FIRST MERCHANTS CORPORATION

THE ARLINGTON BANK

YOUR VOTE IS VERY IMPORTANT

PROSPECTUS OF FIRST MERCHANTS CORPORATION FOR UP TO 2,074,783 SHARES OF COMMON STOCK AND PROXY STATEMENT OF THE ARLINGTON BANK

The Board of Directors of First Merchants Corporation (“First Merchants”) and the Board of Directors of The Arlington Bank (“Arlington Bank”) have approved an Agreement and Plan of Reorganization and Merger (the “Merger Agreement”), pursuant to which Arlington Bank will merge with and into First Merchants Bank (“First Merchants Bank”), a wholly-owned banking subsidiary of First Merchants (the “Merger”). This proposed strategic business combination will significantly expand First Merchants’ Columbus, Ohio presence and further strengthen its position as the second largest bank holding company headquartered in the State of Indiana. Following the Merger, the combined company will have 109 banking offices in twenty-seven Indiana counties, as well as two counties in both Ohio and Illinois, and have approximately $7.6 billion in assets, $5.4 billion in loans, $5.8 billion in deposits, and total shareholders’ equity of $974.5 million.

If the Merger Agreement is approved by the shareholders of Arlington Bank and the Merger is subsequently completed, each Arlington Bank common share will be converted into the right to receive 2.7245 shares (the “Exchange Ratio”) of First Merchants common stock. First Merchants will pay cash for any fractional shares resulting from application of the Exchange Ratio. The Exchange Ratio is subject to adjustments for stock splits, stock dividends, recapitalization, or similar transactions. Immediately prior to the Merger, each outstanding option to purchase Arlington Bank common shares will be converted into the right to receive cash in an amount equal to (a) the excess, if any, of (i) the Exchange Ratio multiplied by the average closing price of First Merchants common stock for the ten (10) trading days preceding the fourth calendar day prior to the date of the Merger, over (ii) the per share exercise price of such Arlington Bank stock option, multiplied by (b) the number of Arlington Bank common shares subject to such stock option, less (c) applicable tax withholdings.

We cannot complete the Merger unless a majority of the issued and outstanding common shares of Arlington Bank vote to approve the Merger Agreement. Arlington Bank will hold a special meeting of its shareholders to vote on this merger proposal. Your vote is very important. Whether or not you plan to attend the shareholder meeting, please take the time to vote by completing the enclosed proxy card and mailing it in the enclosed envelope. If you sign, date and mail your proxy card without indicating how you want to vote, your proxy will be counted as a vote in favor of the Merger Agreement. Not returning your card will have the same effect as a vote against the Merger Agreement.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT THE MERGER AND THE SHAREHOLDER MEETING

Q: What am I voting on?

A: You are being asked to vote to approve the Merger Agreement, pursuant to which Arlington Bank will merge with and into First Merchants Bank, and to approve the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement (the “Merger Proposal”). First Merchants Bank would be the surviving entity in the Merger, and Arlington Bank would no longer be a separate company.

You are also being asked to vote on two additional proposals (completion of the Merger is not conditioned upon approval of any of these additional proposals):

- a proposal to adjourn the Arlington Bank special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies in favor of the Merger Proposal (which we refer to as the “Adjournment Proposal”); and
- to vote on such other matters that may be properly presented at the special meeting or any adjournment or postponement of the special meeting. Arlington Bank’s Board is not aware of any such other matters.

Q: Why are First Merchants and Arlington Bank proposing to merge?

A: We believe the Merger is in the best interests of both companies and our respective shareholders. With seven current banking locations in the Columbus, Ohio area and 120 local employees, First Merchants Bank has been serving Columbus for over 25 years. Partnered with Arlington Bank, First Merchants Bank believes it will become a stronger bank in the Columbus market, one of the fastest growing cities in the Midwest. The combination provides an excellent opportunity, as First Merchants strives to grow profitably and efficiently, in what has become a very competitive and highly-regulated industry.

You should review the background of and reasons for the Merger described in greater detail beginning on page [●].

Q: What will Arlington Bank shareholders receive in the Merger?

A: If the Merger Agreement is approved and the Merger is subsequently completed, each outstanding Arlington Bank common share will be converted into the right to receive 2.7245 shares (the “Exchange Ratio”) of First Merchants common stock (the “Merger Consideration”). Each Arlington Bank shareholder that would otherwise be entitled to receive a fractional share of First Merchants common stock will receive cash in lieu of such fractional share. The Exchange Ratio is subject to adjustments for stock splits, stock dividends, recapitalization, or similar transactions. Immediately prior to the Merger, each outstanding option to purchase Arlington Bank common shares will be converted into the right to receive cash in an amount equal to (a) the excess, if any, of (i) the Exchange Ratio multiplied by the average closing price of First Merchants common stock for the ten (10) trading days preceding the fourth calendar day prior to the date of the Merger, over (ii) the per share exercise price of such Arlington Bank stock option, multiplied by (b) the number of Arlington Bank common shares subject to such stock option, less (c) applicable tax withholdings.

Because the Exchange Ratio is fixed (except for customary anti-dilution adjustments), the value of the Merger Consideration that you will receive will depend on the market price of First Merchants common stock when you receive your shares of First Merchants common stock. The implied per share value of the Merger Consideration, based upon First Merchants’ closing stock price on [●], 2017, the most recent practicable trading day before this proxy statement and prospectus was finalized, was $[●] per share. No assurance can be given that the current market price of First Merchants common stock will be equivalent to the market price of First Merchants common stock on the date that shares of First Merchants common stock are received by an Arlington Bank shareholder or at any other time. You should obtain current market prices for shares of First Merchants common stock which is listed on The NASDAQ Global Select Market under the symbol “FRME.”

Q: What risks should I consider before I vote on the Merger Proposal?

A: You should carefully review the section captioned “RISK FACTORS” beginning on page [●].

Q: Will First Merchants’ shareholders receive any shares or cash as a result of the Merger?

A: No. After the Merger, First Merchants shareholders will continue to own the same number of First Merchants shares they owned before the Merger.

Q: When is the Merger expected to be completed?

A: We are working to complete the Merger as quickly as possible. We must first obtain the necessary regulatory approvals and the approval of Arlington Bank shareholders at the special meeting. We currently expect to complete the Merger during the second quarter of 2017.

Q: What are the tax consequences of the Merger to me?

A: The Merger is intended to qualify as a “reorganization” within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the “Internal Revenue Code”). A U.S. Holder (as defined in the section captioned “MATERIAL U.S. FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES” beginning on page [●]) who exchanges all of its Arlington Bank common shares for shares of First Merchants common stock pursuant to the Merger will not recognize any gain or loss on the exchange for federal income tax purposes, except with respect to any cash received in lieu of a fractional share of First Merchants common stock. A U.S. Holder who receives cash in lieu of a fractional share of First Merchants common stock will be treated as having received such fractional share of First Merchants common stock pursuant to the Merger and then as having sold that fractional share of First Merchants common stock for cash. As a result, a U.S. Holder will generally recognize gain or loss equal to the difference between the amount of cash received and the U.S. Holder’s basis in the fractional share of First Merchants common stock determined as described above. At the closing of the Merger, First Merchants will receive an opinion from their tax attorneys confirming these tax consequences which the shareholders of Arlington Bank will be permitted to rely upon. See “MATERIAL U.S. FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES” beginning on page [●]. Your individual tax consequences will depend on your personal situation. You should consult your tax advisor for a full understanding of the tax consequences of the Merger to you.

Q: Will I have dissenters’ rights?

A: The shareholders of Arlington Bank are entitled to dissenters’ rights in connection with the Merger under Section 1701.85 of the Ohio General Corporation Law (the “OGCL”), a copy of which is included as Annex B to this proxy statement and prospectus. If you wish to assert dissenters’ rights, you must deliver to Arlington Bank a written demand for payment of the fair cash value of your shares before the vote on the Merger is taken at the special meeting. In addition, you must not vote in favor of the Merger either in person or by proxy. The procedure for dissenting is explained more fully under “THE MERGER – Rights of Dissenting Shareholders” beginning on page [●] and in Annex B to this proxy statement and prospectus.

Q: What do I need to do now?

A: You should carefully read and consider the information contained in this document and any information incorporated herein by reference. Then, please submit your proxy by completing, signing, and dating the enclosed proxy card and returning it as soon as possible using the enclosed postage-prepaid envelope so that your shares can be voted at the special shareholder meeting. If a returned proxy card is signed but does not specify how you wish to vote your shares, your proxy will be voted “FOR” the: (1) approval of the Merger Proposal; and (2) approval of the Adjournment Proposal.

Q: What if I don't vote or I abstain from voting?

A: If you do not vote or you abstain from voting, your abstention will count as a vote "AGAINST" the Merger Proposal.

Q: May I change my vote after I have submitted my proxy?

A: Yes. You can change your vote at any time before your proxy is voted at the special meeting. You can do this in one of three ways. First, you can send a written notice stating that you revoke your proxy. Second, you can complete and submit a new proxy, dated at a date later than your most recent proxy. Please submit your notice of revocation and/or new proxy card to The Arlington Bank, 2130 Tremont Center, Upper Arlington, Ohio 43221, Attention: Mark K. Milligan, Secretary. Third, you may attend the special meeting and vote in person. Simply attending the special meeting, however, will not revoke your proxy. You must request a ballot and vote the ballot at the meeting.

Q: What constitutes a quorum?

A: The presence, in person or by proxy, of shareholders holding at least a majority of the issued and outstanding shares of Arlington Bank entitled to vote as of [●], 2017, the record date for the special meeting, will constitute a quorum for the special meeting. On [●], 2017, there were [●] Arlington Bank common shares outstanding and entitled to vote at the special meeting.

Q: Should I send in my stock certificate(s) now?

A: No. After the Merger is completed, Arlington Bank shareholders will receive written instructions from First Merchants for exchanging their stock certificates for shares of First Merchants common stock and cash for fractional shares to be received by them in the Merger. If you are a First Merchants shareholder, you should retain your certificates, as you will continue to hold the First Merchants shares you currently own.

Q: Whom should I contact if I have other questions about the Merger Agreement or the Merger?

A: You may contact:

In addition, the Board of Directors considered the fairness opinion of Boenning & Scattergood, Inc. ("Boenning"), described below.

Opinion of Boenning & Scattergood, Inc. (page [●])

The Arlington Bank Board of Directors retained Boenning to render a fairness opinion in connection with the proposed Merger. At the meeting of the Arlington Bank Board of Directors on January 24, 2017, Boenning delivered to the Arlington Bank Board of Directors an oral opinion, which was confirmed by delivery of a written opinion, dated January 24, 2017, to the effect that, as of the date of the opinion and based upon and subject to the conditions, limitations, qualifications and assumptions set forth in the opinion, the right of the holders of Arlington Bank common shares to receive 2.7245 shares (the "Exchange Ratio") of First Merchants common stock (the "Merger Consideration") was fair, from a financial point of view, to such holders of Arlington Bank common shares, other than any holders who properly perfect their right to dissent under applicable law (the "Excluded Holders").

The full text of the written opinion of Boenning, which sets forth the assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and limitations on the review undertaken in connection with the opinion of Boenning, is attached as Annex C to this proxy statement and prospectus and is incorporated herein by reference. Arlington Bank shareholders are urged to read Boenning's written opinion carefully and in its entirety. Boenning's opinion is limited solely to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the Exchange Ratio to be received in the Merger by the holders of Arlington Bank common shares (other than any Excluded Holders) and does not address Arlington Bank's underlying business decision to effect the Merger or the relative merits of the Merger as compared to any alternative business strategies or transactions that might be available with respect to Arlington Bank. Boenning's opinion does not constitute a recommendation to any shareholder of Arlington Bank as to how such shareholder should vote or act with respect to any matter relating to the Merger or otherwise.

What Arlington Bank Shareholders Will Receive (page [●])

If the Merger Agreement is approved and the Merger is subsequently completed, each outstanding Arlington Bank common share will be converted into the right to receive the Exchange Ratio of 2.7245 shares of First Merchants common stock. The number of shares of First Merchants common stock issuable to each Arlington Bank shareholder will be rounded to the nearest thousandth of a share. The Exchange Ratio is subject to adjustment, election, allocation and proration procedures set forth in the Merger Agreement. Each Arlington Bank shareholder that would otherwise be entitled to receive a fractional share of First Merchants common stock will receive cash in lieu of such fractional share.

Because the Exchange Ratio is fixed (except for customary anti-dilution adjustments), the value of the Merger Consideration that you will receive will depend on the market price of First Merchants common stock when you receive your shares of First Merchants common stock. The implied per share value of the Merger Consideration, based upon First Merchants' closing stock price on [●], 2017, the most recent practicable trading day before this proxy statement and prospectus was finalized, was $[●] per share. No assurance can be given that the current market price of First Merchants common stock will be equivalent to the market price of First Merchants common stock on the date that shares of First Merchants common stock are received by an Arlington Bank shareholder or at any other time.

Within three (3) business days following the effective date of the Merger, First Merchants will mail a letter of transmittal to each person who was, immediately prior to the effective time of the Merger, a holder of record of Arlington Bank common shares. The letter of transmittal will contain instructions for use in effecting the surrender of Arlington Bank stock certificates in exchange for the consideration to which such person may be entitled pursuant to the Merger Agreement.

What First Merchants Shareholders Will Receive (page [●])

First Merchants shareholders will not receive any consideration in the Merger. After the Merger, First Merchants shareholders will continue to own the same number of First Merchants shares owned before the Merger.

The Arlington Bank Special Shareholders Meeting (page [●])

The special meeting of Arlington Bank shareholders will be held on [●], 2017, at [●]:[●] [●].m. local time, at [●].

At the special meeting, Arlington Bank shareholders will be asked:

1. Merger Proposal. To consider and vote upon a proposal to approve the Merger Agreement and to approve the transactions contemplated thereby. Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, Arlington Bank will merge with and into First Merchants Bank.
2. Adjournment Proposal. To approve one or more adjournments of the Arlington Bank special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies in favor of the Merger Proposal.
3. Other Matters. To vote upon such other matters which may properly be presented at the special meeting or any adjournment or postponement of the special meeting. Arlington Bank's Board of Directors is not aware of any such other matters.

Arlington Bank Recommendation to Shareholders (page [●])

Arlington Bank's Board of Directors unanimously approved and adopted the Merger Agreement and approved and authorized the proposed Merger. Arlington Bank's Board of Directors concluded that entering into the Merger Agreement and completing the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement are in the best interest of Arlington Bank and the Arlington Bank shareholders. Arlington Bank's Board of Directors unanimously recommends that Arlington Bank shareholders vote "FOR" (1) approval of the Merger Proposal, and (2) approval of the Adjournment Proposal. In reaching its determination, Arlington Bank's Board of Directors considered a number of factors, which are described in the section captioned "THE MERGER—Arlington Bank's Reasons for the Merger" beginning on page [●]. Because of the wide variety of factors considered, Arlington Bank's Board of Directors did not believe it practicable, nor did it attempt, to quantify or otherwise assign relative weight to the specific factors it considered in reaching its decision.

Arlington Bank Special Meeting Record Date; Vote Required (page [●])

Only Arlington Bank shareholders of record as of the close of business on [●], 2017, are entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the Arlington Bank special meeting and any adjournments or postponements of the special meeting. As of the record date, there were [●] Arlington Bank common shares outstanding. Approval of the Merger Proposal requires the affirmative vote of holders of at least a majority of the outstanding Arlington Bank common shares entitled to vote. The approval of the Adjournment Proposal requires more votes to be cast in favor of the proposal than are cast against it. You can vote your shares by attending the Arlington Bank special meeting and voting in person, or you can vote by proxy by marking the enclosed proxy card with your vote, signing it and mailing it in the enclosed return envelope. You can revoke your proxy at any time before the special meeting by sending a written notice of revocation, submitting a new proxy or by attending the special meeting and voting in person.

No approval by First Merchants shareholders is required.

Voting Agreement (page [●])

Each member of the Board of Directors of Arlington Bank, as of January 25, 2017, the date the Merger Agreement was executed, entered into a voting agreement with First Merchants to cause all Arlington Bank common shares owned by each of them of record or beneficially on such date to be voted in favor of the Merger Proposal. See “THE MERGER AGREEMENT—Voting Agreement” on page [●]. As of the record date, the members of the Arlington Bank Board of Directors and their affiliates together with the other persons executing the Voting Agreement had power to vote, or caused to be voted, an aggregate of 276,258 Arlington Bank common shares outstanding, representing 36.28% of the outstanding shares on that date.

What We Need to Do to Complete the Merger (page [●])

Completion of the Merger depends on a number of conditions being met or waived. In addition to our compliance with the Merger Agreement, these conditions include among others:

- the approval of the Merger Agreement at the special meeting by a majority of the issued and outstanding Arlington Bank common shares;
- the approval of the Merger by certain regulatory agencies and the expiration of any regulatory waiting periods;
- the representations and warranties made by the parties in the Merger Agreement must be true, accurate and correct in all material respects on and as of the effective date of the Merger, except that representations and warranties that are qualified by materiality or a Material Adverse Effect (as defined below in “THE MERGER AGREEMENT—Conditions to Completion of the Merger”) must be true and correct in all respects, and provided that for those representations and warranties which address matters only as of an earlier date, then they shall be tested as of such earlier date;
- the covenants made by the parties must have been complied with in all material respects from the date of the Merger Agreement through and as of the effective date of the Merger;
- First Merchants must have received an opinion of Bingham Greenebaum Doll LLP that, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, the Merger will be treated as a “reorganization” within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code;
- Arlington Bank must have received a letter from Bingham Greenebaum Doll LLP addressed to the shareholders of Arlington Bank, dated as of the effective date of the Merger, to the effect that such shareholders may rely on the opinion referenced immediately above;

- the Registration Statement on Form S-4, of which this proxy statement and prospectus is a part, relating to the First Merchants shares to be issued pursuant to the Merger Agreement, must have become effective under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the “Securities Act”), and no stop order suspending the effectiveness of the Registration Statement shall have been issued or threatened by the SEC;
- the shares of First Merchants common stock to be issued in the Merger shall have been listed for trading on The NASDAQ Global Select Market (subject to official notice of issuance);
- there must be no order, decree or injunction of a court or agency of competent jurisdiction which enjoins or prohibits the consummation of the Merger; and
- other customary conditions and obligations of the parties set forth in the Merger Agreement.

Regulatory Approvals (page [●])

The Merger cannot be completed until First Merchants Bank receives necessary regulatory approvals, which include the approval of the Indiana Department of Financial Institutions (the “Indiana DFI”) and the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (the “FDIC”). First Merchants Bank has filed an application with the Indiana DFI and the FDIC, but cannot be certain when or if such approval will be obtained.

Conduct of Business Pending Merger (page [●])

Under the terms of the Merger Agreement, Arlington Bank and First Merchants must carry on their business in the ordinary course and, subject to certain limited exceptions, may not take certain extraordinary actions without first obtaining the other party’s consent.

Agreements of First Merchants (pages [●] and [●])

In the Merger Agreement, First Merchants has agreed, among other matters, to:

- Proceed and use its reasonable and diligent efforts to obtain any consents and approvals for the Merger. See “THE MERGER—Regulatory Approvals” on page [●].
- Take action as may be necessary to allow Arlington Bank’s employees, as soon as reasonably practicable following the effective date of the Merger, to participate in benefit plans First Merchants maintains for its employees. Until such time participation is implemented, First Merchants will assume, honor and continue the employee plans and benefit arrangements of Arlington Bank as in effect on the effective date of the Merger, subject to certain limitations set forth in the Merger Agreement. See “THE MERGER AGREEMENT—Employee Benefit Plans” on page [●].
- Provide, or allow for, director and officer liability insurance and indemnification. See “THE MERGER AGREEMENT—Indemnification and Insurance of Arlington Bank Directors and Officers” on page [●].

Dissenters’ Rights (page [●])

The shareholders of Arlington Bank are entitled to dissenters’ rights in connection with the Merger under Section 1701.85 of the OGCL, a copy of which is included as Annex B to this proxy statement and prospectus. If you wish to assert dissenters’ rights, you must deliver to Arlington Bank a written demand for payment of the fair cash value of your shares before the vote on the Merger is taken at the special meeting. In addition, you must not vote in favor of the Merger either in person or by proxy. If the Merger Proposal is approved and the Merger is completed, and you have dissented and followed the required procedures, then you will not receive any shares of common stock of First Merchants. Instead, you will be entitled to receive the fair cash value of your Arlington Bank common shares as determined through the dissenters' rights procedures. The procedure for dissenting is explained more fully under "THE MERGER—Rights of Dissenting Shareholders" beginning on page [●] and in Annex B to this proxy statement and prospectus.

