (based on the total number of Community Bancshares common shares held by each shareholder electing cash) only to the extent necessary to reduce the aggregate cash payments to less than $15,000,000. Cash election shares which are not converted into stock election shares will remain as cash election shares, and all shares for which no election has been made will be treated as stock election shares and paid in shares of First Merchants common stock at the 4.0926 exchange ratio.

The value of the consideration to be received by Community Bancshares shareholders in the Merger will fluctuate.

If the Merger is completed, Community Bancshares shareholders who do not receive $85.94 in cash per share for their Community Bancshares common shares will receive a number of shares of First Merchants common stock based on a fixed exchange ratio of 4.0926 shares of First Merchants common stock for each share of Community Bancshares common stock. Because the market value of First Merchants common stock may (and likely will) fluctuate, the value of the stock consideration you receive for your shares may also fluctuate. The market value of First Merchants common stock could fluctuate for any number of reasons, including those specific to First Merchants and those that influence trading prices of equity securities generally. As a result, you will not know the exact value of the shares of First Merchants common stock you will receive at the time you must vote your shares. The value of First Merchants common stock on the closing date of the Merger may be greater or less than the market price of First Merchants common stock on the record date, on the date of this proxy statement and prospectus or on the date of the special meeting. Moreover, the fairness opinion of STRH is dated July 21, 2014. Changes in the operations and prospects of First Merchants and Community Bancshares, general market and economic conditions and other factors which are both within and outside of the control of First Merchants and Community Bancshares, on which the fairness opinion is based, may alter the relative value of the companies. Therefore, the fairness opinion does not address the fairness of the exchange ratio at the time the Merger will be completed.

We encourage you to obtain a current market quotation for First Merchants common stock because the value of any First Merchants shares you receive may be more or less than the value of such shares as of the date of this document.

The merged company's allowance for loan losses may not be adequate to cover actual loan losses.

The merged company's loan customers may not repay their loans according to their terms, and the customers' collateral securing the payment of their loans may be insufficient to assure repayment. As of June 30, 2014, approximately 53.01% of the merged company's loans are comprised of commercial real estate and commercial lines of credit and term and development loans, which can result in higher loan loss experience than residential loans in economic downturns. The underwriting, review and monitoring that will be performed by the merged company's officers and directors cannot eliminate all of the risks related to these loans.

Each of First Merchants and Community Bancshares make various assumptions and judgments about the collectability of their respective loan portfolios and provide an allowance for loan losses based on a number of factors. If the assumptions are wrong or the facts and circumstances subsequently and materially change, the allowance for loan losses and Merger-related credit marks may not be sufficient to cover the merged company's loan losses. The merged company may have to increase its allowance for loan losses in the future, which could decrease its net income.

Deterioration in loan quality will adversely affect the merged company's results of operations and financial condition.

Each of First Merchants and Community Bancshares seek to mitigate the risks inherent in their respective loan portfolios by adhering to sound underwriting practices. Their lending strategies also include emphasizing diversification on a geographic, industry and customer level, regular credit quality reviews and management reviews of large credit exposures and loans experiencing deterioration of credit quality. There is continuous review of their loan portfolios, including internally administered loan "watch" lists and independent loan reviews. These evaluations take into consideration identified credit problems, as well as the possibility of losses inherent in the loan portfolio that are not specifically identified. Although First Merchants and Community Bancshares believe their underwriting and loan review procedures are appropriate for the various kinds of loans they make, the merged company's results of operation and financial condition will be adversely affected in the event the quality of their respective loan portfolios deteriorates. As of June 30, 2014, First Merchants had $52,648,000 and Community Bancshares had $16,892,034 in non-performing loans. As of December 31, 2013, First Merchants had $59,450,000 and Community Bancshares had $18,783,268 in non-performing loans.

Changes in interest rates may reduce the merged company's net interest income.

Like other financial institutions, the merged company's net interest income is its primary revenue source. Net interest income is the difference between interest earned on loans and investments and interest expense incurred on deposits and other borrowings. The merged company's net interest income will be affected by changes in market rates of interest, the interest rate sensitivity of its assets and liabilities, prepayments on its loans and investments and limits on increases in the rates of interest charged on its residential real estate loans.

The merged company will not be able to predict or control changes in market rates of interest. Market rates of interest are affected by regional and local economic conditions, as well as monetary policies of the Federal Reserve Board. The following factors also may affect market interest rates:

- inflation;
- slow or stagnant economic growth or recession;
- unemployment;
- money supply;
- international disorders;
- instability in domestic and foreign financial markets; and
- other factors beyond the merged company's control.

Each of First Merchants and Community Bancshares has policies and procedures designed to manage the risks from changes in market interest rates; however, despite risk management, changes in interest rates could adversely affect the merged company's results of operations and financial condition.

Changes in economic conditions and the geographic concentration of the merged company's markets could adversely affect the merged company's financial condition.

The merged company's success will depend to a great extent upon the general economic conditions of the Central and Northwestern Indiana and Central Ohio areas. Unlike larger banks that are more geographically diversified, the merged company will provide banking and financial services to customers primarily located in these areas. Favorable economic conditions may not exist in the merged company's markets.

A continued economic slowdown could have the following consequences:

- loan delinquencies may increase;
- problem assets and foreclosures may increase;
- demand for the products and services of Community Bancshares and First Merchants may decline; and
- collateral for loans made by Community Bancshares and First Merchants may decline in value, in turn reducing customers' borrowing power, and reducing the value of assets and collateral associated with existing loans.

Anti-takeover defenses may delay or prevent future mergers.

Provisions contained in First Merchants' Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws and certain provisions of Indiana law could make it more difficult for a third party to acquire First Merchants, even if doing so might be beneficial to First Merchants shareholders. See "COMPARISON OF COMMON STOCK—Anti-Takeover Provisions" on page 83. These provisions could limit the price that some investors might be willing to pay in the future for shares of First Merchants common stock and may have the effect of delaying or preventing a change in control.

If the Merger is not completed, the parties will have incurred substantial expenses without realizing the expected benefits.

First Merchants and Community Bancshares have incurred substantial expenses in connection with the transactions described in this proxy statement and prospectus. The completion of the Merger depends on the satisfaction of several conditions. We cannot guarantee that these conditions will be met. Community Bancshares expects to incur approximately $375,000 in Merger-related expenses and First Merchants expects to incur approximately $1,565,000 in Merger-related expenses, which include legal, accounting and financial advisory expenses and which excludes any termination fees, if applicable. These expenses could have a material adverse impact on the financial condition of First Merchants and Community Bancshares because they would not have realized the expected benefits of the Merger. There can be no assurance that the Merger will be completed.

The Merger Agreement may be terminated in accordance with its terms and the Merger may not be completed, which could have a negative impact on Community Bancshares.

The Merger Agreement with First Merchants is subject to a number of conditions which must be fulfilled in order to close. Those conditions include: Community Bancshares shareholder approval, regulatory approvals, the continued accuracy of certain representations and warranties by both parties and the performance by both parties of certain covenants and agreements. There can be no assurance that the Merger will be completed.

In addition, certain circumstances exist where Community Bancshares may choose to terminate the Merger Agreement, including the acceptance of a superior acquisition proposal. See "THE MERGER — Exchange of Community Bancshares Common Stock" for a more complete discussion of the consideration to be paid in the Merger and "THE MERGER AGREEMENT— Termination; Waiver; Amendment" for a more complete discussion of the circumstances under which the Merger Agreement could be terminated. There can be no assurance that the conditions to closing the Merger will be fulfilled or that the Merger will be completed.

If the Merger Agreement is terminated, there may be various consequences to Community Bancshares, including:

- Community Bancshares' businesses may have been adversely impacted by the failure to pursue other beneficial opportunities due to the focus of management on the Merger, without realizing any of the anticipated benefits of completing the Merger; and
- Community Bancshares will have incurred substantial expenses in connection with the Merger, without realizing any of the anticipated benefits of completing the Merger.

If the Merger Agreement is terminated by Community Bancshares due to its acceptance of a superior acquisition proposal or by First Merchants due to the failure of Community Bancshares' Board of Directors to recommend approval of the Merger Agreement to its shareholders by reason of a superior acquisition proposal or for certain related reasons, then Community Bancshares has agreed pay to First Merchants a $1,500,000 termination fee. The payment of the termination fee could have a material adverse effect on Community Bancshares' financial condition, and there can be no assurance that Community Bancshares would be able to complete a transaction with a party willing to pay an equivalent or more attractive price than the price First Merchants has agreed to pay in the Merger.

The termination fee and the restrictions on solicitation contained in the Merger Agreement may discourage other companies from trying to acquire Community Bancshares.

Until the completion of the Merger, with some exceptions, Community Bancshares is prohibited from soliciting, initiating, encouraging or participating in any discussion of or otherwise considering any inquiries or proposals that may lead to an acquisition proposal, such as a merger or other business combination transaction, with any person other than First Merchants. In addition, Community Bancshares has agreed to pay a termination fee of $1,500,000 to First Merchants if the Community Bancshares Board of Directors does not recommend approval of the Merger Agreement to the Community Bancshares shareholders by reason of a superior acquisition proposal. These provisions could discourage other companies from trying to acquire Community Bancshares even though such other companies might be willing to offer greater value to Community Bancshares' shareholders than First Merchants has offered in the Merger Agreement. The payment of the termination fee also could have a material adverse effect on Community Bancshares' financial condition.

The market price of First Merchants common stock after the Merger may be affected by factors different from those affecting the shares of Community Bancshares or First Merchants currently.

Upon completion of the Merger, holders of Community Bancshares common stock will become holders of First Merchants common stock. First Merchants' business differs in important respects from that of Community Bancshares, and, accordingly, the results of operations of the combined company and the market price of First Merchants common stock after the completion of the Merger may be affected by factors different from those currently affecting the independent results of operations of each of First Merchants and Community Bancshares. For a discussion of the businesses of First Merchants and Community Bancshares and of some important factors to consider in connection with those businesses, see the documents incorporated by reference in this proxy statement and prospectus and referred to under "WHERE YOU CAN FIND ADDITIONAL INFORMATION" on page 86.

Community Bancshares shareholders will have a reduced ownership and voting interest after the Merger and will exercise less influence over management.

Community Bancshares' shareholders currently have the right to vote in the election of the Community Bancshares Board of Directors and on other matters affecting Community Bancshares. When the Merger occurs, each Community Bancshares shareholder will become a shareholder of First Merchants with a percentage ownership of the combined organization that is smaller than the shareholder's percentage ownership of Community Bancshares. Because of this, Community Bancshares' shareholders will have less influence over the management and policies of First Merchants than they now have over the management and policies of Community Bancshares.

Risk Factors Relating to the Merger

Regulatory approvals may not be received, may take longer than expected or may impose conditions that are not presently anticipated or that could have an adverse effect on the combined company following the Merger.

The transactions contemplated in the Merger Agreement cannot be completed until First Merchants receives necessary regulatory approvals, which include the approval of the Federal Reserve Board and the OCC. In determining whether to grant these approvals, the regulators consider a variety of factors, including the regulatory standing of each party and the factors described under "THE MERGER—Regulatory Approvals." An adverse development in either party's regulatory standing or these factors could result in an inability to obtain approval or delay its receipt. These regulators may impose conditions on the completion of the Merger or the Bank Merger or require changes to the terms of the Merger or the Bank Merger. Such conditions or changes could have the effect of delaying or preventing completion of the Merger or the Bank Merger or imposing additional costs on or limiting the revenues of the combined company following the Merger and the Bank

Merger, any of which might have an adverse effect on the combined company following the Merger. Regulatory approvals could also be impacted based on the status of any ongoing investigation of either party or its customers, including subpoenas to provide information or investigations, by a federal, state or local governmental agency.

Certain of Community Bancshares' directors and executive officers have interests in the Merger that may differ from the interests of Community Bancshares' shareholders.

Community Bancshares shareholders should be aware that some of Community Bancshares' executive officers and directors have interests in the Merger and have arrangements that are different from, or in addition to, those of Community Bancshares shareholders generally. Community Bancshares' Board of Directors was aware of and considered these interests, among other matters, when making its decision to approve and adopt the Merger Agreement, and in recommending that Community Bancshares shareholders vote in favor of approving the Merger Agreement.

Community Bancshares previously entered into an employment agreement with Charles L. Crow, which entitles him to certain payments and benefits upon a termination in connection with a change in control such as the Merger. In connection with the Merger, Messrs. Crow, Riggs and Freed, each currently an executive officer of Community Bancshares and/or Community Bank, will enter into employment agreements with First Merchants Bank that, upon the effective time of the Merger, will supersede any prior agreements with Community Bancshares and/or Community Bank and provide certain retention benefits to such individuals.

For a more complete description of these interests, see "THE MERGER—Interests of Certain Persons in the Merger" on page 61.

Community Bancshares and First Merchants will be subject to business uncertainties and contractual restrictions while the Merger is pending.

Uncertainty about the effect of the Merger on employees and customers may have an adverse effect on Community Bancshares or First Merchants. These uncertainties may impair Community Bancshares' or First Merchants' ability to attract, retain and motivate key personnel until the Merger is completed, and could cause customers and others that deal with Community Bancshares or First Merchants to seek to change existing business relationships with Community Bancshares or First Merchants. Retention of certain employees by Community Bancshares or First Merchants may be challenging while the Merger is pending, as certain employees may experience uncertainty about their future roles with Community Bancshares or First Merchants. If key employees depart because of issues relating to the uncertainty and difficulty of integration or a desire not to remain with Community Bancshares or First Merchants, Community Bancshares' and/or First Merchants' business could be harmed. In addition, subject to certain exceptions, each of Community Bancshares and First Merchants has agreed to operate its business in the ordinary course prior to closing. See THE MERGER AGREEMENT—Restrictions Affecting the Parties Prior to Completion of the Merger" on page 66 for a description of the restrictive covenants applicable to Community Bancshares and First Merchants while the Merger is pending.

The shares of First Merchants common stock to be received by Community Bancshares shareholders as a result of the Merger will have different rights from the shares of Community Bancshares common stock.

Upon completion of the Merger, Community Bancshares shareholders will become First Merchants shareholders and their rights as shareholders will be governed by the First Merchants Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws. The rights associated with Community Bancshares common stock may be different from the rights associated with First Merchants common stock. Please see "COMPARISON OF COMMON STOCK" beginning on page 77 for a discussion of the different rights associated with First Merchants common stock.

The Merger may fail to qualify as a tax-free reorganization for federal tax purposes, resulting in your recognition of taxable gain or loss in respect of your Community Bancshares shares.

Community Bancshares intends the Merger to qualify as a tax-free “reorganization” within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code. Although the IRS will not provide a ruling on the matter, First Merchants and Community Bancshares will, as a condition to closing, each obtain an opinion from their respective legal counsel that the Merger will constitute a “reorganization” for federal tax purposes. These opinions do not bind the IRS or prevent the IRS from adopting a contrary position. If the Merger fails to qualify as a reorganization, you generally would recognize gain or loss on each share of Community Bancshares common stock surrendered in an amount equal to the difference between your adjusted tax basis in that share and the fair market value of the Merger consideration received in exchange for that share upon completion of the Merger. Furthermore, if the Merger fails to qualify as a reorganization, there may be additional tax consequences to shareholders of Community Bancshares common stock associated with the deemed sale by Community Bancshares of its assets to First Merchants, which could result in corporate level gains and associated taxes that would flow-through to the shareholders of Community Bancshares common stock.

Community Bancshares shareholders will have dissenters’ rights in the Merger.

Dissenters’ rights are statutory rights that, if applicable under law, enable shareholders to dissent from an extraordinary transaction, such as a Merger, and to demand that the corporation pay the fair value for their shares as determined by a court in a judicial proceeding instead of receiving the consideration offered to shareholders in connection with the extraordinary transaction. The shareholders of Community Bancshares will have the rights accorded to dissenting shareholders under Chapter 44 of the Indiana Business Corporation Law. The fair value determined through a judicial proceeding may be more or less than the consideration offered under the Merger Agreement. As a result, First Merchants bears the risk that payments owed to dissenting shareholders may exceed the consideration outlined in this proxy statement and prospectus.

THE COMMUNITY BANCSHARES SPECIAL MEETING
Special Meeting of Shareholders of Community Bancshares, Inc.

General Information

We are furnishing this document to the shareholders of Community Bancshares in connection with the solicitation by the Board of Directors of Community Bancshares of proxies for use at the Community Bancshares special meeting of shareholders to be held on November 3, 2014, at 7:00 p.m., local time, at Hamilton County 4-H Fairgrounds Exhibition Center Dining Room, 2003 Pleasant Street, Noblesville, Indiana 46060. This document is first being mailed to Community Bancshares shareholders on October 2, 2014, and includes the notice of Community Bancshares special meeting, and is accompanied by a form of proxy.

Matters To Be Considered

The purposes of the special meeting are as follows:

1. Merger Proposal. To consider and vote upon a proposal to approve the Merger Agreement, pursuant to which Community Bancshares will merge with and into First Merchants and, immediately thereafter, Community Bank will merge with and into First Merchants Bank.
2. Other Matters. To vote upon such other matters which may properly be presented at the special meeting or any adjournment or postponement of the special meeting. The Board of Directors is not aware of any such other matters.

Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, Community Bancshares will merge into First Merchants. The Merger Agreement is attached to this document as Annex A and is incorporated in this document by reference. For a description of the Merger Agreement, see "THE MERGER AGREEMENT," beginning on page 63.

Vote Required

Approval of the Merger Proposal requires the affirmative vote of at least a majority of the outstanding shares of Community Bancshares common stock. Community Bancshares has fixed September 29, 2014, as the record date for determining those Community Bancshares shareholders entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the special meeting. Accordingly, if you were a Community Bancshares shareholder of record at the close of business on September 29, 2014, you will be entitled to notice of and to vote at the special meeting. Each share of Community Bancshares common stock you own on the record date entitles you to one vote on each matter presented at the special meeting. At the close of business on the record date of September 29, 2014, there were 550,000 shares of Community Bancshares common stock outstanding held by approximately 128 shareholders of record.

Voting Agreement

As of the record date, Community Bancshares' executive officers, directors, and certain significant shareholders and their affiliates had voting power with respect to an aggregate of 273,996 shares of Community Bancshares common stock outstanding, representing 49.82% of the outstanding shares on that date. Each member of the Board of Directors of Community Bancshares and certain other significant shareholders entered into a voting agreement with First Merchants to cause all shares of Community Bancshares common stock owned by them of record or beneficially to be voted in favor of the Merger Proposal. See "THE MERGER AGREEMENT—Voting Agreement" on page 69.

Proxies

If you are a Community Bancshares shareholder, you should have received a proxy card for use at the Community Bancshares special meeting with this proxy statement and prospectus. The accompanying proxy card is for your use in voting at the special meeting if you are unable or do not wish to attend the special meeting in person. The shares represented by proxies properly signed and returned will be voted at the special meeting as instructed by the Community Bancshares shareholder giving the proxies. Proxy cards that are properly signed and returned but do not have voting instructions will be voted “FOR” approval of the Merger Proposal.

If you deliver a properly signed proxy card, you may revoke your proxy at any time before it is exercised by:

- delivering to the Corporate Secretary of Community Bancshares at or prior to the special meeting a written notice of revocation addressed to Community Bancshares Bancorp, Inc., 830 Logan Street, Noblesville, Indiana 46060, Attention: William C. Delullo, Corporate Secretary; or
- delivering to Community Bancshares at or prior to the special meeting a properly completed proxy card having a later date; or
- voting in person by ballot at the special shareholders meeting.

Because approval of the Merger Proposal requires the affirmative vote of at least a majority of the outstanding shares of Community Bancshares common stock, abstentions will have the same effect as voting “AGAINST” approval of the Merger Proposal. Accordingly, your Board of Directors urges all Community Bancshares shareholders to vote by proxy by completing, dating and signing the accompanying proxy and returning it promptly in the enclosed postage-paid envelope. You should not send stock certificates with your proxy card.

Solicitation of Proxies

Community Bancshares will bear the entire cost of soliciting proxies from and mailing proxies to its shareholders in connection with the Community Bancshares special meeting. In addition to solicitation of proxies by mail, proxies may be solicited personally or by telephone by directors, officers and certain employees of Community Bancshares, who will not be specially compensated for such soliciting.

In soliciting proxies, no one has any authority to make any representations and warranties about the Merger or the Merger Proposal in addition to or contrary to the provisions stated in this document. No statement regarding the Merger, the Merger Agreement or the Merger Proposal should be relied upon except as expressly stated in this document.

Recommendation of the Community Bancshares Board of Directors

Community Bancshares’ Board of Directors has unanimously approved the Merger Agreement. Community Bancshares’ Board of Directors believes that the Merger is fair to and in the best interests of Community Bancshares and its shareholders. The Board unanimously recommends that the Community Bancshares shareholders vote “FOR” approval of the Merger Proposal. See “THE MERGER—Community Bancshares’ Reasons for the Merger” on page 44 and “THE MERGER—Recommendation of the Community Bancshares Board of Directors” on page 58.

Other Matters

The special meeting of Community Bancshares shareholders has been called for the purposes set forth in the Notice to Community Bancshares shareholders included in this document. Your Board of Directors is unaware of any matter for action by shareholders at the special meeting other than as stated in the Notice or in this proxy statement and prospectus. However, the enclosed proxy will give discretionary authority to the persons named in the proxy with respect to matters which are not known to your Board of Directors as of the date hereof and which may properly come before the special meeting. It is the intention of the persons named in the proxy to vote with respect to such matters in accordance with the recommendations of the Board of Directors of Community Bancshares or, if no recommendations are given, in their best judgment. The approval of the transaction of any other business that may properly come before the special meeting generally requires more votes to be cast in favor of the proposal than are cast against it.

COMMUNITY BANCSHARES MERGER PROPOSAL

Community Bancshares is asking its shareholders to approve the Merger Proposal. Holders of Community Bancshares common stock should read this proxy statement and prospectus carefully and in its entirety, including the annexes, for more detailed information concerning the Merger Agreement and the Merger. A copy of the Merger Agreement is attached to this proxy statement and prospectus as Annex A.

After careful consideration, the Community Bancshares Board of Directors unanimously approved and adopted the Merger Agreement and determined it to be advisable and in the best interest of Community Bancshares and its shareholders of Community Bancshares. See “THE MERGER—Community Bancshares’ Reasons for the Merger; Recommendation of Community Bancshares’ Board of Directors” included elsewhere in this proxy statement and prospectus for a more detailed discussion of the Community Bancshares Board of Directors’ recommendation.

For the reasons discussed in this proxy statement and prospectus, the Community Bancshares Board of Directors unanimously determined that the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement are advisable and in the best interests of Community Bancshares and its shareholders, and unanimously adopted and approved the Merger Agreement. The Community Bancshares Board of Directors unanimously recommends that Community Bancshares shareholders vote “FOR” approval of the Merger Proposal.

THE MERGER

At the special meeting, the shareholders of Community Bancshares will consider and vote upon approval of the Merger Agreement. The following summary highlights certain information about the Merger. To understand the Merger, you should read carefully this entire proxy statement and prospectus, including the Merger Agreement, which is attached to this document as Annex A.

Description of the Merger

Under the terms and subject to the conditions of the Merger Agreement unanimously approved by each of the Community Bancshares and First Merchants Boards of Directors, Community Bancshares will merge with and into First Merchants and the separate corporate existence of Community Bancshares will cease. Immediately following the Merger, Community Bank will merge with and into First Merchants Bank and Community Bank will cease to exist as a separate entity. The Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws of First Merchants, as in effect prior to the Merger, will be the Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws of First Merchants after the Merger.

Exchange of Community Bancshares Common Stock

The Merger Agreement provides that Community Bancshares shareholders will have the right, with respect to each of their shares of Community Bancshares common stock, to elect to receive, without interest, either (i) 4.0926 shares of First Merchants common stock (which we sometimes refer to as a “stock election”), or (ii) $85.94 in cash (which we sometimes refer to as a “cash election”) subject to the payment of cash instead of fractional shares and subject to certain adjustment, election, allocation and proration procedures described below, if necessary, to ensure that the cash portion of the total consideration to be paid to Community Bancshares shareholders in connection with the Merger does not exceed $15,000,000. There is no limit on the number of outstanding shares of Community Bancshares common stock that may be exchanged for shares of First Merchants common stock at the 4.0926 exchange ratio. When making an election, Community Bancshares shareholders may specify different elections (cash or stock) with respect to different shares of Community Bancshares common stock held by them (for example, a Community Bancshares shareholder with 100 shares of Community Bancshares common stock could make a cash election with respect to 50 shares and a stock election with respect to the other 50 shares, subject to the adjustment, election, allocation and proration procedures described below). Community Bancshares shareholders who make no election to receive cash and/or shares of First Merchants common stock in the Merger, whose elections are not received by the election agent, American Stock Transfer, by the election deadline, or whose Election Forms are improperly completed and/or are not signed, will be deemed not to have made an election. Community Bancshares shareholders who do not make an election will be paid in First Merchants common stock.

If First Merchants changes the number of outstanding shares of First Merchants common stock before the Merger through any stock split, stock dividend, recapitalization or similar transaction, then the 4.0926 exchange ratio will be proportionately adjusted so that Community Bancshares shareholders making a stock election will receive such number of shares of First Merchants common stock as represents the same percentage of outstanding shares of First Merchants common stock at the effective date of the Merger as would have been represented by the number of shares of First Merchants common stock such shareholder would have received if the recapitalization had not occurred.

First Merchants will not issue fractional shares to Community Bancshares shareholders. Instead, Community Bancshares common shareholders will receive for each fractional share an amount in cash determined by multiplying (i) the fractional interest by (ii) the average of the closing price of the common stock of First Merchants as reported by Bloomberg, L.P. for the ten (10) days that First Merchants common stock trades on The NASDAQ Global Select Market preceding the fourth calendar day prior to the effective date of the Merger.

As described in more detail below, the allocation and proration procedures in the Merger Agreement are intended to ensure that the cash portion of the total consideration to be paid to Community Bancshares shareholders in connection with the Merger does not exceed $15,000,000. The allocation of the mix of consideration payable to Community Bancshares shareholders in the Merger will not be known until American Stock Transfer tallies the results of the cash and stock elections made by Community Bancshares shareholders, which will not occur until after the election deadline described below.

No assurance can be given that Community Bancshares shareholders will receive the full amount of cash they elect. As a result of the allocation and proration procedures and other limitations outlined in this proxy statement and prospectus and in the Merger Agreement, Community Bancshares shareholders electing to receive cash for all or a portion of their shares may receive cash and/or First Merchants common stock in amounts that vary from the amounts they elect to receive.

If you are a Community Bancshares shareholder and you receive First Merchants common stock as merger consideration for all or a portion of your shares of Community Bancshares common stock, the implied value of the consideration that you will receive in the Merger will depend on the market price of First Merchants common stock when you receive your shares of First Merchants common stock. The value of the stock consideration per share of Community Bancshare common stock, based upon First Merchants' closing stock price on September 23, 2014, the most recent practicable trading day before this proxy statement and prospectus was finalized, was $83.45 per share. No assurance can be given (and it is not likely) that the current market price of First Merchants common stock will be equivalent to the market price of First Merchants common stock on the date that shares of First Merchants common stock are received by a Community Bancshares shareholder or at any other time. At the time of completion of the Merger, the market price of the stock consideration could be greater or less than the value of the cash consideration due to fluctuations in the market price of First Merchants common stock.

An Election Form is included with this proxy statement and prospectus delivered to Community Bancshares shareholders who held shares of Community Bancshares common stock in registered form as of the record date for the special meeting. Each Election Form will allow the holder to make cash and/or stock elections or no elections. First Merchants and American Stock Transfer will undertake reasonable efforts to make the Election Form available to each person who subsequently becomes a holder of Community Bancshares common stock in the time between the record date for the special meeting and the election deadline. We refer to the shares with respect to which a valid cash election is made as "cash election shares," the shares with respect to which a valid stock election is made as "stock election shares," and the shares with respect to which no election is made as "non-election shares."

To make an effective election, a Community Bancshares shareholder must deliver a properly completed Election Form to American Stock Transfer by the election deadline, which is 5:00 p.m. (Eastern) on November 4, 2014. An election is properly made only if American Stock Transfer actually receives a properly completed and signed Election Form by the election deadline.

Generally, an election may be revoked or changed, but only by written notice received by American Stock Transfer prior to the election deadline accompanied by a revised Election Form. If an election is revoked and unless a subsequent properly completed Election Form is actually received by American Stock Transfer at or prior to the election deadline, the holder having revoked the election will be deemed to have made no election with respect to such person's shares of Community Bancshares common stock, such shares will be treated as non-election shares.

Community Bancshares shareholders will not be entitled to revoke or change their elections following the election deadline. As a result, Community Bancshares shareholders who have made elections will be unable to revoke their elections during the interval between the election deadline and the date of completion of the Merger. Any transfer of shares of Community Bancshares common stock for which a proper election has been made occurring following the election deadline in accordance with the Shareholders Agreement shall be subject to such election.

If a Community Bancshares shareholder either (i) does not submit a properly completed Election Form on or before the election deadline or (ii) revokes its Election Form prior to the election deadline (without later submitting a properly completed Election Form prior to the election deadline), the shares of Community Bancshares common stock held by such shareholder shall be designated as non-election shares and will be converted into the right to receive the stock consideration according to the allocation procedures set forth in the Merger Agreement and summarized below. In addition, if it is mutually determined by Community Bancshares and First Merchants that any purported cash election and/or stock election was not properly made, the purported election will be deemed to be of no force or effect and the holder making the purported election will be deemed not to have made an election for these purposes, unless a proper election is subsequently made on a timely basis. Community Bancshares shareholders are urged to carefully read and follow the instructions for completion of the Election Form and to submit the Election Form in advance of the election deadline. These instructions and the Election Form are included with this proxy statement and prospectus. You should not return your Community Bancshares stock certificates with the enclosed form of proxy or the Election Form, but should retain them until you receive a letter of transmittal from First Merchants following the completion of the Merger as described below.

