

FIRST MERCHANTS CORPORATION

INDEPENDENT ALLIANCE BANKS, INC.

YOUR VOTE IS VERY IMPORTANT

PROSPECTUS OF FIRST MERCHANTS CORPORATION FOR UP TO 5,968,170 SHARES OF COMMON STOCK AND
PROXY STATEMENT OF INDEPENDENT ALLIANCE BANKS, INC.

The Board of Directors of First Merchants Corporation (“First Merchants”) and the Board of Directors of Independent Alliance Banks, Inc. (“IALB”) have approved an Agreement and Plan of Reorganization and Merger (the “Merger Agreement”), pursuant to which IALB will merge with and into First Merchants (the “Merger”). This proposed strategic business combination will further expand the second largest bank holding company headquartered in the State of Indiana. Following the Merger and the consummation of the proposed acquisition by First Merchants Bank, the wholly-owned banking subsidiary of First Merchants, of The Arlington Bank, an Ohio savings bank (as further discussed herein), the combined company will have 126 banking offices in thirty-one Indiana counties, as well as two counties in both Ohio and Illinois, and have approximately $8.8 billion in assets, $6.1 billion in loans, $6.7 billion in deposits, and total shareholders’ equity of $1.2 billion.

If the Merger Agreement is approved by a majority of the shareholders of IALB and the Merger is subsequently completed, the shares of IALB common stock owned by each IALB shareholder will be converted into the right to receive 1.6530 shares (the “Exchange Ratio”) of First Merchants common stock. First Merchants will pay cash for any fractional shares resulting from application of the Exchange Ratio. The Exchange Ratio is subject to adjustments for stock splits, stock dividends, recapitalization, or similar transactions.

First Merchants common stock is listed on The NASDAQ Global Select Market under the symbol “FRME.” On February 16, 2017, the last business day prior to the public announcement of the Merger, the closing price of a share of First Merchants common stock was $42.10, which, after giving effect to the Exchange Ratio of 1.6530, results in an implied value of approximately $69.59 per share of IALB common stock as of such date. On April 28, 2017, the latest practicable date before the date of this proxy statement and prospectus, the closing price of a share of First Merchants common stock was $41.38, which, after giving effect to the Exchange Ratio of 1.6530, results in an implied value of approximately $68.40 per share of IALB common stock as of such date. You should obtain a current market quotation for First Merchants before you vote.

We cannot complete the Merger unless a majority of the issued and outstanding shares of common stock of IALB vote to approve the Merger Agreement. IALB will hold a special meeting of its shareholders to vote on this merger proposal. Your vote is very important. Whether or not you plan to attend the shareholder meeting, please take the time to vote by completing the enclosed proxy card and mailing it in the enclosed envelope. If you sign, date and mail your proxy card without indicating how you want to vote, your proxy will be counted as a vote in favor of the Merger Agreement. Not returning your card will have the same effect as a vote against the Merger Agreement.

The date, time and place of the meeting are as follows:

June 27, 2017, 3:00 p.m., local time
Ramada Plaza Fort Wayne
Hotel and Conference Center
305 E. Washington Center Road

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT THE MERGER AND THE SHAREHOLDER MEETING

Q: What am I voting on?

A: You are being asked to vote to approve the Merger Agreement, pursuant to which IALB will merge with and into First Merchants, and to approve the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement (the “Merger Proposal”). First Merchants would be the surviving entity in the Merger, and IALB would no longer be a separate company.

You are also being asked to vote on two additional proposals (completion of the Merger is not conditioned upon approval of any of these additional proposals):

- a proposal to adjourn the IALB special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies in favor of the Merger Proposal (which we refer to as the “Adjournment Proposal”); and
- to vote on such other matters that may be properly presented at the special meeting or any adjournment or postponement of the special meeting. IALB’s Board is not aware of any such other matters.

Q: Why are First Merchants and IALB proposing to merge?

A: We believe the Merger is in the best interests of both companies and our respective shareholders. IALB and First Merchants believe that the Merger will bring together two (2) complementary institutions to create a strategically, operationally and financially strong company that is positioned for further growth. The Merger will give the combined company greater scale and geographic diversity, not only for serving existing customers more efficiently, but also for future expansion. The combination will expand the second largest bank holding company based in the State of Indiana. We believe the Merger will enhance our capabilities to provide banking and financial services to our customers and strengthen the competitive position of the combined organization.

You should review the background of and reasons for the Merger described in greater detail beginning on page 34.

Q: What will IALB shareholders receive in the Merger?

A: If the Merger Agreement is approved by the shareholders of IALB and the Merger is subsequently completed, the shares of IALB common stock owned by each IALB shareholder will be converted into 1.6530 shares (the “Exchange Ratio”) of First Merchants common stock (the “Merger Consideration”). Each IALB shareholder that would otherwise be entitled to receive a fractional share of First Merchants common stock will receive cash in lieu of such fractional share. The Exchange Ratio is subject to adjustments for stock splits, stock dividends, recapitalization, or similar transactions.

Because the Exchange Ratio is fixed (except for customary anti-dilution adjustments), the value of the Merger Consideration that you will receive will depend on the market price of First Merchants common stock when you receive your shares of First Merchants common stock. The implied per share value of the Merger Consideration, based upon First Merchants’ closing stock price on April 28, 2017, the most recent practicable trading day before this proxy statement and prospectus was finalized, was $41.38 per share. No assurance can be given that the current market price of First Merchants common stock will be equivalent to the market price of First Merchants common stock on the date that shares of First Merchants common stock are received by an IALB shareholder or at any other time. You should obtain current market prices for shares of First Merchants common stock which is listed on The NASDAQ Global Select Market under the symbol “FRME.”

Q: What risks should I consider before I vote on the Merger Proposal?

A: You should carefully review the section captioned “RISK FACTORS” beginning on page 23.

Q: Will First Merchants shareholders receive any shares or cash as a result of the Merger?

A: No. After the Merger, First Merchants shareholders will continue to own the same number of First Merchants shares they owned before the Merger.

Q: When is the Merger expected to be completed?

A: We are working to complete the Merger as quickly as possible. We must first obtain the necessary regulatory approvals and the approval of IALB shareholders at the special meeting. We currently expect to complete the Merger during the third quarter of 2017.

Q: What are the tax consequences of the Merger to me?

A: The Merger is intended to qualify as a “reorganization” within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the “Internal Revenue Code”). A U.S. Holder (as defined in the section captioned “MATERIAL U.S. FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES” beginning on page 59) who exchanges all of its shares of IALB common stock for shares of First Merchants common stock pursuant to the Merger will not recognize any gain or loss on the exchange for federal income tax purposes, except with respect to any cash received in lieu of a fractional share of First Merchants common stock. A U.S. Holder who receives cash in lieu of a fractional share of First Merchants common stock will be treated as having received such fractional share of First Merchants common stock pursuant to the Merger and then as having sold that fractional share of First Merchants common stock for cash. As a result, a U.S. Holder will generally recognize gain or loss equal to the difference between the amount of cash received and the U.S. Holder’s basis in the fractional share of First Merchants common stock determined as described above. At the closing of the Merger, First Merchants will receive an opinion from their tax attorneys confirming these tax consequences and IALB will receive a letter from First Merchants’ tax attorneys addressed to the shareholders of IALB to the effect that such shareholders shall be permitted to rely upon this tax opinion. Under the Merger Agreement, receipt of the tax opinion and the reliance letter may be waived by First Merchants and IALB, respectively, prior to the closing of the Merger. However, if receipt of such opinion and reliance letter were waived, IALB would resolicit its shareholders if any change in the tax consequences were material and disclose the reasons for the waiver and the change in tax consequences. Such resolicitation would require an amendment to the Registration Statement on Form S-4, of which this proxy statement and prospectus is a part. See “MATERIAL U.S. FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES” beginning on page 59. Your individual tax consequences will depend on your personal situation. You should consult your tax advisor for a full understanding of the tax consequences of the Merger to you.

Q: Will I have dissenters’ rights?

A: The shareholders of IALB are entitled to dissenters’ rights in connection with the Merger under Chapter 44 of the Indiana Business Corporation Law, as amended (the “Indiana Business Corporation Law”), a copy of which is included as Annex B to this proxy statement and prospectus. If you wish to assert dissenters’ rights, you must deliver to IALB written notice of your intent to assert such rights before the vote is taken at the special meeting. In addition, you must not vote in favor of the Merger either in person or by proxy. The procedure for dissenting is explained more fully under “THE MERGER – Rights of Dissenting Shareholders” beginning on page 47 and in Annex B to this proxy statement and prospectus.

Q: What do I need to do now?

A: You should carefully read and consider the information contained in this document and any information incorporated herein by reference. Then, please submit your proxy by completing, signing, and dating the enclosed proxy card and returning it as soon as possible using the enclosed postage-prepaid envelope so that your shares can be voted at the special shareholder meeting. If a returned proxy card is signed but does not specify how you wish to vote your shares, your proxy will be voted “FOR” the: (1) approval of the Merger Proposal; and (2) approval of the Adjournment Proposal.

Q: What if I don't vote or I abstain from voting?

A: If you do not vote or you abstain from voting, your abstention will count as a vote "AGAINST" the Merger Proposal.

Q: If my shares are held by my broker in "street name," will my broker vote my shares for me?

A: Your broker will vote any shares you hold in "street name" only if you provide instructions to your broker on how to vote your shares. You should follow the directions provided by your broker to vote your shares. If you do not provide your broker with instructions on how to vote your shares held in "street name," your broker will not be permitted to vote your shares, which will have the effect of a vote "AGAINST" the Merger.

Q: How do I vote my shares of IALB common stock held in the iAB Financial Bank 401(k)/Profit Sharing Plan (the "Plan")?

A: If you invest in IALB common stock through the Plan, you will receive a voting instruction card that reflects all shares that you may direct the trustee to vote on your behalf under the Plan. Under the terms of the Plan, a participant is entitled to direct the trustee how to vote the shares of IALB common stock credited to his or her account under the Plan. If the Plan trustee does not receive timely voting instructions for the shares of IALB common stock held in the Plan, the shares for which the trustee does not receive timely instructions will be voted in a manner calculated to most accurately reflect the instructions received from other Plan participants.

Q: May I change my vote after I have submitted my proxy?

A: Yes. You can change your vote at any time before your proxy is voted at the special meeting. You can do this in one (1) of three (3) ways. First, you can send a written notice stating that you revoke your proxy. Second, you can complete and submit a new proxy, dated at a date later than your most recent proxy. Please submit your notice of revocation and/or new proxy card to IALB, 118 East Ludwig Road, Fort Wayne, Indiana 46825, Attention: James A. Witmer, Corporate Secretary. Third, you may attend the special meeting and vote in person. Simply attending the special meeting, however, will not revoke your proxy. You must request a ballot and vote the ballot at the meeting.

Q: What constitutes a quorum?

A: The presence, in person or by proxy, of shareholders holding at least a majority of the issued and outstanding shares of IALB entitled to vote as of April 28, 2017, the record date for the special meeting, will constitute a quorum for the special meeting. On the record date, there were 4,082,479 shares of IALB common stock outstanding and entitled to vote at the special meeting.

Q: Should I send in my stock certificate(s) now?

A: No. After the Merger is completed, IALB shareholders will receive written instructions from First Merchants for exchanging their stock certificates for shares of First Merchants common stock and cash for fractional shares to be received by them in the Merger. Any shares of IALB common stock held in book-entry form will be automatically exchanged for shares of First Merchants common stock. If you are a First Merchants shareholder, you should retain your certificates, as you will continue to hold the First Merchants shares you currently own.

Independent Alliance Banks, Inc.

Fort Wayne, Indiana 46825
(260) 422-2265

IALB is a financial holding company incorporated under Indiana law and headquartered in Fort Wayne, Indiana. IALB’s wholly-owned bank subsidiary is iAB Financial Bank, an Indiana commercial bank. IALB was formed in 2005 as a result of the merger of Grabill Bancorp and MarBanc Financial Corporation, at which time IALB began operating two wholly-owned bank subsidiaries, MarkleBank and Grabill Bank. In 2012, IALB collapsed the bank charter of MarkleBank into Grabill Bank and simultaneously changed Grabill Bank’s name to iAB Financial Bank. In addition to iAB Financial Bank, IALB’s other direct subsidiary is IAB Risk Management, Inc., a Nevada corporation. IAB Investments Inc., a Nevada corporation (“IAB Investments”), and Grabill Bank Insurance Services, LLC, an Indiana limited liability company, are wholly-owned by iAB Financial Bank. IAB REIT, Inc., a Maryland corporation, is wholly-owned by IAB Investments. iAB Financial Bank operates 17 banking centers in Allen, Huntington, Marshall and Wells counties in Indiana and employed approximately 285 people at December 31, 2016.

At December 31, 2016, on a consolidated basis, IALB had assets of approximately $1.1 billion, deposits of approximately $861 million, and shareholders’ equity of approximately $122.1 million.

We have attached a copy of the Merger Agreement to this document as Annex A. Please read the Merger Agreement in its entirety. It is the legal document that governs the Merger.

The Merger Agreement provides that, if all of the conditions are satisfied or waived, IALB will be merged with and into First Merchants and, immediately thereafter, IALB will cease to exist. Immediately following the Merger, iAB Financial Bank will be merged with and into First Merchants Bank and iAB Financial Bank will cease to exist. We expect to complete the Merger during the third quarter of 2017.

Reasons for the Merger (page 37)

First Merchants. First Merchants' Board of Directors considered a number of financial and nonfinancial factors in making its decision to merge with IALB, including its respect for the ability and integrity of IALB's Board of Directors, management and staff. The Board believes that expanding First Merchants' operations in the market areas where IALB operates offers financial and strategic benefits to First Merchants and IALB as a combined company.

IALB. In considering the Merger with First Merchants, IALB's Board of Directors collected and evaluated a variety of economic, financial and market information regarding First Merchants and its subsidiaries, their respective businesses and First Merchants' reputation and future prospects. In the opinion of IALB's Board of Directors, favorable factors included First Merchants' strong earnings and stock performance, its management, the compatibility of its markets to those of IALB, the likelihood of regulatory approvals of the Merger, and the attractiveness of First Merchants' offer from a financial perspective. In addition, the Board of Directors considered the fairness opinion of ProBank Austin, described below.

Opinion of ProBank Austin (page 39)

IALB's Board of Directors retained ProBank Austin to render a fairness opinion in connection with the proposed Merger. At the meeting of IALB's Board of Directors on February 15, 2017, ProBank Austin delivered to IALB's Board of Directors an oral opinion, which was confirmed by delivery of a written opinion, dated February 17, 2017, to the effect that, as of the date of the opinion and based upon and subject to the conditions, limitations, qualifications and assumptions set forth in the opinion, the right of the holders of IALB common shares to receive 1.6530 shares (the "Exchange Ratio") of First Merchants common stock (the "Merger Consideration") was fair, from a financial point of view, to such holders of IALB common stock, other than any holders who properly perfect their right to dissent under applicable law (the "Excluded Holders").

The full text of the written opinion of ProBank Austin, which sets forth the assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and limitations on the review undertaken in connection with the opinion of ProBank Austin, is attached as Annex C to this proxy statement and prospectus and is incorporated herein by reference. IALB shareholders are urged to read ProBank Austin's written opinion carefully and in its entirety. ProBank Austin's opinion is limited solely to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the Exchange Ratio to be received in the Merger by the holders of IALB common stock (other than any Excluded Holders) and does not address IALB's underlying business decision to effect the Merger or the relative merits of the Merger as compared to any alternative business strategies or transactions that might be available with respect to IALB. ProBank Austin's opinion does not constitute a recommendation to any shareholder of IALB as to how such shareholder should vote or act with respect to any matter relating to the Merger or otherwise.

What IALB Shareholders Will Receive (page 33)

If the Merger Agreement is approved and the Merger is subsequently completed, each outstanding share of IALB common stock will be converted into the right to receive the Exchange Ratio of 1.6530 shares of First Merchants common stock. The Exchange Ratio is subject to adjustment for stock splits, stock dividends, recapitalization or similar transactions. Each IALB shareholder that would otherwise be entitled to receive a fractional share of First Merchants common stock will receive cash in lieu of such fractional share.

Because the Exchange Ratio is fixed (except for customary anti-dilution adjustments), the value of the Merger Consideration that you will receive will depend on the market price of First Merchants common stock when you receive your shares of First Merchants common stock. The implied per share value of the Merger Consideration, based upon First Merchants' closing stock price on April 28, 2017, the most recent practicable trading day before this proxy statement and prospectus was finalized, was $41.38 per share. No assurance can be given that the current market price of First Merchants common stock will be equivalent to the market price of First Merchants common stock on the date that shares of First Merchants common stock are received by an IALB shareholder or at any other time.

Within three (3) business days following the effective date of the Merger, First Merchants will mail a letter of transmittal to each person who was, immediately prior to the effective time of the Merger, a holder of record of IALB common stock. The letter of transmittal will contain instructions for use in effecting the surrender of IALB stock certificates (or shares held in book-entry form) in exchange for the consideration to which such person may be entitled pursuant to the Merger Agreement.

What First Merchants Shareholders Will Receive (page 34)

First Merchants shareholders will not receive any consideration in the Merger. After the Merger, First Merchants shareholders will continue to own the same number of First Merchants shares owned before the Merger.

The IALB Special Shareholders Meeting (page 29)

The special meeting of IALB shareholders will be held on June 27, 2017, at 3:00 p.m., local time, at Ramada Plaza Fort Wayne Hotel and Conference Center, 305 E. Washington Center Road, Fort Wayne, Indiana 46825.

At the special meeting, IALB shareholders will be asked:

1. Merger Proposal. To consider and vote upon a proposal to approve the Merger Agreement and to approve the transactions contemplated thereby. Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, IALB will merge with and into First Merchants and, immediately thereafter, iAB Financial Bank will merge with and into First Merchants Bank.
2. Adjournment Proposal. To approve one (1) or more adjournments of the IALB special meeting, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies in favor of the Merger Proposal.
3. Other Matters. To vote upon such other matters which may properly be presented at the special meeting or any adjournment or postponement of the special meeting. IALB's Board of Directors is not aware of any such other matters.

IALB Recommendation to Shareholders (page 39)

IALB's Board of Directors approved and adopted the Merger Agreement and approved and authorized the proposed Merger. IALB's Board of Directors concluded that entering into the Merger Agreement and completing the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement are in the best interest of IALB and the IALB shareholders. IALB's Board of Directors recommends that IALB shareholders vote "FOR" (1) approval of the Merger Proposal, and (2) approval of the Adjournment Proposal. In reaching its determination, IALB's Board of Directors considered a number of factors, which are described in the section captioned "THE MERGER—IALB's Reasons for the Merger" beginning on page 37. Because of the wide variety of factors considered, IALB's Board of Directors did not believe it practicable, nor did it attempt, to quantify or otherwise assign relative weight to the specific factors it considered in reaching its decision.

IALB Special Meeting Record Date; Vote Required (page 29)

Only IALB shareholders of record as of the close of business on April 28, 2017, are entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the IALB special meeting and any adjournments or postponements of the special meeting. As of the record date, there were 4,082,479 shares of IALB common stock outstanding. Approval of the Merger Proposal requires the affirmative vote of holders of at least a majority of the outstanding shares of IALB common stock entitled to vote. The approval of the Adjournment Proposal requires more votes to be cast in favor of the proposal than are cast against it. You can vote your shares by attending the IALB special meeting and voting in person, or you can vote by proxy by marking the enclosed proxy card with your vote, signing it and mailing it in the enclosed return envelope. You can revoke your proxy at any time before the special meeting by sending a written notice of revocation, submitting a new proxy or by attending the special meeting and voting in person.

No approval by First Merchants shareholders is required.

Voting Agreement (page 58)

Each member of the Board of Directors of IALB, as of February 17, 2017, the date the Merger Agreement was executed, entered into a voting agreement with First Merchants to cause all IALB common stock owned by each of them of record or beneficially on such date to be voted in favor of the Merger Proposal. See "THE MERGER AGREEMENT—Voting Agreement" on page 58. As of the record date, the members of IALB's Board of Directors had power to vote, or caused to be voted, an aggregate of 155,794 shares of IALB common stock outstanding, representing 3.8% of the outstanding shares on that date.

First Merchants ownership of IALB Shares (page 31)

First Merchants currently holds 495,112 shares or 12.1% of IALB's outstanding common stock, having purchased such shares from an IALB shareholder for $19.8 million in November 2016. First Merchants will vote all of its shares in favor of the Merger Proposal and Adjournment Proposal. See "THE MERGER AGREEMENT—Vote Required" on page 29.

What We Need to Do to Complete the Merger (page 52)

Completion of the Merger depends on a number of conditions being met or waived. In addition to our compliance with the Merger Agreement, these conditions include among others:

- the approval of the Merger Agreement at the special meeting by a majority of the issued and outstanding shares of IALB common stock;
- the approval of the Merger and the Bank Merger by certain regulatory agencies and the expiration of any regulatory waiting periods;
- the representations and warranties made by the parties in the Merger Agreement must be true, accurate and correct in all material respects on and as of the effective date of the Merger, except that representations and warranties that are qualified by materiality or a Material Adverse Effect (as defined below in "THE MERGER AGREEMENT—Conditions to Completion of the Merger") must be true and correct in all respects, and provided that for those representations and warranties which address matters only as of an earlier date, then they shall be tested as of such earlier date;

- the covenants made by the parties must have been complied with in all material respects from the date of the Merger Agreement through and as of the effective date of the Merger;
- First Merchants must have received an opinion of Bingham Greenebaum Doll LLP that, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, the Merger will be treated as a “reorganization” within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code;
- IALB must have received a letter from Bingham Greenebaum Doll LLP addressed to the shareholders of IALB, dated as of the effective date of the Merger, to the effect that such shareholders may rely on the opinion referenced immediately above;
- the Registration Statement on Form S-4, of which this proxy statement and prospectus is a part, relating to the First Merchants shares to be issued pursuant to the Merger Agreement, must have become effective under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the “Securities Act”), and no stop order suspending the effectiveness of the Registration Statement shall have been issued or threatened by the SEC;
- the shares of First Merchants common stock to be issued in the Merger shall have been listed for trading on The NASDAQ Global Select Market (subject to official notice of issuance);
- there must be no order, decree or injunction of a court or agency of competent jurisdiction which enjoins or prohibits the consummation of the Merger or the Bank Merger; and
- other customary conditions and obligations of the parties set forth in the Merger Agreement.

Under the Merger Agreement, receipt of the tax opinion and the reliance letter referred to above may be waived by First Merchants and IALB, respectively, prior to the closing of the Merger. However, if receipt of such opinion and reliance letter were waived, IALB would resolicit its shareholders if any change in the tax consequences were material and disclose the reasons for the waiver and the change in tax consequences. Such resolicitation would require an amendment to the Registration Statement on Form S-4, of which this proxy statement and prospectus is a part.

Regulatory Approvals (page 48)

The Merger cannot be completed until First Merchants Bank receives necessary regulatory approvals, which include the approval of the Indiana Department of Financial Institutions (the “Indiana DFI”) and the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (the “FDIC”). First Merchants Bank has filed an application with the Indiana DFI and the FDIC, but cannot be certain when or if such approval will be obtained. First Merchants has also requested that the Federal Reserve Board of Governors (the “Federal Reserve”) waive its right to receive an application in connection with the Merger as permitted under Regulation Y of the Bank Holding Company Act. The Federal Reserve waiver was granted on April 14, 2017.

Conduct of Business Pending Merger (page 56)

Under the terms of the Merger Agreement, IALB and First Merchants must carry on their business in the ordinary course and, subject to certain limited exceptions, may not take certain extraordinary actions without first obtaining the other party’s consent.

We have agreed that IALB will continue to pay quarterly dividends at no more than the current rate of $0.22 per share until the Merger closes. We will each cooperate to insure that IALB shareholders will receive only one (1) quarterly dividend for the quarter in which the Merger closes, and not a separate dividend from both First Merchants and IALB.