Management and Operations After the Merger (page [●])

Arlington Bank's corporate existence will cease after the Merger. Accordingly, the directors and officers of Arlington Bank will not serve in such capacities after the effective date of the Merger. Upon completion of the Merger, the current officers and directors of First Merchants and First Merchants Bank will continue to serve in such capacities. All members of the Arlington Bank Board of Directors will be invited to serve on the Ohio regional advisory board of First Merchants Bank.

Interests of Directors and Officers in the Merger That Are Different From Your Interests (page [●])

You should be aware that some of the directors and executive officers of Arlington Bank may have interests in the Merger that are different from, or in addition to, their interests as shareholders. Arlington Bank's Board of Directors and First Merchants' Board of Directors were aware of these interests and took them into consideration in approving the Merger Agreement and the Merger. These interests are as follows:

- Arlington Bank has employment agreements with each of Thomas C. Westfall, President, Natalie Karas, Senior Vice President and Nona Durham, Treasurer, that provide for each such executive officer to receive, following a change in control, a multiple of the executive's compensation prior to the change in control, subject to certain limitations. Under these agreements, such executive officers would be entitled to receive an aggregate of approximately $1,330,000.
- Under the terms of the Merger Agreement, all Arlington Bank stock options that are outstanding and unexercised immediately prior to the Merger will be converted into the right to receive cash in an amount equal to (a) the excess, if any, of (i) the Exchange Ratio multiplied by the average closing price of First Merchants common stock for the ten (10) trading days preceding the fourth calendar day prior to the date of the Merger, over (ii) the per share exercise price of such Arlington Bank stock option, multiplied by (b) the number of Arlington Bank common shares subject to such stock option. Based upon the First Merchants' closing stock price of $36.46 on January 24, 2017, the business day before the Merger was publicly announced, the executive officers of Arlington Bank (including Ms. Karas and Ms. Durham) would receive an aggregate of approximately $131,720 upon conversion of their stock options.
- Mr. Westfall and Ms. Karas will each receive restricted shares of First Merchants common stock under First Merchants 2009 Long-Term Equity Incentive Plan (having a value of $75,000 and $25,000, respectively) if they are employed by First Merchants Bank upon the effective date of the Merger.
- First Merchants has agreed that for a period of six (6) years after the effective time of the Merger, it will maintain directors' and officers' liability insurance in force for the directors and officers of Arlington Bank and indemnify those persons, subject to certain conditions in the Merger Agreement.

Termination of the Merger (page [●])

Both First Merchants and Arlington Bank can mutually agree to terminate the Merger Agreement before we complete the Merger. In addition, either Arlington Bank or First Merchants acting alone can terminate the Merger Agreement under the circumstances described on page [●].

Arlington Bank has agreed to pay First Merchants a termination fee of $3,000,000 if:

- Arlington Bank's Board of Directors terminates the Merger Agreement in the exercise of its fiduciary duties after receipt of an unsolicited superior acquisition proposal from a third party;

- First Merchants terminates the Merger Agreement because Arlington Bank’s Board of Directors withdraws or modifies its recommendation to Arlington Bank’s shareholders to vote for the Merger following receipt of a written proposal for an acquisition from a third party; or
- First Merchants terminates the Merger Agreement because Arlington Bank fails to give First Merchants written notice that it intends to furnish information to or enter into discussions or negotiations with a third party relating to a proposed acquisition of Arlington Bank, or if Arlington Bank, within 45 days after giving such notice, does not terminate such discussions or negotiations.

Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences (page [●])

It is a condition to the closing of the Merger that Bingham Greenebaum Doll LLP deliver an opinion, effective as of the date of the Merger, to Arlington Bank and First Merchants substantially to the effect that, for United States federal income tax purposes, the Merger will be treated as a “reorganization” within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code. This opinion will not, however, bind the Internal Revenue Service (the “IRS”) which could take a different view.

Determining the actual tax consequences of the Merger to you can be complicated. We suggest you consult with your own tax advisors with respect to the tax consequences of the Merger to you.

For a more detailed description of the material federal income tax consequences of the Merger to First Merchants and Arlington Bank shareholders, see “MATERIAL U.S. FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES” on page [●].

Comparative Rights of First Merchants and Arlington Bank Shareholders (page [●])

The rights of shareholders of First Merchants and Arlington Bank differ in some respects. The rights of holders of First Merchants common stock are governed by the laws of the State of Indiana, including the Indiana Business Corporation Law, and First Merchants’ Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws. The rights of holders of Arlington Bank common shares are governed by the laws of the State of Ohio, the state in which Arlington Bank is incorporated, and by Arlington Bank’s Articles of Incorporation, Constitution and Bylaws. Upon completion of the Merger, Arlington Bank shareholders who receive First Merchants common stock will take such stock subject to First Merchants Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws.

Authorized But Unissued Shares

First Merchants

First Merchants’ Articles of Incorporation authorize the issuance of 50,000,000 shares of common stock, no par value, of which 40,912,697 shares were outstanding as of December 31, 2016. The shareholders of First Merchants will consider, at the May 1, 2017 annual meeting of shareholders, a proposal to amend the First Merchants’ Articles of Incorporation in order to increase the number of authorized shares of common stock from 50,000,000 shares to 100,000,000.

First Merchants’ Board of Directors may authorize the issuance of additional shares of common stock up to the amounts authorized in First Merchants’ Articles of Incorporation without further shareholder approval,

Arlington Bank

The Articles of Incorporation of Arlington Bank authorize the issuance of 11,000,000 shares, consisting of 10,000,000 common shares, $0.50 par value, and 1,000,000 preferred shares, $0.50 par value. As of the date of this proxy statement and prospectus, there were [●] common shares outstanding, and no shares of preferred stock outstanding. The Arlington Bank Board of Directors may authorize the issuance of additional common and preferred shares in the amounts, and subject to the terms, authorized in the Articles of Incorporation without shareholder approval, subject to the restrictions of the OGCL, Chapters 1161 through subject only to the restrictions of the Indiana Business Corporation Law and the Articles of Incorporation. First Merchants has 500,000 shares of preferred stock authorized. First Merchants has designated 116,000 of those preferred shares as Fixed Rate Cumulative Perpetual Preferred Stock, Series A, $1,000 per share liquidation amount, no shares of which are currently outstanding. First Merchants has designated 90,823.23 of the preferred shares as Senior Non-Cumulative Perpetual Preferred Stock, Series B, $1,000 per share liquidation amount, no shares of which are currently outstanding. The preferred shares are available to be issued, without prior shareholder approval, in classes with the rights, privileges and preferences determined for each class by the Board of Directors of First Merchants. The shareholders of First Merchants will consider, at the May 1, 2017 annual meeting of shareholders, a proposal to amend the First Merchants' Articles of Incorporation in order to eliminate the Fixed Rate Cumulative Perpetual Preferred Stock, Series A, and the Senior Non-Cumulative Perpetual Preferred Stock, Series B.

1165 of the Ohio Revised Code (the Ohio Savings Bank Law) and the Articles of Incorporation of Arlington Bank.

As of December 31, 2016, First Merchants had 221,005 shares of its common stock reserved and remaining available for issuance under its 2009 Long-term Equity Incentive Plan, 50,436 shares of its common stock reserved and remaining available for issuance under its Dividend Reinvestment and Stock Purchase Plan and 326,061 shares of its common stock reserved and remaining available for issuance under its 2008 Equity Compensation Plan for Non-Employee Directors. In addition, as of December 31, 2016, First Merchants had no options granted but unexercised under its 1994 Stock Option Plan, 163,811 options granted but unexercised under its 1999 Long-term Equity Incentive Plan, and 96,400 options granted but unexercised under its 2009 Long-term Equity Incentive Plan, with shares reserved and remaining available equal to the outstanding options under each plan.

The issuance of additional shares of First Merchants common stock or the issuance of additional First Merchants preferred stock may adversely affect the interests of First Merchants shareholders by diluting their voting and ownership interests.

Restrictions on Transfer of Shares

First Merchants

The holders of First Merchants common stock are generally not restricted on sales of their shares. The shares are also registered under Section 12 of the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934 (the “Exchange Act”) and listed for exchange on The NASDAQ Global Select Market. As a result, a public market exists for the shares of common stock.

Arlington Bank

Arlington Bank common shares are not registered under the Securities Act. Arlington Bank common shares are not listed on an exchange or quoted on any automated services, no established public trading market exists for Arlington Bank’s common shares and, to the knowledge of Arlington Bank, no brokerage or other firm makes a market in Arlington Bank common shares.

Dividend Rights

First Merchants

The holders of First Merchants common stock are entitled to dividends and other distributions when, as and if declared by its Boards of Directors.

Generally, First Merchants may not pay a dividend if, after giving effect to the dividend:

- First Merchants would not be able to pay its debts as they become due in the usual course of business; or
- First Merchants’ total assets would be less than the sum of its total liabilities plus the amount that would be needed to satisfy preferential rights of shareholders payable upon dissolution.

The amount of dividends, if any, that may be declared by First Merchants in the future will necessarily depend upon many factors, including, among other things, future earnings, capital requirements, business conditions and capital levels of subsidiaries (since First Merchants is primarily dependent upon dividends paid by its subsidiaries for revenues), the discretion of First Merchants’ Board of Directors and other factors that may be appropriate in determining dividend policies.

First Merchants Bank may pay cash dividends to First Merchants on its common stock only out of adjusted retained net profits for the year in which the dividend is paid and the two preceding years.

First Merchants Bank will ordinarily be restricted to paying dividends in a lesser amount to First Merchants than is legally permissible because of the need for the banks to maintain adequate capital consistent with the capital adequacy guidelines promulgated by the banks’ principal federal regulatory authorities. If a bank’s capital levels are deemed inadequate by the regulatory authorities, payment of dividends to its parent holding company may be prohibited. First Merchants Bank is not currently subject to such a restriction.

Arlington Bank

The holders of Arlington Bank common shares are entitled to dividends and other distributions when, as and if declared by its Boards of Directors.

Generally, Arlington Bank may not pay a dividend if, after giving effect to the dividend:

- Arlington Bank would not be able to pay its debts as they become due in the usual course of business; or
- Arlington Bank’s total assets would be less than the sum of its total liabilities plus its stated capital.

Effective Date of the Merger (page [●])

The Merger will become effective when we file Articles of Merger with the Secretary of the State of Indiana, or at such later date and time as may be set forth in the Articles of Merger. We expect the Merger to become effective during the second quarter of 2017.

Comparative Per Share Data

The following table shows historical information about our companies' earnings per share, dividends per share and book value per share, and similar information reflecting the Merger, which we refer to as "pro forma" information. In presenting the comparative pro forma information, we have assumed that the two companies had been combined throughout the period shown in the table. The pro forma information reflects the purchase method of accounting. The financial information presented under "Pro Forma" was compiled assuming 2,074,783 shares of First Merchants common shares are issued to Arlington Bank shareholders which assumes 761,528 Arlington Bank common shares are outstanding at the time of closing (the number outstanding on January 25, 2017) and assuming no dissenters.

We expect that we will incur reorganization and restructuring expenses as a result of combining our two companies. We also anticipate that the Merger will provide the combined company with financial benefits that include reduced operating expenses and the opportunity to earn more revenue. The pro forma information, while helpful in illustrating the financial characteristics of the combined company, does not take into account these expected expenses or these anticipated financial benefits, and does not attempt to predict or suggest future results. It also does not necessarily reflect what the historical results of the merged company would have been had our companies been merged during the periods presented.

Arlington Bank does not have a class of securities registered under Section 12 of the Exchange Act, is not subject to the reporting requirements of Section 13(a) or 15(d) of the Exchange Act, and accordingly does not file documents and reports with the SEC to be incorporated by reference.

The information in the following table is based on historical financial information of Arlington Bank and First Merchants. The information with respect to First Merchants is included in its report previously filed with the SEC. The historical financial information of First Merchants has been incorporated into this document by reference. See "WHERE YOU CAN FIND ADDITIONAL INFORMATION" on page [●] for a description of documents that we incorporate by reference into this document and how to obtain copies of them.

SELECTED FINANCIAL DATA

The following tables set forth certain summary historical financial data for each of our companies. First Merchants' and Arlington Bank's balance sheet and income statement data as of and for the five years in the period ended December 31, 2016 are taken from each of First Merchants' and Arlington Bank's respective audited financial statements (which data and financial statements, in the case of First Merchants, are presented on a consolidated basis).

The following tables also set forth certain summary unaudited pro forma consolidated financial information for First Merchants and Arlington Bank reflecting the Merger. The pro forma disclosures are being presented to provide additional information in support of the pro forma data included under the "Comparative Per Share Data" section of this SUMMARY. As a result, this condensed pro forma presentation is not intended to comply with the disclosure requirements under Article 11 of Regulation S-X. The income statement information presented gives effect to the Merger as if it occurred on the first day of the period presented. The balance sheet information presented gives effect to the Merger as if it occurred on December 31, 2016. The financial information was compiled assuming 2,074,783 shares of First Merchants common shares are issued to Arlington Bank shareholders which assumes 761,528 Arlington Bank common shares are outstanding at the time of closing (the number outstanding on January 25, 2017) and assuming no dissenters.

The pro forma information reflects the purchase method of accounting, with Arlington Bank's assets and liabilities recorded at their estimated fair values as of December 31, 2016. The actual fair value adjustments to the assets and the liabilities of Arlington Bank will be made on the basis of appraisals and evaluations that will be made as of the date the Merger is completed. Thus, the actual fair value adjustments may differ significantly from those reflected in these pro forma financial statements. In the opinion of First Merchants' management, the estimates used in the preparation of these pro forma financial statements are reasonable under the circumstances.

We expect that we will incur reorganization and restructuring expenses as a result of combining our companies. We also anticipate that the Merger will provide the combined company with financial benefits that include reduced operating expenses and the opportunity to earn more revenue. The pro forma information, while helpful in illustrating the financial characteristics of the combined company under two sets of assumptions, does not take into account these expected expenses or anticipated financial benefits, and does not attempt to predict or suggest future results.

This selected financial data is only a summary and you should read it in conjunction with First Merchants' consolidated financial statements and related notes incorporated into this document by reference. See "WHERE YOU CAN FIND ADDITIONAL INFORMATION" on page [●] for a description of documents that we incorporate by reference into this document and how to obtain copies of such documents.

Recent Developments of First Merchants

On February 17, 2017, First Merchants and Independent Alliance Banks, Inc., an Indiana corporation (“IALB”), entered into an Agreement and Plan of Reorganization and Merger, pursuant to which IALB will merge with and into First Merchants. Pursuant to the transaction, the separate corporate existence of IALB will cease and First Merchants will survive. First Merchants currently holds 495,112 shares, or 12.1%, of IALB’s outstanding common stock, First Merchants having previously purchased such shares from an IALB shareholder for $19.8 million in November 2016.

Immediately following the IALB merger, IALB’s wholly-owned subsidiary, iAB Financial Bank (“iAB”), will be merged with and into First Merchants Bank, with First Merchants Bank as the surviving bank. Headquartered in Fort Wayne, Indiana, iAB operates 16 banking center locations in the Fort Wayne area. iAB has total assets of $1.1 billion, total loans of $753 million, and total deposits of $861 million (91% of which are core) and also earned a 0.94% return on average assets and 9.57% return on tangible common equity in 2016.

Upon the completion of the IALB merger, each share of outstanding IALB common stock will be converted into 1.6530 shares of First Merchants common stock. Based on the closing price of First Merchants’ common stock on February 16, 2017 of $42.10 per share, the transaction value for the remaining shares of common stock, not owned by First Merchants, is approximately $251.3 million. Subject to IALB’s shareholders’ approval of the merger, regulatory approvals and other customary closing conditions, the parties anticipate completing the IALB merger in the third quarter of 2017. It is uncertain what, if any, conditions may be imposed with respect to the proposed merger by any regulator.

RISK FACTORS

In addition to general investment risks and the other information contained in or incorporated by reference into this proxy statement and prospectus, including the matters addressed under the section "FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS," you should carefully consider the following risk factors in deciding how to vote for the Merger Proposal presented in this proxy statement and prospectus. You should also consider the other information in this proxy statement and prospectus and the other documents incorporated by reference into this proxy statement and prospectus. See "WHERE YOU CAN FIND ADDITIONAL INFORMATION" on page [●].

Risk Factors Relating to the Merged Company and Its Industry

Combining the two companies may be more difficult, costly or time consuming than expected and the anticipated benefits and costs savings of the Merger may not be realized.

Even though First Merchants has acquired other financial services businesses in the past, the success of the Merger with Arlington Bank will depend on a number of factors, including, but not limited to, the merged company's ability to:

- integrate Arlington Bank's operations with the operations of First Merchants;
- maintain existing relationships with First Merchants' depositors and Arlington Bank's depositors to minimize withdrawals of deposits subsequent to the acquisition;
- maintain and enhance existing relationships with borrowers of First Merchants and Arlington Bank;
- achieve projected net income of First Merchants Bank and expected cost savings and revenue enhancements from the merged company;
- control the incremental non-interest expense to maintain overall operating efficiencies;
- retain and attract key and qualified management, lending and other banking personnel; and
- compete effectively in the communities served by First Merchants and Arlington Bank, and in nearby communities.

First Merchants' failure to successfully integrate Arlington Bank into its business may adversely affect its financial condition and results of operations.

The value of the consideration to be received by Arlington Bank shareholders in the Merger will fluctuate.

If the Merger is completed, Arlington Bank shareholders will receive a number of shares of First Merchants common stock based on a fixed Exchange Ratio of 2.7245 shares of First Merchants common stock for each Arlington Bank common share. Because the market value of First Merchants common stock may (and likely will) fluctuate, the value of the stock consideration you receive for your shares may also fluctuate. The market value of First Merchants common stock could fluctuate for any number of reasons, including those specific to First Merchants and those that influence trading prices of equity securities generally. As a result, you will not know the exact value of the shares of First Merchants common stock you will receive at the time you must vote your shares. The value of First Merchants common stock on the closing date of the Merger may be greater or less than the market price of First Merchants common stock on the record date, on the date of this proxy statement and prospectus or on the date of the special meeting. Moreover, the fairness opinion of Boenning is dated January 24, 2017. Changes in the operations and prospects of First Merchants and Arlington Bank, general market and economic conditions and other factors which are both within and outside of the control of First Merchants and Arlington Bank, on which the fairness opinion is based, may alter the relative value of the companies. The fairness opinion does not address the fairness of the Exchange Ratio at the time the Merger will be completed.

We encourage you to obtain a current market quotation for First Merchants common stock because the value of any First Merchants shares you receive may be more or less than the value of such shares as of the date of this document.

The merged company's allowance for loan losses may not be adequate to cover actual loan losses.

The merged company's loan customers may not repay their loans according to their terms, and the customers' collateral securing the payment of their loans may be insufficient to assure repayment. As of December 31, 2016, approximately 66% of the merged company's loans are comprised of commercial real estate and commercial lines of credit and term and development loans, which can result in higher loan loss experience than residential loans in economic downturns. The underwriting, review and monitoring that will be performed by the merged company's officers and directors cannot eliminate all of the risks related to these loans.

Each of First Merchants and Arlington Bank make various assumptions and judgments about the collectability of their respective loan portfolios and provide an allowance for loan losses based on a number of factors. If the assumptions are wrong or the facts and circumstances subsequently and materially change, the allowance for loan losses and Merger-related credit marks may not be sufficient to cover the merged company's loan losses. The merged company may have to increase its allowance for loan losses in the future, which could decrease its net income.

Deterioration in loan quality will adversely affect the merged company's results of operations and financial condition.

Each of First Merchants and Arlington Bank seek to mitigate the risks inherent in their respective loan portfolios by adhering to sound underwriting practices. Their lending strategies also include emphasizing diversification on a geographic, industry and customer level, regular credit quality reviews and management reviews of large credit exposures and loans experiencing deterioration of credit quality. There is continuous review of their loan portfolios, including internally administered loan "watch" lists and independent loan reviews. These evaluations take into consideration identified credit problems, as well as the possibility of losses inherent in the loan portfolio that are not specifically identified. Although First Merchants and Arlington Bank believe their underwriting and loan review procedures are appropriate for the various kinds of loans they make, the merged company's results of operation and financial condition will be adversely affected in the event the quality of their respective loan portfolios deteriorates. As of December 31, 2016, First Merchants had $34.7 million and Arlington Bank had $626,638 in non-performing loans.

Changes in interest rates may reduce the merged company's net interest income.

Like other financial institutions, the merged company's net interest income is its primary revenue source. Net interest income is the difference between interest earned on loans and investments and interest expense incurred on deposits and other borrowings. The merged company's net interest income will be affected by changes in market rates of interest, the interest rate sensitivity of its assets and liabilities, prepayments on its loans and investments and limits on increases in the rates of interest charged on its residential real estate loans.