On or prior to the effective date of the Merger, First Merchants will deposit with American Stock Transfer, as exchange agent, (i) cash in an amount sufficient to allow American Stock Transfer to make cash consideration payments under the terms of the Merger Agreement and (ii) certificates (or evidence of shares in book entry form) representing shares of First Merchants common stock, each to be given to the holders of Community Bancshares common stock in exchange for old certificates representing shares of Community Bancshares common stock. Within three (3) business days following the effective date of the Merger, First Merchants will mail a letter of transmittal to each person who was, immediately prior to the effective time of the Merger, a holder of record of Community Bancshares common stock. The letter of transmittal will contain instructions for use in effecting the surrender of Community Bancshares stock certificates in exchange for the consideration to which such person may be entitled pursuant to the Merger Agreement. Within ten (10) business days following the later of the effective date of the Merger or the surrender to American Stock Transfer of the old certificate(s) representing shares of Community Bancshares common stock for cancellation, together with such letter of transmittal duly executed and completed, the holder of such old certificate(s) will be provided a new certificate (or evidence of shares in book entry form) representing shares of First Merchants common stock and/or a check in the amount to which such holder is entitled pursuant to the Merger Agreement, and the old certificate will be canceled.

Until you surrender your Community Bancshares stock certificates for exchange, you will accrue, but will not be paid, any dividends or other distributions declared after the effective time of the Merger with respect to First Merchants common stock into which any of your shares may have been converted. When you surrender your Community Bancshares stock certificates, First Merchants will pay any unpaid dividends or other distributions, without interest. After the completion of the Merger, there will be no transfers on the stock transfer books of Community Bancshares of any shares of Community Bancshares common stock.

If a certificate for Community Bancshares common stock has been lost, stolen or destroyed, First Merchants will issue the consideration properly payable under the Merger Agreement to the registered owner of such certificate upon receipt of an affidavit of lost stock certificate, in form and substance satisfactory to First Merchants, and upon compliance by the Community Bancshares' shareholder with all procedures historically required by Community Bancshares in connection with lost, stolen or destroyed certificates.

Allocation and Proration Procedures

The aggregate amount of First Merchants common stock and cash that will be paid is subject to the allocation and proration procedures set forth in the Merger Agreement and described below. The allocation procedures are intended to ensure that the cash portion of the total consideration to be paid to Community Bancshares shareholders in connection with the Merger does not exceed $15,000,000 (which amount represents approximately 31.7% of the total outstanding shares of Community Bancshares common stock receiving $85.94 in cash per share). There is no limit on the number of outstanding shares of Community Bancshares common stock that may be exchanged for shares of First Merchants common stock at the 4.0926 exchange ratio.

Stock Consideration Allocation. If the number of cash election shares would entitle the holders of such shares and Community Bancshares shareholders receiving cash payments for fractional shares or exercising dissenters' rights pursuant to the terms of the Merger Agreement to receive cash payments of $15,000,000 or less, then all stock election shares and cash election shares will be honored in their entirety and all non-election shares will be converted into and treated as stock election shares. For purposes of the foregoing determination, all shares subject to a proper exercise of dissenters' rights will be counted as though such shares were cash election shares.

Cash Consideration Allocation. If the amount of cash to be received by holders of cash election shares and Community Bancshares shareholders receiving cash payments for fractional shares or the exercise of dissenters' rights would result in cash payments of more than $15,000,000, such cash election shares (not including any shares subject to a proper exercise of dissenters' rights) will be converted into stock election shares on a pro rata basis based on the total number of shares of Community Bancshares common stock held by each Community Bancshares shareholder with cash election shares, but only to the extent necessary so that the total remaining number of cash election shares is such that the Merger will (i) result in total cash payments of no more than $15,000,000 for cash election shares and Community Bancshares shareholders receiving payments for fractional shares or exercising dissenters' rights and (ii) satisfy the "continuity of interest" requirement applicable to tax-free reorganizations under the Internal Revenue Code. All cash election shares which are not converted into stock election shares will remain as cash election shares and all non-election shares will be converted into and treated as stock election shares.

As described above, a fixed amount of $15,000,000 (which amount represents approximately 31.7% (or approximately 174,350 shares) of the total outstanding shares of Community Bancshares common stock receiving $85.94 in cash per share) will be paid to Community Bancshares shareholders in the Merger. The remaining merger consideration will be issued in the form of shares of First Merchants common stock, and there is no limit on the number of outstanding shares of Community Bancshares common stock that may be exchanged for shares of First Merchants common stock at the 4.0926 exchange ratio. Accordingly, while Community Bancshares shareholders making stock elections will receive the full amount of any such stock elections, no assurance can be given that Community Bancshares shareholders making cash elections will receive the full amount of any such cash elections.

Although no assurance can be given that Community Bancshares shareholders making cash elections will receive the full amount of any such cash elections, the allocation and proration procedures described above with respect to an oversubscription of cash election shares are intended to honor, to the extent possible, cash elections made by a Community Bancshares shareholder in an amount proportionate to such shareholder's percentage ownership relative to that of other Community Bancshares shareholders making cash elections, subject to any required reductions for the payment of cash in lieu of fractional shares of First Merchants common stock and any shares which are subject to a proper exercise of dissenters' rights under Indiana law. Accordingly, solely for purposes of illustration, assuming there are no required payments for fractional shares and no shareholders electing to exercise dissenters' rights under Indiana law, a shareholder making a valid cash election with respect to 31.7% or less of such shareholder's total shares of Community Bancshares common stock generally would have all such cash election shares honored, including in the event of an oversubscription of the total cash election shares. Applying the same assumptions but assuming an oversubscription of the total cash election shares, the cash election shares of a shareholder making a valid cash election which exceed 31.7% of such shareholder's total shares of Community Bancshares common stock generally would be converted into stock election shares on a pro rata basis based on such shareholder's percentage ownership relative to the percentage ownership of other Community Bancshares shareholders with cash elections exceeding 31.7% of the total shares held by such shareholders.

Effect of the Merger on First Merchants Shareholders

The approval of the First Merchants shareholders of the Merger Agreement is not required in order to complete the Merger. First Merchants shareholders will also not be entitled to exchange their shares of First Merchant common stock for any consideration as a result of the Merger. After the Merger, First Merchants shareholders will continue to own the same number of First Merchants shares they owned before the Merger.

Background of the Merger

As part of its ongoing consideration and evaluation of Community Bancshares' long-term prospects and strategies, the Board of Directors of Community Bancshares has periodically discussed and reviewed strategic opportunities to maximize value for its shareholders. These opportunities have included, among other alternatives, continuing as an independent institution, growing internally and through branch acquisitions, or affiliating or merging with another institution.

In 2008, Community Bancshares commenced a process to receive indications of interest from other financial institutions. At the same time, the Board of Directors of Community Bancshares was considering electing S Corporation tax status in order to receive more favorable tax treatment. Due to depressed valuation multiples of the indications of interest received, the Board of Directors decided to pursue the S Corporation election.

As with many community banks during this time period, conditions during 2008 through 2011 were especially challenging for Community Bancshares as a result of the financial crisis and the downturn in the real estate market. During this period Community Bancshares experienced increases in its nonperforming assets and loan loss provision. The loan loss provision for Community Bancshares increased to $3.2 million and $1.9 million in 2010 and 2011, respectively.

In 2008, Community Bank entered into a Memorandum of Understanding (the "Compliance MOU") with the Regional Director of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (the "FDIC") pursuant to which Community Bank was required to take a number of actions to address compliance with banking laws and regulations.

In 2010, Community Bank entered into a Memorandum of Understanding ("MOU") with the Regional Director of the FDIC and the Director of the Indiana Department of Financial Institutions (the "IDFI"). The MOU was updated from time to time as Community Bank made progress with respect to the actions required by the MOU. Under the MOU, Community Bank was required to take a number of actions to improve the asset quality of its loan portfolio and to obtain the prior written consent of the Regional Director of the FDIC and the Director of the IDFI in connection with the declaration and payment of dividends.

On June 23, 2010, the Federal Reserve Bank of Chicago ("FRB") required the Board of Directors of Community Bancshares to adopt resolutions which would require prior approval of the FRB in order to declare or pay any dividends, incur debt, or redeem any shares of stock of Community Bancshares.

During the post financial crisis period, management and the Board of Directors assessed significant operating risk increases in the banking industry. Specifically, costs associated with increasing compliance and safety and soundness regulatory burdens, necessary technology enhancements, and increasing competition were noted as threats to a continued independence strategy. During the same period of time, public announcements of community bank acquisitions began to report transaction valuation multiples which had generally been unavailable since before the beginning of the financial crisis.

Facing the challenges of generating consistent earnings through organic growth, management and the Board of Directors of Community Bancshares continued to evaluate strategic options, including a possible merger of Community Bancshares with another financial institution. It was concluded that scale might be needed to absorb additional operating and regulatory costs in a stagnant, slow growth economy.

As the financial recovery began in 2012, the nonperforming assets improved significantly. The loan loss provision for Community Bancshares dropped significantly in 2012 and 2013 to $255,000 and $40,000, respectively. As Community Bancshares financial position improved the level of interest from other financial institutions increased.

On February 8, 2013, the Compliance MOU was terminated by the FDIC.

In December, 2013, Community Bancshares received an unsolicited expression of interest from another financial institution. This expression of interest recognized the improvement in nonperforming assets of Community Bank and increased valuation for banking transactions. Preliminary due diligence was conducted by the potential merger partner and they provided a draft of a merger agreement. The valuation presented by the potential merger partner was from $40 million to $41.5 million or $72.72 to $75.45 per share. In February, 2014, the potential merger partner informed Community Bancshares that it was no longer interested in a merger transaction indicating that they did not believe the merger was a strategic fit for them.

In April, 2014, executives of First Merchants and Community Bancshares met over dinner to discuss a potential merger transaction. At the dinner, in addition to representatives of STRH, were the President and Chief Executive Officer of First Merchants, Michael C. Rechin, the Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of First Merchants, Mark K. Hardwick, and the Chairman and President of Community Bancshares, Charles L. Crow.

On May 5, 2014, Mr. Crow, together with the other executive officers of Community Bancshares, Larry W. Riggs and Russell W. Freed, met with executives of First Merchants at their Danville Operations Center to further understand the benefits of a merger between the two institutions.

First Merchants then submitted to Community Bancshares a non-binding letter of interest dated May 23, 2014, which included an exchange ratio of 3.81 which provided a valuation of $44 million (based upon $21 per share of First Merchants common stock) including up to $10 million of cash.

On May 30th, the Board of Directors of Community Bancshares met to discuss the letter of interest and consider the tax consequences of the transaction. A representative of Crowe Horwath LLP ("Crowe"), the independent public accounting firm and tax advisors for Community Bancshares, attended the meeting. The directors determined to continue discussions with First Merchants.

First Merchants then commenced a due diligence review of Community Bancshares and Community Bancshares commenced a due diligence review of First Merchants. Additionally, further discussions were held with respect to the financial consideration to be provided by First Merchants.

On June 16, 2014, Bingham Greenebaum Doll LLP ("Bingham"), legal counsel to First Merchants, submitted a draft merger agreement. The draft merger agreement contained an increased exchange ratio of 3.9765 which provided a valuation of $46 million (based upon $21 per share of First Merchants common stock) including up to $10 million of cash. The increase in merger consideration from the letter of interest was based in part on the additional financial information of Community Bancshares made available to First Merchants.

Later that day the Board of Directors of Community Bancshares met to discuss the potential merger transaction with First Merchants. A representative of Krieg DeVault LLP ("Krieg DeVault"), legal counsel to Community Bancshares, attended the meeting. During the meeting the directors received an update on the current terms of the proposed merger and implications of the transaction on the S corporation election and the tax treatment of the shareholders of Community Bancshares. Legal counsel provided a review of the fiduciary and legal obligations applicable to directors in connection with a merger transaction and provided an overview of the process involved in a merger transaction. Towards the end of the Board meeting, Messrs. Rechin and Hardwick joined the meeting to present an overview of First Merchants and answer questions about First Merchants and the proposed merger.

During the period from June 16, 2014, through July 17, 2014, the parties exchanged comments and negotiated changes to the draft merger agreement. Additionally, during this time period the parties continued their respective due diligence review and provided drafts of their respective disclosure letters to the merger agreement.

On July 8, 2014, executives of First Merchants and Community Bancshares met to review the nonperforming assets of Community Bancshares in order to determine whether the valuation of the nonperforming assets could be increased. As a result, on July 9, 2014, First Merchants communicated that the merger consideration would be increased to an exchange ratio of 4.0926 which provided a valuation of $47 million (based upon $21 per share of First Merchants common stock) including up to $15 million of cash.

On July 10, 2014, the Board of Directors of Community Bancshares met to receive an update on the current terms and tax implications of the proposed merger. Representatives of Crowe attended the meeting. A representative of Krieg DeVault also attended the meeting. At the meeting, the directors determined that the shareholders of Community Bancshares would need to continue to receive estimated tax distributions for all income that may be allocated to the shareholders. Additionally, the Board of Directors determined to engage STRH to provide a fairness opinion.

On July 17, 2014, Bingham sent a responsive draft of the merger agreement to Krieg DeVault. This draft together with ancillary documents were provided to the directors of Community Bancshares for their consideration at a special meeting of the Board of Directors to be held on July 21, 2014.

At the special meeting, in addition to all of the members of the Board of Directors, representatives of Krieg DeVault and STRH were in attendance. The representatives of STRH reviewed with the Board of Directors SRTH's financial analysis of the merger consideration and delivered to the Board of Directors STRH's oral opinion, which was subsequently confirmed in writing, that, based upon and subject to the assumptions, limitations, qualifications and conditions set forth in SRTH's written opinion, as of the date of the special meeting, the Merger Consideration to be received in the Merger by the holders of Community Bancshares common stock was fair, from a financial point of view, to such holders, other than the Excluded Holders. Representatives of Krieg DeVault led a discussion regarding the provisions of the latest merger agreement draft and ancillary documents and responded to questions from the directors.

After careful consideration of the matters discussed at the special meeting, the Board of Directors of Community Bancshares unanimously (i) determined that the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby were in the best interests of the Community Bancshares and its shareholders, (ii) approved and adopted the Merger Agreement and the other transactions contemplated thereby, and (iii) recommended the approval and adoption of the Merger Agreement to the shareholders of Community Bancshares.

Later that day on July 21, 2014, the parties executed the definitive transaction documents, and publicly announced the transaction by issuing a joint press release on July 22, 2014.

First Merchants' Reasons for the Merger

In reaching its decision to adopt and approve the Merger Agreement, the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, the First Merchants Board of Directors consulted with First Merchants management and considered a number of factors, including the following material factors:

- each of First Merchants' and Community Bancshares' business, operations, financial condition, asset quality, earnings and prospects. In reviewing these factors, the First Merchants Board of Directors considered that the Merger (1) will expand First Merchants' business within demographically attractive markets in Central Indiana; (2) will increase First Merchants' core deposit base, an important funding source; (3) will provide First Merchants with an experienced management team and quality bank branches in and around Central Indiana; and (4) will provide First Merchants with the opportunity to sell First Merchants' broad array of products to Community Bancshares' client base;

- its review and discussions with First Merchants' management concerning the due diligence examination of Community Bancshares;
- the complementary nature of the cultures of the two companies, which management believes should facilitate integration and implementation of the transaction;
- the financial and other terms of the Merger Agreement, including the fixed exchange ratio, tax treatment and deal protection and termination fee provisions, which it reviewed with its outside financial and legal advisors;
- the potential risk of diverting management attention and resources from the operation of First Merchants' business towards the completion of the Merger; and
- the regulatory and other approvals required in connection with the Merger and the expectation that such regulatory approvals will be received in a timely manner and without the imposition of unacceptable conditions.

The foregoing discussion of the information and factors considered by the First Merchants Board of Directors is not intended to be exhaustive, but includes the material factors considered by the First Merchants Board of Directors. In reaching its decision to approve and adopt the Merger Agreement, the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, the First Merchants Board of Directors did not quantify or assign any relative weights to the factors considered, and individual directors may have given different weights to different factors. The First Merchants Board of Directors considered all these factors as a whole, including discussions with, and questioning of, First Merchants' management and First Merchants' financial and legal advisors, and overall considered the factors to be favorable to, and to support, its determination.

For the reasons set forth above, the First Merchants Board of Directors unanimously determined that the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement are advisable and in the best interests of First Merchants and its shareholders, and unanimously approved and adopted the Merger Agreement.

Community Bancshares' Reasons for the Merger

In reaching its decision to adopt and approve the Merger Agreement, the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, and to recommend that its shareholders approve the Merger Agreement, Community Bancshares' Board of Directors consulted with Community Bancshares management, as well as its financial and legal advisors, and considered a number of factors, including the following material factors:

- the belief that, while no assurances could be given, the business and financial advantages contemplated in connection with the Merger were likely to be achieved within a reasonable time frame, particularly in light of the fact that First Merchants has transition experience due to successfully completed acquisitions in the past; and
- the opinion of STRH orally delivered to the Community Bancshares Board of Directors on July 21, 2014, and subsequently confirmed in writing, that, as of July 21, 2014, and based upon and subject to the conditions, limitations, qualifications and assumptions set forth in the opinion, the Merger Consideration to be received in the Merger by the holders of Community Bancshares common stock was fair, from a financial point of view, to such holders of Community Bancshares common stock, other than any Excluded Holders.

The foregoing discussion of the information and factors considered by the Community Bancshares Board of Directors is not intended to be exhaustive, but includes the material factors considered by the Community Bancshares Board of Directors. In reaching its decision to approve and adopt the Merger Agreement, the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, the Community Bancshares Board of Directors did not quantify or assign any relative weights to the factors considered, and individual directors may have given different weights to different factors. The Community Bancshares Board of Directors considered all these factors as a whole, including discussions with, and questioning of, Community Bancshares' management and Community Bancshares' financial and legal advisors, and overall considered the factors to be favorable to, and to support, its determination.

For the reasons set forth above, the Community Bancshares Board of Directors unanimously determined that the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement are advisable and in the best interests of Community Bancshares and its shareholders, and unanimously adopted and approved the Merger Agreement.

Opinion of SunTrust Robinson Humphrey, Inc.

On July 21, 2014, STRH delivered to the Board of Directors of Community Bancshares an oral opinion, which was confirmed by delivery of a written opinion, dated July 21, 2014, to the effect that, as of the date of the opinion and based upon and subject to the conditions, limitations, qualifications and assumptions set forth in the opinion, the Merger Consideration (as defined below) to be received in the Merger by the holders of Community Bancshares common stock was fair, from a financial point of view, to such holders of Community Bancshares common stock, other than the Excluded Holders. STRH has consented to the use of its opinion and related disclosure in this proxy statement and prospectus.

The full text of the written opinion of STRH, which sets forth, among other things, the assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and limitations on the review undertaken in connection with the opinion of STRH, is attached as Annex C to this proxy statement and prospectus and is incorporated herein by reference. STRH's opinion was furnished solely for the use of the Board of Directors of Community Bancshares (solely in its capacity as such) in connection with its evaluation of the Merger. STRH's opinion is limited solely to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the Merger Consideration to be received in the Merger by the holders of Community Bancshares common stock (other than the Excluded Holders) and does not address Community Bancshares' underlying business decision to effect the Merger or the relative merits of the Merger as compared to any alternative business strategies or transactions that might be available with respect to Community Bancshares. The STRH opinion was not intended to be, and does not constitute, a recommendation to the Board of Directors of Community Bancshares, Community Bancshares, any security holder of Community Bancshares or any other person or entity as to how to act or vote with respect to any matter relating to the Merger or otherwise, including whether a holder of Community Bancshares common stock should elect to receive the Cash Consideration or the Stock Consideration (each as defined below). STRH's opinion was approved by an internal opinion committee of STRH authorized to approve opinions of this nature.

- the publicly available financial terms of certain transactions that STRH deemed relevant; and
- current and historical market conditions and certain financial, stock market and other publicly available information relating to the business of other companies and banks whose operations STRH considered relevant.

STRH also had discussions with certain members of the management of Community Bancshares and First Merchants regarding the business, financial condition, assets, results of operations, and prospects of Community Bancshares and First Merchants and the Merger and undertook such other studies, analyses and investigations as STRH deemed appropriate.

STRH relied upon and assumed, without independent verification, the accuracy and completeness of all data, material and other information furnished, or otherwise made available, to STRH, discussed with or reviewed by STRH, and did not assume any responsibility with respect to such data, material and other information. STRH's role in reviewing such data, material and other information was limited solely to performing such review as STRH deemed necessary and appropriate to support its opinion. In addition, STRH assumed, at the direction of Community Bancshares and without independent verification or investigation, that the Projections were reasonably prepared in good faith on bases reflecting the best currently available information, estimates and judgments of management of Community Bancshares and management of First Merchants as to the future financial results and condition of Community Bancshares and First Merchants. STRH expressed no opinion with respect to the Projections or the assumptions on which they were based, or any other assumptions discussed in its opinion. STRH relied upon and assumed, without independent verification, that there had been no change in the business, assets, liabilities, financial condition, results of operations, cash flows or prospects of Community Bancshares or First Merchants since the respective dates of their most recent financial statements and other information, financial or otherwise, provided to STRH and that there was no information, facts or circumstances that would make any of the data, material or other information discussed with or reviewed by STRH inaccurate, incomplete or misleading.

STRH also relied upon and assumed without independent verification that (a) the representations and warranties of all parties to the Merger Agreement are true and correct; (b) each party to the Merger Agreement will fully and timely perform all of the covenants and agreements required to be performed by such party under the Merger Agreement; (c) all conditions to the consummation of the Merger will be satisfied without waiver thereof; (d) the Merger will be consummated in accordance with the terms of the Merger Agreement without waiver, modification or amendment of any term, condition or agreement therein; and (e) in the course of obtaining any regulatory or third-party consents, approvals or agreements in connection with the Merger, no delay, limitation, restriction or condition will be imposed that would have an adverse effect on Community Bancshares, First Merchants or the expected benefits of the Merger. STRH also assumed that the Merger will be treated as a tax-free reorganization for federal income tax purposes. In addition, STRH assumed that the Merger Agreement, when executed by the parties thereto, would conform to the draft reviewed by STRH in all respects material to STRH's analysis and its opinion.

Furthermore, in connection with its opinion, STRH was not requested to review, and STRH did not review, individual credit files, nor was STRH requested to make, and STRH did not make, any physical inspection or independent appraisal or evaluation of any of the assets, properties, facilities or liabilities (including any fixed, contingent, derivative or off-balance-sheet assets or liabilities or any portfolio securities or any collateral securing assets or securities) of Community Bancshares, First Merchants, any of their subsidiaries, or any other person or entity, nor was STRH provided with any such appraisal or evaluation. In addition, STRH is not an expert in the evaluation of loan or lease portfolios for purposes of assessing the adequacy of the allowances for losses with respect to such portfolios or for any other purpose and, accordingly, STRH has assumed, without independent investigation or verification, that Community Bancshares' and First Merchants' allowances for such losses are in the aggregate adequate to cover any losses. STRH did not undertake any independent analysis of any potential or actual litigation, regulatory action, governmental investigation, possible unasserted claims or other contingent liabilities to which Community Bancshares, First Merchants, any of their subsidiaries or any other person or entity is or may be a party or is or may be subject. STRH was not requested to, and STRH did not, (a) initiate or participate in any discussions or negotiations with, or solicit any indications of interest from, third parties with respect to the Merger, the securities, assets, businesses or operations of Community Bancshares or any other party, or any alternatives to the Merger; (b) negotiate the terms of the Merger; or (c) advise the Board of Directors of Community Bancshares or any other party with respect to alternatives to the Merger.

The opinion of STRH was necessarily based on financial, economic, monetary, market and other conditions as in effect on, and the data, material and other information made available to STRH as of, the date of the delivery of its opinion, July 21, 2014. STRH had and has no obligation to update, revise, reaffirm or withdraw its opinion or otherwise comment upon events occurring or information that has become or becomes available after its delivery of its opinion.

The opinion of STRH only addresses the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the Merger Consideration to be received in the Merger by the holders of Community Bancshares common stock (other than the Excluded Holders), and does not address any other term, aspect or implication of the Merger or any agreement, arrangement or understanding entered into in connection therewith or otherwise. STRH was not requested to opine as to, and its opinion does not express an opinion as to or otherwise address, among other things: (i) the underlying business decision of Community Bancshares, its security holders or any other person or entity to proceed with or effect the Merger; (ii) the form, structure or any other portion or aspect of, the Merger; (iii) the fairness of any portion, term, aspect or implication of the Merger to the holders of debt of Community Bancshares, or any particular holder of securities, creditors or other constituencies of Community Bancshares, or to any other person or entity, except as expressly set forth in the last paragraph of the opinion; (iv) the relative merits of the Merger as compared to any alternative business strategies that might exist for Community Bancshares or any other person or entity or the effect of any other transaction in which Community Bancshares or any other person or entity might engage; (v) whether or not First Merchants, Community Bancshares, its security holders or any other person or entity is receiving or paying reasonably equivalent value in the Merger; (vi) the solvency, creditworthiness, viability, ability to pay debts when due, or fair value of Community Bancshares, First Merchants or any other participant in the Merger, or any of their respective assets, including under any applicable laws relating to bankruptcy, insolvency, fraudulent conveyance or similar matters, or the impact of the Merger on such matters; (vii) the fairness, financial or otherwise, of the amount, nature or any other aspect of any compensation to or consideration payable to or received by any officers, directors or employees of any party to the Merger or any class of such persons; (viii) the fairness of any term or aspect of the Merger to any one class of Community Bancshares' security holders relative to any other class of Community Bancshares' security holders, including the allocation of any consideration among or within such classes; or (ix) the fairness of the Cash Consideration relative to the Stock Consideration and vice versa.

As specified in the engagement letter between STRH and Community Bancshares relating to the delivery of STRH's opinion, (i) STRH was engaged by Community Bancshares and its opinion was to be delivered to the Board of Directors of Community Bancshares, (ii) nothing in the engagement letter shall be deemed to create a fiduciary or agency relationship between STRH and Community Bancshares or its shareholders, and (iii) Community Bancshares' engagement of STRH was not intended to confer on any person or entity (other than Community Bancshares, Community Bancshares' Board of Directors and certain indemnified parties identified in the engagement letter) any relationship, rights or remedies under or by reason of the engagement letter or as a result of the services rendered by STRH under the engagement letter. Under such circumstances, no privity is created between STRH and Community Bancshares' shareholders regarding STRH's delivery of its opinion to the Community Bancshares Board of Directors and, consequently, you may not rely on STRH's opinion to support any claims against STRH arising under applicable state law. The availability of "no privity" defenses to STRH and the question of whether such defenses are available under these circumstances would be resolved by a court of competent jurisdiction. In any event, the resolution of whether such defense is available to STRH would have no effect on (i) the rights and responsibilities of Community Bancshares' Board of Directors under applicable state law or (ii) the rights and responsibilities of either STRH or Community Bancshares' Board of Directors under federal securities laws.

Furthermore, in STRH's opinion, no opinion, counsel or interpretation is intended in matters that require legal, regulatory, accounting, insurance, tax or other similar professional advice. STRH assumed that such opinions, counsel or interpretations have been or will be obtained from appropriate professional sources. STRH relied, with the Community Bancshares Board of Directors' consent, on the assessments by Community Bancshares and the Board of Directors and their respective advisors as to all legal, regulatory, accounting, insurance and tax matters with respect to Community Bancshares, First Merchants and the Merger. STRH was not asked to, and STRH did not, offer any opinion as to any terms or conditions of the Merger Agreement or the form of the Merger, other than as expressly set forth in the last paragraph of its opinion with respect to the Merger Consideration. STRH did not express any opinion as to what the value of the First Merchants common stock actually will be when issued pursuant to the Merger Agreement or the price or range of prices at which shares of First Merchants common stock may trade at any time.

The following is a summary of the material financial analyses presented by STRH to the Board of Directors at its meeting held on July 21, 2014, in connection with STRH's opinion.

Some of the summaries of financial analyses below include information presented in tabular format. In order to fully understand STRH's analyses, the tables must be read together with the text of each summary. The tables alone do not constitute a complete description of the analyses. Considering the data described below without considering the full narrative description of the financial analyses, including the methodologies and assumptions underlying the analyses, could create a misleading or incomplete view of STRH's analyses.

Summary of Financial Terms

STRH reviewed the financial terms of the proposed Merger. Under the terms of the Merger Agreement, each Community Bancshares shareholder may elect to receive either (i) 4.0926 shares of First Merchants common stock for every one share of Community Bancshares common stock (the "Stock Consideration") or (ii) $85.94 in cash consideration for every share of Community Bancshares common stock (the "Cash Consideration" and together with the Stock Consideration, the "Merger Consideration"), subject to a maximum of $15 million in aggregate Cash Consideration. STRH calculated an approximate aggregate transaction value of $47.27 million, or $85.94 per share. The aggregate transaction value will be impacted by changes in First

Merchants' common stock price until the closing of the Merger. Based upon financial information as of or for the twelve month periods ended March 31 and June 30, 2014, STRH calculated the following transaction ratios:

	March 31, 2014	June 30, 2014
Transaction Value / Book Value	132.1%	125.3%
Transaction Value / Tangible Book Value	132.1%	125.3%
Transaction Value / 9.00% Tangible Common Equity(1)	149.5%	142.0%
Transaction Value / 2013 Stated Earnings(2)	28.7x	28.7x
Transaction Value / LTM Earnings(2)	26.8x	21.1x
Transaction Value / LTM Pre-Tax, Pre-Provision Earnings	16.3x	12.9x
Core Deposit Premium	5.2%	4.3%
Transaction Value / Assets	17.5%	17.7%

- (1) For purposes of this calculation, STRH calculated the amount of tangible common equity in excess of 9.00% of tangible assets. STRH then divided the transaction value (less this excess amount) by tangible common equity (less this excess amount) to produce the percentages shown above.
- (2) Pre-tax earnings adjusted for the impact of an assumed 39% marginal tax rate.