Agreements of First Merchants (pages 48, 57 and 58)

In the Merger Agreement, First Merchants has agreed, among other matters, to:

- Proceed and use its reasonable and diligent efforts to obtain any consents and approvals for the Merger. See “THE MERGER—Regulatory Approvals” on page 48.
- Take action as may be necessary to allow IALB and its subsidiaries’ employees, as soon as reasonably practicable following the effective date of the Merger, to participate in benefit plans First Merchants maintains for its employees. Until such time as participation is implemented, First Merchants will assume, honor and continue the employee plans and benefit arrangements of IALB as in effect on the effective date of the Merger, subject to certain limitations set forth in the Merger Agreement. See “THE MERGER AGREEMENT—Employee Benefit Plans” on page 58.
- Provide, or allow for, director and officer liability insurance and indemnification. See “THE MERGER AGREEMENT—Indemnification and Insurance of IALB Directors and Officers” on page 57.

Dissenters’ Rights (page 47)

The shareholders of IALB are entitled to dissenters’ rights in connection with the Merger under the Indiana Business Corporation Law. If you wish to assert dissenters’ rights, you must deliver to IALB written notice of your intent to assert such rights before the vote is taken at the special meeting. In addition, you must not vote in favor of the Merger Proposal either in person or by proxy. If the Merger Proposal is approved and the Merger is completed, and you have dissented and followed the required procedures, then you will not receive any shares of common stock of First Merchants. Instead, you will be entitled to receive the fair value of your IALB common stock in cash as determined through the dissenters’ rights procedures. The procedure for dissenting is explained more fully under “THE MERGER – Rights of Dissenting Shareholders” beginning on page 47 and in Annex B to this proxy statement and prospectus.

Management and Operations After the Merger (page 57)

IALB’s corporate existence will cease after the Merger. Accordingly, except as otherwise described herein, directors and officers of IALB will not serve in such capacities after the effective date of the Merger. Upon completion of the Merger, the current officers and directors of First Merchants will continue to serve in such capacities.

Interests of Directors and Officers in the Merger That Are Different From Your Interests (page 49)

You should be aware that some of directors and executive officers of IALB and iAB Financial Bank may have interests in the Merger that are different from, or in addition to, their interests as shareholders. Both IALB’s Board of Directors and First Merchants’ Board of Directors were aware of these interests and took them into consideration in approving the Merger Agreement and the Merger. These interests are as follows:

- Certain executive officers of IALB and iAB Financial Bank will enter into transition period retention agreements with iAB Financial Bank in connection with the Merger. The agreements provide for amounts to be paid to the officers by iAB Financial Bank (or First Merchants Bank as its successor) and provide for certain non-competition and non-solicitation obligations from the officers. Certain executive officers of IALB and iAB Financial Bank are also recipients of long-term incentive (“LTI Awards”) that provide for the acceleration of vesting and payment of benefits following a change in control of IALB. Under the retention agreements and LTI Awards, these executive officers would be entitled to receive an aggregate of $4,924,863 and $1,343,680, respectively. See “THE MERGER—Interests of Certain Persons in the Merger: Agreements with IALB” on page 49.

- In connection with entering into the Merger Agreement, First Merchants requested that IALB enter into a Transition Period Retention Agreement (the “Transition Agreement”) with William H. Thatcher, III, IALB’s Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer, that provides for certain assurances of employment following the Merger by First Merchants. The Transition Agreement provides that upon the closing of the Merger, First Merchants will enter into an employment arrangement with Mr. Thatcher and appoint Mr. Thatcher as First Merchant’s Regional President for the Fort Wayne Region. In the event the Merger does not close and the Merger Agreement is terminated, the Transition Agreement will automatically terminate. See “THE MERGER—Interests of Certain Persons in the Merger: Agreements with IALB” on page 49.
- First Merchants has agreed that for a period of six (6) years after the effective time of the Merger, it will maintain directors’ and officers’ liability insurance in force covering directors and officers of IALB and iAB Financial Bank, subject to certain conditions set forth in the Merger Agreement.
- The Merger Agreement obligates First Merchants to appoint one person who is currently a member of the IALB Board of Directors (chosen by First Merchants after consultation with IALB) to the First Merchants Board of Directors. Such person will be entitled to receive compensation from First Merchants for service to the Board.

Termination of the Merger (page 53)

Both First Merchants and IALB can mutually agree to terminate the Merger Agreement before we complete the Merger. In addition, either IALB or First Merchants acting alone can terminate the Merger Agreement under the circumstances described on page 53.

IALB has agreed to pay First Merchants a termination fee of $5,000,000 if:

- IALB’s Board of Directors terminates the Merger Agreement in the exercise of its fiduciary duties after receipt of an unsolicited superior acquisition proposal from a third party;
- First Merchants terminates the Merger Agreement because IALB’s Board of Directors withdraws or modifies its recommendation to IALB’s shareholders to vote for the Merger following receipt of a written proposal for an acquisition from a third party; or
- First Merchants terminates the Merger Agreement because IALB fails to give First Merchants written notice that it intends to furnish information to or enter into discussions or negotiations with a third party relating to a proposed acquisition of IALB, or if IALB, within sixty (60) days after giving such notice, does not terminate such discussions or negotiations.

Material U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences (page 59)

It is a condition to the closing of the Merger that Bingham Greenebaum Doll LLP deliver an opinion, effective as of the date of the Merger, to First Merchants substantially to the effect that, for United States federal income tax purposes, the Merger will be treated as a “reorganization” within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code. This opinion will not, however, bind the Internal Revenue Service (the “IRS”) which could take a different view. It is also a condition to the closing of the Merger that Bingham Greenebaum Doll

LLP deliver a letter to IALB, addressed to the shareholders of IALB and dated as of the effective date of the Merger, to the effect that the shareholders shall be permitted to rely upon the tax opinion referred to above. Under the Merger Agreement, receipt of the tax opinion and the reliance letter may be waived by First Merchants and IALB, respectively, prior to the closing of the Merger. However, if receipt of such opinion and reliance letter were waived, IALB would resolicit its shareholders if any change in the tax consequences were material and disclose the reasons for the waiver and the change in tax consequences. Such resolicitation would require an amendment to the Registration Statement on Form S-4, of which this proxy statement and prospectus is a part.

Determining the actual tax consequences of the Merger to you can be complicated. We suggest you consult with your own tax advisors with respect to the tax consequences of the Merger to you.

For a more detailed description of the material federal income tax consequences of the Merger to First Merchants and IALB shareholders, see “MATERIAL U.S. FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES” on page 59.

Comparative Rights of First Merchants and IALB Shareholders (page 65)

The rights of shareholders of First Merchants and IALB differ in some respects. The rights of holders of First Merchants common stock are governed by the laws of the State of Indiana, including the Indiana Business Corporation Law, and First Merchants’ Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws. The rights of holders of IALB common stock are governed by the laws of the State of Indiana, including the Indiana Business Corporation Law, and IALB’s Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws. Upon completion of the Merger, IALB shareholders who receive First Merchants common stock will take such stock subject to First Merchants Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws.

Authorized But Unissued Shares

First Merchants

First Merchants’ Articles of Incorporation authorize the issuance of 100,000,000 shares of common stock, of which 41,047,543 shares were outstanding as of March 31, 2017. First Merchants’ Board of Directors may authorize the issuance of additional shares of common stock up to the amounts authorized in First Merchants’ Articles of Incorporation without shareholder approval, subject only to the restrictions of the Indiana Business Corporation Law and the Articles of Incorporation. First Merchants has 500,000 shares of preferred stock authorized, no shares of which are currently outstanding. The preferred shares are available to be issued, without prior shareholder approval, in classes with the rights, privileges and preferences determined for each class by the Board of Directors of First Merchants.

As of March 31, 2017, First Merchants had 223,802 shares of its common stock reserved and remaining available for issuance under its 2009 Long-term Equity

IALB

The Articles of Incorporation of IALB authorize the issuance of 10,000,000 shares of common stock, without par value. As of April 28, 2017, there were 4,082,479 shares of common stock outstanding. IALB’s Board of Directors may authorize the issuance of additional shares of common stock up to the amounts authorized in IALB’s Articles of Incorporation, without shareholder approval, subject only to the restrictions of the Indiana Business Corporation Law and its Articles of Incorporation.

First Merchants

Incentive Plan, 41,516 shares of its common stock reserved and remaining available for issuance under its Dividend Reinvestment and Stock Purchase Plan and 322,729 shares of its common stock reserved and remaining available for issuance under its 2008 Equity Compensation Plan for Non-Employee Directors. In addition, as of March 31, 2017, First Merchants had no options granted but unexercised under its 1994 Stock Option Plan, 101,976 options granted but unexercised under its 1999 Long-term Equity Incentive Plan, and 77,400 options granted but unexercised under its 2009 Long-term Equity Incentive Plan, with shares reserved and remaining available equal to the outstanding options under each plan.

The issuance of additional shares of First Merchants common stock or the issuance of additional First Merchants preferred stock may adversely affect the interests of First Merchants shareholders by diluting their voting and ownership interests.

Restrictions on Transfer of Shares

First Merchants

The holders of First Merchants common stock are generally not restricted on sales of their shares. The shares are also registered under Section 12 of the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934 (the "Exchange Act") and listed for exchange on The NASDAQ Global Select Market. As a result, a public market exists for the shares of common stock.

IALB

The holders of IALB common stock are generally not restricted on sales of their shares. The shares are not registered under Section 12 of the Exchange Act, but are quoted on the OTCQX Market under the symbol "IALB." As a result, a limited public market exists for the shares of common stock.

Dividend Rights

First Merchants

The holders of First Merchants common stock are entitled to dividends and other distributions when, as and if declared by its Boards of Directors.

Generally, First Merchants may not pay a dividend if, after giving effect to the dividend:

- First Merchants would not be able to pay its debts as they become due in the usual course of business; or
- First Merchants' total assets would be less than the sum of its total liabilities plus the amount that would be needed to satisfy preferential rights of shareholders payable upon dissolution.

IALB

The holders of IALB common stock are entitled to dividends and other distributions when, as and if declared by its Boards of Directors. Dividends may be paid in cash, in property or in IALB's stock.

Generally, IALB may not pay a dividend if, after giving effect to the dividend:

- IALB would not be able to pay its debts as they become due in the usual course of business; or
- IALB's total assets would be less than the sum of its total liabilities plus the amount that would be needed to satisfy preferential rights of shareholders payable upon dissolution.

First Merchants

IALB

The amount of dividends, if any, that may be declared by First Merchants in the future will necessarily depend upon many factors, including, among other things, future earnings, capital requirements, business conditions and capital levels of subsidiaries (since First Merchants is primarily dependent upon dividends paid by its subsidiaries for revenues), the discretion of First Merchants' Board of Directors and other factors that may be appropriate in determining dividend policies.

First Merchants Bank may pay cash dividends to First Merchants on its common stock only out of adjusted retained net profits for the year in which the dividend is paid and the two preceding years.

First Merchants Bank will ordinarily be restricted to paying dividends in a lesser amount to First Merchants than is legally permissible because of the need for the banks to maintain adequate capital consistent with the capital adequacy guidelines promulgated by the banks' principal federal regulatory authorities. If a bank's capital levels are deemed inadequate by the regulatory authorities, payment of dividends to its parent holding company may be prohibited. First Merchants Bank is not currently subject to such a restriction.

Completion of the Merger (page 49)

The Merger will become effective when we file Articles of Merger with the Secretary of the State of Indiana, or at such later date and time as may be set forth in the Articles of Merger. We expect the Merger to become effective during the third quarter of 2017.

Comparative Market Price Information

Shares of First Merchants common stock are listed on The NASDAQ Global Select Market under the symbol "FRME." Shares of IALB common stock are quoted on the OTCQX Market under the symbol "IALB." The following table presents quotation information for First Merchants common stock and for IALB common stock on February 16, 2017, the business day before the Merger was publicly announced, and April 28, 2017, the last practicable trading day for which information was available prior to the date of this proxy statement and prospectus.

	First Merchants Common Stock			IALB Common Stock
	High	Low	(Dollars Per Share) Close	High	Low	Close
February 16, 2017	$ 42.17	$41.48	$42.10	$39.90	$39.50	$39.90
April 28, 2017	$43.115	$41.32	$41.38	$70.00	$67.67	$67.67

The market value of the aggregate consideration that IALB shareholders will receive in the Merger is approximately $251.3 million (or $69.59 per share of IALB common stock) based on 3,610,508 shares of IALB common stock outstanding (representing the sum of 4,082,479 shares of IALB common stock outstanding on February 16, 2017 and 23,141 shares of IALB common stock to be issued immediately prior to the effective time of the Merger pursuant to certain outstanding stock unit awards and excluding the 495,112 shares of IALB common stock currently held by First Merchants) and First Merchants' closing stock price of $42.10 on February 16, 2017, the business day before the Merger was publicly announced.

The market value of the aggregate consideration that IALB shareholders will receive in the Merger is approximately $247.0 million (or $68.40 per share of IALB common stock) based on 3,610,508 shares of IALB common stock outstanding (as described above) and First Merchants' closing stock price of $41.38 on April 28, 2017, the last practicable trading day prior to the date of this proxy statement and prospectus.

Also set forth below for the closing price of First Merchants common stock on February 16, 2017, and April 28, 2017, is the equivalent pro forma price of IALB common stock, which we determined by multiplying the applicable price of First Merchants common stock by the number of shares of First Merchants common stock we are issuing for each share of IALB common stock in the Merger, which is the Exchange Ratio of 1.6530. The equivalent pro forma price of IALB common stock shows the implied value to be received in the Merger by IALB shareholders who receive First Merchants common stock in exchange for a share of IALB common stock on these dates.

	First Merchants Common Stock	IALB Common Stock	IALB Equivalent Pro Forma
February 16, 2017	$ 42.10	$ 39.90	$ 69.59
April 28, 2017	$ 41.38	$ 67.67	$ 68.40

We suggest you obtain a current market quotation for First Merchants common stock. We expect that the market price of First Merchants common stock will fluctuate between the date of this document and the date on which the Merger is completed and thereafter. Because the Exchange Ratio is fixed (except for customary anti-dilution adjustments) and the market price of First Merchants common stock is subject to fluctuation, the value of the shares of First Merchants common stock that IALB shareholders will receive in the Merger may increase or decrease prior to and after the Merger.

Comparative Per Share Data

The following table sets forth the basic and diluted earnings per common share, book value per share and cash dividends per share for each of First Merchants and IALB on a historical basis, for First Merchants on a pro forma combined basis, and on a pro forma combined basis per IALB equivalent share.

The pro forma data gives effect to: (i) the proposed acquisition by First Merchants Bank of The Arlington Bank, an Ohio savings bank ("Arlington Bank"); (ii) the proposed issuance of a number of shares of First Merchants common stock to the shareholders of Arlington Bank in connection with that acquisition; (iii) the proposed acquisition of IALB; and (iv) the proposed issuance 5,968,170 shares of First Merchants common shares to IALB shareholders, which assumes 3,610,508 shares of IALB common stock are outstanding at the time of closing (representing the sum of 4,082,479 shares if IALB common stock outstanding on February 17, 2017 and 23,141 shares of IALB common stock to be issued immediately prior to the effective time of the Merger pursuant to certain outstanding stock unit awards and excludes the 495,112 shares of IALB common stock currently held by First Merchants) and assumes that there are no dissenters. For purposes of presenting pro forma basic and diluted earnings per share, cash dividends per share, and book value per share, the comparative pro forma data assumes that First Merchants and IALB had been combined throughout the period shown. The data in the column "Pro Forma Equivalent Per IALB Share" shows the effect of the Merger from the perspective of an owner of IALB common stock, and was obtained by multiplying the Combined Pro Forma Amounts for First Merchants by the Exchange Ratio") of 1.6530.

We expect that we will incur reorganization and restructuring expenses as a result of combining our two companies. We also anticipate that the Merger will provide the combined company with financial benefits that include reduced operating expenses and the opportunity to earn more revenue. The pro forma information, while helpful in illustrating the financial characteristics of the combined company, does not take into account these expected expenses or these anticipated financial benefits, and does not attempt to predict or suggest future results. It also does not necessarily reflect what the historical results of the merged company would have been had our companies been merged during the periods presented.

IALB does not have a class of securities registered under Section 12 of the Exchange Act, is not subject to the reporting requirements of Section 13(a) or 15(d) of the Exchange Act, and accordingly does not file documents and reports with the SEC to be incorporated by reference.

The information in the following table is based on historical financial information of IALB and First Merchants. The information with respect to First Merchants is included in its report previously filed with the SEC. The historical financial information of First Merchants has been incorporated into this document by reference. See “WHERE YOU CAN FIND ADDITIONAL INFORMATION” on page 73 for a description of documents that we incorporate by reference into this document and how to obtain copies of them.

SELECTED CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL DATA

The following tables set forth certain summary historical consolidated financial data for each of our companies. First Merchants' and IALB's balance sheet and income statement data as of and for the five years in the period ended December 31, 2016 are taken from each of First Merchants' and IALB's respective audited financial statements (which data and financial statements are presented on a consolidated basis).

The following tables also set forth certain summary unaudited pro forma consolidated financial information for First Merchants and IALB reflecting the Merger. The pro forma disclosures are being presented to provide additional information in support of the pro forma data included under the "Comparative Per Share Data" section of this SUMMARY. As a result, this condensed pro forma presentation is not intended to comply with the disclosure requirements under Article 11 of Regulation S-X. The income statement information presented gives effect to the Merger as if it occurred on the first day of the period presented. The balance sheet information presented gives effect to the Merger as if it occurred on December 31, 2016. The pro forma data reflects the following: (i) the proposed acquisition by First Merchants Bank of Arlington Bank; (ii) the proposed issuance of a number of shares of First Merchants common stock to the shareholders of Arlington Bank in connection with that acquisition; (iii) the proposed acquisition of IALB; and (iv) the proposed issuance 5,968,170 shares of First Merchants common shares to IALB shareholders, which assumes 3,610,508 shares of IALB common stock are outstanding at the time of closing (representing the sum of 4,082,479 shares if IALB common stock outstanding on February 17, 2017 and 23,141 shares of IALB common stock to be issued immediately prior to the effective time of the Merger pursuant to certain outstanding stock unit awards and excludes the 495,112 shares of IALB common stock currently held by First Merchants) and assumes that there are no dissenters.

The pro forma information reflects the purchase method of accounting, with IALB's assets and liabilities recorded at their estimated fair values as of December 31, 2016. The actual fair value adjustments to the assets and the liabilities of IALB will be made on the basis of appraisals and evaluations that will be made as of the date the Merger is completed. Thus, the actual fair value adjustments may differ significantly from those reflected in these pro forma financial statements. In the opinion of First Merchants' management, the estimates used in the preparation of these pro forma financial statements are reasonable under the circumstances.

We expect that we will incur reorganization and restructuring expenses as a result of combining our companies. We also anticipate that the Merger will provide the combined company with financial benefits that include reduced operating expenses and the opportunity to earn more revenue. The pro forma information, while helpful in illustrating the financial characteristics of the combined company under two sets of assumptions, does not take into account these expected expenses or anticipated financial benefits, and does not attempt to predict or suggest future results.

This selected financial data is only a summary and you should read it in conjunction with First Merchants' consolidated financial statements and related notes incorporated into this document by reference. See "WHERE YOU CAN FIND ADDITIONAL INFORMATION" on page 73 for a description of documents that we incorporate by reference into this document and how to obtain copies of such documents.

RISK FACTORS

In addition to general investment risks and the other information contained in or incorporated by reference into this proxy statement and prospectus, including the matters addressed under the section “FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS,” you should carefully consider the following risk factors in deciding how to vote for the Merger Proposal presented in this proxy statement and prospectus. You should also consider the other information in this proxy statement and prospectus and the other documents incorporated by reference into this proxy statement and prospectus. See “WHERE YOU CAN FIND ADDITIONAL INFORMATION” on page 73.

Risk Factors Relating to the Merged Company and Its Industry

Combining the two (2) companies may be more difficult, costly or time consuming than expected and the anticipated benefits and costs savings of the Merger may not be realized.

Even though First Merchants has acquired other financial services businesses in the past, the success of the Merger with IALB will depend on a number of factors, including, but not limited to, the merged company’s ability to:

- integrate IALB’s operations with the operations of First Merchants;
- maintain existing relationships with First Merchants’ depositors and IALB’s depositors to minimize withdrawals of deposits subsequent to the acquisition;
- maintain and enhance existing relationships with borrowers of First Merchants and IALB;
- achieve projected net income of First Merchants Bank and expected cost savings and revenue enhancements from the merged company;
- control the incremental non-interest expense to maintain overall operating efficiencies;
- retain and attract key and qualified management, lending and other banking personnel; and
- compete effectively in the communities served by First Merchants and IALB, and in nearby communities.

First Merchants’ failure to successfully integrate IALB into its business may adversely affect its financial condition and results of operations.

The value of the consideration to be received by IALB shareholders in the Merger will fluctuate.

If the Merger is completed, IALB shareholders will receive a number of shares of First Merchants common stock based on a fixed Exchange Ratio of 1.6530 shares of First Merchants common stock for each share of IALB common stock. Because the market value of First Merchants common stock may (and likely will) fluctuate, the value of the stock consideration you receive for your shares may also fluctuate. The market value of First Merchants common stock could fluctuate for any number of reasons, including those specific to First Merchants and those that influence trading prices of equity securities generally. As a result, you will not know the exact value of the shares of First Merchants common stock you will receive at the time you must vote your shares. The value of First Merchants common stock on the closing date of the Merger may be greater or less than the market price of First Merchants common stock on the record date, on the date of this proxy statement and prospectus or on the date of the special meeting. Moreover, the fairness opinion of ProBank Austin is dated February 17, 2017. Changes in the operations and prospects of First Merchants and IALB, general market and economic conditions and other factors which are both within and outside of the control of First Merchants and IALB, on which the fairness opinion is based, may alter the relative value of the companies. Therefore, the fairness opinion does not address the fairness of the Exchange Ratio at the time the Merger will be completed.

We encourage you to obtain a current market quotation for First Merchants common stock because the value of any First Merchants shares you receive may be more or less than the value of such shares as of the date of this document.

The merged company's allowance for loan losses may not be adequate to cover actual loan losses.

The merged company's loan customers may not repay their loans according to their terms, and the customers' collateral securing the payment of their loans may be insufficient to assure repayment. As of December 31, 2016, approximately 64% of the merged company's loans are comprised of commercial real estate and commercial lines of credit and term and development loans, which can result in higher loan loss experience than residential loans in economic downturns. The underwriting, review and monitoring that will be performed by the merged company's officers and directors cannot eliminate all of the risks related to these loans.

Each of First Merchants and IALB make various assumptions and judgments about the collectability of their respective loan portfolios and provide an allowance for loan losses based on a number of factors. If the assumptions are wrong or the facts and circumstances subsequently and materially change, the allowance for loan losses and Merger-related credit marks may not be sufficient to cover the merged company's loan losses. The merged company may have to increase its allowance for loan losses in the future, which could decrease its net income.

Deterioration in loan quality will adversely affect the merged company's results of operations and financial condition.

Each of First Merchants and IALB seek to mitigate the risks inherent in their respective loan portfolios by adhering to sound underwriting practices. Their lending strategies also include emphasizing diversification on a geographic, industry and customer level, regular credit quality reviews and management reviews of large credit exposures and loans experiencing deterioration of credit quality. There is continuous review of their loan portfolios, including internally administered loan "watch" lists and independent loan reviews. These evaluations take into consideration identified credit problems, as well as the possibility of losses inherent in the loan portfolio that are not specifically identified. Although First Merchants and IALB believe their underwriting and loan review procedures are appropriate for the various kinds of loans they make, the merged company's results of operation and financial condition will be adversely affected in the event the quality of their respective loan portfolios deteriorates. As of December 31, 2016, First Merchants had $34.7 million and IALB had $6.0 million in non-performing loans.

Changes in interest rates may reduce the merged company's net interest income.

Like other financial institutions, the merged company's net interest income is its primary revenue source. Net interest income is the difference between interest earned on loans and investments and interest expense incurred on deposits and other borrowings. The merged company's net interest income will be affected by changes in market rates of interest, the interest rate sensitivity of its assets and liabilities, prepayments on its loans and investments and limits on increases in the rates of interest charged on its residential real estate loans.

The merged company will not be able to predict or control changes in market rates of interest. Market rates of interest are affected by regional and local economic conditions, as well as monetary policies of the Federal Reserve Board. The following factors also may affect market interest rates:

- inflation;
- slow or stagnant economic growth or recession;
- unemployment;
- money supply;
- international disorders;
- instability in domestic and foreign financial markets; and
- other factors beyond the merged company's control.

Table of Contents

Each of First Merchants and IALB has policies and procedures designed to manage the risks from changes in market interest rates; however, despite risk management, changes in interest rates could adversely affect the merged company's results of operations and financial condition.