The merged company will not be able to predict or control changes in market rates of interest. Market rates of interest are affected by regional and local economic conditions, as well as monetary policies of the Federal Reserve Board. The following factors also may affect market interest rates:

- inflation;
- slow or stagnant economic growth or recession;
- unemployment;
- money supply;
- international disorders;
- instability in domestic and foreign financial markets; and
- other factors beyond the merged company's control.

Each of First Merchants and Arlington Bank has policies and procedures designed to manage the risks from changes in market interest rates; however, despite risk management, changes in interest rates could adversely affect the merged company's results of operations and financial condition.

Changes in economic conditions and the geographic concentration of the merged company's markets could adversely affect the merged company's financial condition.

The merged company's success will depend to a great extent upon the general economic conditions of the Central and Northwestern Indiana and Central Ohio areas. Unlike larger banks that are more geographically diversified, the merged company will provide banking and financial services to customers primarily located in these areas. Favorable economic conditions may not exist in the merged company's markets.

A continued economic slowdown could have the following consequences:

- loan delinquencies may increase;
- problem assets and foreclosures may increase;
- demand for the products and services of Arlington Bank and First Merchants may decline; and
- collateral for loans made by Arlington Bank and First Merchants may decline in value, in turn reducing customers' borrowing power, and reducing the value of assets and collateral associated with existing loans.

Anti-takeover defenses may delay or prevent future mergers.

Provisions contained in First Merchants' Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws and certain provisions of Indiana law could make it more difficult for a third party to acquire First Merchants, even if doing so might be beneficial to First Merchants shareholders. See "COMPARISON OF COMMON STOCK—Anti-Takeover Provisions" on page [●]. These provisions could limit the price that some investors might be willing to pay in the future for shares of First Merchants common stock and may have the effect of delaying or preventing a change in control.

If the Merger is not completed, the parties will have incurred substantial expenses without realizing the expected benefits.

First Merchants and Arlington Bank have incurred substantial expenses in connection with the transactions described in this proxy statement and prospectus. The completion of the Merger depends on the satisfaction of several conditions. We cannot guarantee that these conditions will be met. Arlington Bank expects to incur approximately $2.5 million in pre-tax Merger-related expenses and First Merchants expects to incur approximately $4.4 million in pre-tax Merger-related expenses, which include legal, accounting and financial advisory expenses and which excludes any termination fees, if applicable. Although some of these expenses will not be incurred if the Merger is not completed, others will and such expenses could have a material adverse impact on the financial condition of First Merchants and Arlington Bank because they would not have realized the expected benefits of the Merger. There can be no assurance that the Merger will be completed.

The Merger Agreement may be terminated in accordance with its terms and the Merger may not be completed, which could have a negative impact on Arlington Bank.

The Merger Agreement with First Merchants is subject to a number of conditions which must be fulfilled in order to close. Those conditions include: Arlington Bank shareholder approval, regulatory approvals, the continued accuracy of certain representations and warranties by both parties and the performance by both parties of certain covenants and agreements. There can be no assurance that the Merger will be completed.

In addition, certain circumstances exist where Arlington Bank may choose to terminate the Merger Agreement, including the acceptance of a superior acquisition proposal. See “THE MERGER—Exchange of Arlington Bank Common Stock” for a more complete discussion of the consideration to be paid in the Merger and “THE MERGER AGREEMENT—Termination; Waiver; Amendment” for a more complete discussion of the circumstances under which the Merger Agreement could be terminated. There can be no assurance that the conditions to closing the Merger will be fulfilled or that the Merger will be completed.

If the Merger Agreement is terminated, there may be various consequences to Arlington Bank, including:

- Arlington Bank’s businesses may have been adversely impacted by the failure to pursue other beneficial opportunities due to the focus of management on the Merger, without realizing any of the anticipated benefits of completing the Merger; and
- Arlington Bank will have incurred substantial expenses in connection with the Merger, without realizing any of the anticipated benefits of completing the Merger.

If the Merger Agreement is terminated by Arlington Bank due to its acceptance of a superior acquisition proposal or by First Merchants due to the failure of Arlington Bank’s Board of Directors to recommend approval of the Merger Agreement to its shareholders by reason of a superior acquisition proposal or for certain related reasons, then Arlington Bank has agreed to pay to First Merchants a $3,000,000 termination fee. The payment of the termination fee could have a material adverse effect on Arlington Bank’s financial condition, and there can be no assurance that Arlington Bank would be able to complete a transaction with a party willing to pay an equivalent or more attractive price than the price First Merchants has agreed to pay in the Merger.

The termination fee and the restrictions on solicitation contained in the Merger Agreement may discourage other companies from trying to acquire Arlington Bank.

Until the completion of the Merger, with some exceptions, Arlington Bank is prohibited from soliciting, initiating, encouraging or participating in any discussion of or otherwise considering any inquiries or proposals that may lead to an acquisition proposal, such as a merger or other business combination transaction, with any person other than First Merchants. In addition, Arlington Bank has agreed to pay a termination fee of $3,000,000 to First Merchants if the Arlington Bank Board of Directors does not recommend approval of the Merger Agreement to the Arlington Bank shareholders by reason of a superior acquisition proposal. These provisions could discourage other companies from trying to acquire Arlington Bank even though such other companies might be willing to offer greater value to Arlington Bank’s shareholders than First Merchants has offered in the Merger Agreement. The payment of the termination fee also could have a material adverse effect on Arlington Bank’s financial condition.

The market price of First Merchants common stock after the Merger may be affected by factors different from those affecting the shares of Arlington Bank or First Merchants currently.

Upon completion of the Merger, holders of Arlington Bank common shares will become holders of First Merchants common stock. First Merchants’ business differs in important respects from that of Arlington Bank, and, accordingly, the results of operations of the combined company and the market price of First Merchants common stock after the completion of the Merger may be affected by factors different from those currently affecting the independent results of operations of each of First Merchants and Arlington Bank. First Merchants is, and will continue to be, subject to the risks described in First Merchants’ Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2016, as updated by subsequent Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q and Current Reports on Form 8-K, all of which are filed with the SEC and incorporated by reference into this proxy statement and prospectus. See the documents incorporated by reference in this proxy statement and prospectus and referred to under “WHERE YOU CAN FIND ADDITIONAL INFORMATION” on page [●].

Arlington Bank shareholders will have a reduced ownership and voting interest after the Merger and will exercise less influence over management.

Arlington Bank's shareholders currently have the right to vote in the election of the Arlington Bank Board of Directors and on other matters affecting Arlington Bank. When the Merger occurs, each Arlington Bank shareholder will become a shareholder of First Merchants with a percentage ownership of the combined organization that is smaller than the shareholder's percentage ownership of Arlington Bank. Because of this, Arlington Bank's shareholders will have less influence over the management and policies of First Merchants than they now have over the management and policies of Arlington Bank.

Risk Factors Relating to the Merger

Regulatory approvals may not be received, may take longer than expected or may impose conditions that are not presently anticipated or that could have an adverse effect on the combined company following the Merger.

The transactions contemplated in the Merger Agreement cannot be completed until First Merchants receives necessary regulatory approvals, which include the approval of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation. In determining whether to grant these approvals, the regulators consider a variety of factors, including the regulatory standing of each party and the factors described under "THE MERGER—Regulatory Approvals." An adverse development in either party's regulatory standing or these factors could result in an inability to obtain approval or delay its receipt. These regulators may impose conditions on the completion of the Merger or require changes to the terms of the Merger. Such conditions or changes could have the effect of delaying or preventing completion of the Merger or imposing additional costs on or limiting the revenues of the combined company following the Merger and the Bank Merger, any of which might have an adverse effect on the combined company following the Merger. Regulatory approvals could also be impacted based on the status of any ongoing investigation of either party or its customers, including subpoenas to provide information or investigations, by a federal, state or local governmental agency.

Certain of Arlington Bank's directors and executive officers have interests in the Merger that may differ from the interests of Arlington Bank's shareholders.

Arlington Bank shareholders should be aware that some of Arlington Bank's executive officers and directors have interests in the Merger and have arrangements that are different from, or in addition to, those of Arlington Bank shareholders generally. Arlington Bank's Board of Directors was aware of and considered these interests, among other matters, when making its decision to approve and adopt the Merger Agreement, and in recommending that Arlington Bank shareholders vote in favor of approving the Merger Agreement.

For a description of these interests, see "THE MERGER—Interests of Certain Persons in the Merger" on page [●].

Arlington Bank and First Merchants will be subject to business uncertainties and contractual restrictions while the Merger is pending.

Uncertainty about the effect of the Merger on employees and customers may have an adverse effect on Arlington Bank or First Merchants. These uncertainties may impair Arlington Bank's or First Merchants' ability to attract, retain and motivate key personnel until the Merger is completed, and could cause customers and others that deal with Arlington Bank or First Merchants to seek to change existing business relationships with Arlington Bank or First Merchants. Retention of certain employees by Arlington Bank or First Merchants may be challenging while the Merger is pending, as certain employees may experience uncertainty about their future roles with Arlington Bank or First Merchants. If key employees depart because of issues relating to the uncertainty and difficulty of integration or a desire not to remain with Arlington Bank or First Merchants, Arlington Bank's and/or First Merchants' business could be harmed. In addition, subject to certain exceptions, each of Arlington Bank and First Merchants has agreed to operate its business in the ordinary course prior to closing. See “THE MERGER AGREEMENT—Restrictions Affecting the Parties Prior to Completion of the Merger” on page [●] for a description of the restrictive covenants applicable to Arlington Bank and First Merchants while the Merger is pending.

The shares of First Merchants common stock to be received by Arlington Bank shareholders as a result of the Merger will have different rights from the Arlington Bank common shares.

Upon completion of the Merger, Arlington Bank shareholders will become First Merchants shareholders and their rights as shareholders will be governed by the First Merchants Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws. The rights associated with Arlington Bank common shares may be different from the rights associated with First Merchants common stock. Please see “COMPARISON OF COMMON STOCK” beginning on page [●] for a discussion of the different rights associated with First Merchants common stock.

The Merger may fail to qualify as a tax-free reorganization for federal tax purposes, resulting in your recognition of taxable gain or loss in respect of your Arlington Bank shares.

Arlington Bank intends the Merger to qualify as a tax-free “reorganization” within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code. Although the IRS will not provide a ruling on the matter, First Merchants and Arlington Bank will, as a condition to closing, obtain an opinion from legal counsel that the Merger will constitute a “reorganization” for federal tax purposes. This opinion does not bind the IRS or prevent the IRS from adopting a contrary position. If the Merger fails to qualify as a reorganization, you generally would recognize gain or loss on each Arlington Bank common share surrendered in an amount equal to the difference between your adjusted tax basis in that share and the fair market value of the Merger consideration received in exchange for that share upon completion of the Merger. Furthermore, if the Merger fails to qualify as a reorganization, there may be additional tax consequences to shareholders of Arlington Bank common shares associated with the deemed sale by Arlington Bank of its assets to First Merchants, which could result in corporate level gains and associated taxes.

Arlington Bank shareholders will have dissenters’ rights in the Merger.

Dissenters’ rights are statutory rights that, if applicable under law, enable shareholders to dissent from an extraordinary transaction, such as a Merger, and to demand that the corporation pay the fair cash value for their shares as determined by a court in a judicial proceeding instead of receiving the consideration offered to shareholders in connection with the extraordinary transaction. The shareholders of Arlington Bank will have the rights accorded to dissenting shareholders under Section 1701.85 of the Ohio General Corporation Law. The fair cash value determined through a judicial proceeding may be more or less than the consideration offered under the Merger Agreement. As a result, First Merchants bears the risk that payments owed to dissenting shareholders may exceed the consideration outlined in this proxy statement and prospectus.

This document is first being mailed to Arlington Bank shareholders on [●], 2017, and includes the notice of Arlington Bank special meeting, and is accompanied by a form of proxy.

Matters To Be Considered

The purposes of the special meeting are:

1. Merger Proposal. To consider and vote upon a proposal to approve the Merger Agreement, pursuant to which Arlington Bank will merge with and into First Merchants Bank.
2. Adjournment Proposal. To approve one or more adjournments of the Arlington Bank special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies in favor of the Merger Proposal.
3. Other Matters. To vote upon such other matters which may properly be presented at the special meeting or any adjournment or postponement of the special meeting. The Board of Directors is not aware of any such other matters.

Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, Arlington Bank will merge into First Merchants. The Merger Agreement is attached to this document as Annex A and is incorporated in this document by reference. For a description of the Merger Agreement, see “THE MERGER AGREEMENT,” beginning on page [●].

Vote Required

Approval of the Merger Proposal requires the affirmative vote of at least a majority of the outstanding Arlington Bank common shares. Approval of the Adjournment Proposal only requires the affirmative vote of at least a majority of the Arlington Bank common shares voting at the meeting, in person or by proxy, so long as a quorum is present. Arlington Bank has fixed [●], 2017, as the record date for determining those Arlington Bank shareholders entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the special meeting. Accordingly, if you were an Arlington Bank shareholder of record at the close of business on [●], 2017, you will be entitled to notice of and to vote at the special meeting. Each Arlington Bank common share you own on the record date entitles you to one vote on each matter presented at the special meeting. At the close of business on the record date of [●], 2017, there were [●] Arlington Bank common shares outstanding held by approximately [●] shareholders of record.

Voting Agreement

As of the record date, Arlington Bank’s executive officers, directors, and certain significant shareholders and their affiliates had voting power with respect to an aggregate of 276,258 Arlington Bank common shares outstanding, representing 36.28% of the outstanding shares on that date. Each member of the Board of Directors of Arlington Bank and certain other significant shareholders entered into a voting agreement with First Merchants to cause all Arlington Bank common shares owned by them of record or beneficially to be voted in favor of the Merger Proposal. See “THE MERGER AGREEMENT—Voting Agreement” on page [●].

Proxies

If you are an Arlington Bank shareholder, you should have received a proxy card for use at the Arlington Bank special meeting with this proxy statement and prospectus. The accompanying proxy card is for your use in voting at the special meeting if you are unable or do not wish to attend the special meeting in person. The shares represented by proxies properly signed and returned will be voted at the special meeting as instructed by the Arlington Bank shareholder giving the proxies. Proxy cards that are properly signed and returned but do not have voting instructions will be voted “FOR” approval of the Merger Proposal and “FOR” the Adjournment Proposal.

If you deliver a properly signed proxy card, you may revoke your proxy at any time before it is exercised by:

- delivering to the Secretary of Arlington Bank at or prior to the special meeting a written notice of revocation addressed to The Arlington Bank, 2130 Tremont Center, Upper Arlington, Ohio 43221, Attention: Mark K. Milligan, Secretary; or
- delivering to Arlington Bank at or prior to the special meeting a properly completed proxy card having a later date; or
- voting in person by ballot at the special shareholders meeting.

Because approval of the Merger Proposal requires the affirmative vote of at least a majority of the outstanding Arlington Bank common shares, abstentions will have the same effect as voting “AGAINST” approval of the Merger Proposal. Accordingly, your Board of Directors urges all Arlington Bank shareholders to vote by proxy by completing, dating and signing the accompanying proxy and returning it promptly in the enclosed postage-paid envelope. Abstentions and broker non-votes will have no effect on the Adjournment Proposal since it only requires a majority of the Arlington Bank common shares voting at the meeting. You should not send stock certificates with your proxy card.

Solicitation of Proxies

Arlington Bank will bear the entire cost of soliciting proxies from and mailing proxies to its shareholders in connection with the Arlington Bank special meeting. In addition to solicitation of proxies by mail, proxies may be solicited personally or by telephone by directors, officers and certain employees of Arlington Bank, who will not be specially compensated for such soliciting.

In soliciting proxies, no one has any authority to make any representations and warranties about the Merger or the Merger Proposal in addition to or contrary to the provisions stated in this document. MERGER PROPOSAL

Arlington Bank is asking its shareholders to approve the Merger Proposal. Holders of Arlington Bank common shares should read this proxy statement and prospectus carefully and in its entirety, including the annexes, for more detailed information concerning the Merger Agreement and the Merger. A copy of the Merger Agreement is attached to this proxy statement and prospectus as Annex A.

After careful consideration, the Arlington Bank Board of Directors unanimously approved and adopted the Merger Agreement and determined it to be advisable and in the best interest of Arlington Bank and its shareholders of Arlington Bank. See “THE MERGER—Arlington Bank’s Reasons for the Merger; Recommendation of Arlington Bank’s Board of Directors” included elsewhere in this proxy statement and prospectus for a more detailed discussion of the Arlington Bank Board of Directors’ recommendation.

For the reasons discussed in this proxy statement and prospectus, the Arlington Bank Board of Directors unanimously determined that the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement are advisable and in the best interests of Arlington Bank and its shareholders, and unanimously adopted and approved the Merger Agreement. The Arlington Bank Board of Directors unanimously recommends that Arlington Bank shareholders vote “FOR” approval of the Merger Proposal.

ADJOURNMENT PROPOSAL

The Arlington Bank special meeting may be adjourned to another time or place, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies if there are insufficient votes at the time of the Arlington Bank special meeting to approve the Merger Proposal.

If, at the Arlington Bank special meeting, the number of Arlington Bank common shares present or represented and voting in favor of the Merger Proposal is insufficient to approve the Merger Proposal, Arlington Bank intends to move to adjourn the Arlington Bank special meeting in order to enable the Board of Directors of Arlington Bank to solicit additional proxies for approval of the Merger Proposal. In that event, Arlington Bank will ask its shareholders to vote upon the Adjournment Proposal, but not the Merger Proposal.

In this Adjournment Proposal, Arlington Bank is asking its shareholders to authorize the holder of any proxy solicited by the Board of Directors of Arlington Bank, on a discretionary basis, to vote in favor of adjourning the Arlington Bank special meeting to another time and place for the purpose of soliciting additional proxies, including the solicitation of proxies from Arlington Bank shareholders who have previously voted.

The Board of Directors of Arlington Bank unanimously recommends a vote “FOR” the Adjournment Proposal.

THE MERGER

At the special meeting, the shareholders of Arlington Bank will consider and vote upon approval of the Merger Agreement. The following summary highlights certain information about the Merger. To understand the Merger, you should read carefully this entire proxy statement and prospectus, including the Merger Agreement, which is attached to this document as Annex A.

Description of the Merger

Under the terms and subject to the conditions of the Merger Agreement unanimously approved by each of the Arlington Bank, First Merchants and First Merchants Bank Boards of Directors, Arlington Bank will merge with and into First Merchants Bank and the separate corporate existence of Arlington Bank will cease. The rights of the Arlington Bank shareholders who receive First Merchants common stock in the Merger will be governed by the laws of the State of Indiana, the state in which First Merchants is incorporated, and by First Merchants' Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws.

Exchange of Arlington Bank Common Shares

The Merger Agreement provides that Arlington Bank shareholders will have the right, with respect to each of their Arlington Bank common shares, to receive, without interest, 2.7245 shares (the "Exchange Ratio") of First Merchants common stock (the "Merger Consideration"), subject to the payment of cash instead of fractional shares.

If First Merchants changes the number of outstanding shares of First Merchants common stock before the Merger through any stock split, stock dividend, recapitalization or similar transaction, then the Exchange Ratio will be proportionately adjusted so that Arlington Bank shareholders will receive such number of shares of First Merchants common stock as represents the same percentage of outstanding shares of First Merchants common stock at the effective date of the Merger as would have been represented by the number of shares of First Merchants common stock such shareholder would have received if the recapitalization had not occurred.

First Merchants will not issue fractional shares to Arlington Bank shareholders. Instead, Arlington Bank common shareholders will receive for each fractional share an amount in cash determined by multiplying (i) the fractional interest by (ii) the average of the closing price of the common stock of First Merchants as reported by Bloomberg, L.P. for the ten (10) days that First Merchants common stock trades on The NASDAQ Global Select Market preceding the fourth calendar day prior to the effective date of the Merger.

If you are an Arlington Bank shareholder and you receive First Merchants common stock as Merger Consideration for your Arlington Bank common shares, the value of the consideration that you will receive in the Merger will depend on the market price of First Merchants common stock when you receive your shares of First Merchants common stock. The implied per share value of the stock consideration, based upon First Merchants' closing stock price on [●], 2017, the most recent practicable trading day before this proxy statement and prospectus was finalized, was $[●] per share. No assurance can be given (and it is not likely) that the current market price of First Merchants common stock will be equivalent to the market price of First Merchants common stock on the date that shares of First Merchants common stock are received by an Arlington Bank shareholder or at any other time.