STRH then calculated the average of the four implied per share valuations to generate a reference range for Community Bancshares of $62.48 to $87.25, as compared to the implied valuation per share in the Merger of $85.94.

No companies used in the analyses described above are identical to Community Bancshares, First Merchants or the pro forma combined company. Accordingly, an analysis of these results involves complex considerations and judgments concerning differences in financial and operating characteristics of the companies.

Net Present Value Analysis

STRH performed an analysis that estimated the present value of the estimated future unlevered free cash flows projected to be generated by Community Bancshares through December 31, 2019. The analysis assumed that Community Bancshares performed in accordance with management's financial projections for years ended December 31, 2014 through 2019. STRH assumed these projections were reasonably prepared in good faith on bases reflecting the best currently available information, estimates and judgments of management.

STRH calculated the implied Community Bancshares valuation using a range of median earnings and TBV multiples, as well as a range of discount rates with the assumptions below:

- Assumes the base case discount rate of 14.5%, which was arrived using the Ibbotson methodology, with sensitivities from 12.5% to 16.5%.
- 2019 terminal value based on P/E multiple of 15.0x and P/TBV multiple of 1.10x. STRH also sensitized the terminal year P/E multiples from 14.0x—16.0x and the terminal year P/TBV multiple from 1.00x - 1.20x.
- Assumes that excess TCE above 9.0% will be returned to shareholders annually.

16.5%	$51.88	$52.96	$54.04	$55.12	$56.21

This analysis indicated an implied per share reference range for Community Bancshares of $51.88 to $62.87, as compared to the implied valuation per share in the Merger of $85.94.

STRH also considered how these analyses would be affected by changes in the underlying assumptions, including variations with respect to annual net income. To illustrate this impact, STRH calculated the impact to implied valuation using an adjusted discounted cash flow case by sensitizing the annual earnings estimates by 10% above and below the base case annually. The analysis resulted in the table below for a reference range of Community Bancshares per share value, using a discount rate of 14.5%.

Miscellaneous

This summary of the analyses is not a complete description of STRH's opinion or the analyses underlying, and factors considered in connection with, STRH's opinion and reviewed with the Board of Directors. The preparation of a fairness opinion is a complex analytical process and is not necessarily susceptible to partial analysis or summary description. Selecting portions of the analyses or summary set forth above, without considering the analyses as a whole, could create an incomplete view of the processes underlying STRH's opinion. In arriving at its fairness opinion, STRH considered the results of all of its analyses and did not attribute any particular weight to any factor or analysis. Rather, STRH reached its fairness opinion on the basis of its experience and professional judgment after considering the results of all of its analyses.

No company or transaction used in the analyses described above is directly comparable to Community Bancshares, First Merchants or the Merger. In addition, such analyses do not purport to be appraisals, nor do they necessarily reflect the prices at which businesses or securities actually may be sold. Analyses based upon forecasts or projections of future results are not necessarily indicative of actual future results, which may be significantly more or less favorable than suggested by such analyses. Because the analyses described above are inherently subject to uncertainty, being based upon numerous factors or events beyond the control of the parties or their respective advisors, neither Community Bancshares nor STRH or any other person assumes responsibility if future results are materially different from those forecast.

The Merger Consideration was determined through arms' length negotiations between Community Bancshares and First Merchants and was approved by Community Bancshares' Board of Directors. STRH did not recommend any specific consideration to Community Bancshares, or that any specific amount or type of consideration constituted the only appropriate consideration for the Merger.

In addition, Community Bancshares agreed to reimburse certain of STRH's expenses and to indemnify STRH and certain related parties for certain liabilities arising out of STRH's engagement.

STRH and its affiliates (including SunTrust Bank) may have in the past provided, are currently providing, and may in the future provide, investment banking, investment management, treasury management, wealth management, securities sales and trading and other financial services to Community Bancshares and its affiliates and associates (and First Merchants and its affiliates and associates) for which STRH and its affiliates have received and would expect to receive compensation. During the two year period preceding the date of its opinion, STRH and its affiliates received $13,000 in fees from First Merchants and its affiliates.

STRH is a full service securities firm engaged in securities trading and brokerage activities as well as providing investment banking and other financial services. In the ordinary course of business, STRH and its affiliates (including SunTrust Bank) may acquire, hold or sell, for its and its affiliates' accounts and the accounts of customers, equity, debt and other securities and financial instruments (including bank loans and other obligations) of Community Bancshares, First Merchants, their respective affiliates and any other party that may be involved in the Merger, as well as provide investment banking and other financial services to such persons or entities, including for which STRH and its affiliates would expect to receive compensation. Recommendation of the Community Bancshares Board of Directors

The Board of Directors of Community Bancshares has carefully considered, unanimously approved and adopted the Merger Agreement, and unanimously recommends to the Community Bancshares shareholders that they approve the Merger Agreement.

Rights of Dissenting Shareholders

Under Indiana law, Community Bancshares shareholders have dissenters' rights with respect to the Merger. The dissenters' rights of Community Bancshares shareholders are set forth in Chapter 44 of the Indiana Business Corporation Law, a copy of which is attached to this document as Annex B. Community Bancshares shareholders must strictly comply with the procedures set forth in Chapter 44 of the Indiana Business Corporation Law to be entitled to receive a fair value cash payment for their shares of Community Bancshares common stock rather than having such shares converted into the right to receive the consideration in the Merger as described above.

As a Community Bancshares shareholder, Chapter 44 of the Indiana Business Corporation Law provides that you have the right to demand payment in cash for the fair value of the shares of Community Bancshares common stock you own immediately before the Merger is completed. Such fair market value excludes any appreciation or depreciation on the value of your shares in anticipation of the Merger, unless a court determines that such exclusion would be inequitable. To assert your dissenters' rights, you must first:

1. deliver to Community Bancshares before November 3, 2014, written notice of your intent to demand payment in cash for your shares if the Merger is completed; and
2. you must not vote in favor of the Merger. To not vote in favor of the Merger, you must either vote against the Merger Proposal or abstain from voting on the Merger Proposal in person or by proxy or simply take no action at all with respect to voting your shares.

Dissenting shareholders may not dissent as to only some but not all of the Community Bancshares common stock registered in their names, except in limited circumstances. Dissenting shareholders may send their written notice to:

Community Bancshares, Inc.
830 Logan Street
Noblesville, Indiana 46060
Attention: William C. Delullo, Corporate Secretary

If the Merger Proposal is approved by the Community Bancshares shareholders, Community Bancshares must deliver a written notice of dissenters' rights to each dissenting shareholder satisfying the above conditions within ten (10) days after shareholder approval has occurred. The notice to dissenting shareholders must:

1. state where the payment demand must be sent and where and when certificates for certificated shares must be deposited;
2. inform holders of uncertificated shares to what extent transfer of the shares will be restricted after the payment demand is received;
3. supply a form for demanding payment that includes the date of the first announcement to news media or to shareholders of the terms of the proposed Merger, which was July 22, 2014, and require that the dissenting shareholder certify whether or not that shareholder acquired beneficial ownership of the shares before that date;
4. set a date by which Community Bancshares must receive the payment demand, which date may not be fewer than 30 nor more than 60 days after the date the notice to dissenters is delivered; and
5. be accompanied by a copy of Chapter 44 of the Indiana Business Corporation Law.

If you receive such a notice, to exercise your dissenters' rights, you must then:

1. demand payment for the shares of Community Bancshares common stock you own;
2. certify that you owned the Community Bancshares shares before July 22, 2014; and
3. deposit your Community Bancshares stock certificates in accordance with the instructions in such notice.

If a Community Bancshares shareholder does not strictly comply with each of the conditions described above, the shareholder will not be entitled to dissenters' rights under Chapter 44 of the Indiana Business Corporation Law. If you execute and return the enclosed proxy but do not specify a choice on the Merger Proposal, you will be deemed to have voted in favor of the Merger and, accordingly, to have waived your dissenters' rights, unless you revoke the proxy prior to its being voted. Accordingly, if you return the enclosed proxy and wish to dissent from the Merger, you must vote your Community Bancshares shares against the Merger Proposal or abstain from voting.

Upon completion of the Merger, First Merchants will pay each dissenting Community Bancshares shareholder who has complied with all of the requirements of Chapter 44 of the Indiana Business Corporation Law and of the notice, First Merchants' estimate of the fair value of their shares immediately prior to the consummation of the Merger, excluding any appreciation in value in anticipation of the Merger.

Dissenting shareholders can object to the fair value established by First Merchants by stating their estimate of the fair value and demanding payment of the additional amount within 30 days after First Merchants makes or offers payment to the dissenting shareholder. First Merchants can elect to agree to the dissenting shareholder's fair value demand or commence an action within 60 days of receipt of the dissenting shareholder's demand in the Circuit or Superior Court of Hamilton County for a judicial determination of the fair value. The court may appoint one or more appraisers to determine the fair value. The court will assess the costs of the proceeding, including compensation and expenses of the appraisers, counsel for the parties and experts, against all parties to the action in such amounts as the court finds equitable. Each dissenting shareholder made a party to the action will be entitled to receive the amount, if any, by which the court finds the fair value of the dissenter's shares, plus interest, exceeds the amount paid by First Merchants.

This summary of the rights of dissenting shareholders addresses all material features of the applicable Indiana dissenters' rights statute, but does not contain a description of all requirements of the dissenters' rights statute and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the statutory provisions attached to this document as Annex B.

If you wish to exercise dissenters' rights with respect to the Merger and you fail to comply with the statutory requirements for exercising dissenters' rights, you will lose such rights. Accordingly, Community Bancshares shareholders who may wish to exercise dissenters' rights should consider seeking legal counsel.

Registration of First Merchants Common Stock

Shares of First Merchants common stock to be issued to Community Bancshares shareholders in the Merger will be registered under the Securities Act. These shares may be traded freely without restriction by those Community Bancshares shareholders not considered to be "affiliates" of First Merchants under the Securities Act after the Merger is complete. At the present time, there are no persons involved in the management of Community Bancshares who are anticipated to be an "affiliate" of First Merchants after the Merger.

Regulatory Approvals

The Merger cannot be completed until First Merchants receives necessary regulatory approvals, which include the approval of the Federal Reserve Board as to the Merger and the OCC as to the Bank Merger. First Merchants has filed an application with the OCC for approval of the Bank Merger and intends to request a waiver from filing an application with the Federal Reserve Board concerning the Merger in accordance with applicable Federal Reserve Board regulations. First Merchants cannot be certain when such approval or waiver will be obtained or if they will be obtained.

In reviewing the OCC application, the OCC considers various factors including:

1. the financial and managerial resources and future prospects of First Merchants and its subsidiaries;
2. the competitive effects of the Bank Merger; and
3. the convenience and needs of the community served by Community Bank.

The OCC may not approve the Bank Merger if it finds that the effect of the Bank Merger substantially lessens competition, tends to create a monopoly or results in a restraint of trade, unless the OCC finds that the anti-competitive effects of the proposed Bank Merger are outweighed by the public interest and the probable effect of the Bank Merger in meeting the convenience and needs of the communities to be served.

After the OCC's approval is received, the Bank Merger cannot be completed for 30 days. During this 30-day waiting period, the United States Department of Justice has the authority to challenge the Bank Merger on antitrust grounds. With the approval of the OCC and the Department of Justice, the waiting period can be reduced to 15 days.

The approval of the OCC is not the opinion of the regulatory authority that the Merger or the Bank Merger is favorable to the Community Bancshares and First Merchants shareholders from a financial point of view or that the OCC has considered the adequacy of the terms of the Merger or the Bank Merger. The approvals in no way constitute an endorsement or a recommendation of the Merger or the Bank Merger by the OCC.

Effective Date of the Merger

The Merger will be consummated if the Merger Proposal is approved by the Community Bancshares shareholders, all required consents and approvals are obtained and all other conditions to the Merger are either satisfied or waived. The Merger will become effective when Articles of Merger are filed with the Secretary of State of Indiana or at such later date and time as may be specified in the Articles of Merger. The closing of the Merger will likely occur in the month in which any applicable waiting period following the last approval of the Merger expires or on such other date as agreed to by the parties. We currently anticipate that the Merger will be completed during the fourth quarter of 2014. However, completion of the Merger could be delayed if there is a delay in obtaining the required shareholder or regulatory approvals or in satisfying the other conditions to completion of the Merger. Community Bancshares and First Merchants have the right, subject to certain conditions, to terminate the Merger Agreement if the Merger is not completed by December 31, 2014 (or March 31, 2015 if the sole impediment to closing is the lack of a necessary regulatory approval).

The NASDAQ Global Select Market Listing

First Merchants will file a notification with The NASDAQ Global Select Market regarding the issuance of First Merchants common stock in the Merger. Following the Merger, the First Merchants shares issued to Community Bancshares shareholders will be listed on The NASDAQ Global Select Market.

Accounting Treatment

The Merger will be accounted for as a purchase transaction for accounting and financial reporting purposes. As a result, Community Bancshares' assets, including identified intangible assets, and liabilities will be recorded by First Merchants on its books at their fair values and added to those of First Merchants. Any excess payment by First Merchants over the fair value of the net assets and identifiable intangibles of Community Bancshares will be recorded as goodwill on the financial statements of First Merchants. Conversely, any excess of the fair value of the net assets acquired over the payment made by First Merchants will be allocated as a reduction of all assets.

Registration Statement

First Merchants has filed a Registration Statement on Form S-4 with the SEC in order to register the shares of First Merchants common stock to be issued pursuant to the Merger under the Securities Act. Because First Merchants common stock is listed on The NASDAQ Global Select Market, it is exempt from the statutory registration requirements of each state in the United States. Therefore, First Merchants has not taken any steps to register its stock under state laws.

Interests of Certain Persons in the Merger

When considering the recommendation of the Community Bancshares Board of Directors, you should be aware that certain of the directors and officers of Community Bancshares have interests in the Merger other than their interests as Community Bancshares shareholders, pursuant to certain agreements and understandings that are set forth in the Merger Agreement. These interests are different from, or in conflict with, your interests as Community Bancshares shareholders. The members of the Community Bancshares Board of Directors and the First Merchants Board of Directors were aware of these additional interests, and considered them, when they approved the Merger Agreement. Except as described below, to the knowledge of Community Bancshares, the officers and directors of Community Bancshares do not have any material interest in the Merger apart from their interests as shareholders.

- The closing of the Merger is conditioned upon First Merchants Bank entering into employment agreements with three current officers of Community Bancshares and/or Community Bank (Messrs. Crow, Riggs and Freed), which agreements will become effective upon the effective time of the Merger. Under these employment agreements, Mr. Crow will be paid an annual salary of $144,000, Mr. Riggs will be paid an annual salary of $156,000 and Mr. Freed will be paid an annual salary of $110,500. Twelve (12) months following the effective time of the Merger, Mr. Crow will also receive $144,000, Mr. Riggs will receive $78,000, and Mr. Freed will receive $55,250 in retention payments. The term of the employment agreement for Mr. Crow is twelve (12) months. The terms of the employment agreements for Messrs. Riggs and Freed are twenty-four (24) months.

- Mr. Crow's current employment agreement with Community Bancshares provides that he is entitled to receive, following a change in control, one times (1x) his annual base compensation prior to the change in control, subject to certain limitations. Mr. Crow has agreed to enter into his employment agreement with First Merchants Bank in exchange for termination of his employment agreement with Community Bancshares.
- First Merchants has agreed that for a period of six (6) years after the effective time of the Merger, it will maintain directors' and officers' liability insurance in force for the directors and officers of Community Bancshares and Community Bank and indemnify those persons, subject to certain conditions in the Merger Agreement.

THE MERGER AGREEMENT

The following summary highlights certain material provisions of the Merger Agreement. Because this is a summary of the Merger Agreement, it does not contain a description of all of the terms of the Merger Agreement and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Merger Agreement. You should read carefully the entire Merger Agreement, which is attached to this document as Annex A and is incorporated herein by reference.

Description of the Merger

Under the terms and subject to the conditions of the Merger Agreement unanimously approved by each of the Community Bancshares and First Merchants Boards of Directors, Community Bancshares will merge with and into First Merchants and the separate corporate existence of Community Bancshares will cease. Immediately following the Merger, Community Bank will merge with and into First Merchants Bank and Community Bank will cease to exist as a separate entity. The Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws of First Merchants, as in effect prior to the Merger, will be the Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws of First Merchants after the Merger.

The representations and warranties in the Merger Agreement will not survive the effective date of the Merger or the termination of the Merger Agreement. After the effective date of the Merger or termination of the Merger Agreement, neither Community Bancshares and the officers and directors of Community Bancshares and its subsidiaries nor First Merchants and its officers and directors will have any liability for any of their representations and warranties made in the Merger Agreement unless the Merger Agreement is terminated as a result of a willful breach, in which case the non-breaching party may recover appropriate damages from the breaching party.

Conditions to Completion of the Merger

First Merchants' and Community Bancshares' obligations to complete the Merger are subject to the satisfaction of the following conditions, among other things, at or prior to the effective time of the Merger:

1. the approval of the Merger Agreement at the special meeting by a majority of the issued and outstanding shares of Community Bancshares common stock;
2. the receipt of all regulatory approvals required for the Merger and the Bank Merger and the expiration of any regulatory waiting periods prior to consummation of the Merger;
3. the representations and warranties made by the parties in the Merger Agreement must be true, accurate and correct in all material respects on and as of the effective date of the Merger, except that representations and warranties that are qualified by materiality or a Material Adverse Effect (as defined below) must be true and correct in all respects, and provided that for those representations and warranties which address matters only as of an earlier date, then they shall be tested as of such earlier date. For the purpose of the Merger Agreement, a "Material Adverse Effect" means any effect that (i) is material and adverse to the financial position, results of operations or business of Community Bancshares and Community Bank taken as a whole, or First Merchants and First Merchants Bank taken as a whole, as applicable or (ii) would materially impair the ability of Community Bancshares or First Merchants, as applicable, to perform its obligations under the Merger Agreement; provided, however, that a Material Adverse Effect shall not be deemed to include the impact of (a) changes in banking and similar laws of general applicability to banks or their holding companies or interpretations thereof by courts or governmental authorities, (b) changes in generally accepted accounting principles or regulatory accounting requirements applicable to banks or their holding companies generally, (c) any modifications or changes to valuation policies and practices in connection with the Merger or restructuring charges taken in connection with the Merger, in each case in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, (d) effects of any action taken with the prior written consent of the other party hereto, (e) changes in the general level of interest rates (including the impact on the securities portfolios of Community Bancshares and Community Bank, or First Merchants and First Merchants Bank, as applicable) or conditions or circumstances relating to or that affect either the United States economy, financial or securities markets or the banking industry, generally, (f) changes resulting from expenses (such as legal, accounting and investment bankers' fees) incurred in connection with the Merger Agreement or the transactions contemplated therein, including without limitation payment of any amounts due to, or the provision of any benefits to, any officers or employees under agreements, plans or other arrangements in existence of or contemplated by the Merger Agreement and disclosed to First Merchants, (g) the impact of the announcement of the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, and compliance with the Merger Agreement on the business, financial condition or results of operations of Community Bancshares and Community

Bank, or First Merchants and First Merchants Bank, as applicable and (h) the occurrence of any military or terrorist attack within the United States or any of its possessions or offices; provided that in no event shall a change in the trading price of the First Merchants common stock, by itself, be considered to constitute a Material Adverse Effect on First Merchants (it being understood that the foregoing proviso shall not prevent or otherwise affect a determination that any effect underlying such decline has resulted in a Material Adverse Effect);

4. the covenants made by the parties must have been complied with in all material respects from the date of the Merger Agreement through and as of the effective date of the Merger;
5. Community Bancshares must have received an opinion of Krieg DeVault LLP that, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, the Merger will be treated as a “reorganization” within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code, and that no gain or loss will be recognized in the Merger by a U.S. Holder to the extent the U.S. Holder receives shares of First Merchants common stock in exchange for the U.S. Holder’s shares of Community Bancshares common stock, except that gain or loss will be recognized with respect to any cash received in lieu of fractional shares of First Merchants common stock;
6. First Merchants must have received an opinion of Bingham Greenebaum Doll LLP that, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, the Merger will be treated as a “reorganization” within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code;
7. the Registration Statement on Form S-4, of which this proxy statement and prospectus is a part, relating to the First Merchants shares to be issued pursuant to the Merger Agreement, must have become effective under the Securities Act, and no stop order suspending the effectiveness of the Registration Statement shall have been issued or threatened by the SEC;
8. the shares of First Merchants common stock to be issued in the Merger shall have been listed for trading on The NASDAQ Global Select Market (subject to official notice of issuance);
9. there must be no order, decree or injunction of a court or agency of competent jurisdiction which enjoins or prohibits the consummation of the Merger or the Bank Merger;
10. First Merchants must have entered into employment agreements with each of Larry W. Riggs, Russell W. Freed and Charles L. Crow in substantially the forms attached to the Merger Agreement; and
11. receipt by each party of an officer’s certificate, certain legal opinions and various closing documents.

The conditions to completion of the Merger are subject to waiver by the party benefiting from such condition. The conditions may also be altered by the written agreement of both parties. If these and other conditions are not satisfied or waived, First Merchants and/or Community Bancshares may terminate the Merger Agreement. See “THE MERGER AGREEMENT—Termination; Waiver; Amendment,” “THE MERGER—Regulatory Approvals,” “THE MERGER—Interests of Certain Persons in the Merger,” “MATERIAL U.S. FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES,” and Annex A.

Termination; Waiver; Amendment

First Merchants and Community Bancshares may terminate the Merger Agreement at any time before the Merger is completed, including after the Community Bancshares shareholders have approved the Merger, if one of the events which gives the party the right to terminate occurs. The Merger Agreement may be terminated:

1. by mutual consent of First Merchants and Community Bancshares in writing;
2. by either First Merchants or Community Bancshares if there has been a material breach by the other of any of the covenants or any of the representations or warranties set forth in the Merger Agreement, which is not cured within 30 days following written notice given by the non-breaching party to the party committing the breach;

3. by either First Merchants or Community Bancshares if any event, fact or circumstance has occurred with respect to the other party that has had or could be reasonably expected to have a Material Adverse Effect on such party;
4. by either First Merchants or Community Bancshares if the Merger has not been completed by December 31, 2014, provided the terminating party is not then in material breach of any representation warranty or covenant and, provided, further, that if the sole impediment to closing is the lack of any necessary regulatory approval, then such termination date shall be extended to March 31, 2015;
5. by Community Bancshares if its Board of Directors determines in the exercise of its fiduciary duties that it must terminate the Merger Agreement after receipt of an unsolicited superior acquisition proposal from a third party;
6. by First Merchants if Community Bancshares' Board of Directors withdraws or modifies its recommendation to Community Bancshares shareholders to vote for the Merger following receipt of a proposal of an acquisition from a third party;
7. by First Merchants if Community Bancshares fails to give First Merchants timely notice of any inquiry by a third party with respect to an acquisition of Community Bancshares or Community Bank; or
8. by First Merchants if Community Bancshares gives First Merchants notice that it intends to furnish information to or enter into discussions or negotiations with a third party relating to a proposed acquisition of Community Bancshares or Community Bank and those negotiations are not terminated within forty-five (45) days.

Upon termination for any of these reasons, the Merger Agreement will be void and of no further force or effect. However, if either First Merchants or Community Bancshares willfully breaches any of the representations and warranties or agreements set forth in the Merger Agreement, then the other party will be entitled to recover appropriate damages for the breach. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if First Merchants terminates the Merger Agreement under items 6, 7 or 8 above or if Community Bancshares terminates the Merger Agreement in accordance with item 5 above, Community Bancshares must pay First Merchants $1,500,000 as a termination fee to reimburse First Merchants for the considerable time and expense invested by First Merchants in furtherance of the Merger.

First Merchants and Community Bancshares can agree to amend the Merger Agreement and can waive their right to require the other party to adhere to the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement, where the law allows. However, First Merchants and Community Bancshares cannot amend the Merger Agreement after the Community Bancshares shareholders approve the Merger without their further approval if the amendment would decrease the Merger consideration or materially adversely affect the rights of Community Bancshares shareholders or the tax consequences of the Merger to the shareholders of Community Bancshares.

Restrictions Affecting the Parties Prior to Completion of the Merger

The Merger Agreement contains a number of restrictions regarding the conduct of the business of First Merchants, Community Bancshares and Community Bank until the Merger is completed. Among other items and subject to certain limited exceptions, Community Bancshares and Community Bank may not take any of the following actions, without the prior written consent of First Merchants:

- make any change to their capital structure, including redemption of shares of common stock;
- declare, distribute or pay any dividends, authorize a stock split or make any other distribution to their shareholders, except for (i) the payment by Community Bank to Community Bancshares of dividends to pay the dividends described in clause (ii) below and Community Bancshares' expenses of operation and its business and payment of fees and expenses incurred in connection with the Merger, and (ii) payment by Community Bancshares of one or more dividends to its shareholders prior to closing in an amount sufficient to pay federal, state and local income taxes on the income that passes through to the Community Bancshares shareholders by virtue of it being a Subchapter S corporation under the Internal Revenue Code and regulations. After closing, there may be a final installment of dividends paid that were declared prior to closing to cover any income allocated based on the final tax return of Community Bancshares (for a more detailed description of the dividends that Community Bancshares may declare and pay to its shareholders, see “MATERIAL U.S. FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES” on page 70);

- except for the fiduciary obligations of Community Bancshares to entertain a superior third-party acquisition proposal, merge, combine, consolidate or sell their assets or securities to any other person or entity or effect a share exchange or enter into any transaction not in the ordinary course of business;

Fees and Expenses

First Merchants and Community Bancshares will pay their own fees, costs, and expenses incurred in connection with the Merger, including the fees of any investment bankers engaged by such party.

Management After the Merger

First Merchants will be the surviving corporation in the Merger and Community Bancshares' separate corporate existence will cease. Accordingly, the directors and officers of Community Bancshares will no longer serve in such capacities after the completion of the Merger. Similarly, First Merchants Bank will be the surviving national banking association in the Merger with Community Bank and Community Bank's separate corporate existence will cease.

The directors of First Merchants and First Merchants Bank immediately prior to the Mergers will continue to be the directors of First Merchants and First Merchants Bank following the Merger until they resign or until their respective successors are duly elected and qualified.

The officers of First Merchants and First Merchants Bank immediately prior to the Merger will continue to be the officers of First Merchants and First Merchants Bank following the Mergers until they resign or until their successors are duly elected and qualified. However, First Merchants will appoint Charles L. Crow, currently Chairman and President of Community Bancshares and Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Community Bank, as its Noblesville Market Executive and as a member of its Central Region Board of Directors, Larry W. Riggs, currently President of Community Bank, as its Noblesville Market President, and Russell W. Freed, currently Executive Vice President of Community Bank, as its Noblesville Market Finance and Operations Executive.

Indemnification and Insurance of Community Bancshares Directors and Officers

First Merchants has agreed to indemnify and hold harmless each director and officer of Community Bancshares and Community Bank for six (6) years after the effective time of the Merger in connection with any losses arising out of the fact that any such person is or was a director or officer of Community Bancshares or Community Bank at or prior to the effective time of the Merger to the same extent as would have been available under the articles of incorporation, bylaws or other indemnification agreement of Community Bancshares and Community Bank.

In addition, First Merchants has agreed to use its reasonable best efforts to include Community Bancshares' and Community Bank's present and former directors and officers on its existing insurance, or to obtain directors' and officers' liability insurance "tail" policy coverage for Community Bancshares' and Community Bank's present and former directors and executive officers, for a period of 6 years, which will provide the directors and officers with coverage containing terms no less advantageous than the coverage currently provided by Community Bancshares to such directors and officers for claims based on activity prior to the effective time of the Merger. However, First Merchants has no obligation during the 6-year period to pay an aggregate amount in premiums which is more than 2 times the current annual amount spent by Community Bancshares to maintain its current directors' and officers' insurance coverage. If First Merchants is unable to obtain the coverage described above, First Merchants has agreed to use its reasonable best efforts to obtain as much comparable insurance as is available.

After the Merger, Community Bancshares' and Community Bank's officers and employees who become officers, directors or employees of First Merchants or its subsidiaries shall have the same directors and officers insurance coverage and indemnification protection that First Merchants provides to other officers, directors and employees of First Merchants or its subsidiaries.

Employee Benefit Plans

The Merger Agreement provides that the current employees of Community Bancshares and Community Bank who continue as employees of First Merchants or its subsidiaries following the Merger will be entitled to participate in the employee benefit plans of First Merchants. In addition, the Merger Agreement requires First Merchants, to the extent necessary, to amend each of its employee benefit plans in which former Community Bancshares and Community Bank employees are to participate so that service of such employees with Community Bancshares or Community Bank will be treated as service with First Merchants for eligibility, vesting, vacation and severance entitlement purposes under such plans, but not for benefit accrual except with respect to severance benefits.