Changes in economic conditions and the geographic concentration of the merged company's markets could adversely affect the merged company's financial condition.

The merged company's success will depend to a great extent upon the general economic conditions of the Central and Eastern Indiana areas. Unlike larger banks that are more geographically diversified, the merged company will provide banking and financial services to customers primarily located in these areas. Favorable economic conditions may not exist in the merged company's markets.

A continued economic slowdown could have the following consequences:

- loan delinquencies may increase;
- problem assets and foreclosures may increase;
- demand for the products and services of IALB and First Merchants may decline; and
- collateral for loans made by IALB and First Merchants may decline in value, in turn reducing customers' borrowing power, and reducing the value of assets and collateral associated with existing loans.

Anti-takeover defenses may delay or prevent future mergers.

Provisions contained in First Merchants' Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws and certain provisions of Indiana law could make it more difficult for a third party to acquire First Merchants, even if doing so might be beneficial to First Merchants shareholders. See "COMPARISON OF COMMON STOCK—Anti-Takeover Provisions" on page 70. These provisions could limit the price that some investors might be willing to pay in the future for shares of First Merchants common stock and may have the effect of delaying or preventing a change in control.

If the Merger is not completed, the parties will have incurred substantial expenses without realizing the expected benefits.

First Merchants and IALB have incurred substantial expenses in connection with the transactions described in this proxy statement and prospectus. The completion of the Merger depends on the satisfaction of several conditions. We cannot guarantee that these conditions will be met. IALB expects to incur approximately $3.2 million in pre-tax Merger-related expenses and First Merchants expects to incur approximately $6.8 million in pre-tax Merger-related expenses, which include legal, accounting and financial advisory expenses and which excludes any termination fees, if applicable. Although some of these expenses will not be incurred if the Merger is not completed, others will and such expenses could have a material adverse impact on the financial condition of First Merchants and IALB because they would not have realized the expected benefits of the Merger. There can be no assurance that the Merger will be completed.

The Merger Agreement may be terminated in accordance with its terms and the Merger may not be completed, which could have a negative impact on IALB.

The Merger Agreement with First Merchants is subject to a number of conditions which must be fulfilled in order to close. Those conditions include: IALB shareholder approval, regulatory approvals, the continued accuracy of certain representations and warranties by both parties and the performance by both parties of certain covenants and agreements. There can be no assurance that the Merger will be completed.

In addition, certain circumstances exist where IALB may choose to terminate the Merger Agreement, including the acceptance of a superior acquisition proposal. See “THE MERGER—Exchange of IALB Common Stock” for a more complete discussion of the consideration to be paid in the Merger and “THE MERGER AGREEMENT—Termination; Waiver; Amendment” for a more complete discussion of the circumstances under which the Merger Agreement could be terminated. There can be no assurance that the conditions to closing the Merger will be fulfilled or that the Merger will be completed.

If the Merger Agreement is terminated, there may be various consequences to IALB, including:

- IALB’s businesses may have been adversely impacted by the failure to pursue other beneficial opportunities due to the focus of management on the Merger, without realizing any of the anticipated benefits of completing the Merger; and
- IALB will have incurred substantial expenses in connection with the Merger, without realizing any of the anticipated benefits of completing the Merger.

If the Merger Agreement is terminated by IALB due to its acceptance of a superior acquisition proposal or by First Merchants due to the failure of IALB’s Board of Directors to recommend approval of the Merger Agreement to its shareholders by reason of a superior acquisition proposal or for certain related reasons, then IALB has agreed pay to First Merchants a $5,000,000 termination fee. The payment of the termination fee could have a material adverse effect on IALB’s financial condition, and there can be no assurance that IALB would be able to complete a transaction with a party willing to pay an equivalent or more attractive price than the price First Merchants has agreed to pay in the Merger.

The termination fee and the restrictions on solicitation contained in the Merger Agreement may discourage other companies from trying to acquire IALB.

Until the completion of the Merger, with some exceptions, IALB is prohibited from soliciting, initiating, encouraging or participating in any discussion of or otherwise considering any inquiries or proposals that may lead to an acquisition proposal, such as a merger or other business combination transaction, with any person other than First Merchants. In addition, IALB has agreed to pay a termination fee of $5,000,000 to First Merchants if the IALB Board of Directors does not recommend approval of the Merger Agreement to the IALB shareholders by reason of a superior acquisition proposal. These provisions could discourage other companies from trying to acquire IALB even though such other companies might be willing to offer greater value to IALB’s shareholders than First Merchants has offered in the Merger Agreement. The payment of the termination fee also could have a material adverse effect on IALB’s financial condition.

The market price of First Merchants common stock after the Merger may be affected by factors different from those affecting the shares of IALB or First Merchants currently.

Upon completion of the Merger, holders of IALB common stock will become holders of First Merchants common stock. First Merchants’ business differs in important respects from that of IALB, and, accordingly, the results of operations of the combined company and the market price of First Merchants common stock after the completion of the Merger may be affected by factors different from those currently affecting the independent results of operations of each of First Merchants and IALB. First Merchants is, and will continue to be, subject to the risks described in First Merchants’ Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2016, as updated by subsequent Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q and Current Reports on Form 8-K, all of which are filed with the SEC and incorporated by reference into this proxy statement and prospectus. See the documents incorporated by reference in this proxy statement and prospectus and referred to under “WHERE YOU CAN FIND ADDITIONAL INFORMATION” on page 73.

IALB shareholders will have a reduced ownership and voting interest after the Merger and will exercise less influence over management.

IALB's shareholders currently have the right to vote in the election of the IALB Board of Directors and on other matters affecting IALB. When the Merger occurs, each IALB shareholder will become a shareholder of First Merchants with a percentage ownership of the combined organization that is smaller than the shareholder's percentage ownership of IALB. Because of this, IALB's shareholders will have less influence over the management and policies of First Merchants than they now have over the management and policies of IALB.

Risk Factors Relating to the Merger

Regulatory approvals may not be received, may take longer than expected or may impose conditions that are not presently anticipated or that could have an adverse effect on the combined company following the Merger.

The transactions contemplated in the Merger Agreement cannot be completed until First Merchants receives necessary regulatory approvals, which include the approval of the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation and Indiana Department of Financial Institutions. In determining whether to grant these approvals, the regulators consider a variety of factors, including the regulatory standing of each party and the factors described under "THE MERGER—Regulatory Approvals." An adverse development in either party's regulatory standing or these factors could result in an inability to obtain approval or delay its receipt. These regulators may impose conditions on the completion of the Merger or the Bank Merger or require changes to the terms of the Merger or the Bank Merger. Such conditions or changes could have the effect of delaying or preventing completion of the Merger or the Bank Merger or imposing additional costs on or limiting the revenues of the combined company following the Merger and the Bank Merger, any of which might have an adverse effect on the combined company following the Merger. Regulatory approvals could also be impacted based on the status of any ongoing investigation of either party or its customers, including subpoenas to provide information or investigations, by a federal, state or local governmental agency.

Certain of IALB's directors and executive officers have interests in the Merger that may differ from the interests of IALB's shareholders.

IALB shareholders should be aware that some of IALB's executive officers and directors have interests in the Merger and have arrangements that are different from, or in addition to, those of IALB shareholders generally. IALB's Board of Directors was aware of and considered these interests, among other matters, when making its decision to approve and adopt the Merger Agreement, and in recommending that IALB shareholders vote in favor of approving the Merger Agreement.

For a description of these interests, see "THE MERGER—Interests of Certain Persons in the Merger" on page 49.

IALB and First Merchants will be subject to business uncertainties and contractual restrictions while the Merger is pending.

Uncertainty about the effect of the Merger on employees and customers may have an adverse effect on IALB or First Merchants. These uncertainties may impair IALB's or First Merchants' ability to attract, retain and motivate key personnel until the Merger is completed, and could cause customers and others that deal with IALB or First Merchants to seek to change existing business relationships with IALB or First Merchants. Retention of certain employees by IALB or First Merchants may be challenging while the Merger is pending, as certain employees may experience uncertainty about their future roles with IALB or First Merchants. If key employees depart because of issues relating to the uncertainty and difficulty of integration or a desire not to remain with IALB or First Merchants, IALB's and/or First Merchants' business could be harmed. In addition, subject to certain exceptions, each of IALB and First Merchants has agreed to operate its business in the ordinary course prior to closing. See “THE MERGER AGREEMENT—Restrictions Affecting the Parties Prior to Completion of the Merger” on page 56 for a description of the restrictive covenants applicable to IALB and First Merchants while the Merger is pending.

The shares of First Merchants common stock to be received by IALB shareholders as a result of the Merger will have different rights from the shares of IALB common stock.

Upon completion of the Merger, IALB shareholders will become First Merchants shareholders and their rights as shareholders will be governed by the First Merchants Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws. The rights associated with IALB common stock may be different from the rights associated with First Merchants common stock. Please see “COMPARISON OF COMMON STOCK” beginning on page 65 for a discussion of the different rights associated with First Merchants common stock.

The Merger may fail to qualify as a tax-free reorganization for federal tax purposes, resulting in your recognition of taxable gain or loss in respect of your shares of IALB common stock.

IALB intends the Merger to qualify as a tax-free “reorganization” within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code. Although the IRS will not provide a ruling on the matter, First Merchants will, as a condition to closing, obtain an opinion from legal counsel that the Merger will constitute a “reorganization” for federal tax purposes. This opinion does not bind the IRS or prevent the IRS from adopting a contrary position. As a condition to closing, IALB also will receive a letter from First Merchants’ legal counsel, addressed to the shareholders of IALB, to the effect that such shareholders shall be permitted to rely upon the tax opinion referred to above. If the Merger fails to qualify as a reorganization, you generally would recognize gain or loss on each share of IALB common share surrendered in an amount equal to the difference between your adjusted tax basis in that share and the fair market value of the Merger consideration received in exchange for that share upon completion of the Merger.

IALB shareholders will have dissenters’ rights in the Merger.

Dissenters’ rights are statutory rights that, if applicable under law, enable shareholders to dissent from an extraordinary transaction, such as a Merger, and to demand that the corporation pay the fair value for their shares as determined by a court in a judicial proceeding instead of receiving the consideration offered to shareholders in connection with the extraordinary transaction. The shareholders of IALB will have the rights accorded to dissenting shareholders under Chapter 44 of the Indiana Business Corporation Law. The fair value determined through a judicial proceeding may be more or less than the consideration offered under the Merger Agreement. As a result, First Merchants bears the risk that payments owed to dissenting shareholders may exceed the consideration outlined in this proxy statement and prospectus.

Vote Required

Approval of the Merger Proposal requires the affirmative vote of at least a majority of the outstanding shares of IALB common stock. Approval of the Adjournment Proposal only requires the affirmative vote of at least a majority of the shares of IALB common stock voting at the meeting, in person or by proxy, so long as a quorum is present. IALB has fixed April 28, 2017, as the record date for determining those IALB shareholders entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the special meeting. Accordingly, if you were an IALB shareholder of record at the close of business on April 28, 2017, you will be entitled to notice of and to vote at the special meeting. Each share of IALB common stock you own on the record date entitles you to one (1) vote on each matter presented at the special meeting. At the close of business on the record date of April 28, 2017, there were 4,082,479 shares of IALB common stock outstanding held by approximately 412 shareholders of record. First Merchants currently holds 495,112 shares or 12.1% of IALB’s outstanding common stock. First Merchants will vote all of its shares in favor of the Merger Proposal and Adjournment Proposal.

Voting Agreement

As of the record date, IALB’s Board of Directors had voting power with respect to an aggregate of 155,794 shares of IALB common stock outstanding, representing 3.8% of the outstanding shares on that date. Each member of the Board of Directors of IALB entered into a voting agreement with First Merchants to cause all shares of IALB common stock owned by them of record or beneficially to be voted in favor of the Merger Proposal. See “THE MERGER AGREEMENT—Voting Agreement” on page 58.

Proxies

If you are an IALB shareholder, you should have received a proxy card for use at the IALB special meeting with this proxy statement and prospectus. The accompanying proxy card is for your use in voting at the special meeting if you are unable or do not wish to attend the special meeting in person. The shares represented by proxies properly signed and returned will be voted at the special meeting as instructed by the IALB shareholder giving the proxies. Proxy cards that are properly signed and returned but do not have voting instructions will be voted “FOR” approval of the Merger Proposal and “FOR” approval of the Adjournment Proposal.

If you deliver a properly signed proxy card, you may revoke your proxy at any time before it is exercised by:

- delivering to the Corporate Secretary of IALB at or prior to the special meeting a written notice of revocation addressed to IALB, 118 East Ludwig Road, Fort Wayne, Indiana 46825, Attention: James A. Witmer, Corporate Secretary; or
- delivering to IALB at or prior to the special meeting a properly completed proxy card having a later date; or
- voting in person by ballot at the special shareholders meeting.

Because approval of the Merger Proposal requires the affirmative vote of at least a majority of the outstanding shares of IALB common stock, abstentions will have the same effect as voting “AGAINST” approval of the Merger Proposal. Accordingly, your Board of Directors urges all IALB shareholders to vote by proxy by completing, dating and signing the accompanying proxy and returning it promptly in the enclosed postage-paid envelope. Abstentions and broker non-votes will have no effect on the Adjournment Proposal since it only requires a majority of the shares of IALB common stock voting at the meeting. You should not send stock certificates with your proxy card.

Solicitation of Proxies

IALB will bear the entire cost of soliciting proxies from and mailing proxies to its shareholders in connection with the IALB special meeting. In addition to solicitation of proxies by mail, proxies may be solicited personally or by telephone by directors, officers and certain employees of IALB, who will not be specially compensated for such soliciting.

In soliciting proxies, no one has any authority to make any representations and warranties about the Merger or the Merger Proposal in addition to or contrary to the provisions stated in this document. No statement regarding the Merger, the Merger Agreement or the Merger Proposal should be relied upon except as expressly stated in this document.

Recommendation of the IALB Board of Directors

IALB’s Board of Directors has approved the Merger Agreement. IALB’s Board of Directors believes that the Merger is fair to and in the best interests of IALB and its shareholders. The Board recommends that the IALB shareholders vote “FOR” approval of the Merger Proposal and “FOR” approval of the Adjournment Proposal. See “THE MERGER— IALB’s Reasons for the Merger” on page 37.

Other Matters

The special meeting of IALB shareholders has been called for the purposes set forth in the Notice to IALB shareholders included in this document. Your Board of Directors is unaware of any matter for action by shareholders at the special meeting other than as stated in the Notice or in this proxy statement and prospectus. However, the enclosed proxy will give discretionary authority to the persons named in the proxy with respect to matters which are not known to your Board of Directors as of the date hereof and which may properly come before the special meeting. It is the intention of the persons named in the proxy to vote with respect to such matters in accordance with the recommendations of the Board of Directors of IALB or, if no recommendations are given, in their best judgment. The approval of the transaction of any other business that may properly come before the special meeting generally requires more votes to be cast in favor of the proposal than are cast against it.

MERGER PROPOSAL

IALB is asking its shareholders to approve the Merger Proposal. Holders of IALB common stock should read this proxy statement and prospectus carefully and in its entirety, including the annexes, for more detailed information concerning the Merger Agreement and the Merger. A copy of the Merger Agreement is attached to this proxy statement and prospectus as Annex A.

After careful consideration, the Board of Directors of IALB approved and adopted the Merger Agreement and determined it to be advisable and in the best interest of IALB and its shareholders. See “THE MERGER—IALB’s Reasons for the Merger; Recommendation of IALB’s Board of Directors” included elsewhere in this proxy statement and prospectus for a more detailed discussion of the IALB Board of Directors’ recommendation.

For the reasons discussed in this proxy statement and prospectus, the Board of Directors of IALB determined that the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement are advisable and in the best interests of IALB and its shareholders, and adopted and approved the Merger Agreement. The Board of Directors of IALB recommends that IALB shareholders vote “FOR” approval of the Merger Proposal.

ADJOURNMENT PROPOSAL

The IALB special meeting may be adjourned to another time or place, if necessary or appropriate, to solicit additional proxies if there are insufficient votes at the time of the IALB special meeting to approve the Merger Proposal.

If, at the IALB special meeting, the number of shares of IALB common stock present or represented and voting in favor of the Merger Proposal is insufficient to approve the Merger Proposal, IALB intends to move to adjourn the IALB special meeting in order to enable the Board of Directors of IALB to solicit additional proxies for approval of the Merger Proposal. In that event, IALB will ask its shareholders to vote upon the Adjournment Proposal, but not the Merger Proposal.

In this Adjournment Proposal, IALB is asking its shareholders to authorize the holder of any proxy solicited by the Board of Directors of IALB, on a discretionary basis, to vote in favor of adjourning the IALB special meeting to another time and place for the purpose of soliciting additional proxies, including the solicitation of proxies from IALB shareholders who have previously voted.

The Board of Directors of IALB recommends a vote “FOR” the Adjournment Proposal.

THE MERGER

At the special meeting, the shareholders of IALB will consider and vote upon approval of the Merger Agreement. The following summary highlights certain information about the Merger. To understand the Merger, you should read carefully this entire proxy statement and prospectus, including the Merger Agreement, which is attached to this document as Annex A.

Description of the Merger

Under the terms and subject to the conditions of the Merger Agreement approved by each of IALB's and First Merchants' Boards of Directors, IALB will merge with and into First Merchants and the separate corporate existence of IALB will cease. Immediately following the Merger, iAB Financial Bank will merge with and into First Merchants Bank and iAB Financial Bank will cease to exist as a separate entity. The Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws of First Merchants, as in effect prior to the Merger, will be the Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws of First Merchants after the Merger.

Exchange of IALB Common Stock

The Merger Agreement provides that IALB shareholders will have the right, with respect to each of their shares of IALB common stock, to receive, without interest, 1.6530 shares (the "Exchange Ratio") of First Merchants common stock (the "Merger Consideration"), subject to the payment of cash instead of fractional shares.

If First Merchants changes the number of outstanding shares of First Merchants common stock before the Merger through any stock split, stock dividend, recapitalization or similar transaction, then the Exchange Ratio will be proportionately adjusted so that IALB shareholders will receive such number of shares of First Merchants common stock as represents the same percentage of outstanding shares of First Merchants common stock at the effective date of the Merger as would have been represented by the number of shares of First Merchants common stock such shareholder would have received if the recapitalization had not occurred.

First Merchants will not issue fractional shares to IALB shareholders. Instead, IALB common shareholders will receive for each fractional share an amount in cash determined by multiplying (i) the fractional interest by (ii) the average of the closing price of the common stock of First Merchants as reported by Bloomberg, L.P. for the ten (10) days that First Merchants common stock trades on The NASDAQ Global Select Market preceding the fourth calendar day prior to the effective date of the Merger.

If you are an IALB shareholder and you receive First Merchants common stock as Merger Consideration for your shares of IALB common stock, the value of the consideration that you will receive in the Merger will depend on the market price of First Merchants common stock when you receive your shares of First Merchants common stock. The implied per share value of the stock consideration, based upon First Merchants' closing stock price on April 28, 2017, the most recent practicable trading day before this proxy statement and prospectus was finalized, was $41.38 per share. No assurance can be given (and it is not likely) that the current market price of First Merchants common stock will be equivalent to the market price of First Merchants common stock on the date that shares of First Merchants common stock are received by an IALB shareholder or at any other time.

On or prior to the effective date of the Merger, First Merchants will deposit with American Stock Transfer, as exchange agent, shares in book entry form of First Merchants common stock, each to be given to the holders of IALB common stock in exchange for old certificates (or shares in book entry form) representing shares of IALB common stock. Within three (3) business days following the effective date of the Merger, First Merchants will mail a letter of transmittal to each person who was, immediately prior to the effective time of the Merger, a holder of record of IALB common stock. The letter of transmittal will contain instructions for use in effecting the surrender of IALB stock certificates (or shares in book entry form) in exchange for the consideration to which such person may be entitled pursuant to the Merger Agreement. Within five (5) business days following the later of the effective date of the Merger or the surrender to American Stock Transfer of the old certificate(s) representing shares of IALB common stock for cancellation, together with such letter of transmittal duly executed and completed, the holder of such old certificate(s) (or shares in book entry form) will be provided evidence of shares in book entry form representing shares of First Merchants common stock and/or a check in the amount to which such holder is entitled pursuant to the Merger Agreement, and the old certificate will be canceled.

Until you surrender your IALB stock certificates (or shares in book entry form) for exchange, you will accrue, but will not be paid, any dividends or other distributions declared after the effective time of the Merger with respect to First Merchants common stock into which any of your shares may have been converted. When you surrender your IALB stock certificates (or shares in book entry form), First Merchants will pay any unpaid dividends or other distributions, without interest. After the completion of the Merger, there will be no transfers on the stock transfer books of IALB of any shares of IALB common stock.

If a certificate for IALB common stock has been lost, stolen or destroyed, First Merchants will issue the consideration properly payable under the Merger Agreement to the registered owner of such certificate upon receipt of an affidavit of lost stock certificate, in form and substance satisfactory to First Merchants, and upon compliance by the IALB's shareholder with all procedures historically required by IALB in connection with lost, stolen or destroyed certificates.

Effect of the Merger on First Merchants Shareholders

The approval of the First Merchants shareholders of the Merger Agreement is not required in order to complete the Merger. First Merchants shareholders will also not be entitled to exchange their shares of First Merchant common stock for any consideration as a result of the Merger. After the Merger, First Merchants shareholders will continue to own the same number of First Merchants shares they owned before the Merger.

Background of the Merger

On September 23, 2016, the IALB Board of Directors held a strategic planning session to discuss IALB's long-term alternatives, prospects and strategies. At this planning session the IALB Board of Directors discussed and reviewed strategic opportunities to maximize value for its shareholders. These opportunities included, among other alternatives, continuing as an independent institution, growing internally and through acquisitions, increasing the visibility and market value of its common stock by listing IALB common shares on a stock exchange such as NASDAQ, or affiliating with another institution. As a result of these deliberations, the IALB Board of Directors made a preliminary decision to further discuss and review the possible affiliation with another financial institution.

First Merchants publicly announced, just prior to the stock market opening on September 26, 2016, that it had entered into an agreement to purchase 12.11% of IALB common stock at $40 per share, representing a 40% premium price to IALB's then market value, from IALB's principal shareholder and certain related interests of such shareholder. The IALB Board of Directors held a special meeting the evening of September 26, 2016, to further discuss its strategic options including its prior preliminary decision to evaluate the possible affiliation with another financial institution. The IALB Board of Directors reviewed the challenges facing IALB in the market place including the high level of competition in the greater Fort Wayne market, the difficulty of growing earnings in the current interest rate environment and the high costs associated with complying with ever increasing governmental regulations. Furthermore, the IALB Board of Directors considered the substantial investment necessary to construct or lease a new headquarters facility in order to provide the physical resources necessary for continued growth as an independent organization. Consideration was also given to the earlier announcement by First Merchants regarding its purchase of IALB common stock providing the IALB Board of Directors with additional evidence that the limited market for IALB's common stock had resulted in its trading at a price that may not reflect its true value. As a result of these additional deliberations and discussions, the Board resolved to retain an investment banker to assist in the evaluation of IALB's strategic options. The IALB Board of Directors authorized IALB's Chairman, Mr. Charles R. Schrimper, and President and CEO, Mr. Michael C. Marhenke, to interview and retain an investment banker.

Based upon its prior relationship and national reputation for assisting community banks in connection with strategic planning and investment banking services, Mr. Schrimper and Mr. Marhenke contacted ProBank Austin to discuss their possible representation of IALB. On October 6, 2016, Mr. Schrimper and Mr. Marhenke met with representatives of ProBank Austin to review and discuss their possible retention as IALB's investment banker. The full IALB Board met with representatives of ProBank Austin on October 13, 2016 to further discuss ProBank Austin's role as IALB's investment banker and to discuss their process and guidance. Subsequently, on October 31, 2016, IALB signed the ProBank Austin engagement letter formally retaining them as IALB's investment banker. The engagement of ProBank Austin included the issuance of a fairness opinion by ProBank Austin in the event that a potential sale, merger or other transaction was entered into by IALB.