On or prior to the effective date of the Merger, First Merchants will deposit with American Stock Transfer, as exchange agent, shares in book entry form of First Merchants common stock, each to be given to the holders of Arlington Bank common shares in exchange for old certificates representing Arlington Bank common shares. Within three (3) business days following the effective date of the Merger, First Merchants will mail a letter of transmittal to each person who was, immediately prior to the effective time of the Merger, a holder of record of Arlington Bank common shares. The letter of transmittal will contain instructions for use in effecting the surrender of Arlington Bank stock certificates in exchange for the consideration to which such person may be entitled pursuant to the Merger Agreement. Within ten (10) business days following the later of the effective date of the Merger or the surrender to American Stock Transfer of the old certificate(s) representing Arlington Bank common shares for cancellation, together with such letter of transmittal duly executed and completed, the holder of such old certificate(s) will be provided a new certificate (or evidence of shares in book entry form) representing shares of First Merchants common stock and/or a check in the amount to which such holder is entitled pursuant to the Merger Agreement, and the old certificate will be canceled.

Until you surrender your Arlington Bank stock certificates for exchange, you will accrue, but will not be paid, any dividends or other distributions declared after the effective time of the Merger with respect to First Merchants common stock into which any of your shares may have been converted. When you surrender your Arlington Bank stock certificates, First Merchants will pay any unpaid dividends or other distributions, without interest. After the completion of the Merger, there will be no transfers on the stock transfer books of Arlington Bank of any Arlington Bank common shares.

If a certificate for Arlington Bank common shares has been lost, stolen or destroyed, First Merchants will issue the consideration properly payable under the Merger Agreement to the registered owner of such certificate upon receipt of an affidavit of lost stock certificate, in form and substance satisfactory to First Merchants, and upon compliance by the Arlington Bank's shareholder with all procedures historically required by Arlington Bank in connection with lost, stolen or destroyed certificates.

Effect of the Merger on First Merchants Shareholders

The approval of the First Merchants shareholders of the Merger Agreement is not required in order to complete the Merger. First Merchants shareholders will also not be entitled to exchange their shares of First Merchant common stock for any consideration as a result of the Merger. After the Merger, First Merchants shareholders will continue to own the same number of First Merchants shares they owned before the Merger.

Background of the Merger

As part of its consideration and assessment of Arlington Bank's long-term alternatives, prospects and strategies, the Board of Directors of Arlington Bank has periodically discussed and reviewed strategic opportunities to maximize value for its shareholders. These opportunities have included, among other alternatives, continuing as an independent institution, growing internally and through branch acquisitions, or affiliating with another institution.

While Arlington Bank's profit consistently ranked in the top quartile of its peers, the future growth of that profit was tied to asset growth and absorption of the costs of regulatory compliance. The improving Ohio economy was attracting out-of-market financial institutions to the area, resulting in increasing market competition and limiting growth opportunities. Facing challenges of generating continued increased earnings through organic growth, management and the Board of Directors of Arlington Bank continued to evaluate strategic options, including a possible merger or other strategic combination with another financial institution to achieve economies of scale to absorb increased regulatory compliance costs and additional operating and regulatory costs.

To assist the Board of Directors in its review of strategic alternatives for Arlington Bank, Arlington Bank interviewed several investment banking firms for consideration in providing assistance and financial advice to Arlington Bank and its board of directors during a period from June through August, 2016. At a special meeting of the Board of Directors of Arlington Bank held on September 12, 2016, management was authorized by the Board of Directors to retain Boenning and an agreement to retain Boenning was entered into between Arlington Bank and Boenning on September 28, 2016. The agreement with Boenning included issuance of a "fairness opinion" by Boenning in the event that a potential sale, merger or other transaction was entered into by Arlington Bank.

During a discussion with the Chairman, Vice Chairman and President of Arlington Bank, acting at the direction of Arlington Bank's Board of Directors, Boenning identified a possible universe of financial institutions that could be potential candidates for a strategic transaction with Arlington Bank. Following that discussion, Boenning was instructed to contact 16 financial institutions without naming Arlington Bank as the institution under consideration. Of those initial 16 institutions, 13 candidates, including First Merchants, entered into confidentiality agreements and then obtained access to a virtual data room containing extensive financial and operating information on Arlington Bank. First Merchants executed a confidentiality agreement on October 14, 2016, and began its due diligence process. On Arlington Bank's behalf, Boenning requested non-binding indications of interest from the interested parties as they were proceeding with their due diligence review. Of the 13 candidates, five submitted official non-binding indications of interest on November 7, 2016. Those submitting indications of interest included First Merchants.

The Board of Directors held a special meeting on November 9, 2016, to review the indications of interest with Boenning. Because the Board of Directors felt that the indications of interest submitted by two of the potential candidates presented the best alternatives for Arlington Bank and its shareholders, two potential candidates, including First Merchants, were then selected from that group of five and invited to perform a more detailed and comprehensive due diligence process on Arlington Bank.

From December 2, 2016, to December 4, 2016, First Merchants conducted a comprehensive on-site due diligence review of Arlington Bank and made a presentation to the Arlington Bank's Board of Directors. From December 9, 2016, to December 10, 2016, the other finalist performed on-site due diligence on Arlington Bank and made a presentation to the Arlington Bank's Board of Directors. On December 13, 2016, the other finalist informed Boenning that it had elected not to proceed further after determining that the structure of Arlington Bank's mortgage banking business would not be compatible with the candidate's business model, making the chances for a successful transaction at the anticipated strong valuation level less likely.

On December 19, 2016, First Merchants submitted a revised indication of interest that included two proposals:

- One proposal from First Merchants involved a stock and cash transaction where Arlington Bank shareholders would receive a fixed exchange ratio of 1.8732 shares of First Merchants common stock and $25.62 per share in cash, equating to $93.00 per share or approximately $70.956 million in aggregate consideration based on First Merchants' closing price on December 16, 2016, of $35.97. That proposal would result in an approximate 72% stock and 28% cash split, based on the First Merchants stock price at that time.
- The other proposal from First Merchants, received at the same time, involved an all-stock transaction where Arlington Bank shareholders would receive a fixed exchange ratio of 2.7245 shares of First Merchants' common stock in exchange for each outstanding share of Arlington Bank. This proposal would equate to $98.00 per share or approximately $74.775 million based on the First Merchants stock price on December 16, 2016.

A special meeting of the Board of Directors of Arlington Bank was held on December 21, 2016, with representatives of Boenning present in person and telephonically, and with a representative from the law firm of Vorys, Sater, Seymour and Pease LLP ("Vorys"), legal counsel for Arlington Bank, also present in person. The Board of Directors reviewed the two proposals from First Merchants in detail with extensive discussion regarding the history of First Merchants and its stock performance, pro-forma analysis of the combined companies and opportunities as well as risks for Arlington Bank shareholders under both proposals.

After extensive discussion of the two First Merchants proposals, after considering the potential benefits and potential adverse consequences of both proposals from First Merchants, the Board of Directors elected to proceed with the all-stock proposal. Boenning, Vorys and management of Arlington Bank were directed by the Board of Directors to proceed to negotiate a definitive agreement with First Merchants consistent with the terms of the all-stock proposal contained in the letter of intent submitted by First Merchants.

On January 3, 2017, the law firm of Bingham Greenebaum Doll LLP, legal counsel for First Merchants, presented a draft Merger Agreement to Arlington Bank and Vorys.

During the period from January 3, 2017, through January 24, 2017, the parties and their legal counsel exchanged comments and negotiated changes to the draft Merger Agreement. During this time, management of the parties continued discussions and additional due diligence was performed. The parties also provided drafts of their respective disclosure letters to the Merger Agreement and discussed other aspects of the proposed transaction and merger integration issues.

On the evening of January 24, 2017, the Board of Directors of Arlington Bank held a special meeting to discuss the draft Merger Agreement and related issues. Also present in addition to the directors were representatives of Boenning and Vorys. Vorys representatives discussed the purpose for the meeting and the legal standards and responsibilities of the directors with regard to matters before them. A Boenning representative reviewed with the Board of Directors the background of the process which had been undertaken to that point, and presented a financial analysis of First Merchants and of the proposed Merger Consideration. Boenning then delivered to the Board of Directors an oral opinion, which was subsequently confirmed in writing that, based on and subject to the assumptions, limitations, qualifications and conditions set forth in Boenning's written opinion, as of the date of the special meeting the Exchange Ratio to be received in the Merger by the holders of Arlington Bank common shares was fair, from a financial point of view, to such holders. Vorys attorneys then requested and received confirmation from the directors that each of the directors present had reviewed the draft Merger Agreement, resolutions and other ancillary material provided to the directors prior to the special meeting and addressed questions. The Vorys attorneys also reiterated that the directors would be need to sign voting agreements, which would require them to vote their shares in favor of the Merger.

Thereafter, the board received and considered resolutions concerning the transaction. The members of the board unanimously approved the Merger Agreement and transactions set forth therein and authorized Mr. James DeRoberts to execute and deliver the Merger Agreement and take the other actions necessary to effect the transaction.

Arlington Bank and First Merchants executed the Merger Agreement and announced the transaction on January 25, 2017.

First Merchants' Reasons for the Merger

In reaching its decision to adopt and approve the Merger Agreement, the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, the First Merchants Board of Directors consulted with First Merchants management and considered a number of factors, including the following material factors:

- each of First Merchants' and Arlington Bank's business, operations, financial condition, asset quality, earnings and prospects. In reviewing these factors, the First Merchants Board of Directors considered that the Merger (1) will expand First Merchants' business within demographically attractive markets in Central Ohio; (2) will increase First Merchants' core deposit base, an important funding source; (3) will provide First Merchants with an experienced management team and quality bank branches in and around Central Ohio; and (4) will provide First Merchants with the opportunity to sell First Merchants' broad array of products to Arlington Bank's client base;
- its understanding of the current and prospective environment in which First Merchants and Arlington Bank operate, including national and local economic conditions, the competitive environment for financial institutions generally, and the likely effect of these factors on First Merchants both with and without the proposed transaction;
- its review and discussions with First Merchants' management concerning the due diligence examination of Arlington Bank;

Table of Contents

- the complementary nature of the cultures of the two companies, which management believes should facilitate integration and implementation of the transaction;
- the financial and other terms of the Merger Agreement, including the fixed exchange ratio, tax treatment and deal protection and termination fee provisions, which it reviewed with its outside financial and legal advisors;
- the potential risk of diverting management attention and resources from the operation of First Merchants' business towards the completion of the Merger; and
- the regulatory and other approvals required in connection with the Merger and the expectation that such regulatory approvals will be received in a timely manner and without the imposition of unacceptable conditions.

The foregoing discussion of the information and factors considered by the First Merchants Board of Directors is not intended to be exhaustive, but includes the material factors considered by the First Merchants Board of Directors. In reaching its decision to approve and adopt the Merger Agreement, the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, the First Merchants Board of Directors did not quantify or assign any relative weights to the factors considered, and individual directors may have given different weights to different factors. The First Merchants Board of Directors considered all these factors as a whole, including discussions with, and questioning of, First Merchants' management and First Merchants' financial and legal advisors, and overall considered the factors to be favorable to, and to support, its determination.

For the reasons set forth above, the First Merchants Board of Directors unanimously determined that the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement are advisable and in the best interests of First Merchants and its shareholders, and unanimously approved and adopted the Merger Agreement.

Arlington Bank's Reasons for the Merger

In reaching its decision to adopt and approve the Merger Agreement, the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, and to recommend that its shareholders approve the Merger Agreement, Arlington Bank's Board of Directors consulted with Arlington Bank management, as well as its financial and legal advisors, and considered a number of factors, including the following material factors:

- the review undertaken by the Arlington Bank Board of Directors and management with respect to the strategic alternatives available to Arlington Bank;
- the business strategy and strategic plan of Arlington Bank and its prospects for the future as an independent institution, including the risks inherent in successful execution of its strategic plan, its projected financial results, and expectations relating to the proposed Merger with First Merchants;
- a review of the challenges facing Arlington Bank in the current competitive, economic, financial and regulatory climate, and the potential benefits of aligning Arlington Bank with a larger organization;
- the consistency of the Merger with Arlington Bank's long-term strategic plan to seek profitable future expansion, leading to continued growth in overall shareholder value and enhanced liquidity for Arlington Bank shareholders;
- a review of the historical financial statements and condition of Arlington Bank and certain other internal information, primarily financial in nature, relating to the business, earnings and balance sheet of Arlington Bank;
- a review of the historical financial statements and condition of First Merchants and certain other information, primarily financial in nature, relating to the business, earnings and financial condition of First Merchants;

Table of Contents

- its review and discussions with Arlington Bank management and its advisors concerning the due diligence examination of First Merchants;
- the fact that the Merger would combine two established banking franchises to create a bank with over $7 billion in assets;
- the complementary nature of the businesses of Arlington Bank and First Merchants and the anticipated improved stability of the combined company's business and earnings in varying economic and market climates;
- the belief of Arlington Bank senior management that the management teams and employees of Arlington Bank and First Merchants possess complementary skills and expertise and the potential advantages of a larger institution when pursuing, or seeking to retain, talent;
- the financial strength of First Merchants based on First Merchants' historical earnings and profitability expectations over the near and long term;
- the strength, recent performance and liquidity of First Merchants' common stock;
- the financial and other terms of the Merger Agreement, including the fixed exchange ratio, tax treatment and deal protection and termination fee provisions, which it reviewed with its outside financial and legal advisors;
- the fact that, based on the closing price of First Merchants' common stock on January 24, 2017, of $36.46, the transaction value would be approximately $75.8 million, with an implied price per share of Arlington Bank common shares of $99.34;
- the ability of Arlington Bank's shareholders to benefit from First Merchants' potential growth and stock appreciation over time since it is more likely that the combined entity will have superior future earnings and prospects compared to Arlington Bank's earnings and prospects on an independent basis as the result of greater operating efficiencies and better penetration of commercial and consumer banking markets;
- the ability of First Merchants to complete a merger transaction from a financial and regulatory perspective;
- the regulatory and other approvals required in connection with the Merger and the expectation that such regulatory approvals will be received in a timely manner and without the imposition of unacceptable conditions;
- the complementary geographic fit and customer convenience of the branch networks of the combined banks;
- the potential continued representation of certain of Arlington Bank's management on the management team of the combined entity;
- the nature and amount of payments and other benefits to be received by Arlington Bank management in connection with the Merger pursuant to existing Arlington Bank plans, as well as compensation arrangements contemplated in connection with the Merger;
- the anticipated effect of the acquisition on Arlington Bank's employees;
- the anticipated effect on Arlington Bank's customers and the communities served by Arlington Bank;
- the belief that, while no assurances could be given, the business and financial advantages contemplated in connection with the Merger were likely to be achieved within a reasonable time frame, particularly in light of the fact that First Merchants has transition experience due to successfully completed acquisitions in the past; and
- the opinion of Boenning orally delivered to the Arlington Bank Board of Directors on January 24, 2017, and subsequently confirmed in writing, that, as of that date, and based upon and subject to the conditions, limitations, qualifications and assumptions set forth in the opinion, the Exchange Ratio to be received in the Merger by the holders of Arlington Bank common shares was fair, from a financial point of view, to such holders of Arlington Bank common shares.

The foregoing discussion of the information and factors considered by the Arlington Bank Board of Directors is not intended to be exhaustive, but includes the material factors considered by the Arlington Bank Board of Directors. In reaching its decision to approve and adopt the Merger Agreement, the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, the Arlington Bank Board of Directors did not quantify or assign any relative weights to the factors considered, and individual directors may have given different weights to different factors. The Arlington Bank Board of Directors considered all these factors as a whole, including discussions with, and questioning of, Arlington Bank's management and Arlington Bank's financial and legal advisors, and overall considered the factors to be favorable to, and to support, its determination.

The Board of Directors of Arlington Bank unanimously approved the Merger Agreement and recommends that Arlington Bank's shareholders vote "FOR" the approval of the Merger Proposal and "FOR" the Adjournment Proposal. Arlington Bank shareholders should be aware that Arlington Bank's directors and executive officers have interests in the Merger that are different from, or in addition to, those of other Arlington Bank shareholders. The Board of Directors of Arlington Bank was aware of and considered these interests, among other matters, in evaluating and negotiating the Merger Agreement, and in recommending that the Merger Proposal be approved by the shareholders of Arlington Bank. See "THE MERGER—Interests of Certain Persons in the Merger."

This summary of the reasoning of the Board of Directors of Arlington Bank and other information presented in this section is forward-looking in nature and, therefore, should be read in light of the factors discussed under the heading "FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS."

Opinion of Boenning & Scattergood, Inc.

Boenning & Scattergood, Inc. ("Boenning") is acting as financial advisor to Arlington Bank in connection with the Merger. Boenning is a registered broker-dealer providing investment banking services with substantial expertise in transactions similar to the Merger. As part of its investment banking activities, Boenning is regularly engaged in the valuation of businesses and securities in connection with mergers, acquisitions, underwritings, private placements and valuations for estate, corporate and other purposes.

On January 24, 2017, Boenning rendered its oral opinion, which was subsequently confirmed in writing, to the Arlington Bank board of directors that, as of such date and subject to the assumptions made, matters considered and limitations of the review undertaken by Boenning, the Exchange Ratio to be received by the holders of Arlington Bank's common stock pursuant to the Merger Agreement was fair, from a financial point of view, to such holders.

The full text of Boenning's written opinion dated January 24, 2017, which sets forth the assumptions made, matters considered and limitations of the review undertaken, is attached as Annex C to this proxy statement and prospectus and is incorporated herein by reference. You are urged to, and should, read this opinion carefully and in its entirety in connection with this proxy statement and prospectus. The summary of Boenning's opinion set forth in this proxy statement and prospectus is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the opinion. Boenning's opinion speaks only as of the date of the opinion and does not reflect any developments that may occur or may have occurred after the date of its opinion and prior to the completion of the Merger.

No limitations were imposed by Arlington Bank on the scope of Boenning's investigation or the procedures to be followed by Boenning in rendering its opinion. Boenning was not requested to, and did not, make any recommendation to the Arlington Bank board of directors as to the form or amount of the consideration to be paid to the Arlington Bank stockholders, which was determined through arm's length negotiations between the parties. In arriving at its opinion, Boenning did not ascribe a specific range of values to Arlington Bank. Its opinion is based on the financial and comparative analyses described below.

In connection with its opinion, Boenning, among other things:

- reviewed the historical financial performance, current financial position and general prospects of each of First Merchants and Arlington Bank and reviewed certain internal financial analyses and forecasts prepared by the respective management teams of First Merchants and Arlington Bank;
- reviewed the Merger Agreement;
- reviewed and analyzed the stock performance and trading history of First Merchants;
- studied and analyzed the consolidated financial and operating data of First Merchants and Arlington Bank;
- reviewed the pro forma financial impact of the Merger on First Merchants, based on assumptions relating to transaction expenses, purchase accounting adjustments, cost savings and other synergies determined by the respective management teams of First Merchants and Arlington Bank;
- considered the financial terms of the Merger as compared with the financial terms of comparable bank and bank holding company mergers and acquisitions;
- met and/or communicated with certain members of each of First Merchants' and Arlington Bank's senior management to discuss their respective operations, historical financial statements and future prospects; and
- conducted such other financial analyses, studies and investigations as Boenning deemed appropriate.

Boenning's opinion was given in reliance on information and representations made or given by First Merchants and Arlington Bank, and their respective officers, directors, auditors, counsel and other agents, and on filings, releases and other information issued by each of First Merchants and Arlington Bank including financial statements, financial projections, and stock price data as well as certain information from recognized independent sources. Boenning did not independently verify the information concerning First Merchants or Arlington Bank nor any other data Boenning considered in its review and, for purposes of its opinion, Boenning assumed and relied upon the accuracy and completeness of all such information and data. Boenning assumed that all forecasts and projections provided to it had been reasonably prepared and reflected the best currently available estimates and good faith judgments of the respective management teams of First Merchants and Arlington Bank as to their most likely future financial performance. Boenning expressed no opinion as to any financial projections or the assumptions on which they were based. Boenning did not conduct any valuation or appraisal of any assets or liabilities of First Merchants or Arlington Bank, nor have any such valuations or appraisals been provided to Boenning. Additionally, Boenning assumed that the Merger is, in all respects, lawful under applicable law.

With respect to anticipated transaction costs, purchase accounting adjustments, expected cost savings and other synergies and financial and other information relating to the general prospects of First Merchants and Arlington Bank, Boenning assumed that such information had been reasonably prepared and reflected the best currently available estimates and good faith judgments of the respective management teams of First Merchants and Arlington Bank as to their most likely future performance. Boenning further relied on the assurances of the respective management teams of First Merchants and Arlington Bank that they were not aware of any facts or circumstances that would make any of such information inaccurate or misleading. Boenning was not asked to and did not undertake an independent verification of any of such information and Boenning did not assume any responsibility or liability for the accuracy or completeness thereof. Boenning assumed that the allowance for loan losses indicated on the balance sheet of each of First Merchants and Arlington Bank was adequate to cover such losses; Boenning did not review individual loans or credit files of First Merchants and Arlington Bank. Boenning assumed that all of the representations and warranties contained in the Merger Agreement and all related agreements were true and correct, that each party under the agreements will perform all of the covenants required to be performed by such party under the agreements, and that the conditions precedent in the agreements were not waived. Also, in rendering its opinion, Boenning assumed that in the course of obtaining the necessary regulatory approvals for the consummation of the Merger no conditions will be imposed that will have a material adverse effect on the combined entity or contemplated benefits of the Merger, including the cost savings and related expenses expected to result from the Merger.