Voting Agreement

Each member of the Board of Directors and certain other significant shareholders of Community Bancshares have entered into a voting agreement with First Merchants as of the date of the Merger Agreement whereby the parties have agreed, subject to their fiduciary duties to entertain a superior third-party acquisition proposal under the Merger Agreement, to vote, or cause to be voted, all of their shares of Community Bancshares common stock and shares owned by certain affiliates over which they have voting control in favor of the Merger Proposal. The number of shares of common stock subject to this agreement is 273,996 shares of Community Bancshares common stock outstanding, representing 49.82% of the outstanding shares on that date.

MATERIAL U.S. FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES

The following is a general discussion of the material federal income tax consequences of the Merger to U.S. Holders (as hereinafter defined) of Community Bancshares common stock that exchange their shares of Community Bancshares common stock for shares of First Merchants common stock. The following discussion is based on current provisions of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the “Internal Revenue Code”), the Treasury Regulations promulgated thereunder, published pronouncements of the Internal Revenue Service (the “IRS”) and case law, all as currently in effect and which are subject to differing interpretations and subject to change at any time by legislative, judicial or administrative action, possibly with retroactive effect. This discussion is limited to U.S. Holders, who hold their shares of Community Bancshares common stock as capital assets for U.S. federal income tax purposes (generally, assets held for investment).

This discussion does not address the federal income tax consequences of shareholders who are not U.S. Holders, nor does it address all of the tax consequences relevant to certain U.S. Holders including, but not limited to, S corporations, partnerships or other pass-through entities (including investors in pass-through entities), financial institutions, insurance companies, tax-exempt organizations, trusts described in Sections 1361(c)(2)(A) and 1361(d) of the Internal Revenue Code, dealers in securities or currencies, traders in securities that use a mark to market method of accounting, persons who hold Community Bancshares common stock as part of a straddle, hedge, constructive sale conversion or other integrated transaction, persons who acquired their shares of Community Bancshares common stock through the exercise of an employee stock option or otherwise as compensation or through a tax-qualified plan, regulated investment companies, real estate investment trusts and foreign persons or persons whose “functional currency” is not the U.S. dollar. This discussion also does not address the tax consequences of persons who are subject to alternative minimum tax, nor does it address the tax consequences of the Merger under state, local or foreign tax laws.

All U.S. Holders including, but not limited to, the U.S. Holders referenced immediately above, should consult their own tax advisors about the tax consequences of the Merger to them.

For purposes of this discussion, the term “U.S. Holder” means a beneficial owner of Community Bancshares common stock that for U.S. federal income tax purposes is an individual who is a citizen or resident of the U.S., a corporation or entity taxed as a corporation that was organized under the laws of the U.S. or any state or the District of Columbia, an estate the income of which is subject to U.S. federal income tax regardless of its source, or a trust that (i) is subject to the supervision of a court within the U.S. and the control of one or more U.S. Persons (as hereinafter defined) or (ii) has a valid election in effect under applicable Treasury Regulations to be treated as a U.S. Person. For purposes of this discussion, “U.S. Person” shall have the meaning ascribed to it by Section 7701(a)(30) of the Internal Revenue Code.

Tax Consequences of the Merger Generally

The parties intend for the Merger to qualify as a “reorganization” under Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code for U.S. federal income tax purposes. It is a condition to the obligation of First Merchants to complete the Merger that First Merchants obtain an opinion from the law firm of Bingham Greenebaum Doll LLP that the Merger to be effected pursuant to the Merger Agreement constitutes a reorganization under Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code. It is a condition to the obligation of Community Bancshares to complete the Merger that Community Bancshares receive an opinion from the law firm of Krieg DeVault LLP that the Merger constitutes a reorganization under Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code, and that no gain or loss will be recognized in the Merger by a U.S. Holder to the extent the U.S. Holder receives shares of First Merchants common stock as the sole consideration for the U.S. Holder’s shares of Community Bancshares common stock, except that (i) gain or loss will be recognized with respect to any cash received in lieu of fractional shares of First Merchants common stock, (ii) gain or loss will be recognized with respect to cash received for all of a U.S. Holder’s shares of Community Bancshares common stock if such U.S. Holder does not receive any shares of First Merchants common stock; and (iii) only gain (but not loss) with respect to a combination of stock and cash consideration received by a U.S. Holder that is generally equal to the lesser of (a) the amount of cash received in the Merger or (b) the excess, if any, of the amount of cash and the fair market value of First Merchants common stock received over the U.S. Holder's adjusted tax basis in its shares of Community Bancshares common stock.

The obligation of each of Bingham Greenebaum Doll LLP and Krieg DeVault LLP to deliver such opinions is conditioned on the Merger satisfying the statutory and regulatory requirements of a "reorganization." The determination by tax counsel as to whether the Merger will be treated as a "reorganization" within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code is based on the facts and law existing as of the effective date of the Merger.

These opinions will be subject to customary qualifications and assumptions, including that the Merger will be completed according to the terms of the Merger Agreement. In rendering the tax opinions, each counsel may require and rely on factual representations of First Merchants and Community Bancshares. If any of such assumptions or representations is or becomes inaccurate, the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the Merger could be adversely affected. Neither of these opinions will be binding on the IRS. First Merchants and Community Bancshares do not intend to request any ruling from the IRS as to the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the Merger. Consequently, no assurance can be given that the IRS will not assert, or that a court will not sustain, a position contrary to any of the tax consequences set forth below or any of the tax consequences described in the tax opinions.

Tax Consequences to First Merchants, First Merchants Shareholders and Community Bancshares

No gain or loss will be recognized by First Merchants, First Merchants shareholders or Community Bancshares with respect to the Merger.

Tax Consequences of the Merger to U.S. Holders of Community Bancshares Common Stock

The U.S. federal income tax consequences of the Merger to a U.S. Holder will depend upon whether the U.S. Holder receives cash or common stock or a combination of common stock and cash (other than cash received in lieu of fractional share interests). At the time a U.S. Holder knows the amount of cash and shares of First Merchants common stock the U.S. Holder will receive, the tax consequences can be determined, subject to the qualifications discussed above.

To the extent a U.S. Holder recognizes capital gain or loss as a result of the exchange of common stock in the Merger, the capital gain or loss will be long-term capital gain or loss if the U.S. Holder held the shares of Community Bancshares common stock for more than one year as of the effective date of the Merger. Long-term capital gains of an individual generally are subject to a maximum U.S. federal income tax rate of 20%. Short-term capital gains of an individual generally are subject to a maximum U.S. federal income tax rate of 39.6%. The deductibility of capital losses is subject to limitations. In addition, the holding period of the First Merchants common stock received generally will include the holding period of Community Bancshares common stock surrendered in the exchange.

If a U.S. Holder acquired different blocks of Community Bancshares common stock at different times or different prices, such U.S. Holder should consult its tax advisor regarding the manner in which gain or loss should be determined. A U.S. Holder may also be subject to the Net Investment Income Tax (3.8%).

- Exchange of Community Bancshares Common Stock for First Merchants Common Stock

In general, a U.S. Holder who receives First Merchants common stock in exchange for Community Bancshares common stock will not recognize any gain or loss on the exchange for federal income tax purposes. However, gain or loss for federal income tax purposes will be recognized with respect to cash payments received by a U.S. Holder in lieu of fractional share interests resulting from the conversion ratio.

See “Cash in Lieu of Fractional Shares of First Merchants Common Stock” below for a more detailed discussion of the tax consequences of the receipt of cash in lieu of fractional share interests of First Merchants common stock.

The basis of First Merchants common stock received by U.S. Holders in exchange for their Community Bancshares common stock will generally be equal to the U.S. Holder’s tax basis in the Community Bancshares common stock exchanged.

- Exchange of Community Bancshares Common Stock for Cash

A U.S. Holder receiving all cash generally will recognize capital gain or loss measured by the difference between the amount of cash received and the adjusted tax basis of the Community Bancshares common shares exchanged.

- Combination of Common Stock and Cash

A U.S. Holder receiving First Merchants common stock for a portion of its Community Bancshares common stock and cash for the remaining portion of its Community Bancshares common stock in the Merger will generally recognize gain (but not loss) equal to the lesser of (i) the amount of cash received in the Merger or (ii) the excess, if any, of the amount of cash and the fair market value of First Merchants common stock received over the U.S. Holder’s adjusted tax basis in its Community Bancshares common stock. Such gain will generally be capital gain, but in certain circumstances, such gain may be treated as having the effect of a distribution under Section 302 of the Internal Revenue Code or Section 356(a)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code in which case the gain will be treated as dividend. A U.S. Holder should generally consult its tax advisor regarding the manner in which gain or loss should be determined, including, but not limited to, the specific manner in which recognized gain should be determined if such U.S. Holder can designate specific consideration to particular shares of its Community Bancshares common stock exchanged under the terms of the Merger that are determined to be economically reasonable.

The basis of a share of First Merchants common stock received in the Merger will generally be equal to the basis of the Community Bancshares common stock exchanged in the Merger, decreased by cash received in the Merger and increased by the amount of gain recognized. A U.S. Holder should generally consult its tax advisor regarding the manner in which the basis of First Merchants common stock received in the Merger is determined, including, but not limited to, the following circumstances: (i) the U.S. Holder acquired different blocks of Community Bancshares common stock at different times or different prices, (ii) the U.S. Holder can designate specific consideration to particular shares of its Community Bancshares common stock exchanged under the terms of the Merger that are determined to be economically reasonable or (iii) the U.S. Holder desires to make potentially permissible designations of specific basis to specific shares of the First Merchants common stock received (on or before the date on which the basis of a share of First Merchants common stock received becomes relevant).

- Cash in Lieu of Fractional Shares of First Merchants Common Stock

A U.S. Holder who receives cash in lieu of fractional shares of First Merchants common stock will be treated as having received such fractional share of First Merchants common stock pursuant to the Merger and then as having sold that fractional share of First Merchants common stock for cash. As a result, a U.S. Holder will generally recognize gain or loss equal to the difference between the amount of cash received and the U.S. Holder’s basis in the fractional share of First Merchants common stock determined as described above. Any resultant gain or loss will be capital in nature, and will be long-term or short-term, depending on the period of time the exchanged shares of Community Bancshares common stock were held. The deductibility of capital losses is subject to limitations.

- Net Investment Income Tax

In addition to the above-referenced tax consequences, a U.S. Holder who receives all cash, a combination of common stock and cash or cash in lieu of fractional shares may also be subject to the Net Investment Income Tax as provided for in Section 1411 of the Internal Revenue Code. The Net Investment Income Tax applies a 3.8% tax to individuals, estates or trusts (with a modified gross income for the taxable year over certain thresholds) on the lesser of: (i) the individual, estate or trust's "net investment income" for the relevant taxable year; or (ii) the excess of the individual, estate or trust's modified gross income for the taxable year over the applicable certain threshold. Net investment income generally would include any capital gain incurred in connection with the Merger (including any gain treated as a dividend), as well as, among other items, other interest, dividends, capital gains and rental or royalty income received.

- Tax Dividends and Shareholders' Tax Representative

Prior to the effective date of the Merger, Community Bancshares shall, subject to applicable laws and regulatory requirements, limitations and approvals, declare and pay the Final Tax Dividend, a cash dividend to its shareholders in connection with the filing of the Final Tax Return of Community Bancshares. The Final Tax Dividend will be in an amount sufficient to pay federal, state and local income taxes on the income that passes through to the shareholders of Community Bancshares in connection with the Final Tax Return, reduced by any tax benefits produced by losses, deductions and credits that pass through to such shareholders.

If the effective date of the Merger occurs later than December 31, 2014, Community Bancshares shall, subject to applicable laws and regulatory requirements, limitations and approvals, also declare and pay the 2014 Tax Dividend, a cash dividend to its shareholders in connection with the 2014 Tax Return of Community Bancshares. The 2014 Tax Dividend will be in an amount sufficient to pay federal, state and local income taxes on the income that passes through to the shareholders of Community Bancshares in connection with the 2014 Tax Return, reduced by any tax benefits produced by losses, deductions and credits that pass through to such shareholders.

The Final Tax Dividend and 2014 Tax Dividend shall be computed by Community Bancshares' customary certified public accountants and shall be based on good faith estimates of the Community Bancshares' projected net income and losses of the current year with each shareholder of Community Bancshares being assumed to be taxable in the applicable tax year at the highest marginal federal, state and local income tax rates applicable to married individuals filing a joint tax return and fully utilizing any losses, deductions and credits passed through for residents of the State of Indiana residing in Hamilton County, plus assuming each such shareholder is subject to the 3.8% Net Investment Income Tax as provided for in Section 1411 of the Internal Revenue Code.

The shareholders of Community Bancshares should consult with their own tax advisors about the tax consequences of the 2014 Tax Dividend or, the Final Tax Dividend as the case may be, as related to them.

A person will be designated from time to time by a majority of the former directors of Community Bancshares (hereafter the "Shareholders' Tax Representative") to represent the ongoing interests of the shareholders of Community Bancshares with regard to (i) the filing of all federal, state and local tax returns of Community Bancshares (or Community Bank, if applicable) for all periods ending on or prior to the effective date of the Merger that are filed after the effective date of the Merger; (ii) the filing of amended federal, state and local tax returns of Community Bancshares (or Community Bank, if applicable); (iii) and the audit of any federal, state and local tax returns of Community Bancshares or Community Bank. It is possible that additional tax liability could be allocated to the shareholders of Community Bancshares related to any such filing, audit, litigation or other proceeding involving the federal, state and local tax returns of Community Bancshares (or Community Bank, if applicable) for periods ending on or prior to the effective date of the Merger.

• Tax Consequences of C Corporation Status

Community Bancshares is taxed as an S corporation. First Merchants is taxed as a C corporation. Certain tax consequences will change for U.S. Holders as a result of holding stock in a C corporation as compared to holding stock in an S corporation, including, but not limited to, the following:

- The income of an S corporation is deemed to accrue ratably to its shareholders on a daily basis for federal income tax purposes. As a result, holders of Community Bancshares common stock have been required to include their pro rata portion of Community Bancshares' income on their tax returns and have been directly liable for the federal income taxes imposed on their portion of Community Bancshares' income. Community Bancshares, except in limited situations, did not incur any separate federal income tax liability.
- As a C corporation, the liability for taxes on income of First Merchants does not accrue to holders of its common stock, but instead this liability is imposed on, and payable by, First Merchants at the entity level for federal income tax purposes. Accordingly, holders of First Merchants common stock will not recognize taxable income when First Merchants recognizes taxable income, but instead will recognize income when they receive a taxable distribution from First Merchants, which will be treated as dividend or capital gain income. Distributions from First Merchants to holders of its common stock will be treated as a dividend to the extent of First Merchants' current or accumulated undistributed earnings and profits. Distributions in excess of First Merchants' current or accumulated earnings and profits will be treated first as a return of a holder's tax basis in their First Merchants common stock to the extent of the holder's basis in the common stock and then as capital gain.
- As an S corporation, if Community Bancshares incurred losses during any taxable year, a pro rata share of such losses were available (subject to certain limitations) to holders of its common stock to offset such holder's taxable income during such year. Losses of First Merchants will remain with First Merchants and holders of First Merchants common stock will not have the ability to offset taxable income with pass-through losses.
- A holder's federal income tax basis in S corporation stock generally will be increased by the holder's pro rata share of the S corporation's income retained by Community Bancshares as capital (and generally will be decreased by the holder's pro rata share of the S corporation's losses). Any net increase in tax basis will reduce the amount of gain on the sale of stock by the holder and any net decrease in tax basis will increase the amount of taxable gain on such sale. The earnings or losses of First Merchants will not impact the tax basis of a holder's First Merchants common stock.

Information Reporting and Backup Withholding

Cash payments received in the Merger by a U.S. Holder may, under certain circumstances, be subject to information reporting and backup withholding, unless the U.S. Holder provides proof of an applicable exemption, furnishes its taxpayer identification number (in the case of individuals, their social security number) and otherwise complies with all applicable requirements of the backup withholding rules. Any amounts withheld from payments to a U.S. Holder under the backup withholding rules are not an additional tax and will be allowed as a refund or credit against the U.S. Holder's U.S. federal income tax liability, provided the required information is timely furnished to the IRS.

Reporting Requirements

U.S. Holders who are "significant holders" and receive First Merchants common stock in exchange for Community Bancshares common stock are required to file a statement with their U.S. federal income tax return setting forth certain information, including, but not limited to, their tax basis (determined immediately before the Merger) in the Community Bancshares common stock exchanged in the Merger and the fair market value

(determined immediately before the Merger) of the Community Bancshares common stock exchanged in the Merger.

A “significant holder” is a holder of Community Bancshares stock who immediately before the Merger (i) owned at least 1% of the total outstanding stock of Community Bancshares by vote or by value or (ii) owned stock of Community Bancshares with a tax basis of at least $1 million.

All Community Bancshares shareholders will be required to retain permanent tax records of the tax basis of Community Bancshares common stock exchanged and the First Merchants common stock and cash received in the Merger.

This discussion is of a general nature only, is not exhaustive, and is not intended to be, nor should it be construed to be, legal or tax advice to any particular shareholder. Because of the complexity of the tax law and because of the unique tax consequences to the shareholders following the Merger, each shareholder is strongly urged to consult such shareholder’s own tax advisor as to the particular tax consequences to such shareholder of the Merger, including the applicability and effect of federal, state, local, foreign and other tax laws in such shareholder’s particular circumstances.

Neither First Merchants' Articles of Incorporation nor Community Bancshares' Articles of Incorporation provide for preemptive rights for shareholders to subscribe for any new or additional shares of common stock.

Dividend Rights

First Merchants

The holders of First Merchants common stock are entitled to dividends and other distributions when, as and if declared by its Boards of Directors.

Generally, First Merchants may not pay a dividend if, after giving effect to the dividend:

- First Merchants would not be able to pay its debts as they become due in the usual course of business; or
- First Merchants' total assets would be less than the sum of its total liabilities plus the amount that would be needed to satisfy preferential rights of shareholders payable upon dissolution.

The amount of dividends, if any, that may be declared by First Merchants in the future will necessarily depend upon many factors, including, among other things, future earnings, capital requirements, business conditions and capital levels of subsidiaries (since First Merchants is primarily dependent upon dividends paid by its subsidiaries for revenues), the discretion of First Merchants' Board of Directors and other factors that may be appropriate in determining dividend policies.

First Merchants Bank may pay cash dividends to First Merchants on its common stock only out of adjusted retained net profits for the year in which the dividend is paid and the two preceding years.

First Merchants Bank will ordinarily be restricted to paying dividends in a lesser amount to First Merchants than is legally permissible because of the need for the banks to maintain adequate capital consistent with the capital adequacy guidelines promulgated by the banks' principal federal regulatory authorities. If a bank's capital levels are deemed inadequate by the regulatory authorities, payment of dividends to its parent holding company may be prohibited. First Merchants Bank is not currently subject to such a restriction.

Community Bancshares

Community Bancshares has historically paid dividends to its shareholders in amounts sufficient to pay estimated federal, state and local income taxes on the income that passes through to the shareholder by virtue of Community Bancshares status as a Subchapter S corporation.

The holders of common stock of Community Bancshares shall be entitled to share ratably, according to the number of shares held by them, in such dividends or other distributions (other than purchases, redemptions, or other acquisitions of shares of Community Bancshares), if any, as are declared and paid from time to time on the shares at the discretion of the Community Bancshares Board of Directors.

Generally, Community Bancshares may not pay a dividend if, after giving effect to the dividend:

- Community Bancshares would not be able to pay its debts as they become due in the usual course of business; or
- Community Bancshares' total assets would be less than the sum of its total liabilities plus the amount that would be needed to satisfy any preferential rights of shareholders payable upon dissolution.

Both Community Bancshares and Community Bank must obtain the prior approval of applicable regulatory authorities in order to declare or pay dividends. See section captioned "THE MERGER—Background of the Merger."

Voting Rights

The holders of the outstanding shares of common stock of First Merchants and Community Bancshares are entitled to one vote per share on all matters presented for shareholder vote. Neither First Merchants nor Community Bancshares shareholders have cumulative voting rights in the election of directors.

Articles of Incorporation and Bylaw Amendments

First Merchants

Indiana law generally requires shareholder approval for most amendments to a corporation's articles of incorporation by a majority of a quorum at a shareholder's meeting (and, in certain cases, a majority of all shares held by any voting group entitled to vote). However, Indiana law permits a corporation in its articles of incorporation to specify a higher shareholder vote requirement for certain amendments. First Merchants' Articles of Incorporation require a super-majority shareholder vote of 75% of its outstanding shares of common stock for the amendment of certain significant provisions and a majority of its outstanding shares for all other amendments. See "COMPARISON OF COMMON STOCK—Number of Directors and Term of Office," "COMPARISON OF COMMON STOCK—Removal of Directors," and "COMPARISON OF COMMON STOCK—Anti-Takeover Provisions."

Indiana law permits a board of directors to amend a corporation's bylaws unless the articles of incorporation provide otherwise. First Merchants' Bylaws may generally be amended by an affirmative vote of a majority of the entire Board of Directors. However, several provisions of First Merchants' Bylaws require two-thirds (2/3) vote of the entire Board of Directors to approve amendments, including the provision regarding removal of directors and setting the number and classes of directors. In addition, First Merchants' Articles of Incorporation provide that its Bylaws may not be amended to repeal, modify or amend certain provisions of its Articles of Incorporation.

Community Bancshares

The shareholders of Community Bancshares shall have the right to amend, alter, change or repeal any provision contained in the Articles of Incorporation to the extent and in the manner permitted or prescribed by the Indiana Business Corporation Law. The Indiana Business Corporation Law generally requires the approval of at least a majority of a quorum of shareholders present at a shareholders' meeting (and, in certain cases, a majority of all shares held by any voting group entitled to vote) for amendments to an Indiana corporation's articles of incorporation.

The Community Bancshares Bylaws provide that the Board of Directors shall have the exclusive power to make, alter, amend, or repeal, or to waive provisions of, the Bylaws of the Community Bancshares by the affirmative vote of a majority of the number of directors then in office, except as provided by the Indiana Business Corporation Law.

Special Meetings of Shareholders

First Merchants

First Merchants' Bylaws provide that a special meeting of shareholders may be called by the Board of Directors, the President, at the written request of a majority of the Board of Directors or at the written request of shareholders holding at least one-fourth (1/4) of all shares outstanding and entitled to vote on business for which the meeting is called.

Community Bancshares

The Community Bancshares Bylaws provide that a special meeting of shareholders may be called at any time by the Board of Directors or the President and shall be called by the Board of Directors if the Secretary receives written, dated, and signed demands for a special meeting, describing in reasonable detail the purpose or purposes for which it is to be held, from the holders of shares representing at least twenty-five percent (25%) of all votes entitled to be cast on any issue proposed to be considered at the proposed special meeting.

Number of Directors and Term of Office

First Merchants

First Merchants' Articles of Incorporation provide that the number of directors shall be set in the Bylaws by the Board of Directors and shall be at least 9 and no more than 21. First Merchants' Articles of Incorporation also provide for classes of directors with staggered terms. Amendment of this provision of First Merchants' Articles of Incorporation requires the approval of three-fourths (3/4) of the voting stock. First Merchants' Bylaws specify that the number of directors is 10. The Bylaws provide that the number of directors may be amended only by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the entire Board of Directors. Consistent with its Articles of Incorporation, First Merchants' Bylaws provide that the Board of Directors is divided into 3 classes with 4 directors in 1 of the classes and 3 directors in the other 2 classes. The directors in each class are elected for 3-year staggered terms. Thus, approximately only one-third (1/3) of First Merchants' Board of Directors is elected at each annual meeting of shareholders. Because First Merchants' Board of Directors is divided into classes, a majority of First Merchants' directors can be replaced only after 2 annual meetings of shareholders. A two-thirds (2/3) vote of the entire Board of Directors is required to amend this provision of First Merchants' Bylaws.

Community Bancshares

The Articles of Incorporation of Community Bancshares provide that the number of directors shall be fixed in accordance with the Bylaws. The Bylaws provide that the Board of Directors shall consist of at least five (5) and not more than fifteen (15) directors. The exact number of directors of Community Bancshares shall be fixed by the Board of Directors within the range stated above, and may be changed within that range from time to time by the Board of Directors. Each director shall be elected for a term of office to expire at the annual meeting of shareholders following his election. Despite the expiration of a director's term, he shall continue to serve until his successor is elected and qualified.

Nomination of Directors

First Merchants

Under First Merchants' Bylaws, only the Nominating and Governance Committee of the Board of Directors may nominate a candidate for the Board of Directors. Shareholders may suggest a person for nomination by sending a notice to the Committee setting forth at a minimum:

- the name and address of each suggested nominee;
- the age and principal occupation of each suggested nominee;
- the total number of shares of First Merchants capital stock held by the notifying shareholder; and
- the name and residence address of the notifying shareholder.

Community Bancshares

Neither Community Bancshares' Articles of Incorporation nor its Bylaws have any provision regarding the nomination of directors. The Board of Directors of Community Bancshares considers candidates for nomination as directors each year prior to its annual meeting of shareholders.

Removal of Directors

First Merchants

First Merchants' Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws provide that any director or all directors may be removed, with or without cause, at a meeting of shareholders upon the vote of the holders of not less than two-thirds (2/3) of the outstanding shares entitled to vote on the election of directors. However, if two-thirds (2/3) of the entire Board of Directors recommends removal of a director to the shareholders, then such director may be removed by the affirmative vote of the holders of at least a majority of the outstanding shares entitled to vote on the election of directors at a shareholders meeting. A two-thirds (2/3) vote of the entire Board of Directors is required to amend this provision of First Merchants' Bylaws. Amendment of this provision of First Merchants' Articles of Incorporation requires the approval of three-fourths (3/4) of the voting stock.

Community Bancshares

The Community Bancshares Articles of Incorporation provide that any or all of the members of the Board of Directors may be removed, with or without cause, by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares then entitled to vote at an election of directors. Directors may not be removed by the Board of Directors.

Anti-Takeover Provisions

The anti-takeover measures applicable to First Merchants and Community Bancshares described below may have the effect of discouraging a person or other entity from acquiring control of either company. These measures may have the effect of discouraging certain tender offers for shares of their common stock which might otherwise be made at premium prices or certain other acquisition transactions which might be viewed favorably by a significant number of shareholders.

Under Indiana law, any 10% shareholder of an Indiana corporation, with a class of voting shares registered under Section 12 of the Exchange Act, such as First Merchants, is prohibited for a period of 5 years from completing a business combination with the corporation unless, prior to the acquisition of such 10% interest, the Board of Directors approved either the acquisition of such interest or the proposed business combination. If such prior approval is not obtained, the corporation and a 10% shareholder may not consummate a business combination unless all provisions of the articles of incorporation are complied with and either a majority of disinterested shareholders approve the transaction or all shareholders receive a price per share as determined by Indiana law. A corporation may specifically adopt application of the business combination provision in its Articles of Incorporation and obtain the protection provided by this provision.

An Indiana corporation may elect to remove itself from the protection provided by the Indiana business combination provision, but such an election remains ineffective for 18 months and does not apply to a combination with a shareholder who acquired a 10% ownership position prior to the election. First Merchants has adopted the protection provided by the business combination provision of Indiana law. This provision is not applicable to Community Bancshares because it does not have a class of voting shares registered under Section 12 of the Exchange Act.

In addition to the business combination provision, Indiana law contains a “control share acquisition” provision which, although different in structure from the business combination provision, may have a similar effect of discouraging or making more difficult a hostile takeover of an Indiana corporation. This provision also may have the effect of discouraging premium bids for outstanding shares. Under this provision, unless otherwise provided in the corporation’s articles of incorporation or bylaws, if a shareholder acquires a certain amount of shares, approval of a majority of the disinterested shareholders must be obtained before the acquiring shareholder may vote the control shares. Under certain circumstances, the shares held by the acquirer may be redeemed by the corporation at the fair market value of the shares as determined by the control share acquisition provision. First Merchants and Community Bancshares are subject to the control share acquisition provision. The constitutional validity of the control share acquisition statute has been challenged in the past and has been upheld by the United States Supreme Court.

The control share acquisition provision does not apply to a plan of affiliation and merger if the corporation complies with the applicable merger provisions and is a party to the agreement of merger or plan of share exchange.

Community Bancshares’ status as a Subchapter S corporation and the shareholder eligibility and restrictions on transfer provisions contained in the Shareholders Agreement could have the effect of discouraging or making more difficult a hostile takeover of the corporation so long as it maintains its Subchapter S election.

Liquidation Rights

First Merchants

In the event of any liquidation or dissolution of First Merchants, its shareholders are entitled to receive pro rata, according to the number of shares held, any assets distributable to shareholders, subject to the payment of First Merchants' liabilities and any rights of creditors and holders of shares of First Merchants' preferred stock then outstanding.

Community Bancshares

In the event of any liquidation, dissolution, or winding up of Community Bancshares, either voluntary or involuntary, the holders of shares shall be entitled to share, ratably according to the number of shares held by them, in all assets of Community Bancshares available for distribution to its shareholders.

Redemption

First Merchants

Under Indiana law, First Merchants may redeem or acquire shares of its common stock with funds legally available therefor, and shares so acquired constitute authorized but unissued shares. First Merchants may not redeem or acquire its shares of common stock if, after such redemption, it would not be able to pay its debts as they become due. Additionally, First Merchants may not redeem its shares if its total assets would be less than the sum of its total liabilities plus preferential rights of shareholders payable upon dissolution.

Community Bancshares

Under Indiana law, Community Bancshares may redeem or acquire shares of its common stock with funds legally available therefor, and shares so acquired constitute authorized but unissued shares. Community Bancshares may not redeem or acquire its shares of common stock if, after such redemption, it would not be able to pay its debts as they become due. Additionally, Community Bancshares may not redeem its shares if its total assets would be less than the sum of its total liabilities plus any preferential rights of shareholders payable upon dissolution.