During a discussion with Mr. Schrimper and Mr. Marhenke, acting at the direction of the IALB Board of Directors, ProBank Austin identified a possible universe of financial institutions that could be potential candidates for a strategic transaction with IALB. Following that discussion, ProBank Austin was instructed to contact nine financial institutions without naming IALB as the institution under consideration. Of those initial nine institutions, eight candidates, including First Merchants, entered into confidentiality agreements and then obtained access to a virtual data room containing extensive financial and operating information on IALB. Those eight candidates, including First Merchants, executed confidentiality agreements on or about November 28, 2016 and, thereafter, began their respective due diligence processes. On IALB's behalf, ProBank Austin requested non-binding indications of interest from interested parties to be submitted on or before December 16, 2016. Of the eight candidates, five submitted official non-binding indications of interest. Those submitting indications of interest included First Merchants.

The IALB Board of Directors held a special meeting on December 21, 2016, to review the indications of interest with ProBank Austin and its counsel Shumaker, Loop & Kendrick, LLP. Because the IALB Board of Directors felt that the indications of interest submitted by two of the potential candidates presented the best alternatives for IALB and its shareholders, two potential candidates, including First Merchants, were then selected from that group of five and invited to perform a more detailed and comprehensive due diligence process on IALB.

From December 21, 2016 to January 30, 2017, First Merchants and the other finalist conducted comprehensive due diligence reviews of IALB and made presentations to the IALB Board of Directors. First Merchants and the other finalist each presented revised final offers to ProBank Austin on January 30, 2017. On February 2, 2017, the IALB Board of Directors held a special meeting with representatives of ProBank Austin and Shumaker, Loop & Kendrick, LLP to review the final indications of interest. After review of the financial and other terms of the First Merchants revised proposal and the other finalist revised proposal, the Board of Directors determined that the First Merchants revised proposal contained superior financial and other terms and continued with further review of the alternative proposals made by First Merchants for an all-stock transaction or a stock and cash transaction.

The Board of Directors reviewed the two proposals from First Merchants in detail with extensive discussion regarding the history of First Merchants and its stock performance, pro-forma analysis of the combined companies and opportunities as well as risks for IALB shareholders under both proposals. First Merchants' revised indication of interest included two proposals:

- One proposal from First Merchants involved a stock and cash transaction where IALB shareholders would receive a fixed exchange ratio of 1.453 shares of First Merchants common stock and $6.25 per share in cash, equating to $61.90 per share or approximately $254.1 million in aggregate consideration based on the closing price of First Merchants common stock on February 2, 2017 of $38.30. That proposal would result in an approximate 90% stock and 10% cash split, based on the First Merchants stock price at that time.

- The other proposal from First Merchants, received at the same time, involved an all-stock transaction where IALB shareholders would receive a fixed exchange ratio of 1.6530 shares of First Merchants' common stock in exchange for each outstanding share of IALB. This proposal would equate to $63.31 per share or approximately $259.9 million in aggregate consideration based on the closing price of First Merchants common stock on February 2, 2017, of $38.30.

After considering the potential benefits and potential adverse consequences of both proposals from First Merchants, the IALB Board of Directors elected to proceed with the all-stock proposal. ProBank Austin, Shumaker, Loop & Kendrick, LLP and management of IALB were directed by the IALB Board of Directors to proceed to negotiate a definitive agreement with First Merchants consistent with the terms of the all-stock proposal contained in the letter of intent submitted by First Merchants.

On February 5, 2017, the law firm of Bingham Greenebaum Doll LLP, legal counsel for First Merchants, presented a draft Agreement and Plan of Reorganization and Merger (the "Draft Merger Agreement") to Shumaker, Loop & Kendrick, LLP.

During the period from February 5, 2017 through February 15, 2017, the parties and their respective legal counsel exchanged comments and negotiated changes to the Draft Merger Agreement. During this time, management of the parties continued discussions and performed additional due diligence. The parties also provided drafts of their respective disclosure letters to the Draft Merger Agreement and discussed other aspects of the proposed transaction and merger integration issues.

On the evening of February 15, 2017, the IALB Board of Directors held a special meeting to discuss the Draft Merger Agreement and related issues. Also present, in addition to the directors, were representatives of ProBank Austin and Shumaker, Loop & Kendrick, LLP. Shumaker, Loop & Kendrick, LLP representatives discussed the purpose for the meeting and the legal standards and responsibilities of the directors with regard to matters before them. A ProBank Austin representative reviewed with the IALB Board of Directors the background of the process which had been undertaken to that point, and presented a financial analysis of First Merchants and of the proposed Merger Consideration. ProBank Austin then delivered to the IALB Board of Directors an oral opinion, which was subsequently confirmed in writing that, based on and subject to the assumptions, limitations, qualifications and conditions set forth in ProBank Austin's written opinion, as of the date of the special meeting, the Exchange Ratio was fair, from a financial point of view, to IALB and its shareholders. Shumaker, Loop & Kendrick, LLP attorneys then requested and received confirmation from the directors that each of the directors present had reviewed the Draft Merger Agreement, resolutions and other ancillary material provided to the directors prior to the special meeting. The Shumaker, Loop & Kendrick, LLP attorneys also reiterated that the directors would need to sign voting agreements, which would require them to vote their shares in favor of the Merger.

Thereafter, the IALB Board of Directors received and considered resolutions concerning the transaction. The IALB Board of Directors then approved the Merger Agreement and transactions set forth therein and authorized Mr. Marhenke to execute and deliver the Merger Agreement and take the other actions necessary to effect the transaction.

IALB and First Merchants executed the Merger Agreement and announced the transaction prior to the opening of the stock market on February 17, 2017.

See "THE MERGER—Information about ProBank Austin" for a description of the fees ProBank Austin will receive for its services to IALB in connection with the Merger.

First Merchants' Reasons for the Merger

In reaching its decision to adopt and approve the Merger Agreement, the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, the First Merchants Board of Directors consulted with First Merchants management and considered a number of factors, including the following material factors:

- each of First Merchants' and IALB's business, operations, financial condition, asset quality, earnings and prospects. In reviewing these factors, the First Merchants Board of Directors considered that the Merger (1) will expand First Merchants' business within demographically attractive markets in northeastern and northern Indiana; (2) will increase First Merchants' core deposit base, an important funding source; (3) will provide First Merchants with an experienced management team and quality bank branches in and around northeastern and northern Indiana; and (4) will provide First Merchants with the opportunity to sell First Merchants' broad array of products to IALB's client base;
- its understanding of the current and prospective environment in which First Merchants and IALB operate, including national and local economic conditions, the competitive environment for financial institutions generally, and the likely effect of these factors on First Merchants both with and without the proposed transaction;
- its review and discussions with First Merchants' management concerning the due diligence examination of IALB;
- the complementary nature of the cultures of the two companies, which management believes should facilitate integration and implementation of the transaction;
- the financial and other terms of the Merger Agreement, including the fixed Exchange Ratio, tax treatment and deal protection and termination fee provisions, which it reviewed with its outside financial and legal advisors;
- the potential risk of diverting management attention and resources from the operation of First Merchants' business towards the completion of the Merger; and
- the regulatory and other approvals required in connection with the Merger and the expectation that such regulatory approvals will be received in a timely manner and without the imposition of unacceptable conditions.

The foregoing discussion of the information and factors considered by the First Merchants Board of Directors is not intended to be exhaustive, but includes the material factors considered by the First Merchants Board of Directors. In reaching its decision to approve and adopt the Merger Agreement, the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, the First Merchants Board of Directors did not quantify or assign any relative weights to the factors considered, and individual directors may have given different weights to different factors. The First Merchants Board of Directors considered all these factors as a whole, including discussions with, and questioning of, First Merchants' management and First Merchants' financial and legal advisors, and overall considered the factors to be favorable to, and to support, its determination.

For the reasons set forth above, the First Merchants Board of Directors unanimously determined that the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement are advisable and in the best interests of First Merchants and its shareholders, and unanimously approved and adopted the Merger Agreement.

IALB's Reasons for the Merger

In reaching its decision to adopt and approve the Merger Agreement, the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, and to recommend that its shareholders approve the Merger Agreement,

Table of Contents

IALB's Board of Directors consulted with IALB management, as well as its financial and legal advisors, and considered a number of factors, including the following material factors:

- the review undertaken by the IALB Board of Directors and management with respect to the strategic alternatives available to IALB;
- the business strategy and strategic plan of IALB and its prospects for the future as an independent institution, including the risks inherent in successful execution of its strategic plan, its projected financial results, and expectations relating to the proposed Merger with First Merchants;
- a review of the challenges facing IALB in the current competitive, economic, financial and regulatory climate, and the potential benefits of aligning IALB with a larger organization;
- the consistency of the Merger with IALB's long-term strategic plan to seek profitable future expansion, leading to continued growth in overall shareholder value and enhanced liquidity for IALB shareholders;
- a review of the historical financial statements and condition of IALB and certain other internal information, primarily financial in nature, relating to the business, earnings and balance sheet of IALB;
- a review of the limited liquidity for the stock of IALB and the market prices at which IALB traded relative to its financial performance;
- a review of the investments that would be required in IALB's physical properties including the likely need for a new headquarters in the near future;
- a review of the historical financial statements and condition of First Merchants and certain other information, primarily financial in nature, relating to the business, earnings and financial condition of First Merchants;
- its review and discussions with IALB management and its advisors concerning the due diligence examination of First Merchants;
- the fact that the Merger would combine two established banking franchises to create a bank with over $8 billion in assets;
- the complementary nature of the businesses of IALB and First Merchants and the anticipated improved stability of the combined company's business and earnings in varying economic and market climates;
- the belief of IALB senior management that the management teams and employees of IALB and First Merchants possess complementary skills and expertise and the potential advantages of a larger institution when pursuing, or seeking to retain, talent;
- the financial strength of First Merchants based on First Merchants' historical earnings and profitability expectations over the near and long term;
- the strength, recent performance and liquidity of First Merchants' common stock;
- the financial and other terms of the Merger Agreement, including the fixed exchange ratio, tax treatment and deal protection and termination fee provisions, which it reviewed with its outside financial and legal advisors;
- the fact that, based on the closing price of First Merchants' common stock on February 15, 2017, of $41.92, the implied price per share value of IALB common stock would be $69.29;
- the ability of IALB's shareholders to benefit from First Merchants' potential growth and stock appreciation over time since it is more likely that the combined entity will have superior future earnings and prospects compared to IALB's earnings and prospects on an independent basis as the result of greater operating efficiencies and better penetration of commercial and consumer banking markets;

Table of Contents

- the ability of First Merchants to complete a merger transaction from a financial and regulatory perspective;
- the regulatory and other approvals required in connection with the Merger and the expectation that such regulatory approvals will be received in a timely manner and without the imposition of unacceptable conditions;
- the complementary geographic fit and customer convenience of the branch networks of the combined banks;
- the potential continued representation of certain of IALB's management on the management team of the combined entity and the participation of an IALB director on the board of directors of the combined banks;
- the nature and amount of payments and other benefits to be received by IALB management in connection with the Merger pursuant to existing IALB plans, as well as compensation arrangements contemplated in connection with the Merger;
- the anticipated effect of the acquisition on IALB's employees;
- the anticipated effect on IALB's customers and the communities served by IALB;
- the belief that, while no assurances could be given, the business and financial advantages contemplated in connection with the Merger were likely to be achieved within a reasonable time frame, particularly in light of the fact that First Merchants has transition experience due to successfully completed acquisitions in the past; and
- the opinion of ProBank Austin orally delivered to the IALB Board of Directors on February 15, 2017, and subsequently confirmed in writing on February 17, 2017, that, as of that date, and based upon and subject to the conditions, limitations, qualifications and assumptions set forth in the opinion, the Exchange Ratio was fair, from a financial point of view, to IALB and its shareholders.

The foregoing discussion of the information and factors considered by the IALB Board of Directors is not intended to be exhaustive, but includes the material factors considered by the IALB Board of Directors. In reaching its decision to approve and adopt the Merger Agreement, the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, the IALB Board of Directors did not quantify or assign any relative weights to the factors considered, and individual directors may have given different weights to different factors. The IALB Board of Directors considered all these factors as a whole, including discussions with, and questioning of, IALB's management and IALB's financial and legal advisors, and overall considered the factors to be favorable to, and to support, its determination.

The Board of Directors of IALB approved the Merger Agreement and recommends that IALB's shareholders vote "FOR" the approval of the Merger Proposal and "FOR" the Adjournment Proposal. IALB shareholders should be aware that IALB's directors and executive officers have interests in the Merger that are different from, or in addition to, those of other IALB shareholders. The Board of Directors of IALB was aware of and considered these interests, among other matters, in evaluating and negotiating the Merger Agreement, and in recommending that the Merger Proposal be approved by the shareholders of IALB. See "THE MERGER—Interests of Certain Persons in the Merger: Agreements with IALB" on page 49.

This summary of the reasoning of the Board of Directors of IALB and other information presented in this section is forward-looking in nature and, therefore, should be read in light of the factors discussed under the heading "FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS."

strategy and planning and to act as the exclusive financial advisor to IALB in connection with a potential strategic combination. ProBank Austin is an investment banking and consulting firm specializing in community bank mergers and acquisitions. IBS is a registered broker dealer affiliated with ProBank Austin. ProBank Austin and IBS are jointly referred to as ProBank Austin throughout this proxy statement and prospectus. IALB selected ProBank Austin as its financial advisor on the basis of their experience and expertise in representing community banks in similar transactions and their familiarity with IALB. ProBank Austin is the result of the merger of Austin Associates, LLC with Professional Bank Services, Inc. effective January 12, 2017.

In its capacity as financial advisor, ProBank Austin provided a fairness opinion (the “ProBank Austin Opinion”) to the IALB Board of Directors in connection with the Merger. At the meeting of the IALB Board on February 15, 2017, ProBank Austin rendered its oral opinion to the IALB Board (which was subsequently confirmed in writing by delivery of ProBank Austin’s written opinion dated February 17, 2017) that, based upon and subject to the various factors, assumptions and limitations set forth in such opinion, ProBank Austin representatives’ experience as investment bankers, ProBank Austin’s work as described in such opinion and other factors ProBank Austin deemed relevant, as of such date, the Exchange Ratio set forth in the Merger Agreement was fair, from a financial point of view, to the holders of IALB common stock. The preparation of a fairness opinion involves various determinations as to the most appropriate methods of financial analysis and the application of those methods to the particular circumstances. It is, therefore, not readily susceptible to partial analysis or summary description. In performing its analyses, ProBank Austin made numerous assumptions with respect to industry performance, business and economic conditions, and other matters, many of which are beyond the control of IALB and First Merchants and may not be realized. Any estimates contained in ProBank Austin's analyses are not necessarily predictive of future results or values, and may be significantly more or less favorable than the estimates. Estimates of values of companies do not purport to be appraisals or necessarily reflect the prices at which the companies or their securities may actually be sold. Unless specifically noted, none of the analyses performed by ProBank Austin was assigned a greater significance by ProBank Austin than any other. The relative importance or weight given to these analyses is not affected by the order of the analyses or the corresponding results. The summaries of financial analyses include information presented in tabular format. The tables should be read together with the text of those summaries.

With respect to the internal projections and estimates for IALB and First Merchants, and the expected transaction costs, purchase accounting adjustments and cost savings, IALB's and First Merchants' management and advisors confirmed to us that they reflected the best currently available estimates and judgments of management of the future financial performance of IALB and First Merchants, respectively, and ProBank Austin assumed that such performance would be achieved. ProBank Austin expresses no opinion as to such financial projections and estimates or the assumptions on which they are based. ProBank Austin also assumed that there has been no material change in IALB's or First Merchants' assets, financial condition, results of operations, business or prospects since the date of the most recent financial statements made available to us. ProBank Austin assumed in all respects material to our analysis that IALB and First Merchants will remain as going concerns for all periods relevant to the analyses, that all of the representations and warranties contained in the Agreement are true and correct, that each party to the Agreement will perform all of the covenants required to be performed by such party under the Agreement, and that the closing conditions in the Agreement are not waived. Finally, ProBank Austin has relied upon the advice IALB has received from its legal, accounting and tax advisors as to all legal, accounting and tax matters relating to the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement.

ProBank Austin has relied, without independent verification, upon the accuracy and completeness of the information it reviewed for the purpose of rendering its opinion. ProBank Austin did not undertake any independent evaluation or appraisal of the assets and liabilities of IALB or First Merchants, nor was it furnished with any appraisals. ProBank Austin has not reviewed any individual credit files of IALB or First Merchants, and has assumed that IALB's and First Merchants' allowances are, in the aggregate, adequate to cover inherent credit losses. The ProBank Austin Opinion is based on economic, market and other conditions existing on the date of its opinion. No limitations were imposed by IALB Board of Directors or its management upon ProBank Austin with respect to the investigations made or the procedures followed by ProBank Austin in rendering its opinion.

In rendering its opinion, ProBank Austin made the following assumptions:

- all material governmental, regulatory and other consents and approvals necessary for the consummation of the Merger would be obtained without any adverse effect on IALB, First Merchants or on the anticipated benefits of the Merger;
- IALB and First Merchants have provided all of the information that might be material to ProBank Austin in its review; and
- the financial projections it reviewed were reasonably prepared on a basis reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgment of the management of IALB and First Merchants as to the future operating and financial performance of IALB and First Merchants, respectively.

In connection with its opinion, ProBank Austin reviewed:

The following is a summary of the material factors considered and analyses performed by ProBank Austin in connection with its opinion dated February 17, 2017. The summary does not purport to be a complete description of the analyses performed by ProBank Austin.

Summary of Financial Terms of Agreement. The financial terms of the Merger Agreement provide that IALB shareholders shall be entitled to receive, in exchange for each share IALB common stock, the Exchange Ratio (1.6530 shares of First Merchants’ common stock). Based on 4,105,627 fully-diluted common shares of IALB outstanding and First Merchants’ 10-day Volume Weighted Average Price (VWAP) of $39.75 ending February 14, 2017, the implied deal value per share equaled $65.71 and the aggregate transaction value approximated $269.8 million (calculated by multiplying the per share deal value of $65.71 by the total number of IALB common shares of 4,105,627). ProBank Austin calculated that the value of $65.71 per share represented:

- 252 percent of IALB’s December 31, 2016 tangible book value per share; and
- 26.5 times IALB’s 2016 earnings per share.

IALB Financial Performance and Peer Analysis. ProBank Austin compared selected results of IALB’s operating performance to that of 18 selected publicly traded banks in Indiana, Ohio, and Michigan with total assets between $750 million and $2.0 billion. Over this time period, First Merchants' stock price increased 62.5 percent and IALB's stock price increased 43.6 percent. The SNL Bank Index was up approximately 28.5 percent over the same time period, while the S&P 500 Index was up 14.4 percent.

Pro Forma Merger Analysis. ProBank Austin analyzed the potential pro forma effect of the merger. Assumptions were made regarding the fair value accounting adjustments, cost savings and other acquisition adjustments based on discussions with management of IALB and First Merchants and their representatives. For First Merchants, earnings estimates were provided by S&P Global Market Intelligence. The analysis indicated that the Merger is expected to be accretive to First Merchants' estimated stand-alone EPS in Year 1 (excluding nonrecurring transaction expenses). ProBank Austin calculated that First Merchants' tangible book value per share would be diluted at closing, but recovered in less than four years.

Pro Forma Dividends Per Share to IALB. Based on the 1.6530 exchange ratio and First Merchants' current annual cash dividend rate of $0.60 per share, IALB's common stockholders would have received $0.99 in equivalent cash dividends per share. IALB's annual cash dividend for 2016 was $0.87 per share. On a pro forma combined basis, IALB shareholders would have received a 14 percent increase in annual cash dividends.

ProBank Austin's Compensation and Other Relationships with IALB and First Merchants. IALB agreed to pay ProBank Austin certain fees for its services as financial advisor in connection with the Merger. IALB paid ProBank Austin a cash fee of $25,000 upon execution of the engagement letter. IALB paid ProBank Austin a cash fee of $75,000 upon the issuance of the ProBank Austin fairness opinion. IALB has agreed to pay ProBank Austin a cash transaction fee of 1.00 percent of the transaction value of which 20 percent was paid upon execution of the definitive agreement with the balance due at closing of the transaction.

IALB agreed to reimburse ProBank Austin for its reasonable out-of-pocket expenses, and to indemnify ProBank Austin against certain liabilities, including liabilities under securities laws. ProBank Austin has provided various consulting services to IALB in the past. These fees were not material to ProBank Austin's overall business. ProBank Austin does not have any existing or pending engagements with First Merchants.

Summary. Based on the preceding summary discussion and analysis, and subject to the qualifications described herein, ProBank Austin determined the Exchange Ratio to be fair, from a financial point of view, to the holders of IALB common stock.

The opinion expressed by ProBank Austin was based on market, economic and other relevant considerations as they existed and could be evaluated as of the date of the opinion. Events occurring after the date of issuance of the opinion, including, but not limited to, changes affecting the securities markets, the results of operations or material changes in the financial condition of either First Merchants or IALB could materially affect the assumptions used in preparing this opinion.

Rights of Dissenting Shareholders

Under Indiana law, IALB shareholders have dissenters' rights with respect to the Merger. The dissenters' rights of IALB shareholders are set forth in Chapter 44 of the Indiana Business Corporation Law, a copy of which is attached to this document as Annex B. IALB shareholders must strictly comply with the procedures set forth in Chapter 44 of the Indiana Business Corporation Law to be entitled to receive a fair value cash payment for their shares of IALB common stock rather than having such shares converted into the right to receive the consideration in the Merger as described above.

As an IALB shareholder, Chapter 44 of the Indiana Business Corporation Law provides that you have the right to demand payment in cash for the fair value of the shares of IALB common stock you own immediately before the Merger is completed. Such fair market value excludes any appreciation or depreciation on the value of your shares in anticipation of the Merger, unless a court determines that such exclusion would be inequitable. To assert your dissenters' rights, you must first:

1. deliver to IALB before the vote on the Merger is taken, written notice of your intent to demand payment in cash for your shares if the Merger is completed; and
2. you must not vote in favor of the Merger. To not vote in favor of the Merger, you must either vote against the Merger Proposal or abstain from voting on the Merger Proposal in person or by proxy or simply take no action at all with respect to voting your shares.

Dissenting shareholders may not dissent as to only some but not all of the IALB common stock registered in their names, except in limited circumstances. Dissenting shareholders may send their written notice to:

Independent Alliance Banks, Inc.
118 East Ludwig Road
Fort Wayne, Indiana 46825
Attention: James A. Witmer, Corporate Secretary

If the Merger Proposal is approved by the IALB shareholders, IALB must deliver a written notice of dissenters' rights to each dissenting shareholder satisfying the above conditions within ten (10) days after shareholder approval has occurred. The notice to dissenting shareholders must:

1. state where the payment demand must be sent and where and when certificates for certificated shares must be deposited;
2. inform holders of uncertificated shares to what extent transfer of the shares will be restricted after the payment demand is received;
3. supply a form for demanding payment that includes the date of the first announcement to news media or to shareholders of the terms of the proposed Merger, which was February 17, 2017, and require that the dissenting shareholder certify whether or not that shareholder acquired beneficial ownership of the shares before that date;
4. set a date by which IALB must receive the payment demand, which date may not be fewer than 30 nor more than 60 days after the date the notice to dissenters is delivered; and
5. be accompanied by a copy of Chapter 44 of the Indiana Business Corporation Law.

If you receive such a notice, to exercise your dissenters' rights, you must then:

1. demand payment for the shares of IALB common stock you own;
2. certify that you owned the IALB shares before February 17, 2017; and
3. deposit your IALB stock certificates in accordance with the instructions in such notice.

If an IALB shareholder does not strictly comply with each of the conditions described above, the shareholder will not be entitled to dissenters' rights under Chapter 44 of the Indiana Business Corporation Law. If you execute and return the enclosed proxy but do not specify a choice on the Merger Proposal, you will be deemed to have voted in favor of the Merger and, accordingly, to have waived your dissenters' rights, unless you revoke the proxy prior to its being voted. Accordingly, if you return the enclosed proxy and wish to dissent from the Merger, you must vote your IALB shares against the Merger Proposal or abstain from voting.

Upon completion of the Merger, First Merchants will pay each dissenting IALB shareholder who has complied with all of the requirements of Chapter 44 of the Indiana Business Corporation Law and of the notice, First Merchants' estimate of the fair value of their shares immediately prior to the consummation of the Merger, excluding any appreciation in value in anticipation of the Merger.