Boenning's opinion is based upon information provided to it by the respective management teams of First Merchants and Arlington Bank, as well as market, economic, financial and other conditions as they existed and could be evaluated only as of the date of its opinion and accordingly, it speaks to no other period. Boenning did not undertake to reaffirm or revise its opinion or otherwise comment on events occurring after the date of its opinion and did not have an obligation to update, revise or reaffirm its opinion. Boenning's opinion does not address the relative merits of the Merger or the other business strategies that Arlington Bank's board of directors has considered or may be considering, nor does it address the underlying business decision of Arlington Bank's board of directors to proceed with the Merger. Boenning's opinion is for the information of Arlington Bank's board of directors in connection with its evaluation of the Merger and does not constitute a recommendation to the board of directors of Arlington Bank in connection with the Merger or a recommendation to any shareholder of Arlington Bank as to how such shareholder should vote or act with respect to the Merger.

In connection with rendering its opinion, Boenning performed a variety of financial analyses that are summarized below. This summary does not purport to be a complete description of such analyses. Boenning believes that its analyses and the summary set forth herein must be considered as a whole and that selecting portions of such analyses and the factors considered therein, without considering all factors and analyses, could create an incomplete view of the analyses and processes underlying its opinion. The preparation of a fairness opinion is a complex process involving subjective judgments and is not necessarily susceptible to partial analysis or summary description. In arriving at its opinion, Boenning considered the results of all of its analyses as a whole and did not attribute any particular weight to any analyses or factors considered by it. The range of valuations resulting from any particular analysis described below should not be taken to be Boenning's view of the actual value of Arlington Bank.

In its analyses, Boenning made numerous assumptions with respect to industry performance, business and economic conditions, and other matters, many of which are beyond the control of Arlington Bank or First Merchants. Any estimates contained in Boenning's analyses are not necessarily indicative of actual future values or results, which may be significantly more or less favorable than suggested by such estimates. Estimates of values of companies do not purport to be appraisals or necessarily reflect the actual prices at which companies or their securities actually may be sold. No company or transaction utilized in Boenning's analyses was identical to Arlington Bank or First Merchants or the Merger. Accordingly, an analysis of the results described below is not mathematical; rather, it involves complex considerations and judgments concerning differences in financial and operating characteristics of the companies and other facts that could affect the public trading value of the companies to which they are being compared. None of the analyses performed by Boenning was assigned a greater significance by Boenning than any other, nor does the order of analyses described represent relative importance or weight given to those analyses by Boenning. The analyses described below do not purport to be indicative of actual future results, or to reflect the prices at which Arlington Bank's common stock or First Merchants' common stock may trade in the public markets, which may vary depending upon various factors, including changes in interest rates, dividend rates, market conditions, economic conditions and other factors that influence the price of securities.

In accordance with customary investment banking practice, Boenning employed generally accepted valuation methods in reaching its opinion. The following is a summary of the material financial analyses that Boenning used in providing its opinion on January 24, 2017. Some of the summaries of financial analyses are presented in tabular format. In order to understand the financial analyses used by Boenning more fully, you should read the tables together with the text of each summary. The tables alone do not constitute a complete description of Boenning's financial analyses, including the methodologies and assumptions underlying the analyses, and if viewed in isolation could create a misleading or incomplete view of the financial analyses performed by Boenning. The summary data set forth below do not represent and should not be viewed by anyone as constituting conclusions reached by Boenning with respect to any of the analyses performed by it in connection with its opinion. Rather, Boenning made its determination as to the fairness to the holders of Arlington Bank's common stock of the Exchange Ratio, from a financial point of view, on the basis of its experience and professional judgment after considering the results of all of the analyses performed. Accordingly, the data included in the summary tables and the corresponding imputed ranges of value for Arlington Bank should be considered as a whole and in the context of the full narrative description of all of the financial analyses set forth in the following pages, including the assumptions underlying these analyses. Considering the data included in the summary table without considering the full narrative description of all of the financial analyses, including the assumptions underlying these analyses, could create a misleading or incomplete view of the financial analyses performed by Boenning.

In connection with rendering its opinion and based upon the terms of the draft Agreement and Plan of Reorganization and Merger reviewed by it, Boenning assumed the effective aggregate indicated Merger Consideration to be $74.4 million and the per share Merger Consideration to be $97.51, based on First Merchants' closing stock price on January 23, 2017 of $35.79. For the basis of its analysis, Boenning considered Arlington Bank's financials as of November 30, 2016, as a $3.00 per share dividend declared in November led to a material difference between Arlington Bank's September 30, 2016 tangible book value per share and the November 30, 2016 tangible book value per share. The transaction pricing multiples for the Merger Consideration relative to September 30, 2016 financials (Arlington Bank's most recent publicly disclosed financial data) would have been as follows: price / book value and price / tangible book value of 211.9%, price / latest 12 months earnings per share of 18.7x, price / assets of 24.4%, core deposit premium of 19.2% and price / deposits of 28.7%.

Comparison of Selected Companies. Boenning reviewed and, as reflected in Table 1 below, compared the multiples and ratios of the offer price to Arlington Bank's book value, tangible book value, latest 12 months earnings per share, assets, tangible book premium to core deposits, and deposits, such multiples referred to herein as the pricing multiples, with the median pricing multiples for the current trading prices, after the application of a 30.0% assumed control premium, referred to as the adjusted trading price, of the common stock of a peer group of 16 selected public banks and thrifts with assets between $200 million and $800 million, tangible common equity / tangible assets between 10% and 15%, and latest 12 months core return on average equity between 10% and 17% and nonperforming assets / assets less than 2%, excluding merger targets. The 30.0% equity control premium is the median one day stock price premium for all bank and thrift merger and acquisition deals announced since January 1, 2000, based on data from SNL Financial.

Analysis of Bank Merger Transactions. Boenning analyzed certain information relating to recent transactions in the banking industry, consisting of (i) 20 Ohio bank and thrift transactions announced since January 1, 2014 with target assets greater than $100 million and disclosed pricing, referred to below as Group A; (ii) 15 bank and thrift deals announced since January 1, 2015 with target headquarters in a Midwestern metropolitan statistical area with a population of one million or more, assets between $100 million and $1 billion and disclosed pricing, excluding mergers of equals, referred to below as Group B; and (iii) 11 nationwide bank and thrift deals announced since January 1, 2014 with target assets less than $1 billion, tangible equity / tangible assets between 11% and 15%, latest 12 months return on average equity between 10% and 20%, and disclosed pricing, referred to below as Group C. In addition, Boenning also applied an adjustment to the pricing multiples from eight nationwide bank and thrift deals announced since January 1, 2016 with target assets less than $1 billion, tangible equity / tangible assets between 11% and 15%, latest 12 months return on average equity greater than 10% %, and disclosed pricing in order to reflect the recent increase in bank stock prices. The percentage increase in the SNL U.S. Bank and Thrift Index since the announcement of each transaction was applied to each transaction's aggregate deal value. The median increase for the selected transactions was 29.3%. This adjusted transaction group is referred to below as Group D. Boenning then reviewed and compared the pricing multiples of the offer price and the pricing multiples of the selected transaction values for Group A, Group B, Group C and Group D.

Discounted Cash Flow Analysis. Discounted cash flow analysis approximates the value of a share of stock to an acquiror by calculating the present value of the target's dividendable cash flow in perpetuity. This analysis assumed a short-term earnings growth rate of 5% and a long-term growth rate of 2%, as well as a short-term balance sheet growth rate of 4% and a long-term growth rate of 2%, based on guidance from Arlington Bank's management. The estimated cost savings of 35%, with 25% of that amount recognized in 2017 and 100% thereafter, transaction costs of $5.8 million pre-tax and gross credit mark of approximately $5.5 million (equal to $2.2 million net of Arlington Bank's loan loss reserve) were based on guidance provided by First Merchants. A discount rate of 13.5% was determined using the Capital Asset Pricing Model and the Build-Up Method, both of which take into account certain factors such as the current risk free rate, the beta of bank stocks compared to the broader market and the Ibbotson risk premiums for small, illiquid stocks and for commercial bank stocks, as well as comparable company returns on tangible common equity. The average of the three methods was approximately 13.5%. Sensitivity analyses for discount rates and cost savings ranged from 11.5% to 15.5% and 30% to 40%, respectively. The present value of Arlington Bank common shares calculated using discounted cash flow analysis ranged from $54.36 per share to $89.96 per share based on the cost savings estimates and discount rates used, compared to the offer price of $97.51 per share. This analysis does not purport to be indicative of actual future results and does not purport to reflect the prices at which Arlington Bank common shares may trade in the public markets. A discounted cash flow analysis was included because it is a widely used valuation methodology, but the results of such methodology are highly dependent upon the numerous assumptions that must be made, including earnings growth rates, dividend payout rates and discount rates.

Present Value Analysis. Applying present value analysis to Arlington Bank's theoretical future earnings, dividends and tangible book value, Boenning compared the offer price for one share of Arlington Bank's common stock to the present value of one share of Arlington Bank's common stock on a stand-alone basis. The analysis was based upon management's projected earnings growth, a range of assumed price / earnings ratios, a range of assumed price / tangible book value ratios and a 13.5% discount rate, which was determined using the Capital Asset Pricing Model and the Build-Up Method, both of which take into account certain factors such as the current risk free rate, the beta of bank stocks compared to the broader market and the Ibbotson risk premiums for small, illiquid stocks and for commercial bank stocks, as well as comparable company returns on tangible common equity. The average of the three methods was approximately 13.5%. The valuation was completed with a sensitivity analysis on the discount rate ranging from 11.5% to 15.5%. Boenning derived the terminal price / earnings multiple of 16.0x and terminal price / tangible book value multiple of 127.4% from the three-year median trading multiples of the SNL Bank < $500 Million Index as of January 23, 2017. Sensitivity analyses for terminal price / earnings and price / tangible book ranged from 10.2x to 21.8x and 101.7% to 153.1%, respectively, each representing two standard deviations above or below the median. The present value of Arlington Bank's common stock on a standalone basis is $48.36 to $107.19 per share based on price / earnings multiples, and $42.58 to $68.81 per share based on price / tangible book value multiples, compared to the offer price of $97.51 per share. This analysis does not purport to be indicative of actual future results and does not purport to reflect the prices at which shares of Arlington Bank's common stock may trade in the public markets. A present value analysis was included because it is a widely used valuation methodology, but the results of such methodology are highly dependent upon the numerous assumptions that must be made, including earnings growth rates, dividend payout rates and discount rates.

Pro Forma Merger Analysis. Boenning analyzed certain potential pro forma effects of the Merger, assuming the following: (i) the Merger is completed June 30, 2017; (ii) each share of Arlington Bank's common stock will be eligible to receive consideration of approximately $97.51 in First Merchants stock (based on an exchange ratio of 2.7425); (iii) estimated pre-tax cost savings of approximately 35% of Arlington Bank's non-interest expense on an annual basis ($2.2 million after-tax), recognized 25% in 2017 and 100% in 2018; (iv) estimated one-time transaction-related costs of approximately $5.8 million pre-tax are expensed prior to closing; (v) Arlington Bank performance was calculated in accordance with Arlington Bank management's earnings forecasts; (vi) First Merchants' performance was calculated in accordance with First Merchants management's earnings forecasts; and (vii) certain other assumptions pertaining to costs and expenses associated with the transaction, intangible amortization, opportunity cost of cash and other items. The analyses indicated that the Merger (excluding transaction expenses) would be neutral to the combined company's projected earnings per share in 2017, accretive to the combined company's projected earnings per share for the full year 2018 and accretive to Arlington Bank's per share equivalent earnings and tangible book value for 2017 and the full year 2018. Additionally, the combined company's regulatory capital ratios would exceed regulatory guidelines for "well capitalized." The actual results achieved by the combined company may vary from projected results and the variations may be material.

As described above, Boenning's opinion was just one of the many factors taken into consideration by the Arlington Bank board of directors in making its determination to approve the Merger.

Boenning, as part of its investment banking business, regularly is engaged in the valuation of assets, securities and companies in connection with various types of asset and security transactions, including mergers, acquisitions, private placements, public offerings and valuations for various other purposes, and in the determination of adequate consideration in such transactions. In the ordinary course of Boenning's business as a broker-dealer, it may, from time to time, purchase securities from, and sell securities to, First Merchants, Arlington Bank, and/or their respective affiliates. In the ordinary course of business, Boenning may also actively trade the securities of First Merchants and Arlington Bank for its own account and/or for the accounts of customers and accordingly may at any time hold a long or short position in such securities.

Boenning is acting as Arlington Bank's financial advisor in connection with the Merger and will receive a customary fee for its services, a significant portion of which is contingent upon consummation of the Merger. Boenning also received a fee for rendering the fairness opinion. Boenning's fee for rendering the fairness opinion was not contingent upon any conclusion that Boenning reached or upon completion of the Merger. The Company has also agreed to indemnify Boenning against certain liabilities that may arise out of Boenning's engagement.

Prior Engagements by First Merchants and Arlington Bank. Except for the arrangements between Boenning and Arlington Bank described in the preceding paragraph, Boenning has not had any material relationship with either First Merchants or Arlington Bank during the past two years in which compensation was received or was intended to be received. Boenning may provide services to First Merchants in the future (and/or to Arlington Bank if the Merger is not consummated), although as of the date of Boenning's opinion, there was no agreement to do so nor any mutual understanding that such services are contemplated.

Boenning's opinion was approved by Boenning's fairness opinion committee. Boenning did not express any opinion as to the fairness of the amount or nature of the compensation to be received in the Merger by any of the officers, directors, or employees of any party to the Merger Agreement, or any class of such persons, relative to the compensation to be received by the holders of Arlington Bank's common stock in the Merger.

Recommendation of the Arlington Bank Board of Directors

The Board of Directors of Arlington Bank has carefully considered, unanimously approved and adopted the Merger Agreement, and unanimously recommends to the Arlington Bank shareholders that they approve the Merger Agreement.

Rights of Dissenting Shareholders

The shareholders of Arlington Bank are entitled to certain dissenters' rights pursuant to Sections 1701.84(A) and 1701.85 of the Ohio General Corporation Law (the "OGCL"). Section 1701.85 generally provides that shareholders of Arlington Bank will not be entitled to such rights without strict compliance with the procedures set forth in Section 1701.85, and failure to take any one of the required steps may result in the termination or waiver of such rights. Specifically, any Arlington Bank shareholder who is a record holder of Arlington Bank common shares on [●], 2017, the record date for the special meeting, and whose shares are not voted in favor of the adoption of the Merger Agreement may be entitled to be paid the "fair cash value" of such Arlington Bank shares after the effective time of the Merger. To be entitled to such payment, a shareholder must deliver to Arlington Bank a written demand for payment of the fair cash value of the common shares held by such shareholder, before the vote on the Merger Proposal is taken, the shareholder must not vote in favor of approval and adoption of the Merger Agreement, and the shareholder must otherwise comply with Section 1701.85. An Arlington Bank shareholder's failure to vote against the adoption and approval of the Merger Agreement will not constitute a waiver of such shareholder's dissenters' rights. Any written demand must specify the shareholder's name and address, the number of shares held by him, her or it on the record date, and the amount claimed as the "fair cash value" of such Arlington Bank common shares. See the text of Section 1701.85 of the OGCL attached as Annex B to this proxy statement and prospectus for specific information on the procedures to be followed in exercising dissenters' rights.

If Arlington Bank so requests, dissenting shareholders must submit their share certificates to Arlington Bank within 15 days of such request, for endorsement on such certificates by Arlington Bank that a demand for appraisal has been made. Failure to comply with such request will terminate the dissenting shareholders' rights. Such certificates will be promptly returned to the dissenting shareholders by Arlington Bank. If Arlington Bank and any dissenting shareholder cannot agree upon the "fair cash value" of Arlington Bank's shares, either may, within three months after service of demand by the shareholder, file a petition in the Court of Common Pleas of Franklin County, Ohio, for a determination of the "fair cash value" of such dissenting shareholder's Arlington Bank shares. The fair cash value of an Arlington Bank share to which a dissenting shareholder is entitled to under Section 1701.85 will be determined as of the day prior to the vote of the Arlington Bank shareholders. Investment banker opinions to company boards of directors regarding the fairness from a financial point of view of the consideration payable in a transaction such as the Merger are not opinions regarding, and do not address, "fair cash value" under Section 1701.85.

If an Arlington Bank shareholder exercises his, her or its dissenters' rights under Section 1701.85, all other rights with respect to such shareholder's Arlington Bank shares will be suspended until Arlington Bank purchases the shares, or the right to receive the fair cash value is otherwise terminated. Such rights will be reinstated should the right to receive the fair cash value be terminated other than by the purchase of the shares.

The foregoing description of the procedures to be followed in exercising dissenters' rights available to holders of Arlington Bank's shares pursuant to Section 1701.85 of the OGCL may not be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of Section 1701.85 attached as Annex B to this proxy statement and prospectus.

If you wish to exercise dissenters' rights with respect to the Merger and you fail to comply with the statutory requirements for exercising dissenters' rights, you will lose such rights. Accordingly, Arlington Bank shareholders who may wish to exercise dissenters' rights should consider seeking legal counsel.

Registration of First Merchants Common Stock

Shares of First Merchants common stock to be issued to Arlington Bank shareholders in the Merger will be registered under the Securities Act. These shares may be traded freely without restriction by those Arlington Bank shareholders not considered to be "affiliates" of First Merchants under the Securities Act after the Merger is complete. At the present time, there are no persons involved in the management of Arlington Bank who are anticipated to be an "affiliate" of First Merchants after the Merger.

Regulatory Approvals

The Merger cannot be completed until First Merchants Bank receives necessary regulatory approvals, which include the approval of the Indiana Department of Financial Institutions (the "Indiana DFI") and the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (the "FDIC"). On February 24, 2017, First Merchants Bank filed applications with both the Indiana DFI and the FDIC, but cannot be certain when or if such approval will be obtained.

After the FDIC's approval is received, the Bank Merger cannot be completed for 30 days. During this 30-day waiting period, the United States Department of Justice has the authority to challenge the Bank Merger on antitrust grounds. With the approval of the FDIC and the Department of Justice, the waiting period can be reduced to 15 days.

The approval of the Indiana DFI and the FDIC is not the opinion of the regulatory authorities that the Merger is favorable to the Arlington Bank and First Merchants shareholders from a financial point of view or that the Indiana DFI or the FDIC has considered the adequacy of the terms of the Merger. The approvals in no way constitute an endorsement or a recommendation of the Merger by the FDIC.

Effective Date of the Merger

The Merger will be consummated if the Merger Proposal is approved by the Arlington Bank shareholders, all required consents and approvals are obtained and all other conditions to the Merger are either satisfied or waived. The Merger will become effective when Articles of Merger are filed with the Secretary of State of Indiana or at such later date and time as may be specified in the Articles of Merger. The closing of the Merger will likely occur in the month in which any applicable waiting period following the last approval of the Merger expires or on such other date as agreed to by the parties. We currently anticipate that the Merger will be completed during the second quarter of 2017. However, completion of the Merger could be delayed if there is a delay in obtaining the required shareholder or regulatory approvals or in satisfying the other conditions to completion of the Merger. Arlington Bank and First Merchants have the right, subject to certain conditions, to terminate the Merger Agreement if the Merger is not completed by December 31, 2017.

The NASDAQ Global Select Market Listing

First Merchants will file a notification with The NASDAQ Global Select Market regarding the issuance of First Merchants common stock in the Merger. Following the Merger, the First Merchants shares issued to Arlington Bank shareholders will be listed on The NASDAQ Global Select Market.

Registration Statement

First Merchants has filed a Registration Statement on Form S-4 with the SEC in order to register the shares of First Merchants common stock to be issued pursuant to the Merger under the Securities Act. Because First Merchants common stock is listed on The NASDAQ Global Select Market, it is exempt from the statutory registration requirements of each state in the United States. Therefore, First Merchants has not taken any steps to register its stock under state laws.

Interests of Certain Persons in the Merger

When considering the recommendation of the Arlington Bank Board of Directors, you should be aware that certain of the directors and officers of Arlington Bank have interests in the Merger other than their interests as Arlington Bank shareholders, pursuant to certain agreements and understandings that are set forth in the Merger Agreement. These interests are different from, or in conflict with, your interests as Arlington Bank shareholders. The members of the Arlington Bank Board of Directors and the First Merchants Board of Directors were aware of these additional interests, and considered them, when they approved the Merger Agreement. Except as described below, to the knowledge of Arlington Bank, the officers and directors of Arlington Bank do not have any material interest in the Merger apart from their interests as shareholders.