Under the terms of the Shareholders Agreement, Community Bancshares has certain redemption rights in the event of an attempted transfer to a qualified third party or a change in the eligibility status or death of an existing shareholder. In addition, Community Bancshares shall, subject to applicable laws and regulatory requirements, exercise its option to redeem any shares held by a deceased shareholder's representative if the shares, upon transfer or distribution by the shareholder's representative, would be owned by a person who would cause a termination of the Community Bancshares' election to be taxed in accordance with the provisions of Subchapter S of the Internal Revenue Code.

Director Liability

Under Indiana law, a director of First Merchants or Community Bancshares will not be liable to shareholders for any action taken as a director, or any failure to take any action, unless:

- The director has breached or failed to perform his duties as a director in good faith with the care an ordinarily prudent person in a like position would exercise under similar circumstances and in a manner the director reasonably believes to be in the best interests of the corporation; and
- Such breach or failure to perform constitutes willful misconduct or recklessness.

Indemnification of Directors, Officers and Employees

Under Indiana law and First Merchants' and Community Bancshares' Articles of Incorporation, either corporation may indemnify any director, officer, employee or agent for any and all liability and expense incurred in connection with a proceeding which such person is involved in by reason of such person's position with First Merchants or Community Bancshares, as applicable, in which (a) the person is wholly successful or (b) the person acted in good faith in what the person reasonably believed to be in or at least not opposed to the best interests of First Merchants or Community Bancshares, as applicable. If the proceeding is a criminal proceeding, the person must have had no reasonable cause to believe that the person's conduct was unlawful. If the person is wholly successful with respect to the claim or proceeding, the indemnification by First Merchants or Community Bancshares, as applicable is mandatory. Finally, under Indiana law and their respective Articles of Incorporation and/or Bylaws, both First Merchants and Community Bancshares are permitted to advance expenses to a person prior to final disposition of the proceeding if the person undertakes to repay any advanced amounts, if it is ultimately determined that he or she is not entitled to indemnification, or if the person furnishes to First Merchants or Community Bancshares, as applicable, a written affirmation of the person's good faith belief that he or she is entitled to indemnification.

LEGAL MATTERS

Certain legal matters in connection with the Merger Agreement will be passed upon for First Merchants by the law firm of Bingham Greenebaum Doll LLP, Indianapolis, Indiana and for Community Bancshares by the law firm of Krieg DeVault LLP, Indianapolis, Indiana.

SHAREHOLDER PROPOSALS FOR NEXT YEAR

First Merchants

If the Merger is completed, Community Bancshares shareholders will become shareholders of First Merchants. Any proposal which a First Merchants shareholder intends to have presented at the 2015 annual meeting of First Merchants and included in the proxy statement and form of proxy relating to that meeting must be received by the Secretary of First Merchants at First Merchants' principal office no later than December 3, 2014, for inclusion in First Merchants' proxy statement and form of proxy relating to that meeting. Shareholder proposals, if any, intended to be presented at the 2015 annual meeting of First Merchants that are not submitted by December 3, 2014 for inclusion in the proxy statement will be considered untimely.

Community Bancshares

If the Merger occurs, there will be no Community Bancshares annual meeting of shareholders for 2015. In that case, shareholder proposals must be submitted to First Merchants in accordance with the procedures described above.

SECTION 3

CONSIDERATION TO BE DISTRIBUTED TO SHAREHOLDERS OF COMMUNITY BANCSHARES

A Community Bancshares shareholder shall be entitled to elect the Share Option for all shares held of record, the Cash Option for all shares held of record or the Share Option for a portion of the shares held of record and the Cash Option for a portion of the shares held of record. Each Community Bancshares shareholder who would otherwise have been entitled to a fraction of a share of First Merchants Common Stock, upon surrender of all such shareholder’s certificates representing Community Bancshares Common Stock, shall be paid in cash (without interest), rounded to the nearest whole cent, determined by multiplying the First Merchants Average Price (as defined below) by the fractional share of First Merchants Common Stock to which such former Community Bancshares shareholder would otherwise be entitled. No such shareholder of Community Bancshares shall be entitled to dividends, voting rights or any other rights in respect of any fractional share. The term “First Merchants Average Price” shall mean the average closing price of First Merchants Common Stock as reported by Bloomberg, L.P. for the ten (10) days that First Merchants Common Stock trades on the NASDAQ Global Select Market preceding the fourth (4th) calendar day prior to the Effective Date (the “Determination Date”). The First Merchants Average Price shall be appropriately and proportionately adjusted to reflect any share adjustment as contemplated by Section 3.3 hereof.

3.3 Recapitalization. If, between the date of this Agreement and the Effective Date, First Merchants issues a stock dividend with respect to its shares of common stock, combines, subdivides, or splits up its outstanding shares or takes any similar recapitalization action, then the Exchange Ratio shall be adjusted so that each Community Bancshares shareholder shall receive such number of shares of First Merchants Common Stock as represents the same percentage of outstanding shares of First Merchants Common Stock at the Effective Date as would have been represented by the number of shares of First Merchants Common Stock such shareholder would have received if the recapitalization had not occurred.

3.4 Election. An election form (the “Election Form”) shall be mailed to each record holder of Community Bancshares Common Stock as of the record date fixed for the special shareholders’ meeting at which the Merger will be submitted to a vote of Community Bancshares shareholders (the “Special Record Date”). In addition, reasonable efforts will be made to make the Election Form available to all persons who become shareholders of Community Bancshares between the Special Record Date and the Election Deadline (as defined below). The deadline for receipt of such Election Forms shall be the close of business on the first business day after the special meeting at which the Merger will be submitted to a vote of Community Bancshares shareholders, or such other date mutually agreed to by Community Bancshares and First Merchants (the “Election Deadline”). The Election Forms shall be mailed to each record holder of Community Bancshares Common Stock as of the Special Record Date along with the proxy materials for the special shareholders’ meeting at which the Merger will be submitted to a vote of Community Bancshares shareholders. The Election Form will permit each holder of record of Community Bancshares Common Stock as of the Special Record Date to elect, subject to Section 3.6, to have all of such holder’s shares exchanged in the Merger into either the Share Option, the Cash Option or a combination of the Share Option and the Cash Option. First Merchants and Community Bancshares hereby appoint American Stock Transfer to act as agent (the "Election Agent") of Community Bancshares shareholders for the purposes of mailing and receiving the Election Forms, tabulating the results and notifying First Merchants and Community Bancshares of the results.

3.6 Diversity of Payments.

(a) In the event the number of Cash Election Shares would entitle the holders of such shares (and Community Bancshares shareholders receiving cash payments for fractional shares or exercising dissenters' rights) to receive $15,000,000 or less in cash, then all Share Option and Cash Option elections of the holders of Community Bancshares common shares shall be honored (each in its entirety) and all Non-Electing Shares shall be treated as Stock Election Shares. For purposes of this determination, any shareholder exercising the shareholders dissenters' rights shall be counted as though they had elected the Cash Option.

(b) In the event that the amount of cash to be received by holders of Cash Election Shares and Community Bancshares shareholders receiving cash payments for fractional shares or the exercise of dissenters' rights pursuant to the terms of the Agreement would result in cash payments of more than $15,000,000, the Cash Election Shares (not including any shareholders electing dissenters' rights) shall be converted into Stock Election Shares pro rata (based on the total number of shares of Community Bancshares Common Stock held by each Community Bancshares shareholder with Cash Election Shares) until the total remaining number of Cash Election Shares is such that the Merger will (i) result in cash payments of no more than $15,000,000 for Cash Election Shares and Community Bancshares shareholders receiving cash payments for fractional shares or exercising their dissenters' rights, and (ii) satisfy the "continuity of interest" requirement applicable to tax-free reorganizations under the Code. Cash Election Shares which are not converted into Stock Election Shares shall remain as Cash Election Shares, and all Non-Electing Shares shall be treated as Stock Election Shares.

(d) Community Bancshares and First Merchants shall mutually determine the validity of elections submitted by Community Bancshares shareholders.

(e) A holder of Community Bancshares shares that is a bank, trust company, security broker-dealer or other recognized nominee, may submit one or more Election Forms for the persons for whom it holds shares as nominee provided that such bank, trust company, security broker-dealer or nominee certifies to the satisfaction of Community Bancshares and First Merchants the names of the persons for whom it is so holding shares (the "Beneficial Owners"). In such case, each Beneficial Owner for whom an Election Form is submitted shall be treated as a separate owner for purposes of the election procedure and allocation of shares set forth herein.

(f) First Merchants and Community Bancshares may, upon mutual agreement, apply the adjustments set forth in this Section 3.6 only to such extent and to such number of Community Bancshares shareholders as is necessary to accomplish the objectives of this Section 3.6 and to assure that the Merger will qualify as a tax-free reorganization.

3.7 Distribution of First Merchants' Common Stock and Cash.

(a) Each share of common stock of First Merchants outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Date shall remain outstanding unaffected by the Merger.

(b) On or prior to the Effective Date, First Merchants shall (i) authorize the issuance of and shall make available to American Stock Transfer as exchange agent hereunder (the "Exchange Agent"), for the benefit of the registered shareholders of Community Bancshares Common Stock for exchange in accordance with this Section 3, certificates for shares (or book entry of shares) of First Merchants Common Stock (the "First Merchants Stock Certificates") to be issued pursuant to Section 3.1, and (ii) shall deposit with the Exchange Agent sufficient cash for payment of cash for Cash Election Shares and in lieu of any fractional shares of First Merchants Common Stock in accordance with Section 3.2. Such First Merchants Stock Certificates and cash are referred to in this Section 3 as the "Exchange Fund." First Merchants shall be solely responsible for the payment of any fees and expenses of the Exchange Agent.

(c) Within three (3) business days following the Effective Date, First Merchants shall mail to each Community Bancshares shareholder a letter of transmittal (the "Letter of Transmittal") providing instructions as to the transmittal to the Exchange Agent of certificates representing shares of Community Bancshares Common Stock and the issuance of shares of First Merchants Common Stock and cash in exchange therefor pursuant to the terms of this Agreement. Distribution of stock certificates representing First Merchants Common Stock and cash payments for Community Bancshares Common Stock and in lieu of fractional shares shall be made by First Merchants to each former shareholder of Community Bancshares within ten (10) business days following the later of the Effective Date or the date of such shareholder's delivery to the Exchange Agent of such shareholder's certificates representing Community Bancshares Common Stock, accompanied by a properly completed and executed Letter of Transmittal. Interest shall not accrue or be payable with respect to any cash payments.

(d) Following the Effective Date, stock certificates representing Community Bancshares Common Stock shall be deemed to evidence only the right to receive cash and/or such number of shares of First Merchants Common Stock as determined in accordance with Section 3.1 above (for all corporate purposes other than the payment of dividends) and cash for fractional shares, as applicable. No dividends or other distributions otherwise payable subsequent to the Effective Date on shares of First Merchants Common Stock shall be paid to any shareholder entitled to receive the same until such shareholder has surrendered such shareholder's certificates for Community Bancshares Common Stock to the Exchange Agent in exchange for certificates representing First Merchants Common Stock and cash for fractional shares, as applicable; provided, however, that this provision shall not limit or otherwise affect the dividends set forth in Section 8.12 hereof. Upon surrender or compliance with the provisions of Section 3.7(c), there shall be paid to the record holder of the new certificate(s) evidencing shares of First Merchants' common stock the amount of all dividends and other distributions, without interest thereon, withheld with respect to such common stock.

(e) From and after the Effective Date, there shall be no transfers on the stock transfer books of Community Bancshares of any shares of Community Bancshares Common Stock.

(f) Any portion of the Exchange Fund that remains unclaimed by the shareholders of Community Bancshares for twelve months after the Effective Date shall be paid to First Merchants, or its successors in interest. Any shareholders of Community Bancshares who have not theretofore complied with this Section 3 shall thereafter look only to First Merchants, or its successors in interest, for the payment of cash or issuance of certificates representing shares of First Merchants Common Stock and the payment of cash in lieu of any fractional shares and any unpaid dividends and distributions on First Merchants Common Stock deliverable in respect of each share of Community Bancshares Common Stock such shareholder holds as determined pursuant to this Agreement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, none of First Merchants, the Exchange Agent or any other person shall be liable to any former holder of shares of Community Bancshares Common Stock for any amount delivered in good faith to a public official pursuant to applicable abandoned property, escheat or similar laws.

(g) First Merchants shall be entitled to rely upon the stock transfer books of Community Bancshares to establish the persons entitled to receive cash and shares of First Merchants Common Stock, which books, in the absence of actual knowledge by First Merchants of any adverse claim thereto, shall be conclusive with respect to the ownership of such stock.

(h) With respect to any certificate for Community Bancshares Common Stock which has been lost, stolen, or destroyed, First Merchants shall be authorized to issue First Merchants Common Stock to the registered owner of such certificate upon receipt of an affidavit of lost stock certificate, in form and substance satisfactory to First Merchants, and upon compliance by the Community Bancshares' shareholder with all procedures historically required by Community Bancshares in connection with lost, stolen, or destroyed certificates.

SECTION 4

DISSENTING SHAREHOLDERS

Shareholders of Community Bancshares shall have the rights accorded to dissenting shareholders under Indiana Code § 23-1-44, as amended.

SECTION 5

REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES OF COMMUNITY BANCSHARES

Community Bancshares hereby makes the representations and warranties set forth below to First Merchants with respect to itself and the Bank. For the purposes of this Section 5, a "Community Bancshares Disclosure Letter" is defined as the letter referencing Section 5 of this Agreement which shall be prepared by Community Bancshares and delivered to First Merchants contemporaneously with the execution of this Agreement.

5.1 Organization and Authority. Community Bancshares is a corporation duly organized and validly existing under the laws of the State of Indiana, and the Bank is a bank duly organized and validly existing under the laws of the State of Indiana. Community Bancshares' only subsidiary is the Bank. The Bank is subject to primary federal regulatory supervision and regulation by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation.

5.2 Authorization.

(a) Community Bancshares has the corporate power and authority to enter into this Agreement and to carry out its obligations hereunder, subject to satisfaction of the conditions precedent in Section 9. This Agreement, when executed and delivered, will have been duly authorized and will constitute a valid and binding obligation of Community Bancshares, enforceable in accordance with its terms except to the extent limited by insolvency, reorganization, liquidation, readjustment of debt or other laws of general application relating to or affecting the enforcement of creditors' rights. The Board of Directors of the Bank and Community Bancshares as its sole shareholder have approved the Bank Merger pursuant to the terms and conditions of this Agreement and the Bank Merger Agreement.

(b) Except as set forth in the Community Bancshares Disclosure Letter, neither the execution of this Agreement, nor the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby, does or will (i) conflict with, result in a breach of, or constitute a default under Community Bancshares' or the Bank's organizational documents; (ii) conflict with, result in a breach of, or constitute a default under any federal, foreign, state or local law, statute, ordinance, rule, regulation or court or administrative order or decree, or any note, bond, indenture, loan, mortgage, security agreement, contract, arrangement or commitment, to which Community Bancshares or the Bank is subject or bound, the result of which would have a Material Adverse Effect; (iii) result in the creation of, or give any person, corporation or entity the right to create, any lien, charge, encumbrance, security interest, or any other rights of others or other adverse interest upon any right, property or asset of Community Bancshares or the Bank; (iv) terminate, or give any person, corporation or entity the right to terminate, amend, abandon, or refuse to perform, any note, bond, indenture, loan, mortgage, security agreement, contract, arrangement or commitment to which Community Bancshares or the Bank is subject or bound, the result of which would have a Material Adverse Effect; or (v) accelerate or modify, or give any party thereto the right to accelerate or modify, the time within which, or the terms according to which, Community Bancshares or the Bank is to perform any duties or obligations or receive any rights or benefits under any note, bond, indenture, loan, mortgage, security agreement, contract, arrangement or commitment.

For the purpose of this Agreement, a “Material Adverse Effect” means any effect that (i) is material and adverse to the financial position, results of operations or business of Community Bancshares and the Bank taken as a whole, or First Merchants and FMB taken as a whole, as applicable or (ii) would materially impair the ability of Community Bancshares or First Merchants, as applicable, to perform its obligations under this Agreement; provided, however, that a Material Adverse Effect shall not be deemed to include the impact of (a) changes in banking and similar laws of general applicability to banks or their holding companies or interpretations thereof by courts or governmental authorities, (b) changes in generally accepted accounting principles or regulatory accounting requirements applicable to banks or their holding companies generally, (c) any modifications or changes to valuation policies and practices in connection with the Merger or restructuring charges taken in connection with the Merger, in each case in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, (d) effects of any action taken with the prior written consent of the other party hereto, (e) changes in the general level of interest rates (including the impact on the securities portfolios of Community Bancshares and the Bank, or First Merchants and FMB, as applicable) or conditions or circumstances relating to or that affect either the United States economy, financial or securities markets or the banking industry, generally, (f) changes resulting from expenses (such as legal, accounting and investment bankers’ fees) incurred in connection with this Agreement or the transactions contemplated herein, including without limitation payment of any amounts due to, or the provision of any benefits to, any officers or employees under agreements, plans or other arrangements in existence of or contemplated by this Agreement and disclosed to First Merchants, (g) the impact of the announcement of this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby, and compliance with this Agreement on the business, financial condition or results of operations of Community Bancshares and the Bank, or First Merchants and FMB, as applicable and (h) the occurrence of any military or terrorist attack within the United States or any of its possessions or offices; provided that in no event shall a change in the trading price of the First Merchants Common Stock, by itself, be considered to constitute a Material Adverse Effect on First Merchants (it being understood that the foregoing proviso shall not prevent or otherwise affect a determination that any effect underlying such decline has resulted in a Material Adverse Effect).

(c) Other than the filing of Articles of Merger with the Indiana Secretary of State for the Merger and in connection or in compliance with the banking regulatory approvals contemplated by Section 9.4 and federal and state securities laws and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder, no notice to, filing with, authorization of, exemption by, or consent or approval of, any public body or authority is necessary for the consummation by Community Bancshares of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

(d) Other than those filings, authorizations, consents and approvals referenced in Section 5.2(c) above and except as set forth in the Community Bancshares Disclosure Letter, no notice to, filing with, authorization of, exemption by, or consent or approval of, any third party is necessary for the consummation by Community Bancshares or the Bank of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, except for such authorizations, exemptions, consents or approvals, the failure of which to obtain, would not be reasonably likely to result in a Material Adverse Effect.

5.3 Capitalization.

(a) The Community Bancshares Disclosure letter contains a list of the shareholders of Community Bancshares and the number of shares held by each. As of the date of this Agreement, Community Bancshares has 2,000,000 shares of Community Bancshares Common Stock authorized, 550,000 shares of which are issued and outstanding. Such issued and outstanding shares of Community Bancshares Common Stock have been duly and validly authorized by all necessary corporate action of Community Bancshares, are validly issued, fully paid and nonassessable and have not been issued in violation of any preemptive rights of any shareholders. The Bank has no capital stock authorized, issued or outstanding other than as described in this Section 5.3(b) and has no intention or obligation to authorize or issue any other shares of capital stock.

(c) There are no options, commitments, calls, agreements, understandings, arrangements or subscription rights regarding the issuance, purchase or acquisition of capital stock, or any securities convertible into or representing the right to purchase or otherwise receive the capital stock or any debt securities, of Community Bancshares or the Bank by which Community Bancshares or the Bank is or may become bound. 5.4 Organizational Documents. The respective Articles of Incorporation and By-Laws of Community Bancshares and the Bank have been delivered to First Merchants and represent true, accurate and complete copies of such corporate documents of Community Bancshares and the Bank in effect as of the date of this Agreement.

5.5 Compliance with Law. Neither Community Bancshares nor the Bank has engaged in any activity nor taken or omitted to take any action which has resulted or, to the knowledge of Community Bancshares' Management could reasonably be expected to result, in the violation of any local, state, federal or foreign law, statute, rule, regulation or ordinance or of any order, injunction, judgment or decree of any court or government agency or body, the violation of which could reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect on Community Bancshares. Community Bancshares and the Bank possess all licenses, franchises, permits and other authorizations necessary for the continued conduct of their respective businesses without material interference or interruption, except where the failure to possess such licenses or other authorizations would not be reasonably expected to have a Material Adverse Effect on Community Bancshares, and such licenses, franchises, permits and authorizations shall be transferred to First Merchants on the Effective Date without any material restrictions or limitations thereon or the need to obtain any consents of third parties. Except as set forth in the Community Bancshares Disclosure Letter, neither Community Bancshares nor the Bank are subject to any agreement, commitment or understanding with, or order and directive of, any regulatory agency or government authority

5.6 Accuracy of Statements. No information which has been or shall be supplied by Community Bancshares with respect to its businesses, operations and financial condition for inclusion in the proxy statement and registration statement relating to the Merger or the Bank Merger contains or shall contain (in the case of information relating to the proxy statement at the time it is mailed and for the registration statement at the time it becomes effective) any untrue statement of a material fact or omits or shall omit to state a material fact necessary to make the statements contained herein or therein not misleading.

5.7 Litigation and Pending Proceedings. Except as set forth in the Community Bancshares Disclosure Letter, there are no claims of any kind, nor any action, suits, proceedings, arbitrations or investigations pending or to the knowledge of Community Bancshares’ Management threatened in any court or before any government agency or body, arbitration panel or otherwise (nor does Community Bancshares’ Management have any knowledge of a basis for any claim, action, suit, proceeding, arbitration or investigation) which could reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect. To the knowledge of Community Bancshares’ Management, there are no material uncured violations, criticisms or exceptions, or violations with respect to which material refunds or restitutions may be required, cited in any report, correspondence or other communication to Community Bancshares or the Bank as a result of an examination by any regulatory agency or body.

5.9 Absence of Certain Changes. Except for events and conditions relating to the business and interest rate environment in general, the accrual or payment of Merger-related expenses, or as set forth in the Community

(b) The operation by Community Bancshares or the Bank of such properties and assets is in compliance with all applicable laws, ordinances, rules and regulations of any governmental authority or third party having jurisdiction over such use except for such noncompliance that would not have a Material Adverse Effect.

(i) There is no contract, agreement, plan or arrangement covering any employee, director or former employee or director of Community Bancshares or the Bank that, individually or collectively, could give rise to the payment of any amount that would not be deductible by reason of Section 280G or Section 162(a)(1) of the Code.

(j) To the knowledge of Community Bancshares' Management, no event has occurred that would cause the imposition of the tax described in Code Section 4980B on Community Bancshares. To the knowledge of Community Bancshares' Management, Community Bancshares has materially complied with all requirements of ERISA Section 601, as applicable, with respect to any Employee Plan.

(n) Except as otherwise provided in the Community Bancshares Disclosure Letter, the transactions contemplated by the Agreement will not cause acceleration of vesting in, or payment of, any material benefits under any Employee Plan or Benefit Arrangement and will not otherwise materially accelerate or increase any obligation under any Employee Plan or Benefit Arrangement.

1. Employment.

Employer hereby employs Employee and Employee hereby accepts employment upon the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement.

2. Term of Agreement.

Subject to the provisions for termination hereinafter provided, the term of this Agreement shall commence on (the “Commencement Date”) (the date of the merger of Community Bancshares, Inc. into First Merchants Corporation pursuant to that certain Agreement and Plan of Reorganization and Merger dated , 2014 (the “Merger”), and continue for a term of twenty-four (24) months (the “Term”).

3. Duties.

During the Term of this Agreement, Employee shall be of the Region and shall perform all duties related and necessary to that position. Employee agrees to abide by all by-laws, policies, practices, procedures, and rules of Employer.

Employee shall devote all of his professional time, efforts, skill and ability to the business of Employer, and shall not, during the Term of this Agreement, be engaged in any other business activity, whether or not such business activity is pursued for gain, profit or other pecuniary advantage, unless Employee has obtained the prior written approval of Employer which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld; but this shall not be construed as preventing Employee from investing his assets in such form or manner as will not require any services on the part of Employee in the operation of the affairs of the companies in which such investments are made. Further, this Paragraph 3 shall not prevent Employee from participating in charitable or other not-for-profit activities as long as such activities do not materially interfere with Employee’s work for Employer.

4. Business Opportunities.

Employee will take no action that deprives Employer of any business opportunities within the scope of Employee’s existing duties and, should Employee be offered or become aware of any such opportunities, Employee shall advise Employer in writing, and Employer shall have the right of first refusal before Employee pursues such opportunity.

5. Compensation and Benefits.

Employer shall compensate Employee for services performed during the Term of this Agreement as follows:

- A. Annual Salary. Employer shall pay Employee a total Annual Salary of One Hundred Fifty-Six Thousand and 00/100 Dollars ($156,000) (minus all applicable deductions and withholdings, including federal, state, and local taxes, and FICA), payable in accordance with Employer’s normal payroll policies. At least annually, Employer shall review and may increase Employee’s Annual Salary as Employer determines to be reasonable and appropriate.
- B. Benefits. Employee shall be entitled to all benefits otherwise provided to full-time employees of Employer and in accordance with Employer’s policies. The terms and conditions on which Employer shall provide benefits to Employee are the same as it provides such benefits to its other management employees holding positions similar to that of Employee. Employee understands and agrees that all benefits are subject to change from time to time at the sole discretion of Employer. Employee shall also be entitled to a car allowance similar to those in effect at Community Bank immediately prior to the Merger.

Table of Contents

C. Retention Incentive. In recognition of Employee's importance to the successful integration of Community Bank into the Employer and the significant incremental efforts that such will entail, and to induce Employee to remain with the Employer on the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement, the Employer shall pay Employee a "Retention Incentive" equal to fifty percent (50%) of his Annual Salary. The Retention Incentive shall be paid in a single installment on first payroll date following the twelve (12) month anniversary of the Commencement Date (the "Incentive Payment Date"). In the event the Employee's employment terminates prior to the Incentive Payment Date due to Employee's death, permanent disability, termination by the Employer without Cause or resignation by Employee for Good Reason, then the Retention Incentive shall be paid within fifteen (15) days after such termination. If, prior to the Incentive Payment Date, Employee terminates his employment without Good Reason or his employment is terminated by the Employer for Cause under Paragraphs 10(E), 12, 13, 14 or 15, Employee will not be entitled to the Retention Incentive.

6. Expense Reimbursement.

Employer shall reimburse Employee for all reasonable out-of-pocket expenses that are incurred by Employee in providing services to Employer hereunder, so long as Employee provides Employer with reasonable documentation necessary to support such expenses. All expense reimbursement shall be paid to Employee consistent with Employer's expense reimbursement policy, in effect from time to time.

7. Confidential Information and Return of Property.

Employee acknowledges that in the course of his employment with Employer, he will occupy a position of trust and confidence and will have access to and may develop Confidential Information of actual or potential value to, or otherwise useful to, Employer. "Confidential Information" means information that the Employer owns or possesses, that it uses or is potentially useful in its business, that it treats as proprietary, private or confidential, and that is not generally known to the public, including, but not limited to, trade secrets (as defined by the Indiana Trade Secrets Act, Ind. Information supplied to Employee from outside sources will also be presumed to be Confidential Information unless and until Employer designates it otherwise.

Employee agrees to use Confidential Information solely in the course of his duties as an employee of Employer and in furtherance of Employer's business. Employee hereby further agrees that the above-referenced information will be kept confidential at all times during the Term of this Agreement and thereafter, that he will not disclose or communicate to any third party any of the Confidential Information and will not make use of the Confidential Information on his own behalf or on the behalf of a third party.

Employee agrees that all Confidential Information is and shall remain the exclusive property of Employer. services to or accept the business of any of Employer's customers for the types of financial services offered by Employer; or (3) request or advise any of Employer's customers to terminate, reduce, limit or otherwise change their business relationship with Employer. For purposes of this Paragraph 8(A), "Employer's customers" shall mean those persons, firms, corporations and other business entities who are customers of Employer at the time of Employee's termination of employment with Employer or who were customers of Employer at any time during the one (1) year period immediately preceding the termination of Employee's employment with Employer, whether or not Employee had direct contact with such customers on behalf of Employer.

- B. Employees. Employee shall not, at any time during the Term or for a period of one (1) year thereafter, directly or indirectly, on Employee's own behalf or for any other person, firm, corporation or other business entity, solicit, induce, request, advise, or otherwise attempt to take away or to influence any of Employer's employees to terminate his or her employment with Employer.
- C. Survival. This Paragraph 8 shall survive the termination of this Agreement.

9. Breach of Agreement.

- A. Employee acknowledges that any breach of Paragraphs 7 or 8 of this Agreement, by Employee may cause irreparable damage to Employer and that the legal remedies available to Employer will be inadequate. Therefore, in the event of any threatened or actual breach of Paragraphs 7 or 8 of this Agreement by Employee, Employee agrees that Employer shall be entitled to specific enforcement of this Agreement through injunctive or other equitable relief in addition to legal remedies, without the need for posting bond. If Employee is found, by a court of competent jurisdiction, to have breached any of the terms of Paragraphs 7 or 8 of this Agreement, Employee agrees to pay Employer reasonable attorney's fees and costs incurred in seeking relief from Employee's breach of Paragraphs 7 or 8 of this Agreement.

Employee and Employer hereby submit to the jurisdiction and venue of the Delaware County, Indiana Courts and the United States District Court for the Southern District of Indiana, as applicable, in any cause of action to enforce the terms and conditions of Paragraphs 7 or 8 of this Agreement.

- B. Employee and Employer hereby agree that any claim, controversy, or dispute arising out of or relating to this Agreement or the breach thereof, except those identified in Paragraph 9(A) of this Agreement, shall be settled by binding arbitration in Delaware County, Indiana. Such arbitration shall be conducted in accordance with the rules of the American Arbitration Association, then in effect. Each party shall bear their own attorney's fees and costs in such proceeding. Arbitration shall be the sole and exclusive method of resolving such claims, controversies, or disputes under this Agreement.
- C. This Paragraph 9 shall survive the termination of this Agreement.