Dissenting shareholders can object to the fair value established by First Merchants by stating their estimate of the fair value and demanding payment of the additional amount within 30 days after First Merchants makes or offers payment to the dissenting shareholder. First Merchants can elect to agree to the dissenting shareholder's fair value demand or commence an action within 60 days of receipt of the dissenting shareholder's demand in the Circuit or Superior Court of Hamilton County for a judicial determination of the fair value. The court may appoint one or more appraisers to determine the fair value. The court will assess the costs of the proceeding, including compensation and expenses of the appraisers, counsel for the parties and experts, against all parties to the action in such amounts as the court finds equitable. Each dissenting shareholder made a party to the action will be entitled to receive the amount, if any, by which the court finds the fair value of the dissenter's shares, plus interest, exceeds the amount paid by First Merchants.

This summary of the rights of dissenting shareholders addresses all material features of the applicable Indiana dissenters' rights statute, but does not contain a description of all requirements of the dissenters' rights statute and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the statutory provisions attached to this document as Annex B.

If you wish to exercise dissenters' rights with respect to the Merger and you fail to comply with the statutory requirements for exercising dissenters' rights, you will lose such rights. Accordingly, IALB shareholders who may wish to exercise dissenters' rights should consider seeking legal counsel.

Registration of First Merchants Common Stock

Shares of First Merchants common stock to be issued to IALB shareholders in the Merger will be registered under the Securities Act. These shares may be traded freely without restriction by those IALB shareholders not considered to be "affiliates" of First Merchants under the Securities Act after the Merger is complete. At the present time, there are no persons involved in the management of IALB who are anticipated to be an "affiliate" of First Merchants after the Merger.

Regulatory Approvals

The Merger cannot be completed until First Merchants Bank receives necessary regulatory approvals, which include the approval of the Indiana Department of Financial Institutions (the "Indiana DFI") and the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (the "FDIC"). On or about March 31, 2017, First Merchants Bank filed applications with both the Indiana DFI and the FDIC, but cannot be certain when or if such approval will be obtained. First Merchants has also requested that the Federal Reserve Board of Governors (the "Federal Reserve") waive its right to receive an application in connection with the Merger as permitted under Regulation Y of the Bank Holding Company Act. The Federal Reserve waiver was granted on April 14, 2017.

After the FDIC's approval is received, the Bank Merger cannot be completed for 30 days. During this 30-day waiting period, the United States Department of Justice has the authority to challenge the Bank Merger on antitrust grounds. With the approval of the FDIC and the Department of Justice, the waiting period can be reduced to 15 days.

The approval of the Indiana DFI and the FDIC is not the opinion of the regulatory authorities that the Merger is favorable to the IALB and First Merchants shareholders from a financial point of view or that the Indiana DFI or the FDIC has considered the adequacy of the terms of the Merger. The approvals in no way constitute an endorsement or a recommendation of the Merger by the FDIC.

Effective Date of the Merger

The Merger will be consummated if the Merger Proposal is approved by the IALB shareholders, all required consents and approvals are obtained and all other conditions to the Merger are either satisfied or waived. The Merger will become effective when Articles of Merger are filed with the Secretary of State of Indiana or at such later date and time as may be specified in the Articles of Merger. The closing of the Merger will likely occur in the month in which any applicable waiting period following the last approval of the Merger expires or on such other date as agreed to by the parties. We currently anticipate that the Merger will be completed the third quarter of 2017. However, completion of the Merger could be delayed if there is a delay in obtaining the required shareholder or regulatory approvals or in satisfying the other conditions to completion of the Merger. IALB and First Merchants have the right, subject to certain conditions, to terminate the Merger Agreement if the Merger is not completed by December 31, 2017 (or March 31, 2018 if the sole impediment to closing is the lack of a necessary regulatory approval).

The NASDAQ Global Select Market Listing

First Merchants will file a notification with The NASDAQ Global Select Market regarding the issuance of First Merchants common stock in the Merger. Following the Merger, the First Merchants shares issued to IALB shareholders will be listed on The NASDAQ Global Select Market.

Registration Statement

First Merchants has filed a Registration Statement on Form S-4 with the SEC in order to register the shares of First Merchants common stock to be issued pursuant to the Merger under the Securities Act. Because First Merchants common stock is listed on The NASDAQ Global Select Market, it is exempt from the statutory registration requirements of each state in the United States. Therefore, First Merchants has not taken any steps to register its stock under state laws.

Interests of Certain Persons in the Merger

When considering the recommendation of the Board of Directors of IALB, you should be aware that certain of the directors and officers of IALB have interests in the Merger other than their interests as IALB shareholders, pursuant to certain agreements and understandings that are set forth in the Merger Agreement. These interests are different from, or in conflict with, your interests as IALB shareholders. The members of IALB's Board of Directors and the First Merchants' Board of Directors were aware of these additional interests, and considered them, when they approved the Merger Agreement. Except as follows, to the knowledge of IALB, the officers and directors of IALB do not have any material interest in the Merger apart from their interests as shareholders.

Agreements with IALB. Certain executive officers (see table below) of IALB and iAB Financial Bank will enter into transition period retention agreements with iAB Financial Bank in connection with the Merger. The agreements provide for amounts to be paid to the officers by iAB Financial Bank (or First Merchants Bank as its successor) as a result of (a) the termination of their existing supplemental executive retirement plan ("SERP Payments"), (b) the termination of their existing change in control and/or severance benefit agreements, and (c) the officers' twelve (12) month non-solicitation and non-compete agreements and, where applicable, a commitment to continue employment with First Merchants Bank for a period after the effective time of the Merger (together with the payments in clause (b) above, collectively, “Other Retention Agreement Payments”). In addition, those executive officers of IALB and iAB Financial Bank are also recipients of certain long-term incentive awards (“LTI Awards”) that provide for the acceleration of vesting and payment of benefits following a change in control of IALB. Under the transition period retention agreements and LTI Awards, these executive officers would be entitled to receive the amounts set forth below.

Executive Officer	SERP Payments	Other Retention Agreement Payments	LTI Awards
Michael C. Marhenke, President and Chief Executive Officer	$ 700,000	$ 1,088,734	$ 553,800
William H. Thatcher III, Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer	—	582,738	229,645
Kevin J. Himmelhaver, Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer	500,000	603,612	236,275
Paul J. Grandlienard, Executive Vice President and Chief Credit Officer	250,000	458,812	172,250
Karen J. Cameron, Executive Vice President, Corporate Services	350,000	390,967	151,710
Total	$ 1,800,000	$ 3,124,863	$ 1,343,680

In connection with entering into the Merger Agreement, First Merchants requested that IALB enter into a Transition Period Retention Agreement (the “Transition Agreement”) with Mr. Thatcher that provides for certain assurances of employment following the Merger by First Merchants. The Transition Agreement provides that upon closing of the Merger, First Merchants will enter into an employment arrangement with Mr. Thatcher and appoint Mr. Thatcher as First Merchants’ Regional President for the Fort Wayne Region and will provide Mr. Thatcher a compensation package including an annual salary of $230,000 in the first year and $240,000 in the second year together with long-term equity based incentive compensation awards consistent with First Merchants executive awards generally. The employment arrangement will also contain traditional non-solicitation restrictive covenants from Mr. Thatcher for the benefit of First Merchants. In the event the Merger does not close and the Merger Agreement is terminated, the Transition Agreement will automatically terminate.

Indemnification and Continued Director and Officer Liability Coverage. From and after the effective time of the Merger, First Merchants has agreed to indemnify and hold harmless each person who is now, or who has been at any time before the effective time of the Merger, an officer or director of IALB and its subsidiaries against all losses, costs, damages or expenses incurred in connection with any claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation that is a result of matters that existed or occurred at or before the effective time of the Merger to the same extent as IALB currently provides for indemnification of its officers and directors. In addition, First Merchants has agreed to provide directors’ and officers’ liability insurance coverage for a period of six (6) years following the effective time of the Merger to the officers and directors of iAB Financial Bank and IALB immediately before the effective time of the Merger under the directors’ and officers’ liability insurance policy currently maintained by IALB or under a policy with comparable or better coverage, subject to certain limitations in the Merger Agreement.

Board Appointment. The Merger Agreement obligates First Merchants to appoint one person who is currently a member of the IALB Board of Directors (chosen by First Merchants after consultation with IALB) to the First Merchants Board of Directors. Such person will be entitled to receive compensation from First Merchants for service to the Board. As of the date of this proxy statement and prospectus, it has not yet been determined which IALB director will be appointed to the First Merchants Board of Directors.

THE MERGER AGREEMENT

The following summary highlights certain material provisions of the Merger Agreement. Because this is a summary of the Merger Agreement, it does not contain a description of all of the terms of the Merger Agreement and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Merger Agreement. You should read carefully the entire Merger Agreement, which is attached to this document as Annex A and is incorporated herein by reference.

Description of the Merger

Under the terms and subject to the conditions of the Merger Agreement approved by each of IALB's and First Merchants' Boards of Directors, IALB will merge with and into First Merchants and the separate corporate existence of IALB will cease. Immediately following the Merger, iAB Financial Bank will merge with and into First Merchants Bank and iAB Financial Bank will cease to exist as a separate entity. The Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws of First Merchants, as in effect prior to the Merger, will be the Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws of First Merchants after the Merger.

The representations and warranties in the Merger Agreement will not survive the effective date of the Merger or the termination of the Merger Agreement. After the effective date of the Merger or termination of the Merger Agreement, none of the parties to the Merger Agreement, their respective subsidiaries, or the respective officers and directors of any of them will have any liability for any of their representations and warranties made in the Merger Agreement unless the Merger Agreement is terminated as a result of a willful breach, in which case the non-breaching party may recover appropriate damages from the breaching party.

Conditions to Completion of the Merger

First Merchants' and IALB's obligations to complete the Merger are subject to the satisfaction of the following conditions, among other things, at or prior to the effective time of the Merger:

1. the approval of the Merger Agreement at the special meeting by a majority of the issued and outstanding shares of IALB common stock;
2. the receipt of all regulatory approvals required for the Merger and the Bank Merger and the expiration of any regulatory waiting periods prior to consummation of the Merger;
3. the representations and warranties made by the parties in the Merger Agreement must be true, accurate and correct in all material respects on and as of the effective date of the Merger, except that representations and warranties that are qualified by materiality or a Material Adverse Effect (as defined below) must be true and correct in all respects, and provided that for those representations and warranties which address matters only as of an earlier date, then they shall be tested as of such earlier date. For the purpose of the Merger Agreement, a "Material Adverse Effect" means any effect, circumstance, occurrence or change that (i) is material and adverse to the financial position, results of operations or business of IALB and iAB Financial Bank, iAB Risk Management, Inc., iAB Investments Inc., Grabill Bank Insurance Services, LLC, and iAB REIT, Inc. (collectively, the "Subsidiaries") taken as a whole, or First Merchants and First Merchants Bank taken as a whole, as applicable or (ii) would materially impair the ability of IALB or First Merchants, as applicable, to perform its obligations under the Merger Agreement; provided, however, that a Material Adverse Effect shall not be deemed to include the impact of (a) changes in banking and similar laws of general applicability to banks or their holding companies or interpretations thereof by courts or governmental authorities, (b) changes in generally accepted accounting principles ("GAAP") or regulatory accounting requirements applicable to banks or their holding companies generally, (c) any modifications or changes to valuation policies and practices in connection with the Merger or restructuring charges taken in connection with the Merger, in each case in accordance with GAAP, (d) effects of any action taken with the prior written consent of the other party hereto, (e) changes in the general level of interest rates (including the impact on the securities portfolios of IALB and iAB Financial Bank, or First Merchants and First Merchants Bank, as applicable) or conditions or circumstances relating to or that affect either the United States economy, financial or securities markets or the banking industry, generally, (f) changes resulting from expenses (such as legal, accounting and investment bankers' fees) incurred in connection with the

Merger Agreement or the transactions contemplated therein, including without limitation payment of any amounts due to, or the provision of any benefits to, any officers or employees under agreements, plans or other arrangements in existence of or contemplated by the Merger Agreement and disclosed to First Merchants, (g) the impact of the announcement of the Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby, and compliance with the Merger Agreement on the business, financial condition or results of operations of IALB and the Subsidiaries, or First Merchants and First Merchants Bank, as applicable and (h) the occurrence of any military or terrorist attack within the United States or any of its possessions or offices; provided that in no event shall a change in the trading price of the First Merchants common stock, by itself, be considered to constitute a Material Adverse Effect on First Merchants (it being understood that the foregoing proviso shall not prevent or otherwise affect a determination that any effect underlying such decline has resulted in a Material Adverse Effect);

4. the covenants made by the parties must have been complied with in all material respects from the date of the Merger Agreement through and as of the effective date of the Merger;
5. First Merchants must have received an opinion of Bingham Greenebaum Doll LLP that, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, the Merger will be treated as a “reorganization” within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code;
6. IALB must have received a letter from Bingham Greenebaum Doll LLP addressed to the shareholders of IALB, dated as of the effective date of the Merger, to the effect that such shareholders may rely on the opinion referenced in clause 5 above;
7. the Registration Statement on Form S-4, of which this proxy statement and prospectus is a part, relating to the First Merchants shares to be issued pursuant to the Merger Agreement, must have become effective under the Securities Act, and no stop order suspending the effectiveness of the Registration Statement shall have been issued or threatened by the SEC;
8. the shares of First Merchants common stock to be issued in the Merger shall have been listed for trading on The NASDAQ Global Select Market (subject to official notice of issuance);
9. there must be no order, decree or injunction of a court or agency of competent jurisdiction which enjoins or prohibits the consummation of the Merger or the Bank Merger; and
10. receipt by each party of an officer’s certificate, certain legal opinions and various closing documents.

The conditions to completion of the Merger are subject to waiver by the party benefiting from such condition. The conditions may also be altered by the written agreement of both parties. However, if receipt of the tax opinion and reliance letter referred to above were waived or such conditions were altered, IALB would resolicit its shareholders if any change in the tax consequences were material and disclose the reasons for the waiver or alteration and the change in tax consequences. Such resolicitation would require an amendment to the Registration Statement on Form S-4, of which this proxy statement and prospectus is a part. If these and other conditions are not satisfied or waived, First Merchants and/or IALB may terminate the Merger Agreement. See “THE MERGER AGREEMENT—Termination; Waiver; Amendment,” “THE MERGER—Regulatory Approvals,” “THE MERGER—Interests of Certain Persons in the Merger,” “MATERIAL U.S. FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES,” and Annex A.

Termination; Waiver; Amendment

First Merchants and IALB may terminate the Merger Agreement at any time before the Merger is completed, including after the IALB shareholders have approved the Merger, if one of the events which gives the party the right to terminate occurs. The Merger Agreement may be terminated:

1. by mutual consent of First Merchants and IALB in writing;
2. by either First Merchants or IALB if there has been a material breach by the other of any of the covenants or any of the representations or warranties set forth in the Merger Agreement, which is not

- cured within thirty (30) days following written notice given by the non-breaching party to the party committing the breach;
3. by either First Merchants or IALB if any event, fact or circumstance has occurred with respect to the other party that has had or could be reasonably expected to have a Material Adverse Effect on such party;
 4. by either First Merchants or IALB if any governmental or regulatory approval required to permit the consummation of the transactions contemplated in the Merger Agreement shall have been denied and such denial is final and non-appealable;
 5. by either First Merchants or IALB if any court or governmental or regulatory authority shall have issued a final non-appealable order enjoining or otherwise prohibiting consummation of the transactions contemplated in the Merger Agreement;
 6. by either First Merchants or IALB in the event of the failure of IALB's shareholders to approve the Merger Agreement at the special meeting; provided, however, that IALB may only terminate the Merger Agreement pursuant to this clause if it has complied in all material respects with its obligations to convene a meeting of its shareholders and use its reasonable best efforts to obtain the requisite vote to consummate the Merger;
 7. by either First Merchants or IALB if the Merger has not been completed by December 31, 2017, provided the terminating party is not then in material breach of any representation warranty or covenant and, provided, further, that if the sole impediment to closing is the lack of any necessary regulatory approval, then such termination date shall be extended to March 31, 2018;
 8. by IALB if its Board of Directors determines in the exercise of its fiduciary duties that it must terminate the Merger Agreement after receipt of an unsolicited superior acquisition proposal from a third party;
 9. by First Merchants if IALB's Board of Directors withdraws or modifies its recommendation to IALB shareholders to vote for the Merger following receipt of a proposal of an acquisition from a third party;
 10. by First Merchants if IALB fails to give First Merchants timely notice of any inquiry by a third party with respect to an acquisition of IALB or iAB Financial Bank;
 11. by First Merchants if IALB gives First Merchants notice that it intends to furnish information to or enter into discussions or negotiations with a third party relating to a proposed acquisition of IALB or iAB Financial Bank and those negotiations are not terminated within sixty (60) days;
 12. by IALB, if IALB's Board of Directors so determines by a majority vote of the members of such Board, at any time during the five (5) business day period commencing on the Determination Date if both of the following conditions are satisfied:
 - (i) the FMC Market Value is less than 80% of the Initial FMC Market Value; and
 - (ii) the quotient obtained by dividing the FMC Market Value by the Initial FMC Market Value ("Buyer Ratio") shall be less than the quotient obtained by dividing the Final Index Price by the Initial Index Price, minus 0.20 (the "Index Ratio").

If IALB elects to exercise its termination right pursuant to this clause 12, it must give prompt written notice thereof to First Merchants. During the five (5) business day period commencing with its receipt of such notice, First Merchants shall have the option to increase the Exchange Ratio, at its sole discretion, to (x) the quotient, the numerator of which is equal to the product of the Initial FMC Market Value, the Exchange Ratio (as then in effect) and the Index Ratio, and the denominator of which is equal to the FMC Market Value, or (y) the quotient determined by dividing the Initial FMC Market Value by the FMC Market Value, and multiplying the quotient by the product of the Exchange Ratio (as then in effect) and 0.80. If First Merchants so elects, it shall give, within such five (5) business day period, written notice to IALB of such election and the revised Exchange Ratio, whereupon no termination shall be deemed to have occurred pursuant to this Section 10.1(i) and this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect in accordance with its terms, except as the Exchange Ratio shall have been so modified.

For purposes of this clause 12, the following terms shall have the meanings indicated below:

“Determination Date” shall mean the later of the date on which (i) all regulatory approvals required pursuant to Section 9.4 (and waivers, if applicable) have been received (disregarding any waiting period), and (ii) the approval of this Agreement, the Merger and any other matter required to be approved by the shareholders of IALB in order to consummate the Merger and the transactions contemplated herein is obtained.

“Final Index Price” means the average of the closing price of the Index on each of ten (10) consecutive trading days immediately preceding the Determination Date.

“FMC Market Value” shall be the average of the daily closing sales prices of a share of First Merchants Common Stock as reported on NASDAQ for the ten (10) consecutive trading days immediately preceding the Determination Date.

“Index” means the NASDAQ Bank Index; provided, however, that if the NASDAQ Bank Index is not available for any reason, “Index” shall mean such substitute or similar index as substantially replicates the NASDAQ Bank Index.

“Initial FMC Market Value” means the average of the daily closing sales prices of a share of First Merchants Common Stock, as reported on NASDAQ, for the ten (10) consecutive trading days immediately preceding the date of this Agreement.

“Initial Index Price” means the average of the closing prices of the Index for the ten (10) consecutive trading days immediately preceding the date of this Agreement.

If First Merchants or any company belonging to the Index declares or effects a stock split, stock dividend, recapitalization, reclassification, or similar transaction with respect to the outstanding common stock, and the record date therefor shall be after the date of this Agreement and prior to the Determination Date, the prices for the common stock of such company shall be proportionately and appropriately adjusted for the purpose of applying this clause 12.

13. by First Merchants if greater than twenty percent (20%) of the outstanding IALB common stock have become and remain subject to a demand for payment under the dissenters’ rights provisions of the Indiana Business Corporation Law. See “THE MERGER – Rights of Dissenting Shareholders” beginning on page 47.

Upon termination for any of these reasons, the Merger Agreement will be void and of no further force or effect. However, if either First Merchants or IALB willfully breaches any of the representations and warranties or agreements set forth in the Merger Agreement, then the other party will be entitled to recover appropriate damages for the breach. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if First Merchants terminates the Merger Agreement under items 9, 10 or 11 above or if IALB terminates the Merger Agreement in accordance with item 8 above, IALB must pay First Merchants $5,000,000 as a termination fee to reimburse First Merchants for the considerable time and expense invested by First Merchants in furtherance of the Merger.

First Merchants and IALB can agree to amend the Merger Agreement and can waive their right to require the other party to adhere to the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement, where the law allows. However, First Merchants and IALB cannot amend the Merger Agreement after the IALB shareholders approve the Merger without their further approval if the amendment would decrease the Merger Consideration or materially adversely affect the rights of IALB shareholders or the tax consequences of the Merger to the shareholders of IALB.

Restrictions Affecting the Parties Prior to Completion of the Merger

The Merger Agreement contains a number of restrictions regarding the conduct of the business of First Merchants, IALB and iAB Financial Bank until the Merger is completed. Among other items and subject to certain limited exceptions, IALB and iAB Financial Bank may not take any of the following actions, without the prior written consent of First Merchants:

- make any change to their capital structure, including redemption of shares of common stock;

In addition, until the Merger is consummated or the Merger Agreement is terminated, First Merchants and IALB shall carry on their business diligently and in the ordinary course of business and use their best efforts to preserve their business organizations and existing business relationships intact.

This discussion of the restrictions imposed by the Merger Agreement is not intended to be exhaustive, but includes material restrictions imposed on the parties. Please refer to the Merger Agreement, attached as Annex A, for a complete listing of the restrictions.

Fees and Expenses

First Merchants and IALB will pay their own fees, costs, and expenses incurred in connection with the Merger, including the fees of any investment bankers engaged by such party.

Management After the Merger

First Merchants will be the surviving corporation in the Merger and IALB's separate corporate existence will cease. Accordingly, the directors and officers of IALB will no longer serve in such capacities after the completion of the Merger. Similarly, First Merchants Bank will be the surviving banking subsidiary in the Merger with iAB Financial Bank and iAB Financial Bank's separate corporate existence will cease.

The directors of First Merchants and First Merchants Bank immediately prior to the Mergers will continue to be the directors of First Merchants and First Merchants Bank following the Merger until they resign or until their respective successors are duly elected and qualified. Board Appointments. However, the Merger Agreement obligates First Merchants to appoint one person who is currently a member of the IALB Board of Directors (chosen by First Merchants after consultation with IALB) to the First Merchants Board of Directors. As of the date of this proxy statement and prospectus, it has not yet been determined which IALB director will be appointed to the First Merchants Board of Directors.

The officers of First Merchants and First Merchants Bank immediately prior to the Merger will continue to be the officers of First Merchants and First Merchants Bank following the Mergers until they resign or until their successors are duly elected and qualified.

Indemnification and Insurance of IALB Directors and Officers

First Merchants has agreed to indemnify and hold harmless each director and officer of IALB and iAB Financial Bank for six (6) years after the effective time of the Merger in connection with any losses arising out of the fact that any such person is or was a director or officer of IALB or iAB Financial Bank at or prior to the effective time of the Merger to the same extent as would have been available under the articles of incorporation, bylaws or other indemnification agreement of IALB and iAB Financial Bank.

In addition, First Merchants has agreed to use its reasonable best efforts to include IALB's and iAB Financial Bank's present and former directors and officers on its existing insurance, or to obtain directors' and officers' liability insurance "tail" policy coverage for IALB's and iAB Financial Bank's present and former directors and executive officers, for a period of six (6) years, which will provide the directors and officers with coverage containing terms no less advantageous than the coverage currently provided by IALB to such directors and officers for claims based on activity prior to the effective time of the Merger. However, First Merchants has no obligation during the 6-year period to pay an aggregate amount in premiums which is more than 1.5 times the current annual amount spent by IALB to maintain its current directors' and officers' insurance coverage. If First Merchants is unable to obtain the coverage described above, First Merchants has agreed to use its reasonable best efforts to obtain as much comparable insurance as is available.

After the Merger, IALB's and iAB Financial Bank's officers and employees who become officers, directors or employees of First Merchants or its subsidiaries shall have the same directors and officers insurance coverage and indemnification protection that First Merchants provides to other officers, directors and employees of First Merchants or its subsidiaries.