- Arlington Bank has employment agreements with each of Thomas C. Westfall, President, Natalie Karas, Senior Vice President and Nona Durham, Treasurer, that provide for each such executive officer to receive, following a change in control, a multiple of the executive's compensation prior to the change in control, subject to certain limitations. Under these agreements, such executive officers would be entitled to receive an aggregate of approximately $1,330,000.
- Under the terms of the Merger Agreement, all Arlington Bank stock options that are outstanding and unexercised immediately prior to the Merger will be converted into the right to receive cash in an amount equal to (a) the excess, if any, of (i) the Exchange Ratio multiplied by the average closing price of First Merchants common stock for the ten (10) trading days preceding the fourth calendar day prior to the date of the Merger, over (ii) the per share exercise price of such Arlington Bank stock option, multiplied by (b) the number of Arlington Bank common shares subject to such stock option. Based upon the First Merchants' closing stock price of $36.46 on January 24, 2017, the business day before the Merger was publicly announced, the executive officers of Arlington Bank (including Ms. Karas and Ms. Durham) would receive an aggregate of approximately $131,720 upon conversion of their stock options.
- Mr. Westfall and Ms. Karas will each receive restricted shares of First Merchants common stock under First Merchants 2009 Long-Term Equity Incentive Plan (having a value of $75,000 and $25,000, respectively) if they are employed by First Merchants Bank upon the effective date of the Merger.
- First Merchants has agreed that for a period of six (6) years after the effective time of the Merger, it will maintain directors' and officers' liability insurance in force for the directors and officers of Arlington Bank and indemnify those persons, subject to certain conditions in the Merger Agreement.

THE MERGER AGREEMENT

The following summary highlights certain material provisions of the Merger Agreement. Because this is a summary of the Merger Agreement, it does not contain a description of all of the terms of the Merger Agreement and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Merger Agreement. You should read carefully the entire Merger Agreement, which is attached to this document as Annex A and is incorporated herein by reference.

Conditions to Completion of the Merger

First Merchants' and Arlington Bank's obligations to complete the Merger are subject to the satisfaction of the following conditions, among other things, at or prior to the effective time of the Merger:

1. the approval of the Merger Agreement at the special meeting by a majority of the issued and outstanding Arlington Bank common shares;

3. the representations and warranties made by the parties in the Merger Agreement must be true, accurate and correct in all material respects on and as of the effective date of the Merger, except that representations and warranties that are qualified by materiality or a Material Adverse Effect (as defined below) must be true and correct in all respects, and provided that for those representations and warranties which address matters only as of an earlier date, then they shall be tested as of such earlier date. For the purpose of the Merger Agreement, a "Material Adverse Effect" means any effect, circumstance, occurrence or change that (i) is material and adverse to the financial position, results of operations or business of Arlington Bank, or First Merchants and First Merchants Bank taken as a whole, as applicable, or (ii) would materially impair the ability of Arlington Bank, First Merchants or First Merchants Bank, as applicable, to perform its obligations under the Merger Agreement; provided, however, that a Material Adverse Effect shall not be deemed to include the impact of (a) changes in banking and similar laws of general applicability to banks or their holding companies or interpretations thereof by courts or governmental authorities, (b) changes in generally accepted accounting principles ("GAAP") or regulatory accounting requirements applicable to banks or their holding companies generally, (c) any modifications or changes to valuation policies and practices in connection with the Merger or restructuring charges taken in connection with the Merger, in each case in accordance with GAAP, (d) effects of any action taken with the prior written consent of the other party hereto, (e) changes in the general level of interest rates (including the impact on the securities portfolios of Arlington Bank, or First Merchants and First Merchants Bank, as applicable) or conditions or circumstances relating to or that affect either the United States economy, financial or securities markets or the banking industry, generally, (f) changes resulting from expenses (such as legal, accounting and investment bankers' fees) incurred in connection with the Merger Agreement or the transactions contemplated therein, including without limitation payment of any amounts due to, or the provision of any benefits to, any officers or employees under agreements, plans or other arrangements in existence of or contemplated by the Merger Agreement and disclosed to First Merchants, (g) the impact of the announcement of the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, and compliance with the Merger Agreement on the business, financial condition or results of operations of Arlington

Bank, or First Merchants and First Merchants Bank, as applicable and (h) the occurrence of any military or terrorist attack within the United States or any of its possessions or offices; provided that in no event shall a change in the trading price of the First Merchants common stock, by itself, be considered to constitute a Material Adverse Effect on First Merchants (it being understood that the foregoing proviso shall not prevent or otherwise affect a determination that any effect underlying such decline has resulted in a Material Adverse Effect);

4. the covenants made by the parties must have been complied with in all material respects from the date of the Merger Agreement through and as of the effective date of the Merger;

9. there must be no order, decree or injunction of a court or agency of competent jurisdiction which enjoins or prohibits the consummation of the Merger; and
10. receipt by each party of an officer’s certificate, certain legal opinions and various closing documents.

The conditions to completion of the Merger are subject to waiver by the party benefiting from such condition. The conditions may also be altered by the written agreement of both parties. If these and other conditions are not satisfied or waived, First Merchants and/or Arlington Bank may terminate the Merger Agreement. See “THE MERGER AGREEMENT—Termination; Waiver; Amendment,” “THE MERGER—Regulatory Approvals,” “THE MERGER—Interests of Certain Persons in the Merger,” “MATERIAL U.S. FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES,” and Annex A.

 - (i) the FMC Market Value is less than 80% of the Initial FMC Market Value; and
 - (ii) the quotient obtained by dividing the FMC Market Value by the Initial FMC Market Value ("Buyer Ratio") shall be less than the quotient obtained by dividing the Final Index Price by the Initial Index Price, minus 0.20 (the "Index Ratio").

If Arlington Bank elects to exercise its termination right pursuant to this clause 12, it must give prompt written notice thereof to First Merchants. During the five (5) business day period commencing with its receipt of such notice, First Merchants shall have the option to increase the Exchange Ratio, at its sole discretion, to (x) the quotient, the numerator of which is equal to the product of the Initial FMC Market Value, the Exchange Ratio (as then in effect) and the Index Ratio, and the denominator of which is equal to the FMC Market Value, or (y) the quotient determined by dividing the Initial FMC Market Value by the FMC Market Value, and multiplying the quotient by the product of the Exchange Ratio (as then in effect) and 0.80. If First Merchants so elects, it shall give, within such five (5) business day period, written notice to Arlington Bank of such election and the revised Exchange Ratio, whereupon no termination shall be deemed to have occurred pursuant to this Section 10.1(i) and this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect in accordance with its terms, except as the Exchange Ratio shall have been so modified.

For purposes of this clause 12, the following terms shall have the meanings indicated below:

Upon termination for any of these reasons, the Merger Agreement will be void and of no further force or effect. However, if either First Merchants or Arlington Bank willfully breaches any of the representations and warranties or agreements set forth in the Merger Agreement, then the other party will be entitled to recover appropriate damages for the breach. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if First Merchants terminates the Merger Agreement under items 9, 10 or 11 above or if Arlington Bank terminates the Merger Agreement in accordance with item 8 above, Arlington Bank must pay First Merchants $3,000,000 as a termination fee to reimburse First Merchants for the considerable time and expense invested by First Merchants in furtherance of the Merger.

First Merchants and Arlington Bank can agree to amend the Merger Agreement and can waive their right to require the other party to adhere to the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement, where the law allows. However, First Merchants and Arlington Bank cannot amend the Merger Agreement after the Arlington Bank shareholders approve the Merger without their further approval if the amendment would decrease the Merger consideration or materially adversely affect the rights of Arlington Bank shareholders or the tax consequences of the Merger to the shareholders of Arlington Bank.

Fees and Expenses

First Merchants and Arlington Bank will pay their own fees, costs, and expenses incurred in connection with the Merger, including the fees of any investment bankers engaged by such party.

Management After the Merger

First Merchants Bank will be the surviving corporation in the Merger and Arlington Bank's separate corporate existence will cease. Accordingly, the directors and officers of Arlington Bank will no longer serve in such capacities after the completion of the Merger.

The directors of First Merchants and First Merchants Bank immediately prior to the Merger will continue to be the directors of First Merchants and First Merchants Bank following the Merger until they resign or until their respective successors are duly elected and qualified.

The officers of First Merchants and First Merchants Bank immediately prior to the Merger will continue to be the officers of First Merchants and First Merchants Bank following the Merger until they resign or until their successors are duly elected and qualified.

Indemnification and Insurance of Arlington Bank Directors and Officers

First Merchants has agreed to indemnify and hold harmless each director and officer of Arlington Bank for six (6) years after the effective time of the Merger in connection with any losses arising out of the fact that any such person is or was a director or officer of Arlington Bank at or prior to the effective time of the Merger to the same extent as would have been available under the articles of incorporation, bylaws or other indemnification agreement of Arlington Bank.

In addition, First Merchants has agreed to use its reasonable best efforts to include Arlington Bank's present and former directors and officers on its existing insurance, or to obtain directors' and officers' liability insurance "tail" policy coverage for Arlington Bank's present and former directors and executive officers, for a period of 6 years, which will provide the directors and officers with coverage containing terms no less advantageous than the coverage currently provided by Arlington Bank to such directors and officers for claims based on activity prior to the effective time of the Merger. However, First Merchants has no obligation during the 6-year period to pay an aggregate amount in excess of $25,000 to maintain Arlington Bank's current directors' and officers' insurance coverage. If First Merchants is unable to obtain the coverage described above, First Merchants has agreed to use its reasonable best efforts to obtain as much comparable insurance as is available.

After the Merger, Arlington Bank's officers and employees who become officers, directors or employees of First Merchants or its subsidiaries shall have the same directors and officers insurance coverage and indemnification protection that First Merchants provides to other officers, directors and employees of First Merchants or its subsidiaries.

Employee Benefit Plans

The Merger Agreement provides that the current employees of Arlington Bank who continue as employees of First Merchants or its subsidiaries following the Merger will be entitled to participate in the employee benefit plans of First Merchants. In addition, the Merger Agreement requires First Merchants, to the extent necessary, to amend each of its employee benefit plans in which former Arlington Bank employees are to participate so that service of such employees with Arlington Bank will be treated as service with First Merchants for eligibility, vesting, vacation and severance entitlement purposes under such plans, but not for benefit accrual except with respect to severance benefits.

Voting Agreement

Each member of the Board of Directors has entered into a voting agreement with First Merchants as of the date of the Merger Agreement whereby the parties have agreed, subject to their fiduciary duties to entertain a superior third-party acquisition proposal under the Merger Agreement, to vote, or cause to be voted, all of their Arlington Bank common shares and shares owned by certain affiliates over which they have voting control in favor of the Merger Proposal. The number of shares of common stock subject to this agreement is 276,258 Arlington Bank common shares outstanding, representing 36.28% of the outstanding shares on that date.

MATERIAL U.S. FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES

The following is a general discussion of the material federal income tax consequences of the Merger to U.S. Holders (as hereinafter defined) of Arlington Bank common shares that exchange their Arlington Bank common shares for shares of First Merchants common stock. The following discussion is based on current provisions of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Internal Revenue Code"), the Treasury Regulations promulgated thereunder, published pronouncements of the Internal Revenue Service (the "IRS") and case law, all as currently in effect and which are subject to differing interpretations and subject to change at any time by legislative, judicial or administrative action, possibly with retroactive effect. This discussion is limited to U.S. Holders, who hold their Arlington Bank common shares as capital assets for U.S. federal income tax purposes (generally, assets held for investment).

This discussion does not address the federal income tax consequences of shareholders who are not U.S. Holders, nor does it address all of the tax consequences relevant to certain U.S. Holders including, but not limited to, S corporations, partnerships or other pass-through entities (including investors in pass-through entities), financial institutions, insurance companies, tax-exempt organizations, trusts described in sections 1361(c)(2)(A) and 1361(d) of the Internal Revenue Code, dealers in securities or currencies, traders in securities that use a mark to market method of accounting, persons who hold Arlington Bank common shares as part of a straddle, hedge, constructive sale conversion or other integrated transaction, persons who acquired their Arlington Bank common shares through the exercise of an employee stock option or otherwise as compensation or through a tax-qualified plan, regulated investment companies, real estate investment trusts and foreign persons or persons whose "functional currency" is not the U.S. dollar. This discussion also does not address the tax consequences of persons who are subject to alternative minimum tax, nor does it address the tax consequences of the Merger under state, local or foreign tax laws.

All U.S. Holders including, but not limited to, the U.S. Holders referenced immediately above, should consult their own tax advisors about the tax consequences of the Merger to them.

For purposes of this discussion, the term "U.S. Holder" means a beneficial owner of Arlington Bank common shares that for U.S. federal income tax purposes is an individual who is a citizen or resident of the U.S., a corporation or entity taxed as a corporation that was organized under the laws of the U.S. or any state or the District of Columbia, an estate the income of which is subject to U.S. federal income tax regardless of its source, or a trust that (i) is subject to the supervision of a court within the U.S. and the control of one or more U.S. Persons (as hereinafter defined) or (ii) has a valid election in effect under applicable Treasury Regulations to be treated as a U.S. Person. For purposes of this discussion, "U.S. Person" shall have the meaning ascribed to it by section 7701(a)(30) of the Internal Revenue Code.

Tax Consequences of the Merger Generally

The parties intend for the Merger to qualify as a "reorganization" under section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code for U.S. federal income tax purposes. It is a condition to the obligation of First Merchants to complete the Merger that First Merchants obtain an opinion from the law firm of Bingham Greenebaum Doll LLP that the Merger to be effected pursuant to the Merger Agreement constitutes a reorganization under section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code.

It is a condition to the obligation of Arlington Bank to complete the Merger that Arlington Bank receive a letter from the law firm of Bingham Greenebaum Doll LLP addressed to the shareholders of Arlington Bank, dated as of the effective date of the Merger, to the effect that such shareholders may rely on the opinion referenced in the preceding sentence.

The obligation of Bingham Greenebaum Doll LLP to deliver such opinion and reliance letter is conditioned on the Merger satisfying the statutory and regulatory requirements of a "reorganization." The determination by tax counsel as to whether the Merger will be treated as a "reorganization" within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code is based on the facts and law existing as of the effective date of the Merger.

This opinion will be subject to customary qualifications and assumptions, including that the Merger will be completed according to the terms of the Merger Agreement. In rendering the tax opinion, such counsel may require and rely on factual representations of First Merchants and Arlington Bank. If any of such assumptions or representations is or becomes inaccurate, the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the Merger could be adversely affected. Neither the opinion nor the reliance letter will be binding on the IRS. First Merchants and Arlington Bank do not intend to request any ruling from the IRS as to the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the Merger. Consequently, no assurance can be given that the IRS will not assert, or that a court will not sustain, a position contrary to any of the tax consequences set forth below or any of the tax consequences described in the tax opinion.

Tax Consequences to First Merchants, First Merchants Shareholders and Arlington Bank

No gain or loss will be recognized by First Merchants, First Merchants shareholders or Arlington Bank with respect to the Merger.

Tax Consequences of the Merger to U.S. Holders of Arlington Bank Common Stock

In general, a U.S. Holder who receives First Merchants common stock in exchange for Arlington Bank common shares will not recognize any gain or loss on the exchange for U.S. federal income tax purposes, except with respect to cash received in lieu of fractional shares of First Merchants common stock (as discussed below). The aggregate tax basis of First Merchants common stock received by a U.S. Holder in exchange for their Arlington Bank common shares (including any fractional shares of First Merchants common stock deemed received and redeemed for cash as described below) will be equal to the U.S. Holder's aggregate adjusted tax basis in their Arlington Bank common shares exchanged. In addition, the holding period of the First Merchants common stock received in the Merger (including any fractional shares of First Merchants common stock deemed received and redeemed for cash as described below) generally will include the holding period of Arlington Bank common shares surrendered in the exchange. If a U.S. Holder acquired different blocks of Arlington Bank common shares at different times or at different prices, the First Merchants common stock received in the Merger will be allocated pro rata to each block of Arlington Bank common shares, and the basis and holding period of each block of First Merchants common stock received will be determined on a block-for-block basis depending on the basis and holding period of the blocks of Arlington Bank common shares exchanged for such block of First Merchants common stock.

A U.S. Holder who receives cash in lieu of fractional shares of First Merchants common stock will be treated as having received such fractional share of First Merchants common stock pursuant to the Merger and then as having sold that fractional share of First Merchants common stock for cash. As a result, a U.S. Holder will generally recognize gain or loss equal to the difference between the amount of cash received and the U.S. Holder's basis in the fractional share of First Merchants common stock determined as described above. Any resultant gain or loss will be capital in nature, and will be long-term or short-term, depending on the period of time the exchanged Arlington Bank common shares were held. The deductibility of capital losses is subject to limitations.

Information Reporting and Backup Withholding

Cash payments received in the Merger by a U.S. Holder may, under certain circumstances, be subject to information reporting and backup withholding, unless the U.S. Holder provides proof of an applicable exemption, furnishes its taxpayer identification number (in the case of individuals, their social security number) and otherwise complies with all applicable requirements of the backup withholding rules. Any amounts withheld from payments to a U.S. Holder under the backup withholding rules are not an additional tax and will be allowed as a refund or credit against the U.S. Holder's U.S. federal income tax liability, provided the required information is timely furnished to the IRS.

Reporting Requirements

U.S. Holders who are “significant holders” and receive First Merchants common stock in exchange for Arlington Bank common shares are required to file a statement with their U.S. federal income tax return setting forth certain information, including, but not limited to, their tax basis (determined immediately before the Merger) in the Arlington Bank common shares exchanged in the Merger and the fair market value (determined immediately before the Merger) of the Arlington Bank common shares exchanged in the Merger. A “significant holder” is a holder of Arlington Bank stock who immediately before the Merger (i) owned at least 1% of the total outstanding stock of Arlington Bank by vote or by value or (ii) owned stock of Arlington Bank with a tax basis of at least $1 million.

All Arlington Bank shareholders will be required to retain permanent tax records of the tax basis of Arlington Bank common shares exchanged and the First Merchants common stock and cash received in the Merger.

This discussion is of a general nature only, is not exhaustive, and is not intended to be, nor should it be construed to be, legal or tax advice to any particular shareholder. Because of the complexity of the tax law and because of the unique tax consequences to the shareholders following the Merger, each shareholder is strongly urged to consult such shareholder’s own tax advisor as to the particular tax consequences to such shareholder of the Merger, including the applicability and effect of federal, state, local, foreign and other tax laws in such shareholder’s particular circumstances.

Generally, First Merchants may not pay a dividend if, after giving effect to the dividend:

- First Merchants would not be able to pay its debts as they become due in the usual course of business; or
- First Merchants' total assets would be less than the sum of its total liabilities plus the amount that would be needed to satisfy preferential rights of shareholders payable upon dissolution.

The amount of dividends, if any, that may be declared by First Merchants in the future will necessarily depend upon many factors, including, among other things, future earnings, capital requirements, business conditions and capital levels of subsidiaries (since First Merchants is primarily dependent upon dividends paid by its subsidiaries for revenues), the discretion of First Merchants' Board of Directors and other factors that may be appropriate in determining dividend policies.

First Merchants Bank may pay cash dividends to First Merchants on its common stock only out of adjusted retained net profits for the year in which the dividend is paid and the two preceding years.

First Merchants Bank will ordinarily be restricted to paying dividends in a lesser amount to First Merchants than is legally permissible because of the need for the banks to maintain adequate capital consistent with the capital adequacy guidelines promulgated by the banks' principal federal regulatory authorities. If a bank's capital levels are deemed inadequate by the regulatory authorities, payment of dividends to its parent holding company may be prohibited. First Merchants Bank is not currently subject to such a restriction.

Arlington Bank

The holders of Arlington Bank common shares are entitled to dividends and other distributions when, as and if declared by its Board of Directors.

Generally, Arlington Bank may not pay a dividend if, after giving effect to the dividend:

- Arlington Bank would not be able to pay its debts as they become due in the usual course of business; or
- Arlington Bank's total assets would be less than the sum of its total liabilities plus its stated capital.

Voting Rights

The holders of the outstanding shares of common stock of First Merchants and Arlington Bank are entitled to one vote per share on all matters presented for shareholder vote. First Merchants shareholders do not have cumulative voting rights in the election of directors. Arlington Bank shareholders may vote cumulatively in the election of directors pursuant to the OGCL.