10. Termination.

- A. Termination Due to Death. In the event of Employee's death, this Agreement shall terminate as of the date of Employee's death. If this Agreement is terminated because of Employee's death, Employee's benefits shall be determined in accordance with the survivor's benefits, insurance, and other applicable programs of Employer, then in effect. Upon Employee's death, Employer's obligations to compensate Employee under Paragraph 5 of this Agreement shall immediately expire; provided, however, that within forty-five (45) business days of Employee's death, Employer shall pay to Employee's estate that portion of his Annual Salary as provided in Paragraph 5(A) of this Agreement that shall have been earned through the date of Employee's death, but not yet paid. Except as otherwise set forth herein, following the termination date established pursuant to this Paragraph 10(A), Employer and Employee (including Employee's heirs, executors, administrators, and personal representatives) shall have no further obligations to each other under this Agreement.

have the right to terminate this Agreement and Employee's employment. Employer shall deliver written notice to Employee of Employer's intent to terminate this Agreement pursuant to this Paragraph 10(B) and specifying in such notice a termination date not less than thirty (30) days after the giving of the notice ("Disability Notice Period"). This Agreement and Employee's employment shall terminate at the close of business on the last day of the Disability Notice Period.

If this Agreement is terminated because of Employee's Disability, Employee shall be entitled to receive any applicable disability insurance benefits as allowed under Paragraph 5 (B) of this Agreement. Upon termination of this Agreement pursuant to this Paragraph 10(B), Employer's obligations to compensate Employee under Paragraph 5 of this Agreement shall immediately expire; provided, however, that within forty-five (45) business days after the termination of this Agreement, Employer shall pay to Employee that portion of his Annual Salary as provided in Paragraph 5(A) of this Agreement that shall have been earned through the termination date, but not yet paid. Except as otherwise set forth herein, following the termination date established pursuant to this Paragraph 10(B), Employer and Employee shall have no further obligations to each other under this Agreement.

For purposes of this Agreement only, the term "Disability" shall mean, the inability of Employee, because of injury, illness, disease, or bodily or mental infirmity, to engage in the performance of substantially all of the duties required by this Agreement with or without a reasonable accommodation. Employer shall reasonably and fairly determine such Disability upon receipt of, and in reliance on, medical advice from a licensed physician or physicians qualified to give professional medical advice.

- C. Termination by Employee. Employee may terminate this Agreement at any time, with or without Good Reason, by providing Employer written notice of his intent to terminate this Agreement pursuant to this Paragraph 10(C) and specifying in such notice a termination date not less than thirty (30) days after the giving of the notice ("Employee's Notice Period"). For purposes of this Paragraph 10(C), "Good Reason" shall mean any reasonable determination by Employee that (a) any of the following events has occurred: (i) any action by Employer to remove Employee from the position set forth in Paragraph 3, except for promotions, if any, and except where Employer properly acts to remove Employee for Cause as defined in Paragraph 10 (E) below, (ii) any action by Employer to materially limit, increase or modify Employee's duties and/or authority from those contemplated by Paragraph 3 or to otherwise change the regular work location of Employee by more than twenty (20) miles from Employee's work location with Community Bank immediately prior to the Merger, (iii) any failure of Employer to obtain the assumption of the obligation to perform this Agreement by any successor of the Employer, or (iv) any material breach by Employer of a term, condition or covenant of this Agreement, and (b) such action, failure or breach has not been cured by the Employer within thirty (30) days after receipt of written notice from Employee that an action, failure or breach described in clauses (i) through (iv) has occurred.

If Employee terminates this Agreement pursuant to this Paragraph 10(C), Employee shall immediately upon the termination of this Agreement forfeit all rights and benefits to which he would otherwise have been entitled under this Agreement; provided, however, that within fifteen (15) business days after the termination of this Agreement pursuant to this Paragraph 10(C),

1. If termination is without Good Reason, Employer shall pay to Employee that portion of his Annual Salary as provided in Paragraph 5(A) of this Agreement that shall have been earned through the termination date, but not yet paid.
2. If termination by Employee is with Good Reason, such termination shall be the equivalent of a termination of employment by the Employer without Cause and Employer shall pay to Employee the amounts described in Paragraph 10(D) below.

Except as otherwise set forth herein, following the termination date established pursuant to this Paragraph 10(C), Employer and Employee shall have no further obligations to each other under this Agreement.

This Agreement and Employee's employment shall terminate at the close of business on the last day of Employer's Notice Period.

If this Agreement is terminated pursuant to this Paragraph 10(D) (or by Employee for Good Reason pursuant to Paragraph 10(C)), Employee shall immediately upon the termination of this Agreement forfeit all rights and benefits to which he would otherwise have been entitled under this Agreement; provided, however, that, if termination occurs under this Paragraph 10(D) (or by Employee for Good Reason pursuant to Paragraph 10(C)), within fifteen (15) business days after such termination, Employer shall pay to Employee a lump sum payment equal to the aggregate Annual Salary that would be payable to Employee for the remainder of the Term. Except as otherwise set forth herein, following the termination date established pursuant to this Paragraph 10(D), Employer and Employee shall have no further obligations to each other under this Agreement.

- E. Termination by Employer With Cause. At any time during the Term of Employment, Employer may terminate this Agreement and Employee's Employment for "Cause." The term "Cause" as used herein shall mean a reasonable determination by Employer that Employee:

If the charges in the notice are dismissed, Employer shall (i) pay Employee all or part of the compensation withheld while its obligations under this Agreement were suspended and (ii) reinstate (in whole or in part) any of its obligations which were suspended. If the charges in the notice are not dismissed within thirty (30) days following the date of suspension, Employer shall be entitled to terminate this Agreement by written notice to Employee and this Agreement and Employee's employment shall terminate at the close of business on the date Employer provides such notice. Such termination shall be considered a termination of Employee by Employer for "Cause" pursuant to Paragraph 10(E) of this Agreement.

13. Removal or Prohibition.

If Employee is removed and/or permanently prohibited from participating in the conduct of Employer's affairs by an order issued under section 8(e)(4) or (g)(1) of the Federal Deposit Insurance Act (12 U.S.C. § 1818(e)(4) or (g)(1)), all obligations of Employer under this Agreement shall terminate as of the effective date of the order and shall be considered a termination of Employee by Employer for "Cause" pursuant to Paragraph 10(E) of this Agreement.

14. Default of Employer.

If Employer is in default (as defined in section 3(x)(1) of the Federal Deposit Insurance Act), all obligations under this Agreement shall terminate as of the date of default, and shall be considered a termination of Employee by Employer for "Cause" pursuant to Paragraph 10(E) of this Agreement.

15. Termination by Regulatory Action.

All obligations under this Agreement may be terminated except to the extent determined that the continuation of the Agreement is necessary for the continued operation of Employer: (i) by the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency (the "Controller"), at the time the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation enters into an agreement to provide assistance to or on behalf of Employer under the authority contained in Section 13(c) of the Federal Deposit Insurance Act; or (ii) by the Controller at the time the Controller approves a supervisory merger to resolve problems related to operation of Employer or when Employer is determined to be in an unsafe and unsound condition. Such termination shall be considered a termination of Employee by Employer for "Cause" pursuant to Paragraph 10(E) of this Agreement.

18. Choice of Law.

This Agreement shall be interpreted, construed, and governed by the laws of the State of Indiana, regardless of the place of execution or performance.

19. Entire Agreement.

(including the Treasury regulations and other published guidance relating thereto) so as not to subject Employee to the payment of any interest or additional tax imposed under Section 409A of the Code. In furtherance of this intent, (a) for any amount payable in two or more installments, each installment shall be treated as a separate payment, (b) if, due to the circumstances giving rise to any lump sum payment or payments under this Agreement, the date of payment or the commencement of such payments thereof must be delayed for six months following Employee's separation from service in order to meet the requirements of Section 409A(a)(2)(B) of the Code applicable to "specified employees," then such payment or payments shall be so delayed and paid upon expiration of such six month period and (b) each payment which is to be paid during a designated period that begins in a first taxable year and ends in a second taxable year shall be paid in the second taxable year. With regard to any provision herein that provides for reimbursement of expenses or in-kind benefits: (i) the right to reimbursement or in-kind benefits is not subject to liquidation or exchange for another benefit, and (ii) the amount of expenses eligible for reimbursement or in-kind benefits provided during any taxable year shall not affect the expenses eligible for reimbursement or in-kind benefits to be provided in any other taxable year, provided that the foregoing shall not be violated with regard to expenses covered by Code Section 105(h) that are subject to a limit related to the period in which the arrangement is in effect. Any expense or other reimbursement payment made pursuant to this Agreement or any plan, program, agreement or arrangement of the Employer referred to herein, shall be made on or before the last day of the taxable year following the taxable year in which such expense or other payment to be reimbursed is incurred. To the extent that any Treasury regulations, guidance or changes to Section 409A would result in the Employee becoming subject to interest and additional tax under Section 409A of the Code, the Employer and Employee agree to amend this Agreement in order to bring this Agreement into compliance with Code Section 409A.

Employment Agreement

This Employment Agreement (“Agreement”) is made and entered into this day of , 2014, by and between RUSSELL W. FREED (“Employee”) and FIRST MERCHANTS BANK, NATIONAL ASSOCIATION, a national banking association (“Employer”).

1. Employment.

Employer hereby employs Employee and Employee hereby accepts employment upon the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement.

2. Term of Agreement.

Subject to the provisions for termination hereinafter provided, the term of this Agreement shall commence on (the “Commencement Date”) (the date of the merger of Community Bancshares, Inc. into First Merchants Corporation pursuant to that certain Agreement and Plan of Reorganization and Merger dated , 2014 (the “Merger”), and continue for a term of twenty-four (24) months (the “Term”).

3. Duties.

During the Term of this Agreement, Employee shall be of the Region and shall perform all duties related and necessary to that position. Employee agrees to abide by all by-laws, policies, practices, procedures, and rules of Employer.

Employee shall devote all of his professional time, efforts, skill and ability to the business of Employer, and shall not, during the Term of this Agreement, be engaged in any other business activity, whether or not such business activity is pursued for gain, profit or other pecuniary advantage, unless Employee has obtained the prior written approval of Employer which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld; but this shall not be construed as preventing Employee from investing his assets in such form or manner as will not require any services on the part of Employee in the operation of the affairs of the companies in which such investments are made. Further, this Paragraph 3 shall not prevent Employee from participating in charitable or other not-for-profit activities as long as such activities do not materially interfere with Employee’s work for Employer.

4. Business Opportunities.

Employee will take no action that deprives Employer of any business opportunities within the scope of Employee’s existing duties and, should Employee be offered or become aware of any such opportunities, Employee shall advise Employer in writing, and Employer shall have the right of first refusal before Employee pursues such opportunity.

5. Compensation and Benefits.

Employer shall compensate Employee for services performed during the Term of this Agreement as follows:

- A. Annual Salary. Employer shall pay Employee a total Annual Salary of One Hundred Ten Thousand Five Hundred and 00/100 Dollars ($110,500) (minus all applicable deductions and withholdings, including federal, state, and local taxes, and FICA), payable in accordance with Employer’s normal payroll policies. At least annually, Employer shall review and may increase Employee’s Annual Salary as Employer determines to be reasonable and appropriate.
- B. Benefits. Employee shall be entitled to all benefits otherwise provided to full-time employees of Employer and in accordance with Employer’s policies. The terms and conditions on which Employer shall provide benefits to Employee are the same as it provides such benefits to its other management employees holding positions similar to that of Employee. Employee understands and agrees that all benefits are subject to change from time to time at the sole discretion of Employer.

C. Retention Incentive. In recognition of Employee's importance to the successful integration of Community Bank into the Employer and the significant incremental efforts that such will entail, and to induce Employee to remain with the Employer on the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement, the Employer shall pay Employee a "Retention Incentive" equal to fifty percent (50%) of his Annual Salary. The Retention Incentive shall be paid in a single installment on first payroll date following the twelve (12) month anniversary of the Commencement Date (the "Incentive Payment Date"). In the event the Employee's employment terminates prior to the Incentive Payment Date due to Employee's death, permanent disability, termination by the Employer without Cause or resignation by Employee for Good Reason, then the Retention Incentive shall be paid within fifteen (15) days after such termination. If, prior to the Incentive Payment Date, Employee terminates his employment without Good Reason or his employment is terminated by the Employer for Cause under Paragraphs 10(E), 12, 13, 14 or 15, Employee will not be entitled to the Retention Incentive.

6. Expense Reimbursement.

Employer shall reimburse Employee for all reasonable out-of-pocket expenses that are incurred by Employee in providing services to Employer hereunder, so long as Employee provides Employer with reasonable documentation necessary to support such expenses. All expense reimbursement shall be paid to Employee consistent with Employer's expense reimbursement policy, in effect from time to time.

7. Confidential Information and Return of Property.

Employee acknowledges that in the course of his employment with Employer, he will occupy a position of trust and confidence and will have access to and may develop Confidential Information of actual or potential value to, or otherwise useful to, Employer. "Confidential Information" means information that the Employer owns or possesses, that it uses or is potentially useful in its business, that it treats as proprietary, private or confidential, and that is not generally known to the public, including, but not limited to, trade secrets (as defined by the Indiana Trade Secrets Act, Ind. Code sec. 24-2-3-1, et. seq.), information relating to the Employer's business plans, financial condition, operating and other costs, sales, pricing, marketing, ideas, research records, plans for service improvements and development, lists of actual or potential customers, actual and potential customer usage and requirements, customer records, trade secrets, and any other information which derives independent economic value, either actual or potential. Information supplied to Employee from outside sources will also be presumed to be Confidential Information unless and until Employer designates it otherwise.

Employee agrees to use Confidential Information solely in the course of his duties as an employee of Employer and in furtherance of Employer's business. Employee hereby further agrees that the above-referenced information will be kept confidential at all times during the Term of this Agreement and thereafter, that he will not disclose or communicate to any third party any of the Confidential Information and will not make use of the Confidential Information on his own behalf or on the behalf of a third party.

Employee agrees that all Confidential Information is and shall remain the exclusive property of Employer. Employee agrees to return to Employer on or before Employee's termination of employment with Employer all Employer property, information and documents, including and without limitation, all reports, files, memoranda, records, software, hardware, credit cards, keys, computer access codes or disks, instruction or operational manuals, handbooks or manuals, written financial information, business plans or other physical and personal property which Employee received or prepared or helped prepare in connection with his employment with Employer; and Employee agrees that he will not retain any copies, duplicates, reproductions or excerpts thereof.

This Paragraph 7 shall survive the termination of this Agreement.

8. A. Customers. Employee shall not, at any time during the Term and for a period of one (1) year thereafter, directly or indirectly, on Employee's own behalf or for any other person, firm, corporation or other business entity: (1) solicit, seek to obtain, initiate action to divert, or facilitate or participate in any discussions intended to divert, any of the business of any of Employer's customers; (2) provide services to or accept the business of any of Employer's customers for the types of financial services offered by Employer; or (3) request or advise any of Employer's customers to terminate, reduce, limit or otherwise change their business relationship with Employer. For purposes of this Paragraph 8(A), "Employer's customers" shall mean those persons, firms, corporations and other business entities who are customers of Employer at the time of Employee's termination of employment with Employer or who were customers of Employer at any time during the one (1) year period immediately preceding the termination of Employee's employment with Employer, whether or not Employee had direct contact with such customers on behalf of Employer.

- B. Employees. Employee shall not, at any time during the Term or for a period of one (1) year thereafter, directly or indirectly, on Employee's own behalf or for any other person, firm, corporation or other business entity, solicit, induce, request, advise, or otherwise attempt to take away or to influence any of Employer's employees to terminate his or her employment with Employer.
- C. Survival. This Paragraph 8 shall survive the termination of this Agreement.

9. Breach of Agreement.

- A. Employee acknowledges that any breach of Paragraphs 7 or 8 of this Agreement, by Employee may cause irreparable damage to Employer and that the legal remedies available to Employer will be inadequate. Therefore, in the event of any threatened or actual breach of Paragraphs 7 or 8 of this Agreement by Employee, Employee agrees that Employer shall be entitled to specific enforcement of this Agreement through injunctive or other equitable relief in addition to legal remedies, without the need for posting bond. If Employee is found, by a court of competent jurisdiction, to have breached any of the terms of Paragraphs 7 or 8 of this Agreement, Employee agrees to pay Employer reasonable attorney's fees and costs incurred in seeking relief from Employee's breach of Paragraphs 7 or 8 of this Agreement.

Employee and Employer hereby submit to the jurisdiction and venue of the Delaware County, Indiana Courts and the United States District Court for the Southern District of Indiana, as applicable, in any cause of action to enforce the terms and conditions of Paragraphs 7 or 8 of this Agreement.

- B. Employee and Employer hereby agree that any claim, controversy, or dispute arising out of or relating to this Agreement or the breach thereof, except those identified in Paragraph 9(A) of this Agreement, shall be settled by binding arbitration in Delaware County, Indiana. Such arbitration shall be conducted in accordance with the rules of the American Arbitration Association, then in effect. Each party shall bear their own attorney's fees and costs in such proceeding. Arbitration shall be the sole and exclusive method of resolving such claims, controversies, or disputes under this Agreement.
- C. This Paragraph 9 shall survive the termination of this Agreement.

10. Termination.

- A. Termination Due to Death. In the event of Employee's death, this Agreement shall terminate as of the date of Employee's death. If this Agreement is terminated because of Employee's death, Employee's benefits shall be determined in accordance with the survivor's benefits, insurance, and other applicable programs of Employer, then in effect. Upon Employee's death, Employer's obligations to compensate Employee under Paragraph 5 of this Agreement shall immediately expire; provided, however, that within forty-five (45) business days of Employee's death, Employer shall pay to Employee's estate that portion of his Annual Salary as provided in Paragraph 5(A) of this Agreement that shall have been earned through the date of Employee's death, but not yet paid. Except as otherwise set forth herein, following the termination date established pursuant to this Paragraph 10(A), Employer and Employee (including Employee's heirs, executors, administrators, and personal representatives) shall have no further obligations to each other under this Agreement.
- B. Termination Due to Disability. In the event Employee suffers a Disability, as defined herein, during the Term of Employment and is, therefore, unable to perform the duties required by the Agreement for more than ninety (90) calendar days during any consecutive twelve (12) month period, Employer shall have the right to terminate this Agreement and Employee's employment. Employer shall deliver written notice to Employee of Employer's intent to terminate this Agreement pursuant to this Paragraph 10(B) and specifying in such notice a termination date not less than thirty (30) days after the giving of the notice ("Disability Notice Period"). This Agreement and Employee's employment shall terminate at the close of business on the last day of the Disability Notice Period.

If this Agreement is terminated because of Employee's Disability, Employee shall be entitled to receive any applicable disability insurance benefits as allowed under Paragraph 5 (B) of this Agreement. Upon termination of this Agreement pursuant to this Paragraph 10(B), Employer's obligations to compensate Employee under Paragraph 5 of this Agreement shall immediately expire; provided, however, that within forty-five (45) business days after the termination of this Agreement, Employer shall pay to Employee that portion of his Annual Salary as provided in Paragraph 5(A) of this Agreement that shall have been earned through the termination date, but not yet paid. Except as otherwise set forth herein, following the termination date established pursuant to this Paragraph 10(B), Employer and Employee shall have no further obligations to each other under this Agreement.

For purposes of this Agreement only, the term "Disability" shall mean, the inability of Employee, because of injury, illness, disease, or bodily or mental infirmity, to engage in the performance of substantially all of the duties required by this Agreement with or without a reasonable accommodation. Employer shall reasonably and fairly determine such Disability upon receipt of, and in reliance on, medical advice from a licensed physician or physicians qualified to give professional medical advice.

- C. Termination by Employee. Employee may terminate this Agreement at any time, with or without Good Reason, by providing Employer written notice of his intent to terminate this Agreement pursuant to this Paragraph 10(C) and specifying in such notice a termination date not less than thirty (30) days after the giving of the notice ("Employee's Notice Period"). This Agreement and Employee's employment shall terminate at the close of business on the last day of Employee's Notice Period.

For purposes of this Paragraph 10(C), "Good Reason" shall mean any reasonable determination by Employee that (a) any of the following events has occurred: (i) any action by Employer to remove Employee from the position set forth in Paragraph 3, except for promotions, if any, and except where Employer properly acts to remove Employee for Cause as defined in Paragraph 10 (E) below, (ii) any action by Employer to materially limit, increase or modify Employee's duties and/or authority from those contemplated by Paragraph 3 or to otherwise change the regular work location of Employee by more than twenty (20) miles from Employee's work location with Community Bank immediately prior to the Merger, (iii) any failure of Employer to obtain the assumption of the obligation to perform this Agreement by any successor of the Employer, or (iv) any material breach by Employer of a term, condition or covenant of this Agreement, and (b) such action, failure or breach has not been cured by the Employer within thirty (30) days after receipt of written notice from Employee that an action, failure or breach described in clauses (i) through (iv) has occurred.

If Employee terminates this Agreement pursuant to this Paragraph 10(C), Employee shall immediately upon the termination of this Agreement forfeit all rights and benefits to which he would otherwise have been entitled under this Agreement; provided, however, that within fifteen (15) business days after the termination of this Agreement pursuant to this Paragraph 10(C),

1. If termination is without Good Reason, Employer shall pay to Employee that portion of his Annual Salary as provided in Paragraph 5(A) of this Agreement that shall have been earned through the termination date, but not yet paid.
2. If termination by Employee is with Good Reason, such termination shall be the equivalent of a termination of employment by the Employer without Cause and Employer shall pay to Employee the amounts described in Paragraph 10(D) below.

Except as otherwise set forth herein, following the termination date established pursuant to this Paragraph 10(C), Employer and Employee shall have no further obligations to each other under this Agreement.

- D. Termination by Employer Without Cause. At any time during the Term of Employment, Employer may terminate this Agreement (and, thus, terminate Employee's Employment) for any reason by providing Employee written notice of its intent to terminate this Agreement pursuant to this Paragraph 10(D) and specifying in such notice a termination date not less than thirty (30) days after the giving of the notice ("Employer's Notice Period"). This Agreement and Employee's employment shall terminate at the close of business on the last day of Employer's Notice Period.

If this Agreement is terminated pursuant to this Paragraph 10(D) (or by Employee for Good Reason pursuant to Paragraph 10(C)), Employee shall immediately upon the termination of this Agreement forfeit all rights and benefits to which he would otherwise have been entitled under this Agreement; provided, however, that, if termination occurs under this Paragraph 10(D) (or by Employee for Good Reason pursuant to Paragraph 10(C)), within fifteen (15) business days after such termination, Employer shall pay to Employee a lump sum payment equal to the aggregate Annual Salary that would be payable to Employee for the remainder of the Term. Except as otherwise set forth herein, following the termination date established pursuant to this Paragraph 10(D), Employer and Employee shall have no further obligations to each other under this Agreement.

- E. Termination by Employer With Cause. At any time during the Term of Employment, Employer may terminate this Agreement and Employee's Employment for "Cause." The term "Cause" as used herein shall mean a reasonable determination by Employer that Employee:

3. Has been charged or convicted of any crime constituting a felony or involving moral turpitude or controlled substance;
4. Materially breached any term or condition of this Agreement; or
5. As otherwise defined in this Agreement.

Upon the occurrence of any of the foregoing, Employer may provide Employee written notice of its intent to terminate this Agreement pursuant to this Paragraph 10(E) and this Agreement and Employee's employment shall terminate at the close of business on the date on which Employer provides such notice.

If this Agreement is terminated pursuant to this Paragraph 10(E), Employee shall immediately upon the termination of this Agreement forfeit all rights and benefits to which he would otherwise have been entitled under this Agreement; provided, however, that Employer shall pay to Employee in accordance with Employer's normal payroll practices, that portion of Employee's Annual Salary as provided in Paragraph 5(A) of this Agreement that shall have been earned through the termination date. Except as otherwise set forth herein, following the termination date established pursuant to this Paragraph 10(E), Employer and Employee shall have no further obligations to each other under this Agreement.

- F. Exception to Loss of Rights and Benefits. Notwithstanding any contrary provisions contained herein, termination of this Agreement for any reason shall not limit, reduce or otherwise terminate the rights held by Employee to receive vested benefits or other amounts payable under the plans and programs described in Paragraph 5(B), to unpaid reimbursements for expenses described in Paragraph 6, or under any separate written agreement between Employee and Employer or any affiliate of First Merchants Corporation, including, but not limited to, Employee's rights and benefits under any change in control agreement, deferred compensation agreements, and the Merger Agreement described in Paragraph 2.

With regard to any provision herein that provides for reimbursement of expenses or in-kind benefits: (i) the right to reimbursement or in-kind benefits is not subject to liquidation or exchange for another benefit, and (ii) the amount of expenses eligible for reimbursement or in-kind benefits provided during any taxable year shall not affect the expenses eligible for reimbursement or in-kind benefits to be provided in any other taxable year, provided that the foregoing shall not be violated with regard to expenses covered by Code Section 105(h) that are subject to a limit related to the period in which the arrangement is in effect. Any expense or other reimbursement payment made pursuant to this Agreement or any plan, program, agreement or arrangement of the Employer referred to herein, shall be made on or before the last day of the taxable year following the taxable year in which such expense or other payment to be reimbursed is incurred. To the extent that any Treasury regulations, guidance or changes to Section 409A would result in the Employee becoming subject to interest and additional tax under Section 409A of the Code, the Employer and Employee agree to amend this Agreement in order to bring this Agreement into compliance with Code Section 409A.

1. Employment.

Employer hereby employs Employee and Employee hereby accepts employment upon the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement.

2. Term of Agreement.

Subject to the provisions for termination hereinafter provided, the term of this Agreement shall commence on _____ (the date of the merger of Community Bancshares, Inc. into First Merchants Corporation pursuant to that certain Agreement and Plan of Reorganization and Merger dated _____, 2014 (the “Merger”), and continue for a term of twelve (12) months thereafter (the “Term”).

3. Duties.

During the Term of this Agreement, Employee shall be _____ of the _____ Region and shall perform all duties related and necessary to that position. Employee agrees to abide by all by-laws, policies, practices, procedures, and rules of Employer.

Employee shall devote all of his professional time, efforts, skill and ability to the business of Employer, and shall not, during the Term of this Agreement, be engaged in any other business activity, whether or not such business activity is pursued for gain, profit or other pecuniary advantage, unless Employee has obtained the prior written approval of Employer which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld; but this shall not be construed as preventing Employee from investing his assets in such form or manner as will not require any services on the part of Employee in the operation of the affairs of the companies in which such investments are made. Further, this Paragraph 3 shall not prevent Employee from participating in charitable or other not-for-profit activities as long as such activities do not materially interfere with Employee’s work for Employer.

4. Business Opportunities.

Employee will take no action that deprives Employer of any business opportunities within the scope of Employee’s existing duties and, should Employee be offered or become aware of any such opportunities, Employee shall advise Employer in writing, and Employer shall have the right of first refusal before Employee pursues such opportunity.

5. Compensation and Benefits.

Employer shall compensate Employee for services performed during the Term of this Agreement as follows:

- A. Annual Salary. Employer shall pay Employee a total Annual Salary of One Hundred Forty-Four Thousand and 00/100 Dollars ($144,000) (minus all applicable deductions and withholdings, including federal, state, and local taxes, and FICA), payable in accordance with Employer’s normal payroll policies. At least annually, Employer shall review and may increase Employee’s Annual Salary as Employer determines to be reasonable and appropriate.
- B. Benefits. Employee shall be entitled to all benefits otherwise provided to full-time employees of Employer and in accordance with Employer’s policies. The terms and conditions on which Employer shall provide benefits to Employee are the same as it provides such benefits to its other management employees holding positions similar to that of Employee. Employee understands and agrees that all benefits are subject to change from time to time at the sole discretion of Employer. Employee shall also be entitled to a car allowance similar to those in effect at Community Bank immediately prior to the Merger.

C. Retention Incentive. In recognition of Employee's importance to the successful integration of Community Bank into the Employer and the significant incremental efforts that such will entail, and to induce Employee to remain with the Employer on the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement, the Employer shall pay Employee a Retention Incentive equal to $144,000. The Retention Incentive shall be paid in a single installment at the conclusion of the Term. In the event the Employee's employment terminates prior to the conclusion of the Term due to Employee's death, disability, termination by the Employer without Cause or resignation by Employee for Good Reason then the Retention Incentive shall be paid within fifteen (15) days after such termination. If, prior to the conclusion of the Term, Employee terminates his employment without Good Reason or his employment is terminated by the Employer for Cause under Paragraphs 10(E), 12, 13, 14 or 15, Employee will not be entitled to the Retention Incentive.

6. Expense Reimbursement.

Employer shall reimburse Employee for all reasonable out-of-pocket expenses that are incurred by Employee in providing services to Employer hereunder, so long as Employee provides Employer with reasonable documentation necessary to support such expenses. All expense reimbursement shall be paid to Employee consistent with Employer's expense reimbursement policy, in effect from time to time.

7. Confidential Information and Return of Property.

Employee acknowledges that in the course of his employment with Employer, he will occupy a position of trust and confidence and will have access to and may develop Confidential Information of actual or potential value to, or otherwise useful to, Employer. "Confidential Information" means information that the Employer owns or possesses, that it uses or is potentially useful in its business, that it treats as proprietary, private or confidential, and that is not generally known to the public, including, but not limited to, trade secrets (as defined by the Indiana Trade Secrets Act, Ind. Code sec. 24-2-3-1, et. seq.), information relating to the Employer's business plans, financial condition, operating and other costs, sales, pricing, marketing, ideas, research records, plans for service improvements and development, lists of actual or potential customers, actual and potential customer usage and requirements, customer records, trade secrets, and any other information which derives independent economic value, either actual or potential. Information supplied to Employee from outside sources will also be presumed to be Confidential Information unless and until Employer designates it otherwise.