Employee Benefit Plans

The Merger Agreement provides that the current employees of IALB and the Subsidiaries who continue as employees of First Merchants or its subsidiaries following the Merger will be entitled to participate in the employee benefit plans of First Merchants. With respect to each employee benefit plan or benefit arrangement maintained by First Merchants in which employees of IALB or the Subsidiaries subsequently participate, for purposes of determining eligibility, vesting, vacation and severance entitlement, First Merchants will ensure that service with IALB or the Subsidiaries will be treated as service with First Merchants; provided, however, that service with IALB or the Bank shall not be treated as service with First Merchants for purposes of benefit accrual, except with respect to severance benefits.

Voting Agreement

Each member of the Board of Directors has entered into a voting agreement with First Merchants as of the date of the Merger Agreement whereby the parties have agreed, subject to their fiduciary duties to entertain a superior third-party acquisition proposal under the Merger Agreement, to vote, or cause to be voted, all of their shares of IALB common stock and shares owned by certain affiliates over which they have voting control in favor of the Merger Proposal. The number of shares of common stock subject to such voting agreement is 155,794 shares of IALB common stock, representing 3.8% of the outstanding shares.

MATERIAL U.S. FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES

The following is a general discussion of the material federal income tax consequences of the Merger to U.S. Holders (as hereinafter defined) of IALB common stock that exchange their shares of IALB common stock for shares of First Merchants common stock. The following discussion is based on current provisions of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Internal Revenue Code"), the Treasury Regulations promulgated thereunder, published pronouncements of the Internal Revenue Service (the "IRS") and case law, all as currently in effect and which are subject to differing interpretations and subject to change at any time by legislative, judicial or administrative action, possibly with retroactive effect. This discussion is limited to U.S. Holders, who hold their shares of IALB common stock as capital assets for U.S. federal income tax purposes (generally, assets held for investment).

This discussion does not address the federal income tax consequences of shareholders who are not U.S. Holders, nor does it address all of the tax consequences relevant to certain U.S. Holders including, but not limited to, S corporations, partnerships or other pass-through entities (including investors in pass-through entities), financial institutions, insurance companies, tax-exempt organizations, trusts described in Sections 1361(c)(2)(A) and 1361(d) of the Internal Revenue Code, dealers in securities or currencies, traders in securities that use a mark to market method of accounting, persons who hold IALB common stock as part of a straddle, hedge, constructive sale conversion or other integrated transaction, persons who acquired their shares of IALB common stock through the exercise of an employee stock option or otherwise as compensation or through a tax-qualified plan, regulated investment companies, real estate investment trusts and foreign persons or persons whose "functional currency" is not the U.S. dollar. This discussion also does not address the tax consequences of persons who are subject to alternative minimum tax, nor does it address the tax consequences of the Merger under state, local or foreign tax laws.

All U.S. Holders including, but not limited to, the U.S. Holders referenced immediately above, should consult their own tax advisors about the tax consequences of the Merger to them.

For purposes of this discussion, the term "U.S. Holder" means a beneficial owner of IALB common stock that for U.S. federal income tax purposes is an individual who is a citizen or resident of the U.S., a corporation or entity taxed as a corporation that was organized under the laws of the U.S. or any state or the District of Columbia, an estate the income of which is subject to U.S. federal income tax regardless of its source, or a trust that (i) is subject to the supervision of a court within the U.S. and the control of one (1) or more U.S. Persons (as hereinafter defined) or (ii) has a valid election in effect under applicable Treasury Regulations to be treated as a U.S. Person. For purposes of this discussion, "U.S. Person" shall have the meaning ascribed to it by Section 7701(a)(30) of the Internal Revenue Code.

Tax Consequences of the Merger Generally

The parties intend for the Merger to qualify as a "reorganization" under Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code for U.S. federal income tax purposes. It is a condition to the obligation of First Merchants to complete the Merger that First Merchants obtain an opinion from the law firm of Bingham Greenebaum Doll LLP that the Merger to be effected pursuant to the Merger Agreement constitutes a reorganization under Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code.

It is a condition to the obligation of IALB to complete the Merger that IALB receive a letter from the law firm of Bingham Greenebaum Doll LLP addressed to the shareholders of IALB, dated as of the effective date of the Merger, to the effect that such shareholders may rely on the opinion referenced in the preceding sentence.

The obligation of Bingham Greenebaum Doll LLP to deliver such opinion and reliance letter is conditioned on the Merger satisfying the statutory and regulatory requirements of a "reorganization." The determination by tax counsel as to whether the Merger will be treated as a "reorganization" within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code is based on the facts and law existing as of the effective date of the Merger.

This opinion will be subject to customary qualifications and assumptions, including that the Merger will be completed according to the terms of the Merger Agreement. In rendering the tax opinion, such counsel may require and rely on factual representations of First Merchants and IALB. If any of such assumptions or representations is or becomes inaccurate, the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the Merger could be adversely affected. Neither the opinion nor the reliance letter will be binding on the IRS. First Merchants and IALB do not intend to request any ruling from the IRS as to the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the Merger. Consequently, no assurance can be given that the IRS will not assert, or that a court will not sustain, a position contrary to any of the tax consequences set forth below or any of the tax consequences described in the tax opinion.

Tax Consequences to First Merchants, First Merchants Shareholders and IALB

No gain or loss will be recognized by First Merchants, First Merchants shareholders or IALB with respect to the Merger.

Tax Consequences of the Merger to U.S. Holders of IALB Common Stock

In general, a U.S. Holder who receives First Merchants common stock in exchange for IALB common stock will not recognize any gain or loss on the exchange for U.S. federal income tax purposes, except with respect to cash received in lieu of fractional shares of First Merchants common stock (as discussed below). The aggregate tax basis of First Merchants common stock received by a U.S. Holder in exchange for their IALB common stock (including any fractional shares of First Merchants common stock deemed received and redeemed for cash as described below) will be equal to the U.S. Holder's aggregate adjusted tax basis in their IALB common stock exchanged. In addition, the holding period of the First Merchants common stock received in the Merger (including any fractional shares of First Merchants common stock deemed received and redeemed for cash as described below) generally will include the holding period of IALB common stock surrendered in the exchange. If a U.S. Holder acquired different blocks of IALB common stock at different times or at different prices, the First Merchants common stock received in the Merger will be allocated pro rata to each block of IALB common stock, and the basis and holding period of each block of First Merchants common stock received will be determined on a block-for-block basis depending on the basis and holding period of the blocks of IALB common stock exchanged for such block of First Merchants common stock.

A U.S. Holder who receives cash in lieu of fractional shares of First Merchants common stock will be treated as having received such fractional share of First Merchants common stock pursuant to the Merger and then as having sold that fractional share of First Merchants common stock for cash. As a result, a U.S. Holder will generally recognize gain or loss equal to the difference between the amount of cash received and the U.S. Holder's basis in the fractional share of First Merchants common stock determined as described above. Any resultant gain or loss will be capital in nature, and will be long-term or short-term, depending on the period of time the exchanged IALB common stock were held. The deductibility of capital losses is subject to limitations.

Information Reporting and Backup Withholding

Cash payments received in the Merger by a U.S. Holder may, under certain circumstances, be subject to information reporting and backup withholding, unless the U.S. Holder provides proof of an applicable exemption, furnishes its taxpayer identification number (in the case of individuals, their social security number) and otherwise complies with all applicable requirements of the backup withholding rules. Any amounts withheld from payments to a U.S. Holder under the backup withholding rules are not an additional tax and will be allowed as a refund or credit against the U.S. Holder's U.S. federal income tax liability, provided the required information is timely furnished to the IRS.

Reporting Requirements

U.S. Holders who are "significant holders" and receive First Merchants common stock in exchange for IALB common stock are required to file a statement with their U.S. federal income tax return setting forth certain information, including, but not limited to, their tax basis (determined immediately before the Merger) in the IALB common stock exchanged in the Merger and the fair market value (determined immediately before the Merger) of the IALB common stock exchanged in the Merger. A “significant holder” is a holder of IALB common stock who immediately before the Merger (i) owned at least 1% of the total outstanding stock of IALB by vote or by value or (ii) owned stock of IALB with a tax basis of at least $1 million.

All IALB shareholders will be required to retain permanent tax records of the tax basis of IALB common stock exchanged and the First Merchants common stock and cash received in the Merger.

This discussion is of a general nature only, is not exhaustive, and is not intended to be, nor should it be construed to be, legal or tax advice to any particular shareholder. Because of the complexity of the tax law and because of the unique tax consequences to the shareholders following the Merger, each shareholder is strongly urged to consult such shareholder’s own tax advisor as to the particular tax consequences to such shareholder of the Merger, including the applicability and effect of federal, state, local, foreign and other tax laws in such shareholder’s particular circumstances.

IALB was formed on May 1, 2005, as a result of the merger of Grabill Bancorp and MarBanc Financial Corporation, at which time IALB began operating two wholly-owned bank subsidiaries, MarkleBank and Grabill Bank. iAB Financial Bank is primarily engaged in providing a full range of banking and financial services to individual and corporate customers through its 17 banking centers in Allen, Huntington, Marshall and Wells Counties in Indiana. iAB Financial Bank has two wholly-owned subsidiaries: IAB Investments, Inc., a Nevada corporation; and Grabill Bank Insurance Services, Inc., an Indiana corporation. COMPARISON OF COMMON STOCK

The following summary comparison of First Merchants common stock and IALB common stock includes the material features of such stocks and the material differences in the rights of holders of shares of such stocks. Because this is a summary, it does not contain all of the information that is important to you and is qualified in its entirety by reference to First Merchants' Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws and IALB's Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws.

Governing Law

Following the Merger, the rights of former IALB shareholders who receive First Merchants common stock in the Merger will be governed by the laws of the State of Indiana, the state in which First Merchants is incorporated, and by First Merchants' Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws. The rights of IALB shareholders are presently governed by the laws of the State of Indiana, the state in which IALB is incorporated, and by IALB's Articles of Incorporation, Bylaws and the Shareholders Agreement. The rights of IALB shareholders differ in certain respects from the rights they will have as First Merchants shareholders, including certain preferential rights of preferred stockholders, the vote required for the amendment of certain significant provisions of the Articles of Incorporation and for the approval of certain significant corporate transactions.

Authorized But Unissued Shares

First Merchants

First Merchants' Articles of Incorporation authorize the issuance of 100,000,000 shares of common stock, of which 41,047,543 shares were outstanding as of March 31, 2017. First Merchants is also a party to an Agreement and Plan of Reorganization and Merger, dated January 25, 2017, pursuant to which it could issue up to an additional 2,074,783 shares of its common stock in connection with the acquisition of Arlington Bank. First Merchants' Board of Directors may authorize the issuance of additional shares of common stock up to the amounts authorized in First Merchants' Articles of Incorporation without shareholder approval, subject only to the restrictions of the Indiana Business Corporation Law and the Articles of Incorporation. First Merchants has 500,000 shares of preferred stock authorized, no shares of which are currently outstanding. The preferred shares are available to be issued, without prior shareholder approval, in classes with the rights, privileges and preferences determined for each class by the Board of Directors of First Merchants.

As of March 31, 2017, First Merchants had 223,802 shares of its common stock reserved and remaining available for issuance under its 2009 Long-term Equity Incentive Plan, 41,516 shares of its common stock reserved and remaining available for issuance under its Dividend Reinvestment and Stock Purchase Plan and

The issuance of additional shares of First Merchants common stock or the issuance of additional First Merchants preferred stock may adversely affect the interests of First Merchants shareholders by diluting their voting and ownership interests.

Restrictions on Transfer of Shares

First Merchants

The holders of First Merchants common stock are generally not restricted on sales of their shares. The shares are also registered under Section 12 of the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934 (the “Exchange Act”) and listed for exchange on The NASDAQ Global Select Market. As a result, a public market exists for the shares of common stock.

IALB

The holders of IALB common stock are generally not restricted on sales of their shares. The shares are not registered under Section 12 of the Exchange Act but are quoted on the OTCQX Market under the symbol “IALB”. As a result, a limited public market exists for the shares of common stock.

Dividend Rights

First Merchants

The holders of First Merchants common stock are entitled to dividends and other distributions when, as and if declared by its Boards of Directors.

Generally, First Merchants may not pay a dividend if, after giving effect to the dividend:

- First Merchants would not be able to pay its debts as they become due in the usual course of business; or

rights of shareholders payable upon dissolution.

The amount of dividends, if any, that may be declared by First Merchants in the future will necessarily depend upon many factors, including, among other things, future earnings, capital requirements, business conditions and capital levels of subsidiaries (since First Merchants is primarily dependent upon dividends paid by its subsidiaries for revenues), the discretion of First Merchants' Board of Directors and other factors that may be appropriate in determining dividend policies.

First Merchants Bank may pay cash dividends to First Merchants on its common stock only out of adjusted retained net profits for the year in which the dividend is paid and the two preceding years.

First Merchants Bank will ordinarily be restricted to paying dividends in a lesser amount to First Merchants than is legally permissible because of the need for the banks to maintain adequate capital consistent with the capital adequacy guidelines promulgated by the banks' principal federal regulatory authorities. If a bank's capital levels are deemed inadequate by the regulatory authorities, payment of dividends to its parent holding company may be prohibited. First Merchants Bank is not currently subject to such a restriction.

Voting Rights

The holders of the outstanding shares of common stock of First Merchants and IALB are entitled to one (1) vote per share on all matters presented for shareholder vote. Neither First Merchants nor IALB shareholders have cumulative voting rights in the election of directors.

Articles of Incorporation and Bylaw Amendments

First Merchants

Indiana law generally requires shareholder approval for most amendments to a corporation's articles of incorporation by a majority of a quorum at a shareholder's meeting (and, in certain cases, a majority of all shares held by any voting group entitled to vote). However, Indiana law permits a corporation in its articles of incorporation to specify a higher shareholder vote requirement for certain amendments. First Merchants' Articles of Incorporation require a super-majority shareholder vote of seventy-five percent (75%) of its outstanding shares of common stock for the amendment of certain significant provisions and a majority of its outstanding shares for all other amendments. See “COMPARISON OF COMMON STOCK—Number of Directors and Term of Office,” “COMPARISON OF COMMON STOCK—Removal of Directors,” and “COMPARISON OF COMMON STOCK—Anti-Takeover Provisions.”

Indiana law permits a board of directors to amend a corporation’s bylaws unless the articles of incorporation provide otherwise. First Merchants’ Bylaws may generally be amended by an affirmative vote of a majority of the entire Board of Directors. However, several provisions of First Merchants’ Bylaws require two-thirds (2/3) vote of the entire Board of Directors to approve amendments, including the provision regarding removal of directors and setting the number and classes of directors. In addition, First Merchants’ Articles of Incorporation provide that its Bylaws may not be amended to repeal, modify or amend certain provisions of its Articles of Incorporation.

Special Meetings of Shareholders

First Merchants

First Merchants’ Bylaws provide that a special meeting of shareholders may be called by the Board of Directors, the President, at the written request of a majority of the Board of Directors or at the written request of shareholders holding at least one-fourth (1/4) of all shares outstanding and entitled to vote on business for which the meeting is called.

IALB

IALB’s Bylaws provide that a special meeting of shareholders may be called at any time by the Chairman of the Board of Directors, Chief Executive Officer, President, the Board of Directors or by shareholders holding at least one-fourth (1/4) of the outstanding shares.

Number of Directors and Term of Office

First Merchants

First Merchants’ Articles of Incorporation provide that the number of directors shall be set in the Bylaws by the Board of Directors and shall be at least 9 and no more than 15. First Merchants’ Articles of Incorporation also provide for classes of directors with staggered terms. Amendment of this provision of First Merchants’ Articles of Incorporation requires the approval of three-fourths (3/4) of the voting stock. First Merchants’ Bylaws specify that the number of directors is 10. The Bylaws provide that the number of directors may be amended only by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the entire Board of Directors. Consistent with its Articles of Incorporation, First Merchants’ Bylaws provide that the Board of Directors is divided into 3 classes with 4 directors in 1 of the classes and 3 directors in the other 2 classes. The directors in each class are elected for 3-year staggered terms. Thus, approximately only one-third (1/3) of First Merchants’ Board of Directors is elected at each annual meeting of shareholders. Because First Merchants’ Board of Directors is divided into classes, a majority of First

The Articles of Incorporation of IALB provide that the number of directors shall be eight (8) members unless altered by resolution of the Board of Directors. The Bylaws provide that the Board of Directors shall consist of fifteen (15) members, divided into staggered terms of three (3) years.

Merchants' directors can be replaced only after 2 annual meetings of shareholders. A two-thirds (2/3) vote of the entire Board of Directors is required to amend this provision of First Merchants' Bylaws.

First Merchants' Board of Directors is divided into classes, a majority of First Merchants' directors can be replaced only after two (2) annual meetings of shareholders. A two-thirds (2/3) vote of the entire Board of Directors is required to amend this provision of First Merchants' Bylaws.

Nomination of Directors

First Merchants

Under First Merchants' Bylaws, only the Nominating and Governance Committee of the Board of Directors may nominate a candidate for the Board of Directors. Shareholders may suggest a person for nomination by sending a notice to the Committee setting forth at a minimum:

- the name and address of each suggested nominee;
- the age and principal occupation of each suggested nominee;
- the total number of shares of First Merchants capital stock held by the notifying shareholder; and
- the name and residence address of the notifying shareholder.

IALB

IALB's Bylaws provide that the Board of Directors or any shareholder entitled to vote may nominate a shareholder for election to the Board of Directors.

Removal of Directors

First Merchants

First Merchants' Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws provide that any director or all directors may be removed, with or without cause, at a meeting of shareholders upon the vote of the holders of not less than two-thirds (2/3) of the outstanding shares entitled to vote on the election of directors. However, if two-thirds (2/3) of the entire Board of Directors recommends removal of a director to the shareholders, then such director may be removed by the affirmative vote of the holders of at least a majority of the outstanding shares entitled to vote on the election of directors at a shareholders meeting. A two-thirds (2/3) vote of the entire Board of Directors is required to amend this provision of First Merchants' Bylaws. Amendment of this provision of First Merchants' Articles of Incorporation requires the approval of three-fourths (3/4) of the voting stock.

IALB

IALB Articles of Incorporation provide that any or all of the members of the Board of Directors may be removed only (i) by the shareholders through an affirmative vote of holders of at least a majority of the shares then entitled to vote or (ii) by the affirmative vote of at least two-thirds (2/3) of the directors then in office.

Anti-Takeover Provisions

First Merchants

The anti-takeover measures applicable to First Merchants described below may have the effect of discouraging a person or other entity from acquiring control of either company. These measures may have the effect of discouraging certain tender offers for shares of their common stock which might otherwise be made at premium prices or certain other acquisition transactions which might be viewed favorably by a significant number of shareholders.

Under Indiana law, any ten percent (10%) shareholder of an Indiana corporation, with a class of voting shares registered under Section 12 of the Exchange Act, such as First Merchants, is prohibited for a period of five (5) years from completing a business combination with the corporation unless, prior to the acquisition of such ten percent (10%) interest, the Board of Directors approved either the acquisition of such interest or the proposed business combination. If such prior approval is not obtained, the corporation and a ten percent (10%) shareholder may not consummate a business combination unless all provisions of the articles of incorporation are complied with and either a majority of disinterested shareholders approve the transaction or all shareholders receive a price per share as determined by Indiana law. A corporation may specifically adopt application of the business combination provision in its Articles of Incorporation and obtain the protection provided by this provision.

An Indiana corporation may elect to remove itself from the protection provided by the Indiana business combination provision, but such an election remains ineffective for eighteen (18) months and does not apply to a combination with a shareholder who acquired a ten percent (10%) ownership position prior to the election. First Merchants has adopted the protection provided by the business combination provision of Indiana law.

In addition to the business combination provision, Indiana law contains a “control share acquisition” provision which, although different in structure from the business combination provision, may have a similar effect of discouraging or making more difficult a hostile takeover of an Indiana corporation. This provision also may have the effect of discouraging premium bids for outstanding shares.

Under this provision, unless otherwise provided in the corporation’s articles of incorporation or bylaws, if a shareholder acquires a certain amount of shares, approval of a majority of the disinterested shareholders must be obtained before the acquiring shareholder may vote the control shares. Under certain circumstances, the shares held by the acquirer may be redeemed by the corporation at the fair market value of the shares as determined by the control share acquisition provision. First Merchants is subject to the control share acquisition provision. The constitutional validity of the control share acquisition statute has been challenged in the past and has been upheld by the United States Supreme Court.

IALB

IALB has elected not to adopt the protections of the Indiana business combination or “control share acquisition” statutes under Indiana law.

The control share acquisition provision does not apply to a plan of affiliation and merger if the corporation complies with the applicable merger provisions and is a party to the agreement of merger or plan of share exchange.

Liquidation Rights

First Merchants

In the event of any liquidation or dissolution of First Merchants, its shareholders are entitled to receive pro rata, according to the number of shares held, any assets distributable to shareholders, subject to the payment of First Merchants' liabilities and any rights of creditors and holders of shares of First Merchants' preferred stock then outstanding.

IALB

In the event of any liquidation, dissolution, or winding up of IALB, either voluntary or involuntary, the holders of shares shall be entitled to share, ratably according to the number of shares held by them, in all assets of IALB available for distribution to its shareholders.

Redemption

Under Indiana law, First Merchants and IALB may only redeem or acquire shares of its common stock with funds legally available therefor, and shares so acquired constitute authorized but unissued shares. Neither First Merchants nor IALB may redeem or acquire its shares of common stock if, after such redemption, it would not be able to pay its debts as they become due. Additionally, neither First Merchants nor IALB may redeem its shares if its total assets would be less than the sum of its total liabilities plus preferential rights of shareholders payable upon dissolution.

Indemnification of Directors, Officers and Employees

Under Indiana law and First Merchants' and IALB's Articles of Incorporation, either corporation may indemnify any director, officer, employee or agent for any and all liability and expense incurred in connection with a proceeding which such person is involved in by reason of such person's position with First Merchants or IALB, as applicable, in which (a) the person is wholly successful or (b) the person acted in good faith in what the person reasonably believed to be in or at least not opposed to the best interests of First Merchants or IALB, as applicable. If the person is wholly successful with respect to the claim or proceeding, the indemnification by First Merchants or IALB, as applicable is mandatory. Finally, under Indiana law and their respective Articles of Incorporation and/or Bylaws, both First Merchants and IALB are permitted to advance expenses to a person prior to final disposition of the proceeding if the person undertakes to repay any advanced amounts, if it is ultimately determined that he or she is not entitled to indemnification.

SHAREHOLDER PROPOSALS FOR NEXT YEAR

First Merchants

If the Merger is completed, IALB shareholders will become shareholders of First Merchants. Any proposal which a First Merchants shareholder intends to have presented at the 2018 annual meeting of First Merchants and included in the proxy statement and form of proxy relating to that meeting must be received by the Secretary of First Merchants at First Merchants' principal office no later than November 24, 2017, for inclusion in First Merchants' proxy statement and form of proxy relating to that meeting. Shareholder proposals, if any, intended to be presented at the 2018 annual meeting of First Merchants that are not submitted by November 24, 2017 for inclusion in the proxy statement will be considered untimely.

3.3 Recapitalization. If, between the date of this Agreement and the Effective Date, First Merchants issues a stock dividend with respect to its shares of common stock, combines, subdivides, or splits up its outstanding shares or takes any similar recapitalization action, then the Exchange Ratio shall be adjusted so that each holder of IALB Common Stock shall receive such number of shares of First Merchants Common Stock as represents the same percentage of outstanding shares of First Merchants Common Stock at the Effective Date as would have been represented by the number of shares of First Merchants Common Stock such shareholder would have received if the recapitalization had not occurred.

(c) Within three (3) business days following the Effective Date, the Exchange Agent shall mail to each holder of IALB Common Stock a letter of transmittal (the “Letter of Transmittal”) providing (i) that delivery shall be effected and risk of loss of title to the certificates representing IALB Common Stock shall pass only upon delivery of the certificates to the Exchange Agent and (ii) instructions as to the transmittal to the Exchange Agent of certificates representing shares of IALB Common Stock and the issuance of shares of First Merchants Common Stock in exchange therefor pursuant to the terms of this Agreement. Distribution of shares of First Merchants Common Stock Certificates and cash payments in lieu of fractional shares shall be made by the Exchange Agent to each former holder of IALB Common Stock within five (5) business days following the later of the Effective Date or the date of such shareholder’s delivery to the Exchange Agent of such shareholder’s certificates representing IALB Common Stock, accompanied by a properly completed and executed Letter of Transmittal. Interest shall not accrue or be payable with respect to any cash payments.