Articles of Incorporation, Bylaw and Constitution Amendments

First Merchants

Indiana law generally requires shareholder approval for most amendments to a corporation's articles of incorporation by a majority of a quorum at a shareholder's meeting (and, in certain cases, a majority of all shares held by any voting group entitled to vote). However, Indiana law permits a corporation in its articles of incorporation to specify a higher shareholder vote requirement for certain amendments. First Merchants' Articles of Incorporation require a super-majority shareholder vote of 75% of its outstanding shares of common stock for the amendment of certain significant provisions and a majority of its outstanding shares for all other amendments. See "COMPARISON OF COMMON STOCK—Number of Directors and Term of Office," "COMPARISON OF COMMON STOCK—Removal of Directors," and "COMPARISON OF COMMON STOCK—Anti-Takeover Provisions."

Indiana law permits a board of directors to amend a corporation's bylaws unless the articles of incorporation provide otherwise. First Merchants' Bylaws may generally be amended by an affirmative vote of a majority of the entire Board of Directors. However, several provisions of First Merchants' Bylaws require two-thirds (2/3) vote of the entire Board of Directors to approve amendments, including the provision regarding removal of directors and setting the number and classes of directors. In addition, First Merchants' Articles of Incorporation provide that its Bylaws may not be amended to repeal, modify or amend certain provisions of its Articles of Incorporation.

Arlington Bank

The shareholders of Arlington Bank shall have the right to amend, alter, change or repeal any provision contained in the Articles of Incorporation to the extent and in the manner permitted or prescribed by the OGCL and the Ohio Savings Bank Law. The OGCL generally requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of shares entitled to vote on a specific matter. However, the Articles of Incorporation of Arlington Bank require the approval by holders exercising not less than 80% of the voting power of Arlington Bank for an amendment to the Articles of Incorporation unless the proposed amendment is recommended by not less than two-thirds (2/3) of the whole authorized number of directors of Arlington Bank.

As an Ohio savings bank, Arlington Bank has a "Constitution" which governs certain aspects of its operations and structure. The Constitution of Arlington Bank may be amended, or a new Constitution added by the shareholders at a meeting held for such purpose by the affirmative vote of the shareholders of record entitled to exercise a majority of the voting power of Arlington Bank on such proposal or, without a meeting, by the written consent of the shareholders of record entitled to exercise two-thirds (2/3) of the voting power of Arlington Bank on such proposal. Special procedures apply if the Constitution is to be amended or a new Constitution proposed for adoption without a meeting of shareholders.

The Arlington Bank Bylaws provide that the Board of Directors shall have the exclusive power to amend the Bylaws of the Arlington Bank by the affirmative vote of a two-third (2/3) of the number of directors then in attendance at a meeting to consider the same, except as provided by the OGCL.

Special Meetings of Shareholders

First Merchants

First Merchants' Bylaws provide that a special meeting of shareholders may be called by the Board of Directors, the President, at the written request of a majority of the Board of Directors or at the written request of shareholders holding at least one-fourth (1/4) of all

Arlington Bank

The Arlington Bank Constitution provides that a meeting of shareholders may be called only by the Chairman of the Board; the President, or in the case of the President's absence, death or disability, the Vice President authorized to exercise the authority of shares outstanding and entitled to vote on business for which the meeting is called.

the President; the Secretary; the Board of Directors by action at a meeting, or a majority of the directors acting without a meeting; or the holders of at least fifty percent (50%) of all shares outstanding and entitled to vote at the proposed meeting.

Number of Directors and Term of Office

First Merchants

First Merchants' Articles of Incorporation provide that the number of directors shall be set in the Bylaws by the Board of Directors and shall be at least 9 and no more than 15. First Merchants' Articles of Incorporation also provide for classes of directors with staggered terms. Amendment of this provision of First Merchants' Articles of Incorporation requires the approval of three-fourths (3/4) of the voting stock. First Merchants' Bylaws specify that the number of directors is 10. The Bylaws provide that the number of directors may be amended only by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the entire Board of Directors. Consistent with its Articles of Incorporation, First Merchants' Bylaws provide that the Board of Directors is divided into 3 classes with 4 directors in 1 of the classes and 3 directors in the other 2 classes. The directors in each class are elected for 3-year staggered terms. Thus, approximately only one-third (1/3) of First Merchants' Board of Directors is elected at each annual meeting of shareholders. Because First Merchants' Board of Directors is divided into classes, a majority of First Merchants' directors can be replaced only after 2 annual meetings of shareholders. A two-thirds (2/3) vote of the entire Board of Directors is required to amend this provision of First Merchants' Bylaws.

Arlington Bank

The Articles of Incorporation of Arlington Bank provide that the number of directors shall consist of at least five (5) and not more than fifteen (15) directors. The number of directors of Arlington Bank may be fixed or changed at a shareholders meeting in accordance with the Articles of Incorporation or by the Board of Directors by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the authorized number of directors; provided that the directors may not change the number of directors by more than two. Each director shall be elected for a term of office to expire at the annual meeting of shareholders following his election. Despite the expiration of a director's term, he shall continue to serve until his successor is elected and qualified. The directors are divided into two classes, with the election of each class in a separate election. Successors to the class of directors whose term expires at each annual meeting shall be elected for a two-year term. A director shall hold office until the annual meeting for the year in which his term expires and until his successor shall be elected and shall qualify subject, however, to his earlier death, resignation, retirement, disqualification, or removal from office.

Nomination of Directors

First Merchants

Under First Merchants' Bylaws, only the Nominating and Governance Committee of the Board of Directors may nominate a candidate for the Board of Directors. Shareholders may suggest a person for nomination by sending a notice to the Committee setting forth at a minimum:

- the name and address of each suggested nominee;
- the age and principal occupation of each suggested nominee;
- the total number of shares of First Merchants capital stock held by the notifying shareholder; and

Arlington Bank

The Arlington Bank Articles of Incorporation provide that any nominee for election as a director may be proposed only by or at the direction of the Board of Directors or by any shareholder entitled to vote for the election of directors. Nominations, other than those made by or at the direction of the Board of Directors, shall be made in writing and meet certain notice requirements, including setting forth the following information to the extent known to the notifying shareholder:

- the name and address of each proposed nominee;
- the principal occupation of each proposed nominee;

Table of Contents

- the name and residence address of the notifying shareholder.
- the total number of shares of capital stock of Arlington Bank that will be voted for each proposed nominee;
- the name and residence address of the notifying shareholder; and
- the number of shares of capital stock of Arlington Bank beneficially owned by the notifying shareholder.

Each director of Arlington Bank must satisfy the qualification requirements for a director under the Ohio Savings Bank Law and the related rules adopted by the Ohio Superintendent of Financial Institutions.

Removal of Directors

First Merchants

First Merchants' Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws provide that any director or all directors may be removed, with or without cause, at a meeting of shareholders upon the vote of the holders of not less than two-thirds (2/3) of the outstanding shares entitled to vote on the election of directors. However, if two-thirds (2/3) of the entire Board of Directors recommends removal of a director to the shareholders, then such director may be removed by the affirmative vote of the holders of at least a majority of the outstanding shares entitled to vote on the election of directors at a shareholders meeting. A two-thirds (2/3) vote of the entire Board of Directors is required to amend this provision of First Merchants' Bylaws. Amendment of this provision of First Merchants' Articles of Incorporation requires the approval of three-fourths (3/4) of the voting stock.

Arlington Bank

The Arlington Bank Articles of Incorporation provide that directors may be removed from office, with or without assigning any cause, only by the affirmative vote of the holders of shares exercising not less than 80% of the voting power of Arlington Bank. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any member of the Board of Directors who does not satisfy the qualification requirements referred to above shall be removed from office by the Board of Directors or the Ohio Superintendent of Financial Institutions. The Board of Directors may also remove any of its members if, by order of court, the director has been found to be of unsound mind or adjudged a bankrupt.

Anti-Takeover Provisions

The anti-takeover measures applicable to First Merchants and Arlington Bank described below may have the effect of discouraging a person or other entity from acquiring control of either company. These measures may have the effect of discouraging certain tender offers for shares of their common stock which might otherwise be made at premium prices or certain other acquisition transactions which might be viewed favorably by a significant number of shareholders.

First Merchants

Under Indiana law, any 10% shareholder of an Indiana corporation, with a class of voting shares registered under Section 12 of the Exchange Act, such as First Merchants, is prohibited for a period of 5 years from completing a business combination with the corporation unless, prior to the acquisition of such 10% interest, the Board of Directors approved either the acquisition of such interest or the proposed business combination. If such prior approval is not obtained, the corporation and a 10% shareholder may not consummate a business combination unless all provisions of the articles of incorporation are complied with and either a majority of disinterested shareholders approve the transaction or all shareholders receive a price per share as determined by Indiana law. A corporation may specifically adopt application of the business combination provision in its Articles of Incorporation and obtain the protection provided by this provision.

An Indiana corporation may elect to remove itself from the protection provided by the Indiana business combination provision, but such an election remains ineffective for 18 months and does not apply to a combination with a shareholder who acquired a 10% ownership position prior to the election. First Merchants has adopted the protection provided by the business combination provision of Indiana law.

In addition to the business combination provision, Indiana law contains a “control share acquisition” provision which, although different in structure from the business combination provision, may have a similar effect of discouraging or making more difficult a hostile takeover of an Indiana corporation. This provision also may have the effect of discouraging premium bids for outstanding shares. Under this provision, unless otherwise provided in the corporation’s articles of incorporation or bylaws, if a shareholder acquires a certain amount of shares, approval of a majority of the disinterested shareholders must be obtained before the acquiring shareholder may vote the control shares. Under certain circumstances, the shares held by the acquirer may be redeemed by the corporation at the fair market value of the shares as determined by the control share acquisition provision. First Merchants and Arlington Bank are subject to the control share acquisition provision. The constitutional validity of the control share acquisition statute has been challenged in the past and has been upheld by the United States Supreme Court.

The control share acquisition provision does not apply to a plan of affiliation and merger if the corporation complies with the applicable merger provisions and is a party to the agreement of merger or plan of share exchange.

Arlington Bank

The OGCL contains a Merger Moratorium Statute that prohibits specified business combinations and transactions between an “issuing public corporation” and an “interested shareholder” for at least three years after the interested shareholder attains 10% ownership, unless the board of directors of the issuing public corporation approves the transaction before the interested shareholder attains 10% ownership.

An interested shareholder is a person who either:

- owns 10% or more of the shares of the corporation or
- was the owner, at any time within the three-year period immediately prior to the date on which it is sought to be determined whether the person is an interested shareholder, of a number of shares of the public corporation sufficient to exercise 10% of the voting power of the public corporation.

An issuing public corporation is defined as an Ohio corporation with 50 or more shareholders that has its principal place of business, principal executive offices, or substantial assets within the State of Ohio, and as to which no close corporation agreement exists.

After the three-year period, a moratorium transaction may take place provided that certain conditions are satisfied, including that:

- prior to the interested shareholders’ share acquisition date, the board of directors approved the purchase of shares by the interested shareholder;
- the transaction is approved by the holders of shares with at least two-thirds of the voting power of the corporation (or a different proportion set forth in the articles of incorporation), including at least a majority of the outstanding shares after excluding shares controlled by the interested shareholder; or
- the business combination results in shareholders, other than the interested shareholder, receiving a fair price plus interest for their shares, as determined in accordance with the statute.

Table of Contents

The OGCL also contains a Control Share Acquisition Statute that requires specified notice and informational filings and special shareholder meetings and voting procedures that must occur before consummation of a proposed “control share acquisition.” A control share acquisition is defined as any acquisition, directly or indirectly, of an issuer’s shares that would entitle the acquirer to exercise or direct the voting power of the issuer in the election of directors within any of the following ranges:

- one-fifth or more, but less than one-third, of the voting power;
- one-third or more, but less than a majority, of the voting power; or
- a majority or more of the voting power.

Assuming compliance with the notice and information filing requirements, the proposed control share acquisition may take place only if, at a duly convened special meeting of shareholders, the acquisition is approved by both a majority of the voting power of the issuer represented at the meeting and a majority of the voting power remaining after excluding the combined voting power of the intended acquirer and the directors and officers of the issuer.

Liquidation Rights

First Merchants

In the event of any liquidation or dissolution of First Merchants, its shareholders are entitled to receive pro rata, according to the number of shares held, any assets distributable to shareholders, subject to the payment of First Merchants’ liabilities and any rights of creditors and holders of shares of First Merchants’ preferred stock then outstanding.

Arlington Bank

In the event of any liquidation or dissolution of Arlington Bank, its shareholders are entitled to receive pro rata, according to the number of shares held, any assets distributable to shareholders, subject to the payment of Arlington Bank’s liabilities and any rights of creditors.

Redemption

First Merchants

Under Indiana law, First Merchants may redeem or acquire shares of its common stock with funds legally available therefor, and shares so acquired constitute authorized but unissued shares. First Merchants may not redeem or acquire its shares of common stock if, after such redemption, it would not be able to pay its debts as they become due. Additionally, First Merchants may not redeem its shares if its total assets would be less than the sum of its total liabilities plus preferential rights of shareholders payable upon dissolution.

Arlington Bank

Under Ohio law, Arlington Bank may redeem or acquire shares of its common stock with funds legally available therefor, and shares so acquired and retired will constitute authorized but unissued shares. Arlington Bank may not redeem or acquire its shares of common stock if it is insolvent, or if there is reasonable ground to believe that by such purchase or redemption it would be rendered insolvent. Additionally, Arlington Bank may not redeem its shares if its assets would be less than its liabilities plus its stated capital.

Director Liability

First Merchants

Under Indiana law, a director of First Merchants will not be liable to shareholders for any action taken as a director, or any failure to take any action, unless:

- The director has breached or failed to perform his duties as a director in good faith with the care an ordinarily prudent person in a like

Arlington Bank

Under Ohio law, a director of Arlington Bank will not be found to have violated the director’s fiduciary duties unless it is proved by clear and convincing evidence that the director has not acted in good faith, in a manner the director reasonably believes to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, position would exercise under similar circumstances and in a manner the director reasonably believes to be in the best interests of the corporation; and

- Such breach or failure to perform constitutes willful misconduct or recklessness.

or with the care that an ordinarily prudent person in a like position would use under similar circumstances, in any action brought against a director. A director shall not be considered to be acting in good faith if the director has knowledge concerning the matter in question that would cause reliance on information, opinions, reports, or statements that are prepared or presented by permitted persons to be unwarranted. Ohio law further provides that an Arlington Bank director will be liable in damages for any action that the director takes or fails to take as a director only if it is proved by clear and convincing evidence in a court of competent jurisdiction that the director's action or failure to act involved an act or omission undertaken with deliberate intent to cause injury to the corporation or undertaken with reckless disregard for the best interests of the corporation.

Indemnification of Directors, Officers and Employees

First Merchants

Under Indiana law and First Merchants' Articles of Incorporation, First Merchants may indemnify any director, officer, employee or agent for any and all liability and expense incurred in connection with a proceeding which such person is involved in by reason of such person's position with First Merchants, in which (a) the person is wholly successful or (b) the person acted in good faith in what the person reasonably believed to be in or at least not opposed to the best interests of First Merchants. If the proceeding is a criminal proceeding, the person must have had no reasonable cause to believe that the person's conduct was unlawful. If the person is wholly successful with respect to the claim or proceeding, the indemnification by First Merchants is mandatory. Finally, under Indiana law and First Merchants Articles of Incorporation and/or Bylaws, First Merchants is permitted to advance expenses to a person prior to final disposition of the proceeding if the person undertakes to repay any advanced amounts, if it is ultimately determined that he or she is not entitled to indemnification, or if the person furnishes to First Merchants a written affirmation of the person's good faith belief that he or she is entitled to indemnification.

Arlington Bank

The Arlington Bank Constitution provides mandatory indemnification for directors and officers in most instances when they are acting on behalf of Arlington Bank. The person claiming indemnification shall be presumed to have acted in good faith and in a manner reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of Arlington Bank. It does not provide indemnification in instances of completed actions or suit instituted by or in the right of Arlington Bank where the proposed indemnitee is adjudged to be liable for acting with reckless disregard for the best interests of Arlington Bank or misconduct (other than negligence) in the performance of his duty to the corporation unless and only to the extent that the court in which the action was brought, determines upon application that despite such adjudication of liability and in view of the circumstances, he is fairly and reasonably entitled to such indemnification. The Arlington Bank Constitution also sets forth certain procedural routines for the board in making determinations with regard to eligibility for indemnification. Indemnification can be limited by applicable Ohio and federal banking laws and regulations, and if the OGCL and Ohio Banking Law provides for broader indemnification then that broader indemnification shall apply. In addition, under its Constitution and as permitted under Ohio law, Arlington Bank has agreed to pay the expenses incurred in defending any action or suit referred to above in advance of the final disposition of such action or suit to or on behalf of the person seeking indemnification promptly as such expenses are incurred by him, but only if such person shall first agree, in writing, to repay all amounts so paid in respect of any claim, issue or other matter asserted in such action or suit in defense of which he shall not have been successful on the merits or otherwise if (a) it shall ultimately be determined that he is not entitled to be indemnified by Arlington Bank under its Constitution, or (b) he shall have been adjudged to be liable for acting with reckless disregard for the best interests of Arlington Bank or misconduct (other than negligence) in the performance of his duty to Arlington Bank (unless and only to the extent that the court in which such action or suit was brought shall determine that, despite such adjudication of liability, and in view of all the circumstances, he is fairly and reasonably entitled to all or part of such indemnification).

Certain U.S. federal income tax consequences relating to the Merger will be passed upon for First Merchants and Arlington Bank by the law firm of Bingham Greenebaum Doll LLP, Indianapolis, Indiana.

The Option Payment Amount shall be paid by First Merchants to the respective option holders on behalf of Arlington Bank within ten (10) business days following the Closing. 5.9 Absence of Certain Changes. Except for events and conditions relating to the business and interest rate environment in general, the accrual or payment of Merger-related expenses, or as set forth in the Arlington Bank Disclosure Letter, since September 30, 2016, no events have occurred which could reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect. (c) In addition to the obligations of Arlington Bank set forth in Section 7.5(a) and (b), Arlington Bank shall advise First Merchants orally and in writing as soon as reasonably practicable of any request (whether oral or in writing) for information or of any inquiries, proposals, discussions or indications of interest (whether oral or in writing) with respect to any Acquisition Proposal, the material terms and conditions of such request or Acquisition Proposal and the identity of the person or entity making such request or Acquisition Proposal. Arlington Bank shall keep First Merchants reasonably informed of the status and details (including amendments or proposed amendments) of any such request or Acquisition Proposal, including the status of any discussions or negotiations with respect to any Superior Acquisition Proposal.

SECTION 1701.85 OF THE OHIO GENERAL CORPORATION LAW
DISSENTERS' RIGHTS

SECTION 1701.85 OF THE OHIO GENERAL CORPORATION LAW

1701.85 Dissenting shareholders - compliance with section - fair cash value of shares.

- (A) (1) A shareholder of a domestic corporation is entitled to relief as a dissenting shareholder in respect of the proposals described in sections 1701.74, 1701.76, and 1701.84 of the Revised Code, only in compliance with this section.
- (2) If the proposal must be submitted to the shareholders of the corporation involved, the dissenting shareholder shall be a record holder of the shares of the corporation as to which the dissenting shareholder seeks relief as of the date fixed for the determination of shareholders entitled to notice of a meeting of the shareholders at which the proposal is to be submitted, and such shares shall not have been voted in favor of the proposal.
- (3) Not later than twenty days before the date of the meeting at which the proposal will be submitted to the shareholders, the corporation may notify the corporation's shareholders that relief under this section is available. The notice shall include or be accompanied by all of the following:
- (a) A copy of this section;
 - (b) A statement that the proposal can give rise to rights under this section if the proposal is approved by the required vote of the shareholders;
 - (c) A statement that the shareholder will be eligible as a dissenting shareholder under this section only if the shareholder delivers to the corporation a written demand with the information provided for in division (A)(4) of this section before the vote on the proposal will be taken at the meeting of the shareholders and the shareholder does not vote in favor of the proposal.
- (4) If the corporation delivers notice to its shareholders as provided in division (A)(3) of this section, a shareholder electing to be eligible as a dissenting shareholder under this section shall deliver to the corporation before the vote on the proposal is taken a written demand for payment of the fair cash value of the shares as to which the shareholder seeks relief. The demand for payment shall include the shareholder's address, the number and class of such shares, and the amount claimed by the shareholder as the fair cash value of the shares.
- (5) If the corporation does not notify the corporation's shareholders pursuant to division (A)(3) of this section, not later than ten days after the date on which the vote on the proposal was taken at the meeting of the shareholders, the dissenting shareholder shall deliver to the corporation a written demand for payment to the dissenting shareholder of the fair cash value of the shares as to which the dissenting shareholder seeks relief, which demand shall state the dissenting shareholder's address, the number and class of such shares, and the amount claimed by the dissenting shareholder as the fair cash value of the shares.
- (6) If a signatory, designated and approved by the dissenting shareholder, executes the demand, then at any time after receiving the demand, the corporation may make a written request that the dissenting shareholder provide evidence of the signatory's authority. The shareholder shall provide the evidence within a reasonable time but not sooner than twenty days after the dissenting shareholder has received the corporation's written request for evidence.
- (7) The dissenting shareholder entitled to relief under division (A)(3) of section 1701.84 of the Revised Code in the case of a merger pursuant to section 1701.80 of the Revised Code and a dissenting shareholder entitled to relief under division (A)(5) of section 1701.84 of the Revised Code in the case of a merger pursuant to section 1701.801 of the Revised Code shall be a record holder of the shares of the corporation as to which the dissenting shareholder seeks relief as of the date on which the agreement of merger was adopted by the directors of that corporation. Within twenty days after the dissenting shareholder has been sent the notice provided in section 1701.80 or 1701.801 of the Revised Code, the dissenting shareholder shall deliver to the corporation a written demand for payment with the same information as that provided for in division (A) (4) of this section.