Employee agrees to use Confidential Information solely in the course of his duties as an employee of Employer and in furtherance of Employer's business. Employee hereby further agrees that the above-referenced information will be kept confidential at all times during the Term of this Agreement and thereafter, that he will not disclose or communicate to any third party any of the Confidential Information and will not make use of the Confidential Information on his own behalf or on the behalf of a third party.

Employee agrees that all Confidential Information is and shall remain the exclusive property of Employer. Employee agrees to return to Employer on or before Employee's termination of employment with Employer all Employer property, information and documents, including and without limitation, all reports, files, memoranda, records, software, hardware, credit cards, keys, computer access codes or disks, instruction or operational manuals, handbooks or manuals, written financial information, business plans or other physical and personal property which Employee received or prepared or helped prepare in connection with his employment with Employer; and Employee agrees that he will not retain any copies, duplicates, reproductions or excerpts thereof.

This Paragraph 7 shall survive the termination of this Agreement.

8. A. Customers. Employee shall not, at any time during the Term and for a period of one (1) year thereafter, directly or indirectly, on Employee's own behalf or for any other person, firm, corporation or other business entity: (1) solicit, seek to obtain, initiate action to divert, or facilitate or participate in any discussions intended to divert, any of the business of any of Employer's customers; (2) provide services to or accept the business of any of Employer's customers for the types of financial services offered by Employer; or (3) request or advise any of Employer's customers to terminate, reduce, limit or otherwise change their business relationship with Employer. For purposes of this Paragraph 8(A), "Employer's customers" shall mean those persons, firms, corporations and other business entities who are customers of Employer at the time of Employee's termination of employment with Employer or who were customers of Employer at any time during the one (1) year period immediately preceding the termination of Employee's employment with Employer, whether or not Employee had direct contact with such customers on behalf of Employer.

- B. Employees. Employee shall not, at any time during the Term or for a period of one (1) year thereafter, directly or indirectly, on Employee's own behalf or for any other person, firm, corporation or other business entity, solicit, induce, request, advise, or otherwise attempt to take away or to influence any of Employer's employees to terminate his or her employment with Employer.
- C. Survival. This Paragraph 8 shall survive the termination of this Agreement.

9. Breach of Agreement.

- A. Employee acknowledges that any breach of Paragraphs 7 or 8 of this Agreement, by Employee may cause irreparable damage to Employer and that the legal remedies available to Employer will be inadequate. Therefore, in the event of any threatened or actual breach of Paragraphs 7 or 8 of this Agreement by Employee, Employee agrees that Employer shall be entitled to specific enforcement of this Agreement through injunctive or other equitable relief in addition to legal remedies, without the need for posting bond. If Employee is found, by a court of competent jurisdiction, to have breached any of the terms of Paragraphs 7 or 8 of this Agreement, Employee agrees to pay Employer reasonable attorney's fees and costs incurred in seeking relief from Employee's breach of Paragraphs 7 or 8 of this Agreement.

Employee and Employer hereby submit to the jurisdiction and venue of the Delaware County, Indiana Courts and the United States District Court for the Southern District of Indiana, as applicable, in any cause of action to enforce the terms and conditions of Paragraphs 7 or 8 of this Agreement.

- B. Employee and Employer hereby agree that any claim, controversy, or dispute arising out of or relating to this Agreement or the breach thereof, except those identified in Paragraph 9(A) of this Agreement, shall be settled by binding arbitration in Delaware County, Indiana. Such arbitration shall be conducted in accordance with the rules of the American Arbitration Association, then in effect. Each party shall bear their own attorney's fees and costs in such proceeding. Arbitration shall be the sole and exclusive method of resolving such claims, controversies, or disputes under this Agreement.
- C. This Paragraph 9 shall survive the termination of this Agreement.

10. Termination.

- A. Termination Due to Death. In the event of Employee's death, this Agreement shall terminate as of the date of Employee's death. If this Agreement is terminated because of Employee's death, Employee's benefits shall be determined in accordance with the survivor's benefits, insurance, and other applicable programs of Employer, then in effect. Upon Employee's death, Employer's obligations to compensate Employee under Paragraph 5 of this Agreement shall immediately expire; provided, however, that within forty-five (45) business days of Employee's death, Employer shall pay to Employee's estate that portion of his Annual Salary as provided in Paragraph 5(A) of this Agreement that shall have been earned through the date of Employee's death, but not yet paid. Except as otherwise set forth herein, following the termination date established pursuant to this Paragraph 10(A), Employer and Employee (including Employee's heirs, executors, administrators, and personal representatives) shall have no further obligations to each other under this Agreement.
- B. Termination Due to Disability. In the event Employee suffers a Disability, as defined herein, during the Term of Employment and is, therefore, unable to perform the duties required by the Agreement for more than ninety (90) calendar days during any consecutive twelve (12) month period, Employer shall have the right to terminate this Agreement and Employee's employment. Employer shall deliver written notice to Employee of Employer's intent to terminate this Agreement pursuant to this Paragraph 10(B) and specifying in such notice a termination date not less than thirty (30) days after the giving of the notice ("Disability Notice Period"). This Agreement and Employee's employment shall terminate at the close of business on the last day of the Disability Notice Period.

If this Agreement is terminated because of Employee's Disability, Employee shall be entitled to receive any applicable disability insurance benefits as allowed under Paragraph 5 (B) of this Agreement. Upon termination of this Agreement pursuant to this Paragraph 10(B), Employer's obligations to compensate Employee under Paragraph 5 of this Agreement shall immediately expire; provided, however, that within forty-five (45) business days after the termination of this Agreement, Employer shall pay to Employee that portion of his Annual Salary as provided in Paragraph 5(A) of this Agreement that shall have been earned through the termination date, but not yet paid. Except as otherwise set forth herein, following the termination date established pursuant to this Paragraph 10(B), Employer and Employee shall have no further obligations to each other under this Agreement.

For purposes of this Agreement only, the term "Disability" shall mean, the inability of Employee, because of injury, illness, disease, or bodily or mental infirmity, to engage in the performance of substantially all of the duties required by this Agreement with or without a reasonable accommodation. Employer shall reasonably and fairly determine such Disability upon receipt of, and in reliance on, medical advice from a licensed physician or physicians qualified to give professional medical advice.

- C. Termination by Employee. Employee may terminate this Agreement at any time, with or without Good Reason, by providing Employer written notice of his intent to terminate this Agreement pursuant to this Paragraph 10(C) and specifying in such notice a termination date not less than thirty (30) days after the giving of the notice ("Employee's Notice Period"). This Agreement and Employee's employment shall terminate at the close of business on the last day of Employee's Notice Period.

For purposes of this Paragraph 10(C), "Good Reason" shall mean any reasonable determination by Employee that (a) any of the following events has occurred: (i) any action by Employer to remove Employee from the position set forth in Paragraph 3, except for promotions, if any, and except where Employer properly acts to remove Employee for Cause as defined in Paragraph 10 (E) below, (ii) any action by Employer to materially limit, increase or modify Employee's duties and/or authority from those contemplated by Paragraph 3 or to otherwise change the regular work location of Employee by more than twenty (20) miles from Employee's work location with Community Bank immediately prior to the Merger, (iii) any failure of Employer to obtain the assumption of the obligation to perform this Agreement by any successor of the Employer, or (iv) any material breach by Employer of a term, condition or covenant of this Agreement, and (b) such action, failure or breach has not been cured by the Employer within thirty (30) days after receipt of written notice from Employee that an action, failure or breach described in clauses (i) through (iv) has occurred.

If Employee terminates this Agreement pursuant to this Paragraph 10(C), Employee shall immediately upon the termination of this Agreement forfeit all rights and benefits to which he would otherwise have been entitled under this Agreement; provided, however, that within fifteen (15) business days after the termination of this Agreement pursuant to this Paragraph 10(C),

1. If termination is without Good Reason, Employer shall pay to Employee that portion of his Annual Salary as provided in Paragraph 5(A) of this Agreement that shall have been earned through the termination date, but not yet paid.
2. If termination by Employee is with Good Reason, such termination shall be the equivalent of a termination of employment by the Employer without Cause and Employer shall pay to Employee the amounts described in Paragraph 10(D) below.

Except as otherwise set forth herein, following the termination date established pursuant to this Paragraph 10(C), Employer and Employee shall have no further obligations to each other under this Agreement.

- D. Termination by Employer Without Cause. At any time during the Term of Employment, Employer may terminate this Agreement (and, thus, terminate Employee's Employment) for any reason by providing Employee written notice of its intent to terminate this Agreement pursuant to this Paragraph 10(D) and specifying in such notice a termination date not less than thirty (30) days after the giving of the notice ("Employer's Notice Period"). This Agreement and Employee's employment shall terminate at the close of business on the last day of Employer's Notice Period.

If this Agreement is terminated pursuant to this Paragraph 10(D) (or by Employee for Good Reason pursuant to Paragraph 10(C)), Employee shall immediately upon the termination of this Agreement forfeit all rights and benefits to which he would otherwise have been entitled under this Agreement; provided, however, that, if termination occurs under this Paragraph 10(D) (or by Employee for Good Reason pursuant to Paragraph 10(C)), within fifteen (15) business days after such termination, Employer shall pay to Employee a lump sum payment equal to the aggregate Annual Salary that would be payable to Employee for the remainder of the Term. Except as otherwise set forth herein, following the termination date established pursuant to this Paragraph 10(D), Employer and Employee shall have no further obligations to each other under this Agreement.

- E. Termination by Employer With Cause. At any time during the Term of Employment, Employer may terminate this Agreement and Employee's Employment for "Cause." The term "Cause" as used herein shall mean a reasonable determination by Employer that Employee:

1. Engaged in willful and continued failure to perform substantially Employee's duties with Employer if such failure continues for a period of thirty (30) days after Employer delivers to Employee written demand for substantial performance, specifically identifying the manner in which Employee has not substantially performed his duties;
2. Engaged in unauthorized conduct and behavior that has the potential to expose Employer to material liability or otherwise significantly jeopardize Employer's business interests;
3. Has been charged or convicted of any crime constituting a felony or involving moral turpitude or controlled substance;
4. Materially breached any term or condition of this Agreement; or
5. As otherwise defined in this Agreement.

Upon the occurrence of any of the foregoing, Employer may provide Employee written notice of its intent to terminate this Agreement pursuant to this Paragraph 10(E) and this Agreement and Employee's employment shall terminate at the close of business on the date on which Employer provides such notice.

If this Agreement is terminated pursuant to this Paragraph 10(E), Employee shall immediately upon the termination of this Agreement forfeit all rights and benefits to which he would otherwise have been entitled under this Agreement; provided, however, that Employer shall pay to Employee in accordance with Employer's normal payroll practices, that portion of Employee's Annual Salary as provided in Paragraph 5(A) of this Agreement that shall have been earned through the termination date. Except as otherwise set forth herein, following the termination date established pursuant to this Paragraph 10(E), Employer and Employee shall have no further obligations to each other under this Agreement.

- F. Exception to Loss of Rights and Benefits. Notwithstanding any contrary provisions contained herein, termination of this Agreement for any reason shall not limit, reduce or otherwise terminate the rights held by Employee to receive vested benefits or other amounts payable under the plans and programs described in Paragraph 5(B), to unpaid reimbursements for expenses described in Paragraph 6, or under any separate written agreement between Employee and Employer or any affiliate of First Merchants Corporation, including, but not limited to, Employee's rights and benefits under any change in control agreement, deferred compensation agreements, and the Merger Agreement described in Paragraph 2.

11. Indemnification of Employee.

Employer shall indemnify Employee to the fullest extent permitted by Employer's articles of incorporation, by-laws and applicable federal or state banking or other laws for all amounts (including, without limitation, judgments, fines, settlement payments, expenses and attorneys' fees) incurred or paid by Employee in connection with any action, suit, investigation or proceeding arising out of or relating to the performance by Employee or services for, or the acting by Employee as a director, officer or employee of, Employer, any subsidiary of Employer or any other person or enterprise at Employer's request. Expenses, including but not limited to attorneys' fees and disbursements, incurred in defending any action, suit, investigation or proceeding, for which Employee may be entitled to indemnification under this Paragraph 11 upon final disposition of such action, shall be paid by Employer in advance of the final disposition, to the maximum extent permitted by applicable laws and regulations; provided, however, that prior to making any such payments Employer shall receive an undertaking by or on behalf of Employee to repay such amounts if it shall ultimately be determined that he is not entitled to indemnification.

12. Suspension.

If Employee is suspended and/or temporarily prohibited from participating in the conduct of Employer's affairs by a notice served under Section 8(e)(3) or (g)(1) of the Federal Deposit Insurance Act (12 U.S.C. § 1818(e)(3) and (g)(1)), Employer's obligations under this Agreement shall be suspended as of the date of service, unless stayed by appropriate proceedings. If the charges in the notice are dismissed, Employer shall (i) pay Employee all or part of the compensation withheld while its obligations under this Agreement were suspended and (ii) reinstate (in whole or in part) any of its obligations which were suspended. If the charges in the notice are not dismissed within thirty (30) days following the date of suspension, Employer shall be entitled to terminate this Agreement by written notice to Employee and this Agreement and Employee's employment shall terminate at the close of business on the date Employer provides such notice. Such termination shall be considered a termination of Employee by Employer for "Cause" pursuant to Paragraph 10(E) of this Agreement.

13. Removal or Prohibition.

If Employee is removed and/or permanently prohibited from participating in the conduct of Employer's affairs by an order issued under section 8(e)(4) or (g)(1) of the Federal Deposit Insurance Act (12 U.S.C. § 1818(e)(4) or (g)(1)), all obligations of Employer under this Agreement shall terminate as of the effective date of the order and shall be considered a termination of Employee by Employer for "Cause" pursuant to Paragraph 10(E) of this Agreement.

14. Default of Employer.

15. Termination by Regulatory Action.

All obligations under this Agreement may be terminated except to the extent determined that the continuation of the Agreement is necessary for the continued operation of Employer: (i) by the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency (the "Controller"), at the time the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation enters into an agreement to provide assistance to or on behalf of Employer under the authority contained in Section 13(c) of the Federal Deposit Insurance Act; or (ii) by the Controller at the time the Controller approves a supervisory merger to resolve problems related to operation of Employer or when Employer is determined to be in an unsafe and unsound condition. Such termination shall be considered a termination of Employee by Employer for "Cause" pursuant to Paragraph 10(E) of this Agreement.

16. Conflict with Regulations.

If any of the provisions in this Agreement shall conflict with 12 C.F.R. § 30, Appendix A, or the Controller policies adopted thereunder (as the same may be amended from time to time) the requirements of such regulation shall supersede any contrary provisions herein and shall prevail.

17. Successors and Assigns.

This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the successors and assigns of Employer, and unless clearly inapplicable, all references herein to Employer shall be deemed to include any such successor. In addition, this Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of Employee and his heirs, executors, legal representatives and assigns; provided, however, that the obligations of Employee hereunder are personal in nature and may not be delegated without the prior written approval of Employer.

18. Choice of Law.

This Agreement shall be interpreted, construed, and governed by the laws of the State of Indiana, regardless of the place of execution or performance.

19. Entire Agreement.

This Agreement contains the entire agreement of the parties and replaces and supersedes all employment agreements and change of control agreements between Employee and Community Bank. This Agreement may not be changed orally, but only by an agreement in writing signed by the party against whom enforcement of any waiver, change, modification, extension, or discharge is sought.

This Agreement may be executed in multiple counterparts, each of which (or a facsimile thereof) shall be deemed an original, but all of which shall be considered a single instrument.

20. Severability.

If any provision of this Agreement shall be held by a court of competent jurisdiction to be contrary to law or public policy, the remaining provisions shall remain in full force and effect.

21. Notice.

Any notices, requests, demands, or other communications provided for by this Agreement shall be sufficient if in writing and if (i) delivered by hand to the other party; (ii) sent by facsimile communication with appropriate confirmation of delivery; (iii) sent by registered or certified United States Mail, return receipt requested, with all postage prepaid; or (iv) sent by recognized commercial express courier services, with all delivery charges prepaid; and addressed as follows:

It is intended that any amounts payable under this Agreement and the Employer's and Employee's exercise of authority or discretion hereunder shall be exempt from or comply with Section 409A of the Code

(including the Treasury regulations and other published guidance relating thereto) so as not to subject Employee to the payment of any interest or additional tax imposed under Section 409A of the Code. In furtherance of this intent, (a) for any amount payable in two or more installments, each installment shall be treated as a separate payment, (b) if, due to the circumstances giving rise to any lump sum payment or payments under this Agreement, the date of payment or the commencement of such payments thereof must be delayed for six months following Employee's separation from service in order to meet the requirements of Section 409A(a)(2)(B) of the Code applicable to "specified employees," then such payment or payments shall be so delayed and paid upon expiration of such six month period and (b) each payment which is to be paid during a designated period that begins in a first taxable year and ends in a second taxable year shall be paid in the second taxable year. With regard to any provision herein that provides for reimbursement of expenses or in-kind benefits: (i) the right to reimbursement or in-kind benefits is not subject to liquidation or exchange for another benefit, and (ii) the amount of expenses eligible for reimbursement or in-kind benefits provided during any taxable year shall not affect the expenses eligible for reimbursement or in-kind benefits to be provided in any other taxable year, provided that the foregoing shall not be violated with regard to expenses covered by Code Section 105(h) that are subject to a limit related to the period in which the arrangement is in effect. Any expense or other reimbursement payment made pursuant to this Agreement or any plan, program, agreement or arrangement of the Employer referred to herein, shall be made on or before the last day of the taxable year following the taxable year in which such expense or other payment to be reimbursed is incurred. To the extent that any Treasury regulations, guidance or changes to Section 409A would result in the Employee becoming subject to interest and additional tax under Section 409A of the Code, the Employer and Employee agree to amend this Agreement in order to bring this Agreement into compliance with Code Section 409A.

IC 23-1-44-8

Right to dissent and obtain payment for shares

Sec. 8.

(a) A shareholder is entitled to dissent from, and obtain payment of the fair value of the shareholder’s shares in the event of, any of the following corporate actions:

(1) Consummation of a plan of merger to which the corporation is a party if:

(A) shareholder approval is required for the merger by IC 23-1-40-3 or the articles of incorporation; and

(B) the shareholder is entitled to vote on the merger.

(2) Consummation of a plan of share exchange to which the corporation is a party as the corporation whose shares will be acquired, if the shareholder is entitled to vote on the plan.

(3) Consummation of a sale or exchange of all, or substantially all, of the property of the corporation other than in the usual and regular course of business, if the shareholder is entitled to vote on the sale or exchange, including a sale in dissolution, but not including a sale pursuant to court order or a sale for cash pursuant to a plan by which all or substantially all of the net proceeds of the sale will be distributed to the shareholders within one

(1) year after the date of sale.

(4) The approval of a control share acquisition under IC 23-1-42.

(5) Any corporate action taken pursuant to a shareholder vote to the extent the articles of incorporation, bylaws, or a resolution of the board of directors provides that voting or nonvoting shareholders are entitled to dissent and obtain payment for their shares.

(b) This section does not apply to the holders of shares of any class or series if, on the date fixed to determine the shareholders entitled to receive notice of and vote at the meeting of shareholders at which the merger, plan of share exchange, or sale or exchange of property is to be acted on, the shares of that class or series were a covered security under Section 18(b)(1)(A) or 18(b)(1)(B) of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended.

(c) The articles of incorporation as originally filed or any amendment to the articles of incorporation may limit or eliminate the right to dissent and obtain payment for any class or series of preferred shares. However, any limitation or elimination contained in an amendment to the articles of incorporation that limits or eliminates the right to dissent and obtain payment for any shares:

(1) that are outstanding immediately before the effective date of the amendment; or

(2) that the corporation is or may be required to issue or sell after the effective date of the amendment under any exchange or other right existing immediately before the effective date of the amendment; does not apply to any corporate action that becomes effective within one (1) year of the effective date of the amendment if the action would otherwise afford the right to dissent and obtain payment.

(d) A shareholder:

(1) who is entitled to dissent and obtain payment for the shareholder’s shares under this chapter; or

Table of Contents

(2) who would be so entitled to dissent and obtain payment but for the provisions of subsection (b); may not challenge the corporate action creating (or that, but for the provisions of subsection (b), would have created) the shareholder's entitlement.

(e) Subsection (d) does not apply to a corporate action that was approved by less than unanimous consent of the voting shareholders under IC 23-1-29-4.5(b) if both of the following apply:

(1) The challenge to the corporate action is brought by a shareholder who did not consent and as to whom notice of the approval of the corporate action was not effective at least ten (10) days before the corporate action was effected.

The rights of a partial dissenter under this subsection are determined as if the shares as to which the shareholder dissents and the shareholder's other shares were registered in the names of different shareholders.

(b) A beneficial shareholder may assert dissenters' rights as to shares held on the shareholder's behalf only if:

(1) the beneficial shareholder submits to the corporation the record shareholder's written consent to the dissent not later than the time the beneficial shareholder asserts dissenters' rights; and

(2) the beneficial shareholder does so with respect to all the beneficial shareholder's shares or those shares over which the beneficial shareholder has power to direct the vote.

Sec. 18.

(a) A dissenter may notify the corporation in writing of the dissenter's own estimate of the fair value of the dissenter's shares and demand payment of the dissenter's estimate (less any payment under section 15 of this chapter), or reject the corporation's offer under section 17 of this chapter and demand payment of the fair value of the dissenter's shares, if:

- (1) the dissenter believes that the amount paid under section 15 of this chapter or offered under section 17 of this chapter is less than the fair value of the dissenter's shares;
- (2) the corporation fails to make payment under section 15 of this chapter within sixty (60) days after the date set for demanding payment; or
- (3) the corporation, having failed to take the proposed action, does not return the deposited certificates or release the transfer restrictions imposed on uncertificated shares within sixty (60) days after the date set for demanding payment.

(b) A dissenter waives the right to demand payment under this section unless the dissenter notifies the corporation of the dissenter's demand in writing under subsection (a) within thirty (30) days after the corporation made or offered payment for the dissenter's shares.

Members of the Board of Directors:

We understand that Community Bancshares, Inc. (the "Company") proposes to enter into an Agreement and Plan of Reorganization and Merger (the "Agreement"), by and between the Company and First Merchants Corporation (the "Acquiror"), pursuant to which, among other things, the Company will be merged with and into the Acquiror (the "Transaction") and that in connection with the Transaction each issued and outstanding share of the common stock of the Company (the "Company Common Stock") not held by holders who properly perfect their right to dissent under applicable law (the "Excluded Holders") will be converted into the right to receive, at the option of the holder thereof and subject to certain limitations and proration procedures contained in the Agreement (as to which we express no opinion), (i) $85.94 in cash (the "Cash Consideration") or (ii) 4.0926 shares of common stock of the Acquiror (the "Acquiror Common Stock"), with cash paid in lieu of fractional shares (the "Stock Consideration" and together with the Cash Consideration, the "Merger Consideration").

You have requested that SunTrust Robinson Humphrey, Inc. ("STRH") render its opinion (this "Opinion") to the Board of Directors of the Company (solely in its capacity as such) (the "Board of Directors") with respect to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the Merger Consideration to be received in the Transaction pursuant to the Agreement by the holders of the Company Common Stock (but excluding the Excluded Holders).

In connection with this Opinion, we have conducted such reviews, analyses and inquiries as we have deemed necessary and appropriate under the circumstances. Among other things, we have reviewed a draft, dated July 17, 2014, of the Agreement; certain business and financial information relating to the Company and the Acquiror, and their respective subsidiaries; certain other information relating to the historical, current and future business, financial condition, results of operations, asset quality and prospects of the Company and the Acquiror made available to us by the Company and the Acquiror, including certain financial projections prepared by the management of the Company relating to the Company and certain financial projections prepared by the management of the Acquiror relating to the Acquiror (together, the "Projections"); the current and projected financial and operating performance of the Acquiror and the Company as compared to that of other companies with publicly traded equity securities that we deemed relevant; the publicly available financial terms of certain transactions that we deemed relevant; and current and historical market conditions and certain financial, stock market and other publicly available information relating to the business of other companies and banks whose operations we considered relevant. We also have had discussions with certain members of the management of the Company and the Acquiror regarding the business, financial condition, assets, results of operations, and prospects of the Company and the Acquiror and the Transaction and have undertaken such other studies, analyses and investigations as we deemed appropriate.

We have relied upon and assumed, without independent verification, the accuracy and completeness of all data, material and other information furnished, or otherwise made available, to us, discussed with or reviewed by us, and do not assume any responsibility with respect to such data, material and other information. Our role in reviewing such data, material and other information was limited solely to performing such review as we deemed necessary and appropriate to support this Opinion. In addition, we have assumed, at the direction of the Company and without independent verification or investigation, that the Projections have been reasonably prepared in good faith on bases reflecting the best currently available information, estimates and judgments of management of the Company and management of the Acquiror as to the future financial results and condition of the Company and the Acquiror. We express no opinion with respect to the Projections or the assumptions on which they are based, or any other assumptions discussed herein. We have relied upon and assumed, without independent verification, that there has been no change in the business, assets, liabilities, financial condition, results of operations, cash flows or prospects of the Company or the Acquiror since the respective dates of their most recent financial statements and other information, financial or otherwise, provided to us and that there is no information, facts or circumstances that would make any of the data, material or other information discussed with or reviewed by us inaccurate, incomplete or misleading.

We also have relied upon and assumed without independent verification that (a) the representations and warranties of all parties to the Agreement are true and correct; (b) each party to the Agreement will fully and timely perform all of the covenants and agreements required to be performed by such party under the Agreement; (c) all conditions to the consummation of the Transaction will be satisfied without waiver thereof; (d) the Transaction will be consummated in accordance with the terms of the Agreement without waiver, modification or amendment of any term, condition or agreement therein; and (e) in the course of obtaining any regulatory or third party consents, approvals or agreements in connection with the Transaction, no delay, limitation, restriction or condition will be imposed that would have an adverse effect on the Company, the Acquiror or the expected benefits of the Transaction. We also have assumed that the Transaction will be treated as a tax-free reorganization for federal income tax purposes. In addition, we have assumed that the Agreement, when executed by the parties thereto, will conform to the draft reviewed by us in all respects material to our analysis and this Opinion.

Furthermore, in connection with this Opinion, we have not been requested to review, and have not reviewed, individual credit files, nor have we been requested to make, and have not made, any physical inspection or independent appraisal or evaluation of any of the assets, properties, facilities or liabilities (including any fixed, contingent, derivative or off-balance-sheet assets or liabilities or any portfolio securities or any collateral securing assets or securities) of the Company, the Acquiror, any of their subsidiaries, or any other person or entity, nor were we provided with any such appraisal or evaluation. In addition, we are not experts in the evaluation of loan or lease portfolios for purposes of assessing the adequacy of the allowances for losses with respect to such portfolios or for any other purpose and, accordingly, we have assumed, without independent investigation or verification, that the Company's and the Acquiror's allowances for such losses are in the aggregate adequate to cover any losses. We have undertaken no independent analysis of any potential or actual litigation, regulatory action, governmental investigation, possible unasserted claims or other contingent liabilities to which the Company, the Acquiror, any of their subsidiaries or any other person or entity is or may be a party or is or may be subject. As you are aware, we were not requested to, and we did not, (a) initiate or participate in any discussions or negotiations with, or solicit any indications of interest from, third parties with respect to the Transaction, the securities, assets, businesses or operations of the Company or any other party, or any alternatives to the Transaction; (b) negotiate the terms of the Transaction; or (c) advise the Board of Directors of the Company or any other party with respect to alternatives to the Transaction.

This Opinion is necessarily based on financial, economic, monetary, market and other conditions as in effect on, and the data, material and other information made available to us as of, the date hereof. We have no obligation to update, revise, reaffirm or withdraw this Opinion or otherwise comment upon events occurring or information that becomes available after the date hereof.

This Opinion only addresses the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the Merger Consideration to be received in the Transaction pursuant to the Agreement by the holders of the Company Common Stock (but excluding the Excluded Holders) and does not address any other term, aspect or implication of the Transaction or any agreement, arrangement or understanding entered into in connection therewith or otherwise. We have not been requested to opine as to, and this Opinion does not express an opinion as to or otherwise address, among other things: (i) the underlying business decision of the Company, its security holders or any other person or entity to proceed with or effect the Transaction; (ii) the form, structure or any other portion or aspect of the Transaction; (iii) the fairness of any portion, term, aspect or implication of the Transaction to the holders of debt of the Company, or any particular holder of securities, creditors or other constituencies of the Company, or to any other person or entity, except as expressly set forth in the last paragraph of this Opinion; (iv) the relative merits of the Transaction as compared to any alternative business strategies that might exist for the Company or any other person or entity or the effect of any other transaction in which the Company or any other person or entity might engage; (v) whether or not the Acquiror, the Company, its security holders or any other person or entity is receiving or paying reasonably equivalent value in the Transaction; (vi) the solvency, creditworthiness, viability, ability to pay debts when due, or fair value of the Company, the Acquiror or any other participant in the Transaction, or any of their respective assets, including under any applicable laws relating to bankruptcy, insolvency, fraudulent conveyance or similar matters, or the impact of the Transaction on such matters; (vii) the fairness, financial or otherwise, of the amount, nature or any other aspect of any compensation to or consideration payable to or received by any officers, directors or employees of any party to the Transaction or any class of such persons; (viii) the fairness of any term or aspect of the Transaction to any one class of the Company's security holders relative to any other class of the Company's security holders, including the allocation of any consideration among or within such classes; or (ix) the fairness of the Cash Consideration relative to the Stock Consideration and vice versa. Furthermore, no opinion, counsel or interpretation is intended in matters that require legal, regulatory, accounting, insurance, tax or other similar professional advice. It is assumed that such opinions, counsel or interpretations have been or will be obtained from appropriate professional sources. Furthermore, we have relied, with your consent, on the assessments by the Company and the Board of Directors and their respective advisors as to all legal, regulatory, accounting, insurance and tax matters with respect to the Company, the Acquiror and the Transaction. We have not been asked to, nor do we, offer any opinion as to any terms or conditions of the Agreement or the form of the Transaction, other than as expressly set forth in the last paragraph of this Opinion with respect to the Merger Consideration. We are not expressing any opinion as to what the value of the Acquiror Common Stock actually will be when issued pursuant to the Agreement or the price or range of prices at which shares of Acquiror Common Stock may trade at any time.