(d) Following the Effective Date, stock certificates representing IALB Common Stock shall be converted to, and deemed to evidence only the right to receive such number of shares of First Merchants Common Stock as determined in accordance with Sections 3.1 and 3.2 above (for all corporate purposes other than the payment of dividends) and cash for fractional shares, as applicable. (f) Any portion of the Exchange Fund that remains unclaimed by the holders of IALB Common Stock for twelve (12) months after the Effective Date shall be paid, distributed, or otherwise released to First Merchants, or its successors in interest. Any shareholders of IALB who have not theretofore complied with this Section 3 shall thereafter look only to First Merchants, or its successors in interest, for the issuance of shares of First Merchants Common Stock and any unpaid dividends and distributions on First Merchants Common Stock deliverable in respect of each share of IALB Common Stock such shareholder holds as determined pursuant to this Agreement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, none of First Merchants, the Exchange Agent or any other person shall be liable to any former holder of shares of IALB Common Stock for any amount delivered in good faith to a public official pursuant to applicable abandoned property, escheat or similar laws.

(g) First Merchants shall be entitled to rely upon the stock transfer books of IALB to establish the persons entitled to receive shares of First Merchants Common Stock, which books, in the absence of actual knowledge by First Merchants of any adverse claim thereto, shall be conclusive with respect to the ownership of such stock.

(h) With respect to any certificate for IALB Common Stock which has been lost, stolen, or destroyed, First Merchants shall be authorized to issue First Merchants Common Stock to the registered owner of such certificate upon receipt of an affidavit of lost stock certificate, in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to First Merchants, and upon compliance by such registered owner with all procedures historically required by IALB in connection with lost, stolen, or destroyed certificates, with any costs incurred at the shareholder's expense.

SECTION 4

DISSENTING SHAREHOLDERS

Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, any issued and outstanding shares of IALB Common Stock held by a person (a "Dissenting Shareholder") who has not voted in favor of, or consented to, the adoption of this Agreement and has complied with all the provisions of the Indiana Business Corporation Law concerning the rights of holders of shares of IALB Common Stock to require payment of fair cash value of such IALB Common Stock (the "Dissenting Shares"), in accordance with Indiana Code § 23-1-44, as amended, shall not be converted into the right to receive such number of shares of First Merchants Common Stock and cash for fractional shares as determined in accordance with Sections 3.1 and 3.2 above (the "Merger Consideration"), but shall become the right to receive such consideration as may be determined to be due to such Dissenting Shareholder pursuant to the procedures set forth in Indiana Code § 23-1-44, as amended. If such Dissenting Shareholder withdraws its demand for fair cash value or fails to perfect or otherwise loses its rights as a dissenting shareholder, in any case under the Indiana Business Corporation Law, each of such Dissenting Shareholder's shares of IALB Common Stock shall thereupon be treated as though such shares of IALB Common Stock had been converted into the right to receive the Merger Consideration pursuant to Sections 3.1 and 3.2. IALB shall notify First Merchants of each shareholder who asserts rights as a Dissenting Shareholder following receipt of such Shareholder's written demand delivered as provided in Indiana Code § 23-1-44, as amended. Prior to the Effective Date, IALB shall not, except with the prior written consent of First Merchants, voluntarily make any payment, or settle or commit to settle or offer to settle any rights of a Dissenting Shareholder asserted under Indiana Code § 23-1-44, as amended.

5.5 Compliance with Law. To the Knowledge of IALB's Management (as defined below) Neither IALB nor any Subsidiary has engaged in any activity nor taken or omitted to take any action which has resulted or could reasonably be expected to result, in the violation of any local, state, federal or foreign law, statute, rule, regulation or ordinance or of any order, injunction, judgment or decree of any court or government agency or body, the violation of which could reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect on IALB. IALB and each Subsidiary possess all licenses, franchises, permits and other authorizations necessary for the continued conduct of their respective businesses without material interference or interruption, except where the failure to possess such licenses or other authorizations would not be reasonably expected to have a Material Adverse Effect on IALB, and such licenses, franchises, permits and authorizations shall be transferred to First Merchants on the Effective Date without any material restrictions or limitations thereon or the need to obtain any consents of third parties, except as otherwise set forth in the IALB Disclosure Letter. Neither IALB nor any Subsidiary is subject to any agreement, commitment or understanding with, or order and directive of, any regulatory agency or government authority with respect to the business or operations of IALB or any Subsidiary. The Bank has not received any notice of enforcement actions since January 1, 2013 from any regulatory agency or government authority relating to its compliance with the Bank Secrecy Act, the Truth-in-Lending Act, the Community Reinvestment Act, the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act of 1999, the USA Patriot Act, the International Money Laundering Abatement and Financial Anti-Terrorism Act of 2001, the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002, the Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act or any laws with respect to the protection of the environment or the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder. IALB has not received any notice of enforcement actions since January 1, 2014, from any regulatory agency or government authority relating to its compliance with any securities laws applicable to IALB. The Bank received a rating of "satisfactory" or better in its most recent examination or interim review with respect to the Community Reinvestment Act.

5.6 Accuracy of Statements. No information which has been or shall be supplied by IALB with respect to its businesses, operations and financial condition for inclusion in the proxy statement, registration statement, and regulatory applications relating to the Merger or the Bank Merger contains or shall contain (in the case of information relating to the proxy statement at the time it is mailed and for the regulatory applications and registration statement, and each amendment or supplement thereto, if any, at the time it becomes effective) any untrue statement of a material fact or omits or shall omit to state a material fact necessary to make the statements contained therein not misleading.

5.7 Litigation and Pending Proceedings. Except as set forth in the IALB Disclosure Letter, there are no claims of any kind, nor any action, suits, proceedings, arbitrations or investigations pending or, to the knowledge of IALB's Management, threatened in any court or before any government agency or body, arbitration panel or otherwise (nor does IALB's Management have any knowledge of a basis for any claim, action, suit, proceeding, arbitration or investigation) which could reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect. To the knowledge of IALB's Management, there are no uncured violations, criticisms or exceptions, or violations with respect to which refunds or restitutions may be required, cited in any report, correspondence or other communication to IALB or any Subsidiary as a result of an examination by any regulatory agency or body which could reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect.

(b) All loans reflected in the Financial Information and which have been made, extended or acquired since December 31, 2016 (i) have been made for good, valuable and adequate consideration in the ordinary course of business; (ii) constitute the legal, valid and binding obligation of the obligor and any guarantor named therein; (iii) are evidenced by notes, instruments or other evidences of indebtedness which are true, genuine and what they purport to be; and (iv) to the extent that the Bank has a security interest in collateral or a mortgage securing such loans, are secured by perfected security interests or mortgages naming the Bank as the secured party or mortgagee, except for such unperfected security interests or mortgages naming the Bank as secured party or mortgagee which, on an individual loan basis, would not materially adversely affect the value of any such loan and the recovery of payment on any such loan if the Bank is not able to enforce any such security interest or mortgage.

5.9 Absence of Certain Changes. Except for events and conditions relating to the business and interest rate environment in general, the accrual or payment of Merger-related expenses, or as set forth in the IALB Disclosure Letter, since December 31, 2016, no events have occurred which could reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect. Except as set forth in the IALB Disclosure Letter, between the period from December 31, 2016 to the date of this Agreement, IALB and each Subsidiary have carried on their respective businesses in the ordinary and usual course consistent with their past practices (excluding the incurrence of fees and expenses of professional advisors related to this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby) and there has not been any declaration, setting aside or payment of any dividend or other distribution (whether in cash, stock or property) with respect to IALB's Common Stock (other than normal quarterly cash dividends) or any split, combination or reclassification of any stock of IALB or any Subsidiary or, with the exception of the issuance of shares in connection with the exercise of stock options or the vesting of any performance stock units, any issuance or the authorization of any issuance of any securities in respect of, or in lieu of, or in substitution for IALB's or any Subsidiary's common shares or equity interests, as applicable.

5.10 Absence of Undisclosed Liabilities. Except as set forth in the IALB Disclosure Letter, neither IALB nor the Bank has any liabilities, whether accrued, absolute, contingent, or otherwise, existing or arising out of any transaction or state of facts existing on or prior to the date hereof, except (a) as and to the extent disclosed, reflected or reserved against in the Financial Information, (b) any agreement, contract, obligation, commitment, arrangement, liability, lease or license which individually is less than Two Hundred Fifty Thousand and 00/100 Dollars ($250,000.00) per year and which may be terminated within one year from the date of this Agreement, (c) liabilities incurred since December 31, 2016 in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practice that either alone or when considered with all similar liabilities, have not had or would not reasonably be expected have a Material Adverse Effect on IALB, (d) liabilities incurred for reasonable legal, accounting, financial advising fees and out-of-pocket expenses or fees in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, and (e) unfunded loan commitments made in the ordinary course of the Bank's business consistent with past practices.

(b) The operation by IALB or any Subsidiary of such properties and assets is in material compliance with all applicable laws, ordinances, rules and regulations of any governmental authority or third party having jurisdiction over such use except for such noncompliance that would not have a Material Adverse Effect.

5.12 Loans and Investments.

(a) Except as set forth in the IALB Disclosure Letter, there is no loan of the Bank in excess of Two Hundred Fifty Thousand and 00/100 Dollars ($250,000.00) that, as of December 31, 2016, that (i) has been classified by IALB, applying applicable regulatory examination standards, as “Other Loans Specially Mentioned,” “Substandard,” “Doubtful” or “Loss;” (ii) has been identified by accountants or auditors (internal or external) as having a significant risk of uncollectibility, or (iii) has been identified by IALB Management to be ninety (90) days or more past due with respect to principal or interest or has placed on nonaccrual status.

(b) The reserves for loan and lease losses and the carrying value for other real estate owned which are shown on each of the balance sheets contained in the Financial Information were adequate in the judgment of IALB’s Management and consistent with applicable bank regulatory standards and under GAAP to provide for losses, net of recoveries relating to loans and leases previously charged off, on loans and leases outstanding and other real estate owned (including accrued interest receivable) as of the applicable date of such balance sheet.

(c) Except as set forth in the IALB Disclosure Letter, none of the investments reflected in the Financial Information and none of the investments made by IALB or any Subsidiary since December 31, 2016 is subject to any restrictions, whether contractual or statutory, which materially impairs the ability of IALB or any Subsidiary to dispose freely of such investment at any time. Except as set forth in the IALB Disclosure Letter, IALB or any Subsidiary is not a party to any repurchase agreements with respect to securities.

5.13 Employee Benefit Plans.

(a) The IALB Disclosure Letter contains a list identifying each “employee benefit plan,” as defined in Section 3(3) of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended (“ERISA”), which (i) is subject to any provision of ERISA, and (ii) is currently maintained, administered or contributed to by IALB, any Subsidiary or any other entity, trade or business that, together with IALB, would be treated as a single employer under the provisions of Sections 414(b), (c), (m) or (o) of the Code (“IALB ERISA Affiliate”), and covers any employee, director or former employee or director of IALB, any Subsidiary or any IALB ERISA Affiliate under which IALB or any IALB ERISA Affiliate has any liability. The IALB Disclosure Letter also contains a list of all “employee benefit plans” as defined under ERISA which have been terminated by IALB, any Subsidiary or any IALB ERISA Affiliate since January 1, 2010. Copies of such plans (and, if applicable, related trust agreements or insurance contracts) and all amendments thereto and written interpretations thereof have been furnished to First Merchants together with the three (3) most recent annual reports (Form 5500) prepared in connection with any such plan and the current summary plan descriptions (and any summary of material modifications thereto). Such plans are hereinafter referred to individually as an “Employee Plan” and collectively as the “Employee Plans.” The Employee Plans which individually or collectively would constitute an “employee pension benefit plan” as defined in Section 3(2)(A) of ERISA are identified as such in the list referred to above.

Neither IALB, any Subsidiary nor any IALB ERISA Affiliate has any material liability to the Pension Benefit Guaranty Corporation (“PBGC”), to the Internal Revenue Service (“IRS”), to the Department of Labor (“DOL”), to the Employee Benefits Security Administration, with respect to any Employee Plan, except for routine premium payments to the PBGC.

(d) To the knowledge of IALB’s Management, no “fiduciary,” as defined in Section 3(21) of ERISA, of an Employee Plan has failed to comply with the requirements of Section 404 of ERISA in such a way as to cause material liability to IALB, any Subsidiary or any IALB ERISA Affiliate.

(e) Each of the Employee Plans which is intended to be qualified under Section 401(a) of the Code has been timely amended to comply in all material respects with the applicable requirements of the Code. (f) Except as disclosed in the IALB Disclosure Letter, no Employee Plan has incurred an “accumulated funding deficiency,” as determined under Section 412 of the Code and Section 302 of ERISA. IALB has at all times met the minimum funding standard, and has made all contributions required, under Section 412 of the Code and Section 302 of ERISA. No facts or circumstances exist that may subject IALB, any Subsidiary, or any IALB ERISA Affiliate, to any liability under Sections 4062, 4063 or 4064 of ERISA. Neither IALB, any Subsidiary nor any IALB ERISA Affiliate ever has engaged in any transaction within the meaning of Section 4069 of ERISA. Except as disclosed in the IALB Disclosure Letter, there exist no facts or circumstances which could subject IALB, or any IALB ERISA Affiliate thereof, to withdrawal liability within the meaning of Section 4201 of ERISA or to contingent withdrawal liability under Section 4204 of ERISA. Neither IALB nor any IALB ERISA Affiliate ever has been a party to a transaction within the meaning of Section 4212(c) of ERISA.

(g) No Employee Plan subject to Title IV of ERISA has been terminated or incurred a partial termination (either voluntarily or involuntarily), in such a way as to cause material additional liability to IALB, any Subsidiary or any IALB ERISA Affiliate.

(h) No claims involving an Employee Plan (other than normal benefit claims) have been filed in a court of law or, to the knowledge of IALB’s Management, have been threatened to be filed in a court of law.

(i) Except as set forth in the IALB Disclosure Letter, there is no contract, agreement, plan or arrangement covering any employee, director or former employee or director of IALB or any Subsidiary that, individually or collectively, could give rise to the payment of any amount that would not be deductible by reason of Section 280G or Section 162(a)(1) of the Code.

(j) To the knowledge of IALB’s Management, no event has occurred that would cause the imposition of the tax described in Section 4980B of the Code on IALB. To the knowledge of IALB’s Management, IALB has materially complied with all requirements of Section 601 of ERISA, as applicable, with respect to any Employee Plan.

(k) The IALB Disclosure Letter contains a list of each employment, severance or other similar contract, arrangement or policy and each plan or arrangement (written or oral) providing for insurance coverage (including any self-insured arrangements), workers’ compensation, disability benefits, supplemental unemployment benefits, vacation benefits, retirement benefits or deferred compensation, profit sharing, bonuses, stock options, stock appreciation or other forms of incentive compensation or post-retirement insurance, compensation or benefits which (i) is not an Employee Plan, (ii) was entered into, maintained or contributed to, as the case may be, by IALB or any Subsidiary and (iii) covers any employee, director or former employee or director of IALB or any Subsidiary. (l) Except as set forth in the IALB Disclosure Letter or as required by applicable law, neither IALB nor any IALB ERISA Affiliate has any present or future liability in respect of post-retirement health and medical benefits for former employees or directors of IALB, any Subsidiary or any IALB ERISA Affiliate.

(m) Except as set forth in the IALB Disclosure Letter, there has been no amendment to, written interpretation or announcement (whether or not written) by IALB, any Subsidiary or any IALB ERISA Affiliate relating to, or change in employee participation or coverage under, any Employee Plan or Benefit Arrangement administered by IALB or any IALB ERISA Affiliate which would increase materially the expense of maintaining such Employee Plans or Benefit Arrangements above the level of the expense incurred in respect thereof for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2015.

(n) Except as otherwise provided in the IALB Disclosure Letter, the transactions contemplated by the Agreement will not cause acceleration of vesting in, or payment of, any material benefits under any Employee Plan or Benefit Arrangement and will not otherwise materially accelerate or increase any obligation under any Employee Plan or Benefit Arrangement.

(o) With respect to any nonqualified deferred compensation plan that is subject to Section 409A of the Code, such plan has been identified on the IALB Disclosure Letter and, except as otherwise set forth in the IALB Disclosure Letter, has been operated in accordance with, and is in documentary compliance with Section 409A of the Code and the guidance issued thereunder.

Except as set forth in the IALB Disclosure Letter, all obligations and liabilities of IALB and the Subsidiaries, whether arising by operation of law, by contract, or by past custom, for all forms of compensation which are or may be payable to their current or former directors, officers, employees or agents have been and are being paid, and adequate accruals and/or reserves for payment therefore have been and are being made in accordance with GAAP, except where the failure to pay any such obligations and liabilities or to maintain adequate accruals and/or reserves for payment thereof would not have a Material Adverse Effect. All accruals and reserves referred to in this Section 5.14 are correctly and accurately reflected and accounted for in the books, statements and records of IALB and the Subsidiaries, except where the failure to correctly and accurately reflect and account for such accruals and reserves would not have a Material Adverse Effect.

The Agreement, when executed and delivered, will have been duly authorized and will constitute a valid and binding obligation of First Merchants and FMB, subject to the conditions precedent set forth in Section 9 hereof, enforceable in accordance with its terms, except to the extent limited by insolvency, reorganization, liquidation, readjustment of debt, or other laws of general application relating to or affecting the enforcement of creditor's rights. The Board of Directors of First Merchants and FMB have approved the Merger pursuant to the terms and conditions of this Agreement.

(b) Except as set forth in the First Merchants Disclosure Letter, neither the execution of this Agreement, nor the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby, subject to the conditions precedent set forth in Section 9 hereof does or will (i) conflict with, result in a breach of, or constitute a default under either First Merchants' or FMB's Articles of Incorporation or By-Laws; (ii) conflict with, result in a breach of, or constitute a default under any federal, foreign, state, or local law, statute, ordinance, rule, regulation, or court or administrative order or decree, or any note, bond, indenture, loan, mortgage, security agreement, contract, arrangement, or commitment, to which either First Merchants or FMB is subject or bound, the result of which would have a Material Adverse Effect; (iii) result in the creation of, or give any person, corporation or entity the right to create, any lien, charge, claim, encumbrance, security interest, or any other rights of others or other adverse interest upon any right, property or asset of either First Merchants or FMB; (iv) terminate, or give any person, corporation or entity the right to terminate, amend, abandon, or refuse to perform, any note, bond, indenture, loan, mortgage, security agreement, contract, arrangement, or commitment to which First Merchants or FMB is a party or by which either First Merchants or FMB is subject or bound, the result of which would have a Material Adverse Effect on First Merchants; or (v) accelerate or modify, or give any party thereto the right to accelerate or modify, the time within which, or the terms according to which, either First Merchants or FMB is to perform any duties or obligations or receive any rights or benefits under any note, bond, indenture, loan, mortgage, security agreement, contract, arrangement, or commitment.

(c) Other than in connection or in compliance with the provisions of the Bank Holding Company Act of 1956, the Bank Merger Act, federal and state securities laws, and applicable federal and Indiana banking statutes and Indiana corporate statutes, all as amended, and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder, no notice to, filing with, authorization of, exemption by, or consent or approval of, any public body or authority is necessary for the consummation by First Merchants and FMB of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

Except as set forth in the First Merchants Disclosure Letter, First Merchants and each First Merchants Subsidiary possess all licenses, franchises, permits and other authorizations necessary for the continued conduct of their respective businesses without material interference or interruption. Neither First Merchants nor any First Merchants Subsidiary are subject to any agreement, commitment or understanding with, or order and directive of, any regulatory agency or government authority with respect to the business or operations of First Merchants or FMB. Except as set forth in the First Merchants Disclosure Letter, FMB has not received any notice of enforcement actions since January 1, 2014 from any regulatory agency or government authority relating to its compliance with the Bank Secrecy Act, the Truth-in-Lending Act, the Community Reinvestment Act, the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act of 1999, the USA Patriot Act, the International Money Laundering Abatement and Financial Anti-Terrorism Act of 2001, the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002, the Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act or any laws with respect to the protection of the environment or the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder. FMB received a rating of “satisfactory” or better in its most recent examination or interim review with respect to the Community Reinvestment Act.

6.6 Accuracy of Statements. No information which has been or shall be supplied by First Merchants nor any First Merchants Subsidiary with respect to its respective businesses, operations and financial condition for inclusion in the proxy statement, registration statement, and regulatory applications relating to the Merger or the Bank Merger contains or shall contain (in the case of information relating to the proxy statement at the time it is mailed and for the regulatory applications and registration statement, and each amendment or supplement thereto, if any, at the time it becomes effective) any untrue statement of a material fact or omits or shall omit to state a material fact necessary to make the statements contained therein not misleading.

6.7 Litigation and Pending Proceedings. Except as set forth in the First Merchants Disclosure Letter, there are no claims of any kind, nor any action, suits, proceedings, arbitrations or investigations pending or to the knowledge of First Merchants’ Management threatened in any court or before any government agency or body, arbitration panel or otherwise (nor does First Merchants’ Management have any knowledge of a basis for any claim, action, suit, proceeding, arbitration or investigation) which could be reasonably expected to have a Material Adverse Effect. To the knowledge of First Merchants’ Management, there are no material uncured violations, criticisms or exceptions, or violations with respect to which material refunds or restitutions may be required, cited in any report, correspondence or other communication to First Merchants as a result of an examination by any regulatory agency or body.

6.8 Financial Statements.

(a) First Merchants' consolidated audited balance sheets as of the end of the two (2) fiscal years ended December 31, 2015 and 2014, the unaudited consolidated balance sheet for the nine months ended September 30, 2016 and the related consolidated statements of income, shareholders' equity and cash flows for the years or period then ended (hereinafter collectively referred to as the "First Merchants Financial Information") present fairly the consolidated financial condition or position of First Merchants as of the respective dates thereof and the consolidated results of operations of First Merchants for the respective periods covered thereby and have been prepared in conformity with GAAP applied on a consistent basis.

(b) All loans reflected in the First Merchants Financial Information and which have been made, extended or acquired since September 30, 2016 (i) have been made for good, valuable and adequate consideration in the ordinary course of business; (ii) constitute the legal, valid and binding obligation of the obligor and any guarantor named therein; (iii) are evidenced by notes, instruments or other evidences of indebtedness which are true, genuine and what they purport to be; and (iv) to the extent that FMB has a security interest in collateral or a mortgage securing such loans, are secured by perfected security interests or mortgages naming FMB as the secured party or mortgagee, except for such unperfected security interests or mortgages naming FMB as secured party or mortgagee which, on an individual loan basis, would not materially adversely affect the value of any such loan and the recovery of payment on any such loan if FMB is not able to enforce any such security interest or mortgage.

6.9 Absence of Certain Changes. Except for events and conditions relating to the business and interest rate environment in general, the accrual or payment of Merger-related expenses, or as set forth in the First Merchants Disclosure Letter, since September 30, 2016, no events have occurred which could reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect. Except as set forth in the First Merchants Disclosure Letter, between the period from September 30, 2016 to the date of this Agreement, First Merchants and each First Merchants Subsidiary have carried on their respective businesses in the ordinary and usual course consistent with their past practices (excluding the incurrence of reasonable fees and expenses of professional advisors related to this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby). Since September 30, 2016, there has not been any declaration, setting aside or payment of any dividend or other distribution (whether in cash, stock or property) with respect to First Merchants' Common Stock (other than normal quarterly cash dividends) or any split, combination or reclassification of any stock of First Merchants or any First Merchants Subsidiary or any issuance or the authorization of any issuance of any securities in respect of, or in lieu of, or in substitution for First Merchants' Common Stock.

6.10 Absence of Undisclosed Liabilities. Except as set forth in the First Merchants Disclosure Letter, neither First Merchants nor any First Merchants Subsidiary has any liabilities, whether accrued, absolute, contingent, or otherwise, existing or arising out of any transaction or state of facts existing on or prior to the date hereof, except (a) as and to the extent disclosed, reflected or reserved against in the First Merchants Financial Information, (b) any agreement, contract, obligation, commitment, arrangement, liability, lease or license which individually is less than Five Hundred Thousand and 00/100 Dollars ($500,000.00) per year and which may be terminated within one year from the date of this Agreement, and (c) unfunded loan commitments made in the ordinary course of IALB's business consistent with past practices.