- (8) In the case of a merger or consolidation, a demand served on the constituent corporation involved constitutes service on the surviving or the new entity, whether the demand is served before, on, or after the effective date of the merger or consolidation. In the case of a conversion, a demand served on the converting corporation constitutes service on the converted entity, whether the demand is served before, on, or after the effective date of the conversion.
- (9) If the corporation sends to the dissenting shareholder, at the address specified in the dissenting shareholder's demand, a request for the certificates representing the shares as to which the dissenting shareholder seeks relief, the dissenting shareholder, within fifteen days from the date of the sending of such request, shall deliver to the corporation the certificates requested so that the corporation may endorse on them a legend to the effect that demand for the fair cash value of such shares has been made. The corporation promptly shall return the endorsed certificates to the dissenting shareholder. A dissenting shareholder's failure to deliver the certificates terminates the dissenting shareholder's rights as a dissenting shareholder, at the option of the corporation, exercised by written notice sent to the dissenting shareholder within twenty days after the lapse of the fifteen-day period, unless a court for good cause shown otherwise directs. If shares represented by a certificate on which such a legend has been endorsed are transferred, each new certificate issued for them shall bear a similar legend, together with the name of the original dissenting holder of the shares. Upon receiving a demand for payment from a dissenting shareholder who is the record holder of uncertificated securities, the corporation shall make an appropriate notation of the demand for payment in its shareholder records. If uncertificated shares for which payment has been demanded are to be transferred, any new certificate issued for the shares shall bear the legend required for certificated securities as provided in this paragraph. A transferee of the shares so endorsed, or of uncertificated securities where such notation has been made, acquires only the rights in the corporation as the original dissenting holder of such shares had immediately after the service of a demand for payment of the fair cash value of the shares. A request under this paragraph by the corporation is not an admission by the corporation that the shareholder is entitled to relief under this section.
- (B) Unless the corporation and the dissenting shareholder have come to an agreement on the fair cash value per share of the shares as to which the dissenting shareholder seeks relief, the dissenting shareholder or the corporation, which in case of a merger or consolidation may be the surviving or new entity, or in the case of a conversion may be the converted entity, within three months after the service of the demand by the dissenting shareholder, may file a complaint in the court of common pleas of the county in which the principal office of the corporation that issued the shares is located or was located when the proposal was adopted by the shareholders of the corporation, or, if the proposal was not required to be submitted to the shareholders, was approved by the directors. Other dissenting shareholders, within that three-month period, may join as plaintiffs or may be joined as defendants in any such proceeding, and any two or more such proceedings may be consolidated. The complaint shall contain a brief statement of the facts, including the vote and the facts entitling the dissenting shareholder to the relief demanded. No answer to a complaint is required. Upon the filing of a complaint, the court, on motion of the petitioner, shall enter an order fixing a date for a hearing on the complaint and requiring that a copy of the complaint and a notice of the filing and of the date for hearing be given to the respondent or defendant in the manner in which summons is required to be served or substituted service is required to be made in other cases. On the day fixed for the hearing on the complaint or any adjournment of it, the court shall determine from the complaint and from evidence submitted by either party whether the dissenting shareholder is entitled to be paid the fair cash value of any shares and, if so, the number and class of such shares. If the court finds that the dissenting shareholder is so entitled, the court may appoint one or more persons as appraisers to receive evidence and to recommend a decision on the amount of the fair cash value. The appraisers have power and authority specified in the order of their appointment. The court thereupon shall make a finding as to the fair cash value of a share and shall render judgment against the corporation for the payment of it, with interest at a rate and from a date as the court considers equitable. The costs of the proceeding, including reasonable compensation to the appraisers to be fixed by the court, shall be assessed or apportioned as the court considers equitable. The proceeding is a special proceeding and final orders in it may be vacated, modified, or reversed on appeal pursuant to the Rules of Appellate Procedure and, to the extent not in conflict with those rules, Chapter 2505. of the Revised Code. If, during the pendency of any proceeding instituted under this section, a suit or proceeding is or has been instituted to enjoin or otherwise to prevent the carrying out of the action as to which the shareholder has dissented, the proceeding instituted under this section shall be stayed until the final determination of the other suit or proceeding. Unless any provision in division (D) of this section is applicable, the fair cash value of the shares that is agreed upon by the parties or fixed under this section shall be paid within thirty days after the date of final determination of such value under this division, the effective date of the amendment to the articles, or the consummation of the other action involved, whichever occurs last. Upon the occurrence of the last such event, payment shall be made immediately to a holder of uncertificated securities entitled to payment. In the case of holders of shares represented by certificates, payment shall be made only upon and simultaneously with the surrender to the corporation of the certificates representing the shares for which the payment is made.

- (C) (1) If the proposal was required to be submitted to the shareholders of the corporation, fair cash value as to those shareholders shall be determined as of the day prior to the day on which the vote by the shareholders was taken and, in the case of a merger pursuant to section 1701.80 or 1701.801 of the Revised Code, fair cash value as to shareholders of a constituent subsidiary corporation shall be determined as of the day before the adoption of the agreement of merger by the directors of the particular subsidiary corporation. The fair cash value of a share for the purposes of this section is the amount that a willing seller who is under no compulsion to sell would be willing to accept and that a willing buyer who is under no compulsion to purchase would be willing to pay, but in no event shall the fair cash value of a share exceed the amount specified in the demand of the particular shareholder. In computing fair cash value, both of the following shall be excluded:
- (a) Any appreciation or depreciation in market value resulting from the proposal submitted to the directors or to the shareholders;
 - (b) Any premium associated with control of the corporation, or any discount for lack of marketability or minority status.
- (2) For the purposes of this section, the fair cash value of a share that was listed on a national securities exchange at any of the following times shall be the closing sale price on the national securities exchange as of the applicable date provided in division (C)(1) of this section:
- (a) Immediately before the effective time of a merger or consolidation;
 - (b) Immediately before the filing of an amendment to the articles of incorporation as described in division (A) of section 1701.74 of the Revised Code;
 - (c) Immediately before the time of the vote described in division (A)(1)(b) of section 1701.76 of the Revised Code.
- (D) (1) The right and obligation of a dissenting shareholder to receive fair cash value and to sell such shares as to which the dissenting shareholder seeks relief, and the right and obligation of the corporation to purchase such shares and to pay the fair cash value of them terminates if any of the following applies:
- (a) The dissenting shareholder has not complied with this section, unless the corporation by its directors waives such failure;
 - (b) The corporation abandons the action involved or is finally enjoined or prevented from carrying it out, or the shareholders rescind their adoption of the action involved;

Table of Contents

(c) The dissenting shareholder withdraws the dissenting shareholder's demand, with the consent of the corporation by its directors;

(d) The corporation and the dissenting shareholder have not come to an agreement as to the fair cash value per share, and neither the shareholder nor the corporation has filed or joined in a complaint under division (B) of this section within the period provided in that division.

(2) For purposes of division (D)(1) of this section, if the merger, consolidation, or conversion has become effective and the surviving, new, or converted entity is not a corporation, action required to be taken by the directors of the corporation shall be taken by the partners of a surviving, new, or converted partnership or the comparable representatives of any other surviving, new, or converted entity.

(E) From the time of the dissenting shareholder's giving of the demand until either the termination of the rights and obligations arising from it or the purchase of the shares by the corporation, all other rights accruing from such shares, including voting and dividend or distribution rights, are suspended. If during the suspension, any dividend or distribution is paid in money upon shares of such class or any dividend, distribution, or interest is paid in money upon any securities issued in extinguishment of or in substitution for such shares, an amount equal to the dividend, distribution, or interest which, except for the suspension, would have been payable upon such shares or securities, shall be paid to the holder of record as a credit upon the fair cash value of the shares. If the right to receive fair cash value is terminated other than by the purchase of the shares by the corporation, all rights of the holder shall be restored and all distributions which, except for the suspension, would have been made shall be made to the holder of record of the shares at the time of termination.

Members of the Board:

You have requested our opinion as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, to the holders of shares of issued and outstanding common stock, $0.50 par value (the "Company Common Shares"), of The Arlington Bank ("Arlington") of the Exchange Ratio (as defined below) to be received by such holders in the proposed merger (the "Proposed Merger") of Arlington with an into First Merchants Bank, a wholly-owned subsidiary of First Merchants Corporation, as set forth in the Agreement and Plan of Reorganization dated January 24, 2017 (the "Merger Agreement"). First Merchants Corporation and First Merchants Bank are referred to individually and collectively herein as "First Merchants." As detailed in the Merger Agreement, pursuant to the Proposed Merger, each Company Common Share issued and outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the Proposed Merger will be converted into the right to receive 2.7245 shares of First Merchants common stock, no par value (the "Exchange Ratio").

In arriving at our opinion, we have, among other things: (i) reviewed the historical financial performance, current financial position and general prospects of each of First Merchants and Arlington and reviewed certain internal financial analyses and forecasts prepared by the respective management teams of First Merchants and Arlington, (ii) reviewed the Merger Agreement, (iii) reviewed and analyzed the stock performance and trading history of First Merchants, (iv) studied and analyzed the consolidated financial and operating data of First Merchants and Arlington, (v) reviewed the pro forma financial impact of the Proposed Merger on First Merchants, based on assumptions relating to transaction expenses, purchase accounting adjustments, cost savings and other synergies determined by the respective management teams of First Merchants and Arlington, (vi) considered the financial terms of the Proposed Merger as compared with the financial terms of comparable bank and bank holding company mergers and acquisitions, (vii) met and/or communicated with certain members of each of First Merchants' and Arlington's senior management to discuss their respective operations, historical financial statements and future prospects, and (viii) conducted such other financial analyses, studies and investigations as we deemed appropriate.

Our opinion is given in reliance on information and representations made or given by First Merchants, Arlington, and their respective officers, directors, auditors, counsel and other agents, and on filings, releases and other information issued by each of First Merchants and Arlington, including financial statements and financial projections, stock price data, as well as certain other information from recognized independent sources. We have not independently verified the information or data concerning First Merchants or Arlington nor any other data we considered in our review and, for purposes of the opinion set forth below, we have assumed and relied upon the accuracy and completeness of all such information and data. We have assumed that all forecasts and projections provided to us have been reasonably prepared and reflect the best currently available estimates and good faith judgments of the respective management teams of First Merchants and Arlington as to their most likely future financial performance. We express no opinion as to any financial projections or the assumptions on which they are based. We have not conducted any valuation or appraisal of any assets or liabilities of First Merchants or Arlington, nor have any such valuations or appraisals been provided to us. With respect to anticipated transaction costs, purchase accounting adjustments, expected cost savings and other synergies and financial and other information relating to the general prospects of First Merchants and Arlington, we have assumed that such information has been reasonably prepared and reflects the best currently available estimates and good faith judgment of the respective management teams of First Merchants and Arlington as to their most likely future performance. We have further relied on the assurances of the respective management teams of First Merchants and Arlington that they are not aware of any facts or circumstances that would make any of such information inaccurate or misleading. We have not been asked to and have not undertaken an independent verification of any of such information and we do not assume any responsibility or liability for the accuracy or completeness thereof. We have assumed that the allowance for loan losses indicated on the balance sheet of each of First Merchants and Arlington is adequate to cover such losses; we have not reviewed loans or credit files of First Merchants or Arlington. We have assumed that all of the representations and warranties contained in the Merger Agreement and all related agreements are true and correct, that each party under the agreements will perform all of the covenants required to be performed by such party under the agreements, and that the conditions precedent in the agreements will not be waived. Also, in rendering our opinion, we have assumed that in the course of obtaining the necessary regulatory approvals for the consummation of the Proposed Merger, no conditions will be imposed that will have a material adverse effect on the combined entity or contemplated benefits of the Proposed Merger, including the cost savings and related expenses expected to result from the Proposed Merger.

Our opinion is based upon information provided to us by the respective management teams of First Merchants and Arlington, as well as market, economic, financial and other conditions as they exist and can be evaluated only as of the date hereof and accordingly, it speaks to no other period. We have not undertaken to reaffirm or revise this opinion or otherwise comment on events occurring after the date hereof and do not have an obligation to update, revise or reaffirm our opinion. Our opinion does not address the relative merits of the Proposed Merger or the other business strategies that Arlington's Board of Directors has considered or may be considering, nor does it address the underlying business decision of Arlington's Board of Directors to proceed with the Proposed Merger. We were not asked to and did not solicit or explore other strategic alternatives to the Proposed Merger. We are expressing no opinion as to the prices at which First Merchants' securities may trade at any time. Nothing in our opinion is to be construed as constituting tax advice or a recommendation to take any particular tax position, nor does our opinion address any legal, tax, regulatory or accounting matters, as to which we understand that First Merchants has obtained such advice as it deemed necessary from qualified professionals. Our opinion is for the information of Arlington's Board of Directors in connection with its evaluation of the Proposed Merger and does not constitute a recommendation to the Board of Directors of Arlington in connection with the Proposed Merger or a recommendation to any shareholder of Arlington as to how such shareholder should vote or act with respect to the Proposed Merger. This opinion should not be construed as creating any fiduciary duty on Boenning & Scattergood, Inc.'s part to any party or person. Our opinion is not to be quoted or referred to, in whole or in part, in a registration statement, prospectus, proxy statement or in any other document, nor shall this opinion be used for any other purpose, without our prior written consent, except that, if required by applicable law, this opinion may be referenced and included in its entirety in any filing made by First Merchants in respect to the Proposed Merger with the Securities and Exchange Commission; provided, however, any description of or reference to our opinion or to Boenning & Scattergood, Inc. be in a form reasonably acceptable to us and our counsel. We shall have no responsibility for the form or content of any such disclosure, other than the opinion itself.

Boenning & Scattergood, Inc., as part of its investment banking business, regularly is engaged in the valuation of assets, securities and companies in connection with various types of transactions, including mergers, acquisitions, private placements, public offerings and valuations for various other purposes, and in the determination of adequate consideration in such transactions. In the ordinary course of our business as a broker-dealer, we may, from time to time, purchase securities from, and sell securities to, First Merchants, Arlington, and/or their respective affiliates. In the ordinary course of business, we may also actively trade the securities of First Merchants for our own account and/or for the accounts of customers and accordingly may at any time hold a long or short position in such securities.

We are acting as Arlington's financial advisor in connection with the Proposed Merger and will receive a fee for our services, a significant portion of which is contingent upon consummation of the Proposed Merger. We will also receive a fee for rendering this opinion. Our fee for rendering this opinion is not contingent upon any conclusion that we may reach or upon completion of the Proposed Merger. Arlington has also agreed to indemnify us against certain liabilities that may arise out of our engagement.

Except for the arrangements between Boenning & Scattergood, Inc. and Arlington described in the preceding paragraph, Boenning & Scattergood, Inc. has not had any material relationship with either Arlington or First Merchants during the past two years in which compensation was received or was intended to be received. Boenning & Scattergood, Inc. may provide services to First Merchants in the future (and/or to Arlington if the Proposed Merger is not consummated), although as of the date of this opinion, there is no agreement to do so nor any mutual understanding that such services are contemplated.

This opinion has been approved by Boenning & Scattergood, Inc.'s fairness opinion committee. We do not express any opinion as to the fairness of the amount or nature of the compensation to be received in the Proposed Merger by any of the officers, directors, or employees of any party to the Merger Agreement, or any class of such persons, relative to the compensation to be received by the holders of Company Common Shares in the Proposed Merger.

Based on and subject to the foregoing, it is our opinion that, as of the date hereof, the Exchange Ratio to be received by the holders of Company Common Shares pursuant to the Merger Agreement is fair, from a financial point of view, to such holders.

Sincerely,

Boenning & Scattergood, Inc.

PART II

INFORMATION NOT REQUIRED IN PROSPECTUS

Item 20. Indemnification of Directors and Officers of First Merchants Corporation

First Merchants is an Indiana corporation. First Merchants officers and directors are and will be indemnified under Indiana law, First Merchants Articles of Incorporation, as amended and Bylaws, as amended. Section 23-1-37-1 et seq. of the Indiana Business Corporation Law (the “Indiana Business Corporation Law”) requires a corporation, unless limited by its articles of incorporation, to indemnify a director or an officer of the corporation who is wholly successful, on the merits or otherwise, in the defense of any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative, or investigative and whether formal or informal, against reasonable expenses, including counsel fees, incurred in connection with the proceeding. First Merchants’ Articles of Incorporation do not contain any provision limiting such indemnification.

The Indiana Business Corporation Law also permits a corporation to indemnify a director, officer, employee, or agent who is made a party to a proceeding because the person was a director, officer, employee, or agent of the corporation against liability incurred in the proceeding if (a) the individual’s conduct was in good faith, and (b) the individual reasonably believed (i) in the case of conduct in the individual’s official capacity with the corporation, that the conduct was in the corporation’s best interests, and (ii) in all other cases, that the individual’s conduct was at least not opposed to the corporation’s best interests, and (c) in the case of a criminal proceeding, the individual either (i) had reasonable cause to believe the individual’s conduct was lawful, or (ii) had no reasonable cause to believe the individual’s conduct was unlawful.

First Merchants’ Articles of Incorporation, as amended, and Bylaws, as amended, provide that First Merchants will indemnify any person satisfying the standard of conduct outlined above as determined by (a) the First Merchants Board of Directors acting by a quorum consisting of Directors who are not parties to or who have been wholly successful with respect to such claim, action, suit or proceeding; or (b) independent legal counsel chosen by First Merchants.

First Merchants may advance expenses to or, where appropriate, may at its expense undertake the defense of any such person upon receipt of an undertaking by such person to repay such expenses if it should ultimately be determined that he is not entitled to the indemnification outlined above.

As permitted by the Indiana Business Corporation Law, the directors and officers of First Merchants are covered by an insurance policy indemnifying them against certain civil liabilities, including liabilities under the federal securities laws, which might be incurred by them in such capacity.

Item 22. Undertakings.

The undersigned registrant hereby undertakes:

- (1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this registration statement: (i) to include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933; (ii) to reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of the registration statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the registration statement (notwithstanding the foregoing, any increase or decrease in volume of securities offered (if the total dollar value of securities offered would not exceed that which was registered) and any deviation from the low or high end of the estimated maximum offering range may be reflected in the form of prospectus filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission pursuant to Rule 424(b) if, in the aggregate, the changes in volume and price represent no more than a 20% change in the maximum aggregate offering price set forth in the "Calculation of Registration Fee" table in the effective registration statement); and (iii) to include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the registration statement or any material change to such information in the registration statement.
- (2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.
- (3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.
- (4) That, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each filing of the registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) that is incorporated by reference in this registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.
- (5) That prior to any public reoffering of the securities registered hereunder through use of a prospectus which is a part of this registration statement, by any person or party who is deemed to be an underwriter within the meaning of Rule 145(c), the registrant undertakes that such reoffering prospectus will contain the information called for by the applicable registration form with respect to reofferings by persons who may be deemed underwriters, in addition to the information called for by the other items of the applicable form.
- (6) That every prospectus (i) that is filed pursuant to paragraph (5) above, or (ii) that purports to meet the requirements of Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act and is used in connection with an offering of securities subject to Rule 415, will be filed as a part of an amendment to this registration statement and will not be used until such amendment has become effective, and that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.
- (7) To respond to requests for information that is incorporated by reference into the prospectus pursuant to Items 4, 10(b), 11 or 13 of this Form, within one business day of receipt of such request, and to send the incorporated documents by first class mail or other equally prompt means. This includes information contained in documents filed subsequent to the effective date of this registration statement through the date of responding to the request.
- (8) To supply by means of a post-effective amendment all information concerning a transaction, and the company being acquired involved therein, that was not the subject of and included in this registration statement when it became effective.

(9) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