We will receive a fee for rendering this Opinion, no portion of which is contingent upon the consummation of the Transaction. In addition, the Company has agreed to reimburse certain of our expenses and to indemnify us and certain related parties for certain liabilities arising out of our engagement. We and our affiliates (including SunTrust Bank) may have in the past provided, are currently providing, and may in the future provide, investment banking, investment management, treasury management, wealth management, securities sales and trading and other financial services to the Company and its affiliates and associates (and the Acquiror and its affiliates and associates) for which we and our affiliates have received and would expect to receive compensation. This Opinion should not be construed as creating any fiduciary duty on the part of STRH to any person or entity. This Opinion is not intended to be, and does not constitute, a recommendation to the Board of Directors of the Company, the Company, any security holder of the Company or any other person or entity as to how to act or vote with respect to any matter relating to the Transaction or otherwise, including, without limitation, whether a holder of Company Common Stock should elect to receive the Cash Consideration or the Stock Consideration. Based upon and subject to the foregoing, it is our opinion that, as of the date hereof, the Merger Consideration to be received in the Transaction pursuant to the Agreement by the holders of the Company Common Stock is fair, from a financial point of view, to the holders of the Company Common Stock (but excluding the Excluded Holders).

PART II
INFORMATION NOT REQUIRED IN PROSPECTUS

Item 20. Indemnification of Directors and Officers of First Merchants Corporation

First Merchants is an Indiana corporation. First Merchants officers and directors are and will be indemnified under Indiana law, First Merchants Articles of Incorporation, as amended and Bylaws, as amended. Section 23-1-37-1 et seq. of the Indiana Business Corporation Law (the “Indiana Business Corporation Law”) requires a corporation, unless limited by its articles of incorporation, to indemnify a director or an officer of the corporation who is wholly successful, on the merits or otherwise, in the defense of any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative, or investigative and whether formal or informal, against reasonable expenses, including counsel fees, incurred in connection with the proceeding. First Merchants’ Articles of Incorporation do not contain any provision limiting such indemnification.

The Indiana Business Corporation Law also permits a corporation to indemnify a director, officer, employee, or agent who is made a party to a proceeding because the person was a director, officer, employee, or agent of the corporation against liability incurred in the proceeding if (a) the individual’s conduct was in good faith, and (b) the individual reasonably believed (i) in the case of conduct in the individual’s official capacity with the corporation, that the conduct was in the corporation’s best interests, and (ii) in all other cases, that the individual’s conduct was at least not opposed to the corporation’s best interests, and (c) in the case of a criminal proceeding, the individual either (i) had reasonable cause to believe the individual’s conduct was lawful, or (ii) had no reasonable cause to believe the individual’s conduct was unlawful.

First Merchants’ Articles of Incorporation, as amended, and Bylaws, as amended, provide that First Merchants will indemnify any person satisfying the standard of conduct outlined above as determined by (a) the First Merchants Board of Directors acting by a quorum consisting of Directors who are not parties to or who have been wholly successful with respect to such claim, action, suit or proceeding; or (b) independent legal counsel chosen by First Merchants.

First Merchants may advance expenses to or, where appropriate, may at its expense undertake the defense of any such person upon receipt of an undertaking by such person to repay such expenses if it should ultimately be determined that he is not entitled to the indemnification outlined above.

As permitted by the Indiana Business Corporation Law, the directors and officers of First Merchants are covered by an insurance policy indemnifying them against certain civil liabilities, including liabilities under the federal securities laws, which might be incurred by them in such capacity.

Item 22. Undertakings.

The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes:

- (1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this registration statement: (i) to include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933; (ii) to reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the registration statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the registration statement (notwithstanding the foregoing, any increase or decrease in volume of securities offered (if the total dollar value of securities offered would not exceed that which was registered) and any deviation from the low or high end of the estimated maximum offering range may be reflected in the form of prospectus filed with the SEC pursuant to Rule 424(b) if, in the aggregate, the changes in volume and price represent no more than a 20% change in the maximum aggregate offering price set forth in the “Calculation of Registration Fee” table in the effective registration statement); and (iii) to include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the registration statement or any material change to such information in the registration statement.
- (2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.
- (3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.
- (4) That, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each filing of the registrant’s annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan’s annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) that is incorporated by reference in this registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.
- (5) That prior to any public reoffering of the securities registered hereunder through use of a prospectus which is a part of this registration statement, by any person or party who is deemed to be an underwriter within the meaning of Rule 145(c), the registrant undertakes that such reoffering prospectus will contain the information called for by the applicable registration form with respect to reofferings by persons who may be deemed underwriters, in addition to the information called for by the other items of the applicable form.
- (6) That every prospectus (i) that is filed pursuant to paragraph (5) above, or (ii) that purports to meet the requirements of Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act and is used in connection with an offering of securities subject to Rule 415, will be filed as a part of an amendment to the registration statement and will not be used until such amendment has become effective, and that for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.
- (7) To respond to requests for information that is incorporated by reference into the prospectus pursuant to Items 4, 10(b), 11 or 13 of this Form, within one business day of receipt of such request, and to send the incorporated documents by first class mail or other equally prompt means. This includes information contained in documents filed subsequent to the effective date of the registration statement through the date of responding to the request.
- (8) To supply by means of a post-effective amendment all information concerning a transaction, and the company being acquired involved therein, that was not the subject of and included in this registration statement when it became effective.

(9) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act of 1933 and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer, or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.

SIGNATURES

Pursuant to the requirements of the Securities Act of 1933, the Registrant has duly caused this Registration Statement to be signed on its behalf by the undersigned, thereunto duly authorized, in the City of Muncie, State of Indiana, as of the 26th day of September, 2014.

Re: Registration Statement on Form S-4

Ladies and Gentlemen:

We have acted as special counsel to First Merchants Corporation, an Indiana corporation ("First Merchants"), in connection with the Registration Statement on Form S-4 (as amended, the "Registration Statement") filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "Commission"), relating to the registration under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act"), of up to 2,250,930 shares of common stock, no par value, of First Merchants (the "Shares") to be issued in connection with the transactions contemplated by the Agreement and Plan of Reorganization and Merger, dated July 21, 2014, by and between Community Bancshares, Inc., an Indiana corporation ("Community Bancshares"), and First Merchants (as it may be amended from time to time, and including all exhibits thereto, the "Merger Agreement"), pursuant to which Community Bancshares will merge with and into First Merchants (the "Merger").

For purposes of the opinions contained herein, we have assumed with respect to all documents examined by us the genuineness of all signatures, the authenticity of all documents submitted to us as originals, and the conformity to the originals of all documents submitted to us as certified, conformed, photostatic or telefacsimile copies. We also have assumed with respect to all documents examined by us which contained facsimile signatures that such signatures were the original signature of the party and have the same force and effect as an original signature. In addition, in making our examination of the documents related to the subject matter hereof and the documents described herein which have been executed by parties other than First Merchants, we have assumed that all such other parties had the power to enter into and perform all obligations thereunder, that all such other parties were duly authorized by all requisite action to execute, deliver and perform their respective obligations thereunder, that all signatories on all such documents were duly qualified and incumbent parties with the proper authority to execute all such documents, and the due execution and delivery of all such documents and the validity, binding effect and enforceability of all such documents on such other parties in accordance with their respective terms.

As to any facts material to our opinion which we did not independently establish or verify, we have been furnished with and have relied upon certificates of officers and other representatives of First Merchants.

Based on and subject to the foregoing, and subject to the qualifications, assumptions and limitations stated herein, we are of the opinion that, when the shareholders of Community

Bancshares have duly adopted the Merger Agreement, and appropriate Articles of Merger have been duly filed with the Secretary of State of the State of Indiana, then (i) the Shares will be, upon issuance, duly authorized and (ii) when the Registration Statement has been declared effective by order of the Commission and, if and when the Shares have been duly issued upon the terms and conditions set forth in the Registration Statement and the Merger Agreement, the Shares will be validly issued, fully paid and nonassessable.

We express no opinion as to the laws of any jurisdiction other than the federal laws of the United States and the laws of the State of Indiana.

We hereby consent to the filing of this opinion as Exhibit 5.1 to the Registration Statement and the references to our name therein, as well as under the heading "Legal Matters" in the related proxy statement and prospectus. First Merchants Corporation
200 East Jackson Street
Muncie, Indiana 47305

Ladies and Gentlemen:

You have requested our opinion as to certain Federal income tax consequences of a proposed transaction whereby Community Bancshares, Inc., an Indiana corporation (“Community Bancshares”), will be merged into First Merchants Corporation, an Indiana corporation (“First Merchants”).

We have based our opinion upon an examination of the Agreement and Plan of Reorganization and Merger dated as of July 21, 2014 by and between First Merchants and Community Bancshares (“Merger Agreement”) and the Registration Statement on Form S-4 (“Registration Statement”), as amended through the date hereof, to be filed by First Merchants in connection with the proposed merger and the representations and warranties First Merchants and Community Bancshares have supplied to us as set forth below. In rendering this opinion, we have assumed that the merger will be consummated in the manner provided for in the Merger Agreement.

I. FACTS

Community Bancshares’ authorized capital stock consists of 2,000,000 shares of common stock, no par value per share (“Community Bancshares Common Stock”). Community Bancshares is a privately held bank holding company.

First Merchants’ authorized capital stock consists of 50,000,000 shares of common stock, no par value per share (“First Merchants Common Stock”), and 500,000 shares of preferred stock, no par value per share. The shares of First Merchants Common Stock are traded on the NASDAQ Global Select Market.

The proposed transaction is being undertaken to strengthen the position of First Merchants and Community Bancshares and to better meet the increasing competitive challenges in the current financial services environment.

Pursuant to the terms of the Merger Agreement, Community Bancshares will be merged into First Merchants in accordance with the laws of the State of Indiana. First Merchants will acquire all of the assets of Community Bancshares and will assume all of the liabilities of Community Bancshares by operation of law. Following the consummation of the merger, the separate corporate existence of Community Bancshares will cease and First Merchants will survive the merger. In the merger, at the election of the shareholder, each share of Community Bancshares Common Stock will be converted into the right to receive 4.0926 shares of First Merchants Common Stock or $85.94 in cash ("Exchange Ratio"); provided, however, that the total cash consideration (including cash consideration paid for fractional shares or to shareholders exercising their dissenters' rights) to be paid by First Merchants to all Community Bancshares shareholders in the merger will not exceed $15,000,000 and may be reduced as necessary to ensure the merger satisfies the continuity of interest requirement to be a reorganization within the meaning of section 368(a)(1)(A) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended ("Code").

No fractional shares of First Merchants Common Stock will be issued in the merger. In lieu of issuing fractional shares, shareholders of Community Bancshares who would otherwise be entitled to a fractional share of First Merchants Common Stock shall instead be entitled to receive cash in an amount equal to the fractional share interest to which the shareholder would otherwise be entitled multiplied by the average of the daily closing price of First Merchants Common Stock as reported by Bloomberg, L.P. for the 10 days that First Merchants Common Stock trades on the NASDAQ Global Select Market preceding the fourth (4th) calendar day prior to the effective date of the merger.

First Merchants has made the following representations to us:

1. The facts relating to the contemplated merger of Community Bancshares with and into First Merchants pursuant to the Merger Agreement, as described in the Merger Agreement and the documents described in the Merger Agreement, are insofar as such facts pertain to First Merchants, true, correct, and complete in all material respects. The merger will be consummated strictly in accordance with (a) the Merger Agreement and none of the material terms and conditions therein has been or will be waived or modified, (b) the laws of the State of Indiana and (c) the descriptions contained in the Registration Statement. The facts contained in the Registration Statement and the documents referred to therein, to the extent that they pertain to First Merchants or were provided by First Merchants or their agents, are true, correct, and complete in all material respects, and all other facts and documents referred to therein are, to the best of the knowledge of the management of First Merchants, true, correct, and complete in all material respects.
2. The fair market value of the First Merchants Common Stock to be received by each holder of Community Bancshares Common Stock will be approximately equal to the fair market value of the Community Bancshares Common Stock surrendered in the exchange plus any cash consideration received by each holder.
3. Holders of Community Bancshares Common Stock will receive in the merger shares of First Merchants Common Stock with a value determined as of the day before the date of the Merger Agreement equal to at least forty percent (40%) of the total value determined as of the day before the date of the Merger Agreement of all of the shares of Community Bancshares Common Stock outstanding on that date. In connection with, or in contemplation of, the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, no outstanding stock of Community Bancshares has been or will be acquired by First Merchants, any person related to First Merchants (within the meaning of Treas. Reg. § 1.368-1(e)(4)) ("First Merchants Related Person") or any person acting as agent or intermediary for any of them for any consideration other than the Merger Consideration. For purposes of this representation 3 and representation 12 set forth below: (i) any reference to Community Bancshares or First Merchants includes a reference to any successor or predecessor of such corporation, except that Community Bancshares is not treated as a predecessor of First Merchants and First Merchants is not treated as a successor of Community Bancshares; (ii) each partner of a partnership will be treated as owning or acquiring any stock owned or acquired, as the case may be, by the partnership (and as having paid any consideration paid by the partnership to acquire such stock) in accordance with that partner's interest in the partnership; and (iii) an acquisition of First Merchants stock or Community Bancshares stock by a person acting as an intermediary for, or pursuant to any transaction, agreement, arrangement or other understanding with, First Merchants, Community Bancshares, a First Merchant Related Person or any person related to Community Bancshares (within the meaning of Treas. Reg. § 1.368-1(e)(4)) ("Community Bancshares Related Person") will be treated as made by First Merchants, Community Bancshares, such First Merchants Related Person or such Community Bancshares Related Person, respectively.

4. First Merchants has no plan or intention to sell or otherwise dispose of any of the assets of Community Bancshares acquired in the transaction, except for dispositions made in the ordinary course of business or transfers described in section 368(a)(2)(C) of the Code.
5. Following the merger, First Merchants will continue the historic business of Community Bancshares or use a significant portion of Community Bancshares' business assets in a business.
6. First Merchants and the shareholders of First Merchants will pay their respective expenses, if any, incurred in connection with the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement. First Merchants has not agreed to assume, or will assume, any of the expenses of the holders of Community Bancshares stock incurred in connection with the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement.
7. There is no intercorporate indebtedness existing between First Merchants and Community Bancshares that was issued, acquired or will be settled at a discount.
8. First Merchants is not an investment company as defined in sections 368(a)(2)(F)(iii) and 368(a)(2)(F)(iv) of the Code.
9. First Merchants is not under the jurisdiction of a court in a Title 11 or similar case within the meaning of section 368(a)(3)(A) of the Code.
10. Immediately following the Merger, the fair market value of the assets of Community Bancshares transferred to First Merchants will equal or exceed the sum of the liabilities to be assumed by First Merchants plus the amount of liabilities, if any, to which the transferred assets will be subject.
11. The payment of cash in lieu of fractional shares of First Merchants Common Stock is solely for the purpose of avoiding the expense and inconvenience to First Merchants of issuing fractional shares and does not represent separately bargained for consideration.

The total cash consideration that will be paid in the transaction to the Community Bancshares shareholders in lieu of issuing fractional shares of First Merchants Common Stock will not exceed 1% of the total consideration that will be issued in the transaction to the Community Bancshares shareholders in exchange for their shares of Community Bancshares. The fractional share interest of each Community Bancshares shareholder will be aggregated, and no Community Bancshares shareholder will receive cash in lieu of fractional shares in an amount equal to or greater than the value of one full share of First Merchants Common Stock.

12. None of the compensation to be received by any shareholder-employee of Community Bancshares will be separate consideration for, or allocable to, any of their shares of Community Bancshares stock. None of the shares of First Merchants Common Stock to be received by any shareholder-employee of Community Bancshares will be separate consideration for, or allocable to, any employment agreement and the compensation to be paid to any shareholder-employee of Community Bancshares will be for services actually rendered and will be commensurate with amounts paid to third parties bargaining at arm's-length for similar services.
13. In connection with, or in contemplation of, the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, none of First Merchants or any First Merchants Related Person or any person acting as agent or intermediary for any of them will (or has any plan or intention to) purchase, exchange, redeem or otherwise acquire (directly or indirectly) any First Merchants stock issued to Community Bancshares shareholders in the Merger (except for possible purchases of such shares that may be made by First Merchants on the open market, through a broker, at the then prevailing market price as part of a stock repurchase program, which purchases and program satisfy the requirements of Rev. Rul. 99-58, 1999-2 C.B. 701).
14. First Merchants will not take any position on any federal, state or local income or franchise tax return, or take any other tax reporting position that is inconsistent with the treatment of the merger as a "reorganization" within the meaning of section 368(a) of the Code or with any of the representations set forth herein, unless otherwise required by a final judgment, decree, or other order which addresses the merger by a court of competent jurisdiction (and then only to the extent required by such applicable law). First Merchants is not aware of any facts that would cause the merger to fail to constitute a "reorganization" within the meaning of section 368(a) of the Code.
15. The transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement are being effected for bona fide business reasons, as described in the Registration Statement, and not for the purposes of tax avoidance.
16. The Merger Agreement (including all amendments, exhibits and attachments thereto) represents the full and complete agreement between Community Bancshares and First Merchants regarding the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, and there are no other written or oral agreements regarding the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement other than those expressly referred to in the Merger Agreement and the Registration Statement.

17. Following the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, First Merchants will comply with the record-keeping and information filing requirements of Treas. Reg. § 1.368-3.
18. First Merchants is a corporation within the meaning of section 7701(a)(3) of the Code.
19. In the merger, no liabilities of the Community Bancshares shareholders will be assumed by First Merchants, nor to the best of the knowledge of the management of First Merchants will any shares of Community Bancshares stock be subject to any liabilities.
20. First Merchants does not own, directly or indirectly, any stock of Community Bancshares.

Community Bancshares has made the following representations to us:

1. Reg. § 1.368-1(e)(4)) (a "First Merchants Related Person") or any person acting as agent or intermediary for any of them for any consideration other than the Merger Consideration. For purposes of this representation 3: (i) any reference to Community Bancshares or First Merchants includes a reference to any successor or predecessor of such corporation, except that Community Bancshares is not treated as a predecessor of First Merchants and First Merchants is not treated as a successor of Community Bancshares; (ii) each partner of a partnership will be treated as owning or acquiring any stock owned or acquired, as

4. Community Bancshares and the shareholders of Community Bancshares will pay their respective expenses, if any, incurred in connection with the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement. Community Bancshares has not agreed to assume, or will assume, any of the expenses of holders of Community Bancshares stock incurred in connection with the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement.
5. There is no intercorporate indebtedness existing between First Merchants and Community Bancshares that was issued, acquired or will be settled at a discount.

9. None of the compensation to be received by any shareholder-employee of Community Bancshares will be separate consideration for, or allocable to, any of their shares of Community Bancshares stock. None of the shares of First Merchants Common Stock to be received by any shareholder-employee of Community Bancshares will be separate consideration for, or allocable to, any employment agreement and the compensation to be paid to any shareholder-employee of Community Bancshares will be for services actually rendered and will be commensurate with amounts paid to third parties bargaining at arm's-length for similar services.
10. No distribution has been or will be made with respect to the stock of Community Bancshares immediately preceding the proposed merger, except for regular, normal distributions.
11. No fractional shares of Community Bancshares Common Stock will be outstanding immediately prior to the merger.
12. There is no plan or intention for First Merchants, or any person related to First Merchants (within the meaning of Treas. Reg. § 1.368-1(e)(3)), to acquire any of the First Merchants Common Stock to be issued in the merger, either directly or through any transaction, agreement or arrangement with any other person.

13. Community Bancshares will not take any position on any federal, state or local income or franchise tax return, or take any other tax reporting position that is inconsistent with the treatment of the merger as a “reorganization” within the meaning of section 368(a) of the Code or with any of the representations set forth herein, unless otherwise required by a final judgment, decree, or other order which addresses the merger by a court of competent jurisdiction (and then only to the extent required by such applicable law). Community Bancshares is not aware of any facts that would cause the merger to fail to constitute a “reorganization” within the meaning of section 368(a) of the Code.

17. No Community Bancshares shareholder is acting as agent for First Merchants in connection with the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement or approval thereof, and First Merchants will not reimburse any Community Bancshares shareholder for the Community Bancshares stock such holder may have purchased, or for other obligations such holder may have incurred.
18. Community Bancshares is a corporation within the meaning of section 7701(a)(3) of the Code.

II. OPINION

Section 368(a)(1)(A) of the Code defines the term “reorganization” as including “a statutory merger or consolidation.” Treas. Reg. § 1.368-2(b)(1) provides that a statutory merger or consolidation is a transaction effected pursuant to the statutes necessary to effect the merger or consolidation, so long as by operation of such statute or statutes the following events occur simultaneously: (i) all of the assets (other than assets distributed in the merger, if any) and liabilities (except to the extent such liabilities are satisfied or discharged in the transaction or are nonrecourse liabilities to which assets distributed in the merger are subject) of each party to the merger become the assets and liabilities of one of the parties to the merger (“Surviving Party”) and (ii) the party to the merger that is not the Surviving Party ceases its separate legal existence. Since the merger will be effected pursuant to the laws of the State of Indiana, the foregoing criteria will be met.

Treas. Reg. § 1.368-1(b) provides that a reorganization under the Code requires continuity of business enterprise and a continuity of interest therein on the part of the acquiring corporation. Treas. Reg. § 1.368-1(e) provides that the continuity of interest test is met if a substantial part of the value of the interests of the acquired corporation's owners in the acquired corporation is maintained in the form of continuing ownership of the acquiring corporation. The Treasury Regulations do not define "substantial" for purposes of determining whether the continuity of interest test is met, but Example 1 in Treas. Reg. § 1.368-1(e)(2)(v) provides that the receipt of consideration consisting of forty percent (40%) of acquiring corporation's stock and sixty percent (60%) cash by shareholders of the acquired corporation is sufficient to be considered "substantial" for purposes of satisfying the continuity of interest test.

Based upon the representations contained herein, the continuity of business enterprise and continuity of interest requirements will be met.

Based upon an analysis of the relevant sections of the Code, the regulations promulgated thereunder and such other authority as is available on the date hereof, it is our opinion that the merger of Community Bancshares into First Merchants in accordance with the terms of the Merger Agreement will constitute a reorganization within the meaning of section 368(a)(1)(A) of the Code.

Although the discussion set forth in the Registration Statement under the heading "Material U.S. Federal income Tax Consequences" does not purport to summarize all possible United States federal income tax consequences applicable to the merger of Community Bancshares into First Merchants, we are of the opinion that such discussion constitutes, in all material respects, a fair and accurate summary of the United States federal income tax consequences generally applicable to a shareholder of Community Bancshares common stock who participates in the merger.

We express no opinion on any issue relating to the tax consequences of the transactions contemplated by the Registration Statement other than those set forth above. Our opinion is based on current provisions of the Code, Treasury Regulations promulgated thereunder, published pronouncements of the Internal Revenue Service and case law, all as currently in effect and which are subject to differing interpretations and subject to change at any time by legislative, judicial or administrative action, possibly with retroactive effect. Any change in applicable laws or the facts and circumstances surrounding the transaction or any inaccuracy in the statements, facts, assumptions or representations upon which we have relied may affect the continuing validity of our opinion as set forth herein. We assume no responsibility to inform First Merchants of any such change or inaccuracy that may occur or come to our attention.

We hereby consent to the filing of this opinion with the Securities and Exchange Commission as an exhibit to the Registration Statement, and to the references therein to us. In giving such consent, we do not thereby admit that we are in the category of persons whose consent is required under Section 7 of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended.

This opinion should not be relied upon by anyone other than First Merchants.

Very truly yours,

/s/ Bingham Greenebaum Doll LLP

Re: Registration Statement on Form S-4

Ladies and Gentlemen:

We have acted as special tax counsel to Community Bancshares, Inc. ("Community Bancshares"), in connection with the preparation of a Registration Statement on Form S-4 filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "Commission") on September 9, 2014, and all amendments thereto (the "Registration Statement"), with respect to the Agreement and Plan of Reorganization and Merger, dated as of July 21, 2014 (the "Merger Agreement"), by and between Community Bancshares and First Merchants Corporation ("First Merchants") and pursuant to which Community Bancshares will merge with and into First Merchants (the "Merger"). Capitalized terms not defined herein shall have the meanings ascribed to them in the Merger Agreement.

In connection with the preparation and rendering of the opinion set forth herein, we have reviewed, examined and relied upon the accuracy of, among other things, copies, certified or otherwise identified to our satisfaction, of the following documents:

1. The Merger Agreement;
2. Registration Statement; and
3. Such other documents, certificates, and records as we have deemed necessary or appropriate as a basis for the opinion set forth herein.

For purposes of our opinion, we have assumed the legal capacity of all natural persons, the genuineness of all signatures, the authenticity of all documents submitted to us as originals, the conformity to original documents of all documents submitted to us as certified, conformed or photostatic copies, and the authenticity of the originals of such latter documents. We have assumed the Merger Agreement and such other documents, certificates and records are duly authorized, valid and enforceable. We have also assumed that the Merger will qualify as a statutory merger under the laws of the State of Indiana.

In rendering our opinion, we have relied upon statements and representations of officers and other representatives of Community Bancshares and First Merchants, and we have assumed that such statements and representations are and will continue to be correct without regard to any qualification as to knowledge or belief. In addition, our opinion is subject to the qualifications, conditions, assumptions and discussion set forth under the heading “Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences” in the Registration Statement.

In rendering our opinion, we have assumed the following:

1. the Merger will be consummated in accordance with the terms of the Merger Agreement and as described in the Registration Statement and that none of the terms and conditions contained therein have been or will be waived or modified in any respect prior to the Effective Time;
2. the Merger Agreement, the Registration Statement and such other documents and records that we have considered accurately reflect all the material facts relating to the Merger; and
3. the Registration Statement accurately describes the current business operations and the anticipated future operations of Community Bancshares and First Merchants following the Merger.

Our opinion is conditioned upon, among other things, the initial and continuing accuracy and completeness of the facts, information, covenants, representations and warranties provided or made by Community Bancshares and First Merchants. Any change or inaccuracy of such facts (including those events occurring after the Effective Time) could affect the conclusions stated herein.

Our opinion is based on the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the “Code”), Treasury Regulations promulgated thereunder, judicial decisions, currently published administrative pronouncements and positions of the Internal Revenue Service and such other authorities as we have considered relevant, all as in effect on the date of this opinion and all of which are subject to change or differing interpretations (possibly with retroactive effect). A change in the authorities upon which our opinion is based could affect the conclusions expressed herein. Moreover, our opinion is not binding on the Internal Revenue Service or the courts. There can be no assurance that our opinion will be accepted by the Internal Revenue Service or, if challenged, by a court. Our opinion is based solely on the documents we have examined, the additional information we have obtained, the assumptions we have made and representations that have been made to us. Our opinion cannot be relied upon if any of the facts contained in such documents or any such additional information or any such assumptions or representations are, or later become, inaccurate. We assume no obligation to advise you of changes in law or facts or circumstances that come to our attention after the date hereof that could affect our opinion. Our opinion is limited to the United States federal income tax matters specifically covered hereby, and we have not been asked to address, nor have we addressed herein, any other United States federal, state, local or foreign income, estate, gift, transfer, sales, use or other tax consequence that may result from the Merger or any other transaction.

Based solely on and subject to the foregoing, we are of the opinion that under current United States federal income tax law:

1. the Merger will constitute and qualify as a "reorganization" for United States federal income tax purposes within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code;
2. the exchange in the Merger of Community Bancshares common stock solely for First Merchants common stock will not give rise to gain or loss to the shareholders of Community Bancshares with respect to such exchange (except with respect to any cash received in lieu of fractional shares); and
3. although the discussion set forth in the Registration Statement under the heading "Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences" does not purport to summarize all possible United States federal income tax consequences applicable to the Merger, such discussion constitutes, in all material respects, a fair and accurate summary of the United States federal income tax consequences generally applicable to a shareholder of Community Bancshares common stock who participates in the Merger.

Except as set forth above, we express no other opinion. This opinion is expressed as of the date hereof, and we disclaim any undertaking to advise you of subsequent changes relating to matters considered herein or of any subsequent changes in applicable law.

We hereby consent to the filing of this opinion as an exhibit to the Registration Statement. We also consent to the references to our firm under the headings "Summary", "The Merger Agreement" and "Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences" in the Registration Statement. In giving this consent, we do not thereby admit that we are within the category of persons whose consent is required under Section 7 of the Securities Act, or the rules or regulations of the Commission promulgated thereunder.

Sincerely,

/s/Krieg DeVault LLP