6.11 Taxes, Returns and Reports. First Merchants and FMB have (a) duly filed all federal, state, local and foreign tax returns of every type and kind required to be filed by them as of the date hereof, and each return is true, complete and accurate in all material respects; (b) paid all material taxes, assessments and other governmental charges due and payable or claimed to be due and payable upon them or any of their income, properties or assets; and (c) not requested an extension of time for any such payments (which extension is still in force). Except for taxes not yet due and payable, the reserve for taxes on the First Merchants Financial Information is adequate to cover all of First Merchants' and FMB's tax liabilities (including, without limitation, income taxes and franchise fees) that may become payable in future years with respect to any transactions consummated prior to September 30, 2016. Neither First Merchants nor FMB has or will have, any liability for taxes of any nature for or with respect to the operation of their business, including the assets of any subsidiary, from September 30, 2016, up to and including the Effective Date, except to the extent reflected on the First Merchants Financial Information or on financial statements of First Merchants or any subsidiary subsequent to such date and as set forth in the First Merchants Disclosure Letter. Neither First Merchants nor FMB has received written notice that it is currently under audit by any state or federal taxing authority. Except as set forth in the First Merchants Disclosure Letter, none of the federal, state, or local tax returns of First Merchants or FMB have been audited by any taxing authority during the past five (5) years.

All such reports filed by First Merchants and the First Merchants Subsidiaries complied in all material respects with all applicable rules and regulations promulgated by the applicable FMC Regulatory Authorities and were true, accurate and complete in all material respects and, to the extent required, were prepared in conformity with GAAP applied on a consistent basis. There is no unresolved violation with respect to any report or statement filed by, or any examination of First Merchants or FMB.

6.14 Absence of Defaults. Neither First Merchants nor FMB is in violation of its Articles of Incorporation or By-Laws or, to the knowledge of First Merchants’ Management, in default under any material agreement, commitment, arrangement, loan, lease, insurance policy or other instrument, whether entered into in the ordinary course of business or otherwise and whether written or oral, and there has not occurred any event known to First Merchants’ Management that, with the lapse of time or giving of notice or both, would constitute such a default, except for defaults which would not have a Material Adverse Effect.

6.15 Tax and Regulatory Matters. Neither First Merchants nor any First Merchants Subsidiary has taken or agreed to take any action or has any knowledge of any fact or circumstance that would (a) prevent the transactions contemplated hereby from qualifying as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368 of the Code or (b) materially impede or delay receipt of any regulatory approval required for consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

6.16 Securities Law Compliance. First Merchants’ common stock is traded on the NASDAQ Global Select Market under the symbol of “FRME.” First Merchants has complied in all material respects with all applicable state, federal or foreign securities laws, statutes, rules, regulations or orders, injunctions or decrees of any applicable government agency relating thereto. Since January 1, 2015, all such SEC filings were true, accurate and complete in all material respects as of the dates of the filings (except for information included therein as of a certain date, which shall have been true and correct as of such date), and no such filings, at the time they were filed, contained any untrue statement of a material fact or omitted to state a material fact necessary in order to make the statements made, at the time and in the light of the circumstances under which they were made, not false or misleading.

6.19 Nonsurvival of Representations and Warranties. The representations and warranties contained in this Section 6 shall expire on the Effective Date or the earlier termination of this Agreement, and thereafter First Merchants and the First Merchants Subsidiaries and all directors and officers of First Merchants and the First Merchants Subsidiaries shall have no further liability with respect thereto.

6.20 Employee Benefit Plans.

(a) The First Merchants Disclosure Letter contains a list identifying each "employee benefit plan," as defined in Section 3(3) of ERISA, which (i) is subject to any provision of ERISA, and (ii) is currently maintained, administered or contributed to by First Merchants or any entity, trade or business that, together with First Merchants, would be treated as a single employer under the provisions of Sections 414(b), (c), (m) or (o) of the Code ("First Merchants ERISA Affiliate"), and covers any employee, director or former employee or director of First Merchants or any First Merchants ERISA Affiliate under which First Merchants or any First Merchants ERISA Affiliate has any liability. The First Merchants Disclosure Letter also contains a list of all "employee benefit plans" as defined under ERISA which have been terminated by First Merchants or any First Merchants ERISA Affiliate since January 1, 2012. Copies of such plans (and, if applicable, related trust agreements or insurance contracts) and all amendments thereto and written interpretations thereof have been furnished to IALB together with the three (3) most recent annual reports (Form 5500) prepared in connection with any such plan and the current summary plan descriptions (and any summary of material modifications thereto). Such plans are hereinafter referred to individually as a "First Merchants Employee Plan" and collectively as the "First Merchants Employee Plans." The First Merchants Employee Plans which individually or collectively would constitute an "employee pension benefit plan" as defined in Section 3(2)(A) of ERISA are identified as such in the list referred to above.

(b) The First Merchants Employee Plans have been operated in material compliance with all applicable laws, regulations, rulings and other requirements, as well as pursuant to the terms of their governing documents (to the extent consistent with ERISA).

(c) Except as set forth in the First Merchants Disclosure letter, to the knowledge of First Merchants' Management, no "prohibited transaction," as defined in Section 406 of ERISA or Section 4975 of the Code, for which no statutory or administrative exemption exists, and no "reportable event," as defined in Section 4043(c) of ERISA, for which a notice is required to be filed, has occurred with respect to any First Merchants Employee Plan that could subject First Merchants to material taxes or penalties. Neither First Merchants nor any First Merchants ERISA Affiliate has any material liability to the PBGC, to the IRS, to the DOL, to the Employee Benefits Security Administration, with respect to any First Merchants Employee Plan, except for routine premium payments to the PBGC.

(d) To the knowledge of First Merchants' Management, no "fiduciary," as defined in Section 3(21) of ERISA, of a First Merchants Employee Plan has failed to comply with the requirements of Section 404 of ERISA in such a way as to cause material liability to First Merchants or any First Merchants ERISA Affiliate.

(e) Each of the First Merchants Employee Plans which is intended to be qualified under Section 401(a) of the Code has been timely amended to comply in all material respects with the applicable requirements of

(f) No First Merchants Employee Plan has incurred an “accumulated funding deficiency,” as determined under Section 412 of the Code and Section 302 of ERISA. First Merchants has at all times met the minimum funding standard, and has made all contributions required, under Section 412 of the Code and Section 302 of ERISA. No facts or circumstances exist that may subject First Merchants, or any First Merchants ERISA Affiliate, to any liability under Sections 4062, 4063 or 4064 of ERISA. Neither First Merchants nor any First Merchants ERISA Affiliate ever has engaged in any transaction within the meaning of Section 4069 of ERISA. Except as disclosed in the First Merchants Disclosure Letter, there exist no facts or circumstances which could subject First Merchants, or any First Merchants ERISA Affiliate thereof, to withdrawal liability within the meaning of Section 4201 of ERISA or to contingent withdrawal liability under Section 4204 of ERISA. Neither First Merchants nor any First Merchants ERISA Affiliate ever has been a party to a transaction within the meaning of Section 4212(c) of ERISA.

(g) No First Merchants Employee Plan subject to Title IV of ERISA has been terminated or incurred a partial termination (either voluntarily or involuntarily), in such a way as to cause material additional liability to First Merchants or any First Merchants ERISA Affiliate.

(h) No claims involving a First Merchants Employee Plan (other than normal benefit claims) have been filed in a court of law or, to the knowledge of First Merchants’ Management, have been threatened to be filed in a court of law.

(i) There is no contract, agreement, plan or arrangement covering any employee, director or former employee or director of First Merchants or any Subsidiary that, individually or collectively, could give rise to the payment of any amount that would not be deductible by reason of Section 280G or Section 162(a)(1) of the Code.

(j) To the knowledge of First Merchants’ Management, no event has occurred that would cause the imposition of the tax described in Section 4980B of the Code on First Merchants or any First Merchants ERISA Affiliate. To the knowledge of First Merchants’ Management, First Merchants has materially complied with all requirements of Section 601 or ERISA, as applicable, with respect to any First Merchants Employee Plan.

(k) The First Merchants Disclosure Letter contains a list of each employment, severance or other similar contract, arrangement or policy and each plan or arrangement (written or oral) providing for insurance coverage (including any self-insured arrangements), workers’ compensation, disability benefits, supplemental unemployment benefits, vacation benefits, retirement benefits or deferred compensation, profit sharing, bonuses, stock options, stock appreciation or other forms of incentive compensation or post-retirement insurance, compensation or benefits which (i) is not a First Merchants Employee Plan, (ii) was entered into, maintained or contributed to, as the case may be, by First Merchants or any First Merchants Subsidiary and (iii) covers any employee, director or former employee or director of First Merchants or any First Merchants Subsidiary. Such contracts, plans and arrangements as are described above, copies or descriptions of all of which have been furnished previously to First Merchants, are hereinafter referred to collectively as the “First Merchants Benefit Arrangements.” Each of the First Merchants Benefit Arrangements has been maintained in compliance in all material respects with its terms and with the requirements prescribed by any and all statutes, orders, rules and regulations which are applicable to such First Merchants Benefit Arrangements.

(l) Except as set forth in the First Merchants Disclosure Letter, neither First Merchants nor any First Merchants ERISA Affiliate has any present or future liability in respect of post-retirement health and medical benefits for former employees or directors of First Merchants or any First Merchants ERISA Affiliate.

(m) Except as set forth in the First Merchants Disclosure Letter, there has been no amendment to, written interpretation or announcement (whether or not written) by First Merchants or any First Merchants ERISA Affiliate relating to, or change in employee participation or coverage under, any First Merchants Employee Plan or Benefit Arrangement administered by First Merchants or any First Merchants ERISA Affiliate which would increase materially the expense of maintaining such First Merchants Employee Plans or First Merchants Benefit Arrangements above the level of the expense incurred in respect thereof for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2015.

(n) Except as otherwise provided in the First Merchants Disclosure Letter, the transactions contemplated by the Agreement will not cause acceleration of vesting in, or payment of, any material benefits under any First Merchants Employee Plan or Benefit Arrangement and will not otherwise materially accelerate or increase any obligation under any First Merchants Employee Plan or Benefit Arrangement.

(o) With respect to any nonqualified deferred compensation plan that is subject to Section 409A of the Code, such plan has been identified on the Disclosure Letter and has been operated in accordance with, and is in documentary compliance with, Section 409A of the Code and the guidance issued thereunder.

7.3 Conduct of Business.

(a) Except as otherwise set forth on the IALB Disclosure Letter, on and after the date of this Agreement and until the Effective Date or until this Agreement shall be terminated as herein provided, neither IALB nor any Subsidiary shall, without the prior written consent (which may include consent via electronic mail) of First Merchants, (i) make any changes in their capital structure, including, but not limited to the redemption of shares of common stock; (ii) authorize an additional class of stock or issue, or authorize the issuance of any capital stock or any options or other instruments convertible into shares of capital stock, except pursuant to the exercise of stock options outstanding as of the date of this Agreement; (iii) declare, distribute or pay any dividends on their common shares, or authorize a stock split, or make any other distribution to their shareholders, except for IALB's quarterly cash dividend in an amount not to exceed $0.22 per share; provided, however, IALB and First Merchants shall coordinate IALB's dividend schedule for the quarter in which Closing occurs so that holder of IALB Common Stock does not receive dividends on both First Merchants and IALB common stock attributable to the same calendar quarter; (iv) merge, combine or consolidate with or, other than in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practice (including the sale, transfer or disposal of other real estate owned), sell their assets or any of their securities to any other person, corporation or entity, effect a share exchange or enter into any other transaction not in the ordinary course of business; (v) incur any new liability or obligation, make any new commitment, payment or disbursement, enter into any new contract, agreement, understanding or arrangement or engage in any new transaction, or acquire or dispose of any property, other than other real estate owned, or asset the fair market value of which exceeds One Hundred Fifty Thousand and 00/100 Dollars ($150,000.00), in the aggregate, except for payments or disbursements made in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practice, the acquisition or disposition of personal or real property in connection with either foreclosures on mortgages or enforcement of security interests, the origination or sale of loans by the Bank in the ordinary course of business and the creation of deposit liabilities and advances from the Federal Home Loan Bank in each case in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practice; (vi) subject any of their properties or assets to a mortgage, lien, claim, charge, option, restriction, security interest or encumbrance, except for such mortgages, liens or other encumbrances incurred in the ordinary course of business consistent with past practice; (vii) promote or increase or decrease the rate of compensation (except for promotions and non-material increases in the ordinary course of business and in accordance with past practices) or enter into any agreement to promote or increase or decrease the rate of compensation of any director, officer or employee of IALB or the Bank; (viii) except as set forth in the IALB Disclosure Letter, as specifically authorized by this Agreement or as required by applicable law, execute, create, institute, modify or amend any pension, retirement, savings, stock purchase, stock bonus, stock ownership, stock option, stock appreciation or depreciation right or profit sharing plans, any employment, deferred compensation, consultant, bonus or collective bargaining agreement, group insurance contract or other incentive, welfare or employee benefit plan or agreement for current or former directors, officers or employees of IALB or any Subsidiary, change the level of benefits or payments under any of the foregoing or increase or decrease any severance or termination pay benefits or any other fringe or employee benefits or pay any bonuses other than as required by law or regulatory authorities; (ix) amend their respective Articles of Incorporation or By-Laws from those in effect on the date of this Agreement; (x) except as set forth in the IALB Disclosure Letter or as specifically authorized by this Agreement, modify, amend or institute new employment policies or practices, or enter into, renew, modify, amend or extend any employment or severance agreements with respect to any present or former directors, officers or employees of IALB or any Subsidiary; (xi) give, dispose, sell, convey, assign, hypothecate, pledge, encumber or otherwise transfer or grant a security interest in any capital stock of any Subsidiary; (xii) fail to make additions to the Bank's reserve for loan losses, or any other reserve account, in the ordinary course of business and in accordance with sound banking practices; (xiii) other than in the ordinary course of business

The prior consent of First Merchants for the items listed above may be withheld, conditioned or delayed in its sole discretion.

(b) IALB and the Subsidiaries shall maintain, or cause to be maintained, in full force and effect insurance on its properties and operations and fidelity coverage on its directors, officers and employees in such amounts and with regard to such liabilities and hazards as customarily are maintained by other companies operating similar businesses.

(c) IALB shall provide and shall cause the Subsidiaries to provide First Merchants and its representatives full access, during normal business hours and on reasonable advance notice to IALB, to further information (to the extent permissible under applicable law) and the Subsidiaries' premises for purposes of (i) observing the Subsidiaries' business activities and operations and to consult with IALB's officers and employees regarding the same on an ongoing basis to verify compliance by IALB with all terms of this Agreement, and (ii) making all necessary preparations for conversion of the Bank's information technology systems, including, but not limited to, installation of a hardware or software device(s) within the Bank's network to perform system penetration testing or assess previous security breaches. First Merchants may hire, at its expense, a mutually-agreeable third party consultant to perform cybersecurity system testing and monitoring (based on a mutually-agreeable project scope) in order to confirm that the Bank's technology systems are free of security breaches and, if necessary, provide remediation and notices related thereto. IALB and First Merchants shall each receive the results of the testing and reasonably coordinate their efforts on any potential remediation and notices. None of the foregoing actions shall unduly interfere with the business operations of IALB or the Subsidiaries nor shall such actions be permitted if such access relates to, (i) pending or threatened litigation or investigations if, in the opinion of counsel to IALB, such access would or might adversely affect the confidential nature of, or any privilege relating to, the matters being discussed, or (ii) matters involving an Acquisition Proposal. No investigation pursuant to this Section 7.3 shall affect or be deemed to modify any representation or warranty made in this Agreement by IALB. First Merchants will use such information as is provided to it by IALB or the Subsidiaries, or representatives thereof, solely for the purpose of conducting business, legal and financial reviews of IALB and the Subsidiaries and for such other purposes as may be related to this Agreement, and First Merchants will, and will direct all of its agents, employees and advisors to, maintain the confidentiality of all such information in accordance with the terms of Section 8.5 below. Neither IALB nor any of the Subsidiaries shall be required to provide access to or to disclose information where such access or disclosure would violate or prejudice the rights of its customers, jeopardize the attorney-client privilege of the entity in possession or control of such information or contravene any law, rule, regulation, order, judgment, decree, fiduciary duty or binding agreement entered into prior to the date of this Agreement. The parties will make appropriate and reasonable substitute disclosure arrangements under circumstances in which the restrictions of the preceding sentence apply.

7.4 Preservation of Business. On and after the date of this Agreement and until the Effective Date or until this Agreement is terminated as herein provided, IALB and the Subsidiaries shall (a) carry on their business diligently, substantially in the same manner as heretofore conducted, and in the ordinary course of business; (b) use commercially reasonable efforts to preserve their business organizations intact, to keep their present officers and employees and to preserve their present relationship with customers and others having business dealings with them; and (c) not do or fail to do anything which will cause a material breach of, or material default in, any contract, agreement, commitment, obligation, understanding, arrangement, lease or license to which they are a party or by which they are or may be subject or bound.

A “Superior Acquisition Proposal” shall mean any Acquisition Proposal containing terms which IALB’s Board of Directors determines in its good faith judgment (based on the advice of an independent financial advisor) to be more favorable to IALB’s shareholders than the Merger and for which financing, to the extent required, is then committed or which, in the good faith judgment of IALB’s Board of Directors, is reasonably capable of being obtained by such third party, but shall exclude any Acquisition Proposal the terms of which were made known to IALB’s Board of Directors prior to the date of this Agreement.

(c) In addition to the obligations of IALB set forth in Section 7.5(a) and (b), IALB shall advise First Merchants orally and in writing as soon as reasonably practicable of any request (whether oral or in writing) for information or of any inquiries, proposals, discussions or indications of interest (whether oral or in writing) with respect to any Acquisition Proposal, the material terms and conditions of such request or Acquisition Proposal and the identity of the person or entity making such request or Acquisition Proposal. IC 23-1-44-8

Right to dissent and obtain payment for shares

Sec. 8.

- (a) A shareholder is entitled to dissent from, and obtain payment of the fair value of the shareholder’s shares in the event of, any of the following corporate actions:
- (1) Consummation of a plan of merger to which the corporation is a party if:
 - (A) shareholder approval is required for the merger by IC 23-1-40-3 or the articles of incorporation; and
 - (B) the shareholder is entitled to vote on the merger.
 - (2) Consummation of a plan of share exchange to which the corporation is a party as the corporation whose shares will be acquired, if the shareholder is entitled to vote on the plan.
 - (3) Consummation of a sale or exchange of all, or substantially all, of the property of the corporation other than in the usual and regular course of business, if the shareholder is entitled to vote on the sale or exchange, including a sale in dissolution, but not including a sale pursuant to court order or a sale for cash pursuant to a plan by which all or substantially all of the net proceeds of the sale will be distributed to the shareholders within one (1) year after the date of sale.
 - (4) The approval of a control share acquisition under IC 23-1-42.

- (b) This section does not apply to the holders of shares of any class or series if, on the date fixed to determine the shareholders entitled to receive notice of and vote at the meeting of shareholders at which the merger, plan of share exchange, or sale or exchange of property is to be acted on, the shares of that class or series were a covered security under Section 18(b)(1)(A) or 18(b)(1)(B) of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended.
- (c) The articles of incorporation as originally filed or any amendment to the articles of incorporation may limit or eliminate the right to dissent and obtain payment for any class or series of preferred shares. - (1) that are outstanding immediately before the effective date of the amendment; or
 - (2) that the corporation is or may be required to issue or sell after the effective date of the amendment under any exchange or other right existing immediately before the effective date of the amendment; does not apply to any corporate action that becomes effective within one (1) year of the effective date of the amendment if the action would otherwise afford the right to dissent and obtain payment.
- (d) A shareholder:
- (1) who is entitled to dissent and obtain payment for the shareholder’s shares under this chapter; or
 - (2) who would be so entitled to dissent and obtain payment but for the provisions of subsection (b); may not challenge the corporate action creating (or that, but for the provisions of subsection (b), would have created) the shareholder’s entitlement.

Board of Directors

Members of the Board:

You have requested our opinion as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, to Independent Alliance Banks, Inc. (“IALB”) and its shareholders, of the Exchange Ratio (as defined below) pursuant to the Agreement and Plan of Reorganization and Merger dated as of February 17, 2017 (the “Agreement”) by and between First Merchants Corporation (“First Merchants”) and IALB. The Agreement provides for the merger of IALB with and into First Merchants, with First Merchants being the surviving company. Capitalized terms used herein without definition shall have the meanings given to such terms in the Agreement.

The financial terms of the Agreement provide that IALB shareholders shall be entitled to receive in exchange for each IALB common share (“IALB Common Stock”), 1.6530 (the “Exchange Ratio”) shares of First Merchants’ common stock.

ProBank Austin as part of its investment banking practice is customarily engaged in advising and valuing financial institutions in connection with mergers and acquisitions and other corporate transactions. In connection with rendering our opinion set forth herein, we have reviewed among other things:

- (i) the Agreement dated as of February 17, 2017;
- (ii) certain publicly available financial statements and other historical financial information of IALB and First Merchants that we deemed relevant;
- (iii) certain non-public internal financial and operating data of IALB and First Merchants that were prepared and provided to us by the respective management of IALB and First Merchants;
- (iv) internal financial projections for IALB for the year ending December 31, 2017 prepared by and reviewed with management of IALB;
- (v) internal financial projections for First Merchants for the year ending December 31, 2017 prepared by and reviewed with management of First Merchants;
- (vi) the pro forma financial impact of the Merger on First Merchants, based on assumptions relating to transaction expenses, acquisition accounting adjustments and cost savings as discussed with representatives of First Merchants;
- (vii) the pro forma financial impact to First Merchants relating to its announced acquisition of Arlington Bank on January 25, 2017 as discussed with representatives of First Merchants;
- (viii) publicly reported historical stock price and trading activity for IALB and First Merchants’ common stock, including an analysis of certain financial and stock information of certain other publicly traded companies deemed comparable to IALB and First Merchants;

- (ix) the financial terms of certain recent business combinations in the commercial banking industry, to the extent publicly available, deemed comparable to the Merger;
- (x) the current market environment generally and the banking environment in particular; and,
- (xi) such other information, financial studies, analyses and investigations and financial, economic and market criteria as we considered relevant.

We also discussed with certain members of senior management of IALB the business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects of IALB, including certain operating, regulatory and other financial matters. We held similar discussions with senior management of First Merchants regarding the business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects of First Merchants.

Management of IALB and First Merchants, respectively, have represented that there has been no material adverse change in their respective company's assets, financial condition, results of operations, business or prospects since the date of the most recent financial statements made available to us. We have assumed in all respects material to our analysis that IALB and First Merchants will remain as going concerns for all periods relevant to our analyses, that all of the representations and warranties contained in the Agreement are true and correct, that each party to the Agreement will perform all of the covenants required to be performed by such party under the Agreement, and that the conditions precedent in the Agreement are not waived. Finally, ProBank Austin expresses no view or opinion as to any of the legal, accounting and tax matters relating to the Merger and any other transactions contemplated by the Agreement or any terms or other aspects of the Agreement, the Merger or any such other transactions.

In our review and analysis, we relied upon and assumed the accuracy and completeness of the information provided to us or publicly available, and have not attempted to verify the same. As part of the due diligence process we made no independent verification as to the status and value of IALB's or First Merchants' assets, including the value of the loan portfolio and allowance for loan and lease losses, and have instead relied upon representations and information concerning the value of assets and the adequacy of reserves of both companies in the aggregate. In addition, we have assumed in the course of obtaining the necessary approvals for the transaction, no condition will be imposed that will have a material adverse effect on the contemplated benefits of the transaction to IALB and its shareholders.

This opinion is based on economic and market conditions and other circumstances existing on, and information made available as of, the date hereof. This opinion is limited to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the Exchange Ratio to the holders of IALB common stock. As part of the engagement, ProBank Austin reserves the right to review any public disclosures describing this fairness opinion or its firm. In addition, IALB agreed to indemnify ProBank Austin against certain liabilities. ProBank Austin expresses no opinion as to the fairness of any consideration paid in connection with the Merger to the holders of any other class of securities, creditors or other constituencies of IALB or as to the underlying decision by IALB to engage in the Merger or enter into the Agreement. ProBank Austin did not express any opinion as to the fairness of the amount or nature of the compensation to be received in the Merger by IALB officers, directors or employees, or class of such persons, relative to the compensation to be received in the Merger by the holders of IALB common stock. This opinion has been approved by the fairness opinion committee of ProBank Austin.
